Long and Short

By TOM RIORDAN

While a lot of people are currently sporting political campaign buttons these days, my pride and joy is one shouting, "I Am a Skywalker."

To earn this badge, a fellow has to take a 50-story express elevator ride to the observation deck of Boston's new Prudential building and then saunter about the glass-enclosed floor.

At one's feet, so to speak, is Bean Town in all its glory, capitol city of the Cultured East, as my dad used to call it.

How beautiful the Charles River looks. Nothing like that current rock-and-roll ditty entitled, "Dirty Water."

Under a shimmering morning sun, the scene from every point of the compass is a delight.

There's Logan International Airport, built on fill-dirt in Boston Harbor, the Old North Church, the Commons, MIT, Fenway Park, the headquarters of the Christian Science Church, row on row of ancient tenement flats, the state house.

After dark — the observation floor is open until midnight — Boston takes on the appearance of Christmas Eve.

This was one highlight of my junket to Bean Town for the National Newspaper Association convention.

ANOTHER WAS a 24-hour visit with some old friends, Gunny and John Lynch and their seven children. The Lynches live in Framingham, a 20-minute drive over the new toll road running west from downtown.

Note I didn't say freeway. Drivers must cough up coins along the way for the privilege of using the route.

The Lynches took me sightseeing Sunday and we popped into the fascinating Wax Museum, just opposite Boston Commons. About 150 figures including John Kennedy and the PT109 rescue, complete with water, a lot of famed Americans, several signers of the Declaration of Independence.

A Chamber of Horrors chills. From it, viewers emerged, shaken and weak, to view the Last Supper.

Gunny and John delivered me to Logan International in time for Flight 471, slated to get airborne at 5:15 p.m. Cherie and our kids were already heading for Metro Airport to meet me at about 7.

Guess, what?

Flight delayed, please return about 7:20, said the harassed fellow on duty. At my suggestion, my hosts headed home and I waited, dawdling over a glass of milk in the coffee shop.

More sad news.

Come back at 8:30," was the greeting Flight 471 folks were getting.

To soften the blow, American Airlines is hosting you for a $3 dinner. "Why not try the airport motel? Very fine meals."

Gets Jury Trial on Thursday Over Zoning Code Violation

By JUDY FIELDER

First jury trial regarding a violation of Tecumseh's zoning laws is slated for next week.

Frank Horton, 747 N. Union St., will answer a complaint made by Lynn Noble, city building inspector, charging him with constructing and partially completing a front porch without a building permit.

Mr. Horton is also charged with building the front porch contrary to legal setbacks in the area.

The trial will be held Thursday, July 28 at 9:30 a.m. at the Tecumseh City Hall with Justice Leon Van Deusen presiding.

MR. HORTON pleaded not guilty at a hearing last Thursday before Justice Van Deusen, who handled the case after local Justice Ernest Oliver disqualified himself for personal reasons.

Mr. Oliver said he felt that he could be biased.

According to Mr. Oliver, the Horton case is the only one of its type to come into his court in over five years.

Mr. Horton started building his addition last August "during my vacation. I tore off the old front porch, which was sagging. A construction man digging near our home said he would dig my foundation that evening. I planned to get a building permit, but we went ahead anyway."

"Later in the week, we were working on the upper part when Lynn Noble came by and told me to get a permit," said Mr. Horton.

"When I went down to City Hall, I was refused a permit because, they said, we were building too far out in front of the house."

The Board of Appeals also turned Mr. Horton's permit down.

THE 8'x20' ADDITION is an 8'x10' enclosed foyer with an 8'x10' porch and planter box with roof overhang. The structure faces the Horton's driveway.

Two closets were planned for the foyer.

"These houses are small and lacking in closet space. We needed the room," said Mrs. Horton.

City Manager Cal Zorn said Mr. Horton was denied the building permit because the addition puts his house out beyond the building line on N. Union St.

Mr. Horton stopped construction and never renewed it.

"The action taken is to make him remove the part already constructed," said Mr. Zorn.

"I haven't done anything since last August," said Mr. Horton. "We're ashamed of the way it looks and I'm sure the neighbors are too, but our hands are tied. We have over $400 in the construction already. The rest is just sitting there."

LAST YEAR, the city was trying to operate with the old ordinances, which have since been thrown out. In September, 1965, the city adopted a complete new zoning ordinance, changing building lines and subdivision regulations.

In the new ordinance, the depth of the front yard shall not be less than the average depth of the front yards of the existing buildings. According to Mr. Zorn, the new ordinances were effective nine months retroactive to the date of adoption.

Mr. Horton said his house, with the new addition, is nearly 50' from the curb and 33' from the inside of the public sidewalk.

He said the house will extend two feet farther than the regulations call for. "You can't look down the street from here and see any difference. A caucus of the neighbors within 300 feet brought no objections," said Mr. Horton.

"We're farther back from the street than many homes in Tecumseh," he added.

ALTHOUGH THE city has been under fire recently for segments of its new ordinance, Mr. Zorn said the city and builders are usually able to work out problems to the satisfaction of both parties.

"Our troubles more often come from personality clashes," he said.

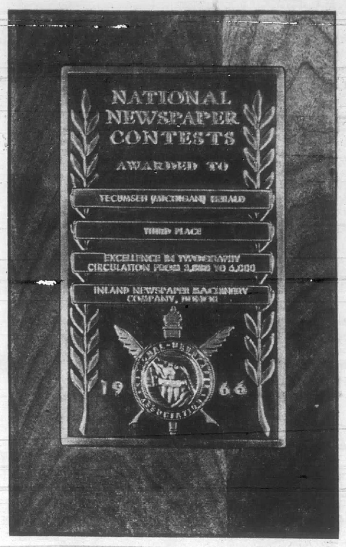
"We're trying to look out for the public, which in recent years has demanded better construction," said Mr. Zorn. "I think we're fortunate to have a registered engineer as a building inspector.

"Council has given us a building code, zoning regulations and our job is to see these ordinances carried out," he said. "These are policies that Council has made."

"There are a lot of other ordinance violations. I'm not the only one," said Mr. Horton.

HERALD PHOTO BY JUDY FIELDER

TOO CLOSE? — Mr. and Mrs. Frank Horton measure the distance between their house and the inside of the public sidewalk—33 feet. Mr. Horton said he feels the house, which sits 50 feet from the curb, is not too close to the street, calling the ordinance restricting his addition "unfair", pointing out other homes in the city with shorter distance between street and curb.



PLAQUE GIVEN FOR NATIONAL HONORS

National Award Goes to Herald

A third place in the typography division of the National Newspaper Contest was awarded The Tecumseh Herald in Boston Saturday night.

Entries in all categories totaled 2,806, coming from papers all over the United States.

The Herald competed in the 3,000-to-6,000 circulation group, being nosed out by The Chapel Hill (N.C.) Weekly and The Pacific Palisades (Calif.) Palisadian-Post.

A plaque was presented to co-publisher Tom Riordan during the annual NNA Awards Banquet at the Statler-Hilton Hotel.

This marks the second major citation during 1966 for The Herald, the other coming in the Michigan contest, an Award of Excellence, marking Tecumseh's paper as No. 1 in the state among weeklies of its circulation class.

Police Get Guidelines for Future

Extensive additions are planned for the city ordinance book.

Council is currently studying the new segments, almost all under the police section.

They would give officers positive guidelines in handling any difficulties with crowds, disorderly persons, firearms, fortune telling, obscene literature, lotteries and gambling.

First reading of the changes was held Monday.

A CHANGE under building inspection fees is also included. Currently a $5 charge is made on any building project up to $1,000 in value, plus $1 for each addition $1,000 in valuation.

This would be altered:

Up to $99	$0
$100 to $399	$2
$400 to $600	$3
$700 to $999	$4
$1,000 to $2,000	$5

(Plus 2 per additional $1,000)

Volunteer Helps Solve Problem of Stray Dogs

The stray dog problem in Tecumseh seems to be under control — thanks to continued efforts of Mrs. Albert Caesar, 234 Park St.

With Council approval, she has been conducting a volunteer service of spotting strays and notifying police.

Instead of shipping them off to the county dog pound, Mrs. Caesar advertises and calls around to locate the owners.

Some sick pets are cared for by Dr. Carlos Knisely, who then charges the city. From March 14, the account has totaled $114 and Council has the bill. When pets are reunited with their owners, they're charged any costs.

'She's doing a terrific job," said Mayor Harold Easton, who noted that $300 is annually provided by the city budget for such expenses. The money comes in city dog license fees.

"We'll always have a dog problem, but I think we have cleared up the matter of stray and sick dogs that have been roaming the streets for a long time," the mayor added.

Mrs. Gail Fisher Resigns Position on Plan Group

After 12 years, Mrs. Gail Fisher has resigned as secretary of the City Planning Commission.

Poor health prompted her to submit her resignation to Council Monday.

City fathers accepted it with regret and instructed clerk Mrs. Naomi Sallows to send Mrs. Fisher a letter of appreciation.

Mrs. Fisher's contributions and loyal service to the Planning Commission are legendary.

The Rev. Paul Brantingham was named acting secretary.

Cable TV Franchise Is Asked

Cable television is being checked by City Councilmen from two directions:

- A proposed ordinance to control CATV operations.
- Request from Tahquamenon Cable Vision, Inc. to get a franchise in Tecumseh.

The same firm has also applied for permission to operate in Adrian. It is being represented in Lenawee County by attorney Harvey Koselka, who also is prosecutor.

Tahquamenon would like to be able to sell its services in Lenawee County, consisting of special telephone hookups to a micro wave tower, planned for the area.

Opposition is expected from television repair and sales shop.

Council members also have the proposed ordinance, which if passed, would put strong clamps on operation of CATV by any firm.

Euchre Party

The Tecumseh Grange Euchre Party will be held Friday, July 22 at 8 p.m. Refreshments will be prepared by the committee.

Politicians Gathering

Fifteen national, state and county primary candidates will be in Tecumseh Thursday evening for an old fashioned political rally.

Being sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, the session will start with a parade at 7:30 p.m.

The event climaxes at 8 p.m. in the Community Center with an informal program, refreshments and chats with the guests.

After each candidate speaks briefly, the Democratic and Republican politicians will go to specified places in the building and be available to answer voter questions.

"We'd like area citizens to get to know the men who will be on the Aug. 2 primary ballot," explains Carl Lamb, chairman of the event.

Music for the parade will come from two sources — the "Contempts" teen-age combo, plus a small band being brought by Congressman Wes Vivian.

Decorated convertibles will show off the candidates as they parade from city hall on Chicago Blvd. to the downtown area, then north on Evans St. to Brown St., west to Union St., back to the boulevard and west to Harvey's Grill.

The line of march turns back east and the festivities will then head to the Community Center, which ladies of the two political parties will have decorated with banners and bunting.

Donuts, coffee, cake and iced tea will be served.

"Everyone is welcome, including decorated cars for the parade. These should be at city hall by 7:25," adds Mr. Lamb.

Golf Pros Clash at MSU Picnic

An exhibition golf match has been added to the annual stag corn and steak roast for Michigan State University Alumni of Lenawee County at Tecumseh Country Club.

Set for Tuesday, the event which attracts over 120, runs much of the afternoon and evening.

Two local golf professionals, Mike Hill of Tecumseh and Don White of Lenawee Country Club, will face an MSU duo, Bruce Fossum, Spartan golf coach, and Jack Brozman, pro at MSU's Forest Akers course.

The match begins at 1 p.m., followed with a shot demonstration at 5:30 p.m. Alumni and their guests will be able to play any time between 9 a.m. and steak roast time at dusk.

A VARIETY of MSU dignataries are coming, including:

- Biggie Munn, athletic director
- Jack Breslin, secretary of the university
- Jack Kenny and Jack Carter of the alumni office
- Bill "Beaver" Beardsley, ticket manager
- John Bennington, basketball coach
- Vince Carrilott, basketball ball coach
- Dave Kaiser, Ralph Young Fund

There will be prizes for feats on the golf course, plus a raft of drawing goodies, including four tickets to the MSU-Michigan football game.

Last year's steak roast realized $155 for the Lenawee County Alumni Fund. This summer's proceeds will be added, states general chairman Charlie Butler.

There's a Burma-Shave series along the road between Marion and Toledo in Ohio, reports Mrs. Earl Scott — and in good repair. According to information appearing in the Long & Short, garnered from the book "Verse by the Side of the Road," all sets were gathered up in 1963. Many were destroyed, but some have been picked up by collectors and are proving valuable. Could a set in Ohio have been missed? Or could Mrs. Scott have seen a mirage?

James Dickey spent last weekend with Allan Seager. Mr. Dickey is Poetry Consultant for the Library of Congress and his last book, "Buckdancer's Choice" won the National Book Award for poetry. He is also the subject of a biographical article in LIFE magazine this week.

Red Glow in the Sky

A red glow filled the night sky on the west side of Tecumseh when a fire completely destroyed a barn at the Robert Fuller residence, 707 W. Chicago Blvd.

Firemen answered the alarm at 12:50 a.m., July 13, and remained at the site for nearly seven hours.

Although they were unable to save the 80- by 90-foot barn, which was engulfed in flames when they arrived, they saved a nearby building.

"Debris flew all over, but thankfully we had recent rain," said one fireman. "If it had been real dry, it would have been dangerous to the area."

Estimate of the loss is undetermined, but firemen said the barn contained one or two wagons, two cultivators, straw and hay.

The cause of the fire is still under investigation.

STRAWBERRY SPECIAL — This season has sprouted some delicious strawberries, but none were quite as large as this beaut grown by Mrs. Burt Moore of Britton. Mrs. Moore has a small family strawberry patch and she discovered this specimen on the first picking. What are they going to do with the berry? Well, it's almost big enough for a strawberry shortcake.

Long & Short

Teaming up with two fellow passengers, Fr. Robert M. Wesson and Fr. Paul Kamide, youthful Augustinian priests who teach at Merrimack College in N. Andover, Mass., we took seats at the restaurant.

Service was awfully slow, but we had more than an hour and this seemed ample time for the chef to prepare steaks.

BUT APPARENTLY it wasn't. The next thing we knew our flight was being paged and we rush back, just in time to load up.

Then we sat.

First there was a 30-minute wait for three missing passengers, two of whom never did turn up. Next, the pilot discovered a faulty electric gadget and this was good for another hour.

Whenever our stewardesses, Ann Morganto and Connie Leighliter of New York, walked by, I wondered if I might have a cup of coffee.

They'd smile so charmingly and reply, "Just as soon as we're off the ground."

It was after about the sixth refusal I recalled that in packing I'd placed a sack of hard candy and a packge of Pepperidge Farms cookies in my camera case, now resting at my feet.

Tearing it open like a person who hadn't seen food in about 10 hours — that was me — I busted out the cookies and shared them with my seat mates, all as starved as me.

Ann wandered up and I quickly offered her some candy and when she took a Mary Jane, this seemed a perfect time to ask again for coffee. But she had her orders.

Promptly at 9:40 Eastern Daylight Saving Time, we were off and jetting. Picking up an hour on the clock, we touched down at 10:38 on the Metro runway.

But even so, my story can't match one publisher who came to Boston from the State of Washington — via two train jumps into Chicago, Air France to Montreal and then Northeast to Bean Town.

IF CHERIE were doing this, she'd spin quite a yarn on how easy it is keeping two teenagers quiet and happy while waiting nearly five hours in an airport lobby.

The $1 between the Riordan reception committee went for a copy of Mad magazine, two Mound candy bars and a box of Smith Bros. cherry cough drops — all of which left mother out in the cold.

Even with the kookie ending, the trip was great.

Linda Perry Is Honored with Shower

Mrs. David Rogers and sister, Wanda Papsdorf of Ann Arbor entertained July 15 at a bridal shower for Linda Perry of Onsted at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Papsdorf on Arkona Rd.

Miss Perry will wed David Papsdorf.

Water St. Being Moved to North, Sewer Installed

Tiny Water St., which runs behind the A&P from N. Evans St. to Herrick Park Dr., is going to be altered slightly at its western end.

In order to allow construction of the new branch of United Savings Bank, city fathers OKed moving Water St. north about 30 feet.

There was no objection to the plan at Monday's public hearing — only a request from Thomas Hamilton, who lives at the corner of Water and Herrick Park, to sprinkle some oil on dusty Water St.

Mayor Harold Easton asked city manager Cal Zorn to check the problem.

In addition, a 250' storm sewer from the bank property to the outlet at the river, will be constructed by the city at an estimated cost of $1,500.

D. The couple plan an August wedding. Diane is a teacher in Anaheim, Calif. Mr. Anderson is an engineer in Newport Beach, Calif.

Test Paper Bags

A study of paper refuge containers for city residents begins Thursday.

Dependable Garbage customers along Seminole St. will use the 30-gallon sacks, which are held in place by special brackets.

Conventional containers run 20 gallons in capacity.

A one-man test has already been conducted by mayor Harold Easton, who informed Council Monday that he was impressed with the paper containers. He tossed a bunch of used oil cans into one, then noted it buffeted by last week's rain and still maintain its strength.

ST. REGIS Paper Co. is particularly interested in the Tecumseh test — and hopes to supply city residents with containers.

A representative said the firm is looking for an entire city using paper containers and is willing to provide free wall brackets (retail value $6.50) to each customer, if the city signs a three-year contract with St. Regis.

Price of the individual bags was not discussed.

Esch States Political Stands

TO THE EDITORS:

I have received a number of letters from persons in Tecumseh asking me my positions on a number of important issues. As I have not run for office in Lenawee County before and have not been able to meet as many people from Tecumseh as I would have liked, I would like to take this opportunity to become better acquainted.

During the past two years I have served in the House of Representatives as the only Republican chairman of a committee, the House College and Universities Subcommittee.

I have worked closely with Governor George Romney on his House Program Committee, responsible for getting the Governor's programs through the House.

I have worked closely with the Governor on improved driver education and improved motor vehicle inspection. I am now working toward the creation of the Interstate Council on Highway and Traffic Safety, which would coordinate the efforts of the federal government, states and the automotive industry.

Through my efforts with the Michigan Highway Department and the executive office, 25 highway "death strips" have been singled out for immediate examination and improvement. I hope soon to extend this list to cover all the trouble spots in Lenawee County.

In agriculture, I have sponsored bills to free farmers from paying the farm personal property tax and for workman's compensation. I am opposed to the Johnson Farm Policy and have recommended major alterations.

One of my suggestions is that land be taken out of the Soil Bank and the resulting surplus crops be purchased with Soil Bank funds to be distributed to the needy overseas. This would assure farmers a healthy economic base and aid under-developed nations.

As to education, I hold advanced degrees in education, and have worked with the House Education Committees, expanding the university system in this state, and working toward freeing local communities from carrying such a heavy burden of educational taxation.

I have proposed a state-national vocational education system to provide specialized skills training to high school graduates not intending to go on to universities, to help them meet the technological changes of our day.

It is regretable that we put billions into our educational system and still do not meet the needs of that 60% of our youngsters who are not college-bound.

I believe Republicanism must be bold and energetic. It must meet the changing problems of the day with new and effective answers.

It must be young in outlook, yet mature in its understanding of those forces which have made this nation great.

Respectfully yours,

What To Do With Old Flags

TO THE EDITORS:

Some people have asked and wondered what to do with old American flags. I have received information on this. Some have asked if they are doing right by sponsoring public burning of "old" United States flags to make room for the new flags.

The answer is 'Don't—Ha'it." The Department of Defense has ruled definitely against such public displays. The Federal Flag Code, also flag authorities and the VFW say that worn out flags should be destroyed in "private" and preferably by burning.

Public destruction of the Stars and Stripes can be easily misinterpreted by some as disrespect.

Furthermore, why destroy 48-star and 49-star flags anyway? They are as good as the 50-star flag and should be displayed proudly until they are faded, worn and tattered.

Has Some Player Names

TO THE EDITORS:

We enjoy The Herald and look forward to Thursdays when our paper usually arrives.

I would like to try to identify some of the baseball players pictured last week. First row — Earl Pennington (my dad). He and mother moved to their new home near Hessel in April. The next two I don't know.

Then "Rip" Van Winkle, Sam Sisson and "Duke" Crittenden.

Back row — Lee Randall, coach unknown to me (Mr. McNeil?) and Bert Ousterhout. Is the year 1922?

Dad, mother and all five of us graduated from THS. The folks send all of us The Herald as wedding anniversary gifts, enjoy them all year long.

We enjoy Marda Gene's "Through My Window."

Sincerely,
(Mrs. Mae) Marian Tennant

Bike Rider Finds Sights

TO THE EDITORS:

Yesterday being a day of leisure I jumped on my son's bike and rode around town. Would you believe there are places in this town lions and tigers probably would get lost in the tall grass?

I thought there was a city ordinance to the effect, cut your weeds or we cut and you pay. I will admit I swerved to miss some chuckholes in the street and almost lost my motorcycle.

I was told last week the school was willing to go 50% on fixing up the backstops on the recreation field. The man was told we didn't need overhangs on them.

One thing about it, if the lady who runs the Roasted Chicken house kept every baseball that went on her property, and could figure out a way to sell broasted baseballs, she could make a fortune in no time flat.

It's Chilly in Chile

Editor's Note: — Diane Spycher with the Michigan Chorale in South America writes that they have really been given the red carpet treatment since being in the Southland. Diane called her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilheim Spycher, Kemp Rd., Sunday evening to wish them both, happy birthday anniversaries. Miss Spycher said that the Chorale has been appearing on radio and television stations as well in schools. Her parents share excerpts from her letters with Herald readers.

CONCEPCION, Chile — I left Metropolitan Airport June 28. We were on the plane for 40 hours before we reached Santiago, Chile. We were all tired, but glad to be here.

My first host family was nice to me, they have four children and are moderately wealthy. Everyone here is so warm and friendly, they make you feel like you don't want to ever leave.

When we left Santiago we went to Valdia, Chile by train. We were on the train for 22 hours, so you can see transportation here is a bit slower than home.

The mountains here are simply beautiful, the weather is real cold and we are having winter here while you have summer at home.

Our first concert was at a military school for boys.

We visited the city that was completely demolished by the earthquake in 1960. It is very sad to see, every building has big cracks in the walls, they have done a lot of restoring, but have a long way to go.

We gave another concert for school children. My host families are all nice and so good to all of us. They feed us so well.

Now we are in Concepcion, Chile, and it is raining again and cold. It has rained a lot here and is so grey so that we cannot always see the beautiful mountains. We gave another concert in Concepcion to some more school children.

When we returned to Santiago and my original host family we went sightseeing up in the mountains. We went up to the Sewell copper mines and there was snow there and we all had a snowball fight.

We had another concert in a church today. This is all for now, soon we will be on our way again, next stop is Montevideo, Uraguay.

MRS. KATHERINE STEINBRENNER, federation president of Des Moines, Iowa, pointed out that the Tecumseh club is one of the most active in 14 States, with a program that stresses education and public service.

The individual members are especially interested in teaching mineral identification to children and assisting Earth Science teachers.

Members of the club have provided programs for 4-H groups, library displays in schools and several public libraries.

They have given minerals to many schools and have provided an outlet of hospitality to Senior Citizens.

Michigan State Vice President for the Midwest, Russell Greer of Muskegon, said the Tecumseh Club scored the highest of any other club with 27 activities of a service nature done solely by individual enthusiasm.

The Awards Honor was presented by June Zeitner, Mission, South Dakota, awards chairman for the Midwest Federation.

The Club members hope that anyone of the schools or organizations in the County and especially in Tecumseh area will call upon them for any service that they need in identification, programs, or displays during the next year.

City To Grade Roller Coaster Parking Area

Before a tiny foreign car disappears in the giant sink holes, a city grader will repair the parking area behind Lamb's drug store.

This is city-owned land, which eventually will be hard-topped, lined and lighted — metered, too.

For the present, it's a roller coaster.

Mayor Harold Easton asked Cal Zorn, city manager, to smooth out the surface and Mr. Zorn said it's possible some hard-topping could be done before fall.

Obstruction May Have Been in for Long Time

"I don't see that it's a very serious thing," said Don Mitchell Lenawee County Drain Commissioner when queried as to the obstruction that has been placed in the drain connecting Iron Lake and Sand Lake.

"It appears to have been there some time and the water level seems to be about the same on either side of the culvert. It might affect the water level for a short time in the early spring," continued Mr. Mitchell.

He said that he would check the levels with instruments, but felt that the situation had been somewhat exaggerated.

Wayne Hizer who owns Premier Industries with his brother, Harold, in Monroe, has said that the Sand Lake Association is trying to do everything possible to raise and maintain the level of their lake.

They have gone to considerable expense for a well and the Children's Summer Camp has donated $3,000 and a permanent lease and easement to the property where the well is located.

Mr. Hizer commented on the effort of Karl Schneider, retired president, of the Association who worked hard on the project as well as other officers of the group.

Leland E. Moree, Jr. of Toledo has replaced Mr. Schneider, Al Newcomb is the vice-president, Joseph Marr of Sand Lake is secretary and Mr. Hizer is the treasurer.

Police Seek Affiliation with Union

Policemen of Tecumseh have taken the first step in becoming unionized.

They've asked for affiliation with Metropolitan Council No. 23 the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees.

Council was notified of the move via a letter from William J. Charron, resident and director of the union.

"As a matter of formality," he wrote, "An election petition has been filed with the State Labor Mediation Board."

He said the petition would be withdrawn "upon your granting recognition" of Council No. 23 "for the purpose of collective bargaining with respect to wage, hours and all other conditions of employment."

Councilmen acknowledged receipt of the letter only and indicated they would await results of the election.

Tavern Auction Relives the Era of Murder, Theft

Exciting tales of saloon brawls, murder, a stagecoach mail robbery were relived when the contents of the Brick Walker Tavern at Cambridge Junction were auctioned off last week.

The Schmidt Brothers, Ypsilanti antique dealers, auctioned the contents that were around when a stranger was murdered in his sleep and then suddenly disappeared, leaving no traces except a pool of blood.

The bugle that announced the coming stage, from which mail was repeatedly stolen by a tavern employee who later died in jail from swallowing glass, was auctioned off as were shillelaghs used by the fighting Irish to club their assailants.

The land where the tavern stands has been purchased by the State and $100.000 has been allotted for the development of a park.

TRAMPOLINIST SUE BROWN IS PREPARED TO TEACH ALL COMERS. PICTURE AND STORY BY DENICE ANDERSON.

CHAMP TEACHES IN IRISH HILLS

Art of Trampoling

A young trampolinist — who once turned down a chance to tour the world with a famous group of gymnists — is now at the Glocca Morra offering lessons to anyone four and over.

Sue Brown, a senior at Eastern Michigan University, majoring in art, has been interested in the trampoline since she was 12 and has been giving lessons for six years.

When Sue, who is to be married in January, was entering competeive contests, she practiced three hours a night.

Sue has won the State Championship in both 1961-62 and she was runner-up in the nationals in 1963. Also in 1963, she was in the senior women's division of the Junior Olympics.

Sue's advice to young trampolinists, those seriously studying the art and those just out for a night of fun, is not to try difficult things such as flips.

"There is too big a risk," she said. "A person can't control his body in the air without lead-up tricks."

Don't show off. Stick to the simple, basic jumps, she continued.

Working out on the trampoline helps develop muscles, is good for the health and builds co-ordination, Sue said.

If you have a weight problem, the trampoline will help solve it.

The trampoline not only takes off pounds if you are heavy, said Sue, but it will fill you out if you are skinny.

One of the most amazing things about the trampoline is that it is prescribed by many eye specialists as a corrective sport!

"Your eyes do most of the work," Sue said. "It will build your perception."

The trampoline provides the basis for diving, tumbling and gymnastics. It also builds up stamina, Sue concluded.

Sue, who lives in Ann Arbor, will offer group lessons at $1.95 per person per hour.

Private lessons will be $3 an hour.

Anyone interested can set up the hours and receive more information by calling or seeing Sue anytime after four at Glocca Morra, right across from Evans Lake.

Sue hopes to teach art in either high school or college after her graduation.

She has had trampoline coaching from Don Botsford, coach at the Ann Arbor Gymkanha, Newet Loken, gym coach at the University of Michigan and she has been helped by Eddie Cole, national men's champion.

Anyone interested in an evening of fun should visit the Glocca Morra and try the trampolines.

If a group plans to use the trampolines, the first person pays 95c and the each additional person pays 25c.

Otherwise, it costs 95c per hour per person.

Ex-Tavern Owner Has Had Exciting Adventurous Life

Frederick Hewitt, former owner of the Brick Walker Tavern in Cambridge Junction, has had many exciting experiences spread over his 89 years of life.

He began his journey to Canada from England with a Bible, 15 guineas (roughly equivalent to about $50) and a pint of whisky at the age of 15.

From this start, Rev. Hewitt became famous not only for his preaching but also for his antiques. He purchased the tavern in 1921 where he served meals, sold antiques and charged admission to the place as a museum.

Rev. Hewitt did historical research to make sure that all tales about the antiquity and romance of the old tavern were authentic.

Rev. Hewitt is considering joining his son when he and his family move to Maine.

Saving Lives

Because the toll of drownings was almost 300 last year in Michigan, the Michigan Heart Association is again offering free classes in Closed Chest Cardiac Resuscitation to councilers, lifeguards and attendants at all the 940 licensed summer camps in the state.

In a letter to camp directors, Dr. Ross V. Taylor, Jackson internist, president of the Association, said CCCR is an "approved and tested emergency method of resuscitation . . . . recommended by the medical profession.

It combines mouth to mouth breathing with artificial circulation," accomplished by a series of pressures on the chest, sharp enough to squeeze the heart between the chest wall and the backbone.

The technique is recommended in "drowning, electrocution and other heart stoppage due to a heart attack or overdose of drugs," wrote Dr. Taylor.

"Successful rescues are usually accomplished by the first person on the scene," he explained, "because speed in starting CCCR is all-important."

The brain can suffer deadly damage if it is deprived of oxygenated blood for longer than four minutes.

The technique can defer brain damage until the heart can restart or be restarted at the nearest hospital.

The Michigan Heart Association, a Michigan United Fund Agency, has a team of 180 physicians and 20 non-physicians, volunteers trained to teach CCCR.

More than 50,000 persons have attended Association classes during the past three years. Last year, 70 camps participated in a special program.

A class takes about two hours and includes a film, lectures and practice on a manikin designed to indicate when CCCR is improperly applied.

"It is essential that CCCR be done properly; improperly applied, it is worse than useless," Dr. Taylor said. "This is why the actual practice is so valuable."

For more information about the classes, call or write the Association's director of professional education, Ralph Lewis, at 242-2100, or 13100 Puritan, Detroit.

News from the Tecumseh Library

New books ready for you to borrow at your Public Library:

INSTANT READING, the story of the initial teaching alphabet, by Maurice Harrison. The success of the large scale experiment with the use of this alphabet system carried out by the University of London and elsewhere in Great Britain was so remarkable that people from all parts of the world wrote for information about it and thousands visited the schools to see the children at work. This book attempts to deal with the subject comprehensively.

THE UNCLEAN SKY, a meteorologist looks at air pollution, by Louis J. Battan. Polluted air gives increasingly serious concern to city planners, doctors, and others involved in the health and well-being of large groups of people, and is a source of annoyance, discomfort, and expense to urban residents. In this book, a prominent meteorologist describes what causes pollution and examines some possible paths to improvement.

WEATHER ON THE PLANETS by George Ohring. An unmanned rocket named Mariner IV, rising from a firing pad at Cape Kennedy on Nov. 29, 1964, was a 20th century expression of man's age-old fascination with the planets. For the meteorologist, a study of the planets' atmospheres is more than just an expression of curiosity. It is an important means of acquiring greater understanding and control of the earth's own atmosphere.

A FAMILY ON WHEELS, further adventures of the famous Trapp Family Singers, by Maria Augusta Trapp.

A WOMAN OF THE PEOPLE by Benjamin Capps. This is the story of a girl who at the age of nine is captured and held by one of the most primitive and fierce of Indians tribes, the Comanches. Old enough to hate her captors and to believe she knows what it is to be a white person, she pathetically resolves to master their language and ways so that she can eventually escape. Through the medium of the captive girl, we see the Comanches in the last days of their glory. We see their civilization implicitly judged and we see some of the reality behind the abstraction "the brotherhood of man".

Board Asks 'No Wake' Speed Limit

TIPTON — A hearing on an ordinance placing water traffic controls on Round Lake has been scheduled for Aug. 2 by the Franklin Township Board.

The ordinance was approved by the board at its July 5 meeting, calling for enforcement of a "No Wake" speed and no water skiing on the 40-acre lake.

Round Lake is connected to Wamplers Lake by a channel next to Walter J. Hayes State Park.

The board authorized James Beardsley, township attorney, to proceed with necessary action on four properties within the village to remove existing health hazards, three caused by the Palm Sunday tornado, the fourth long-standing.

Beardsley will also take action on a complaint made by Cleason Davenport and Richard Eisenminger about a junk yard operating within the village.

St. Joseph Shrine Constructs Tent To Seat Guests

Because of an overflow of summer worshipers and a shortage of priests, the members of St. Joseph's Shrine erected a tent to accommodate summer visitors.

The Shrine, under the direction of Father James FitzGerald, has a mixture of both old and new: a century-old graveyard, a new metal stairway to the lake, a cobblestone path representing the streets of Jerusalem at the time of Christ and a new church addition.

The Shrine dates back to 1667 when the first Catholic priest entered the area from Wisconsin to minister to the Indians.

The masses, at 6 a.m. and 1 p.m., are being held in the church which seats 300. Other masses are being held in the tent that seats over 900.

Plans are in progress for financing an addition to be constructed before next summer.

Safari Hunts Monsters at Prehistoric Forest

By DOROTHY GRIGG

"Take careful aim and fire at will," called the guide as the safari train left with passengers, adults and youngsters, for the Prehistoric Forest.

Automatic weapons are distributed among the younger passengers for the "protection" of the train as it passes through the time tunnel into the jungle to an era millions of years ago. Huge dinosaurs rear their heads and emit guttural sounds.

An immense serpent moves his ponderous head from side to side flicking his tongue and another beast clumsily protects a nest of 11 to 14 eggs as the train passes close by.

Grunts and growls of the animal life come from the forest before the train reaches the shelter from whence a guide conducts a tour of the exhibits of huge dinosaurs.

A Neanderthal man from the ice age, 600,000 years ago, the first to show signs of intelligence, starts the demonstrations. A recorded voice tells about the discovery of the Neanderthal man in Germany.

James Sidewell, artist sculptor, in cooperation with the Smithsonian Institute and five talented people fashioned the huge figures displayed in the thrilling Forest.

Their durable plastic hides are as close to the original texture as man is capable of imagining.

The setting, too, is so natural that the visitor finds it difficult to believe that the animals are only reproductions of the ones that roamed the earth millions of years ago.

Included in the collection is a huge prehistoric bird called diatryma that sometimes reached a weight of 800 pounds. It lives in the cretaceous period as do so... the other replicas.

The triceratops was the last of the dinosaurs ... extinct. Resembling a rhinoceros, it weighed some... tons and could travel about 20 miles an hour.

The most destructive king of the forest was ... nosaurus rex. He, too, is on display at the outdoo... in the Irish Hills, just west of the entrance to H... Park.

The exhibits were made in a plant in Mur... Tenn., owned by Tourists Attractions, Inc., which ... ates Mystery Hill directly across from the entra... State Park on US-12 as well as other theme park... Tennessee and Florida. One at Port Clinton, Ohio, ... aged considerably in recent rains.

J. W. Pettit and L. C. Rogers of Adrian are t... of the company.

Guides at the Forest are Rick Durkee of Tecu... Rumsey, Steve Osterhout, George Bowers and Ran... er of Onsted, Steve Nystrom and Bill Westfall, A... Dick Duvendack of Toledo.

As the group completes the tour of the dem... a safari train arrives to take them back through th... the Mammoth Gift Shop.

Appropriately named and alluding to the gia... standing nearby, the shop has the largest, most co... of souvenirs in Michigan.

A swing into the world of 100 million years ... only 20 minutes but visitors may stay as long as ... roaming about among the wonders of that era.

Gravity Goes Crazy at The Mystery Hill

By MARVIN GRIGG

Here the law of gravity seems to have gone beserk and one's sense of balance is entirely upset. Nature's great force of gravity combined with the wonders of science creates a natural phenomenon that is almost unbelievable.

Legend has it that the leprechauns tilted the earth and joined the hills together to make this topsy-turvy area in the Irish Hills.

Shrieks of amazement are heard from the Mystery Hill building as the guide places a chair against the wall not touching the floor and then proceeds to sit there with the front legs of the chair in mid-air.

The strange lopsided feeling is a reality as demonstration after demonstration is presented to the visitors of the powerful gravitation pull.

"It is like leaning backwards into a cloud," said one young couple after they got the hang of things at the Mystery Hill. Others have called unusual feeling they received a "cheap drunk".

The principles demonstrated here are studied and applied to the psychology departments of many leading universities. Many theories have been offered such as earthquakes, magnetized mineral deposits, fallen meteorites and many others.

You are invited to the Mystery Hill to experience these natural sensations and offer your own theories. Tours are conducted by courteous guides and last about 15 minutes.

Bill Pettit and Bud Rogers, owners, urge visitors to bring their cameras because there are many interesting pictures to be taken.

The guides at the Mystery Hill this 1966 season are Merton Boss, Mike Simpson and Roger Hoag of Tecumseh, Tony Nichols, Mike Wallace and Pete Roumell of Onsted and Don Rimer and David Hansen of Brooklyn.

Further entertainment is found in the Moonshine Valley located next to the Mystery Hill with its admission free after the exciting tour of the Mystery Hill.

It is a "Hillbilly Village" with rabbits, a still and many other things to see which will amuse the whole family.

Little Garden Club Flower Workshop Is Attended by 60

John Kukini Pribble conducted the workshop in flower arrangement sponsored by the Little Garden Club Tuesday evening in the Community Center.

He suggested to the 60 women attending that they use heirloom pieces or unusual goblets, any container which fits the decor of the home and is adaptable to the flowers used.

The program comprised the use of flowers in the home for family pleasure and artistic beauty.

Each person present created an arrangement using identical containers, greens and five flowers which were appraised by the instructor.

He also appraised the arrangements brought by the members which they had made from flowers in their gardens.

Mr. Pribble made several arrangements by request and answered many questions.

MEL BAUGH FAMILY AND THEIR VACATION BUS

Bus Takes Clan on Trip

By DENICE ANDERSON

"How else could I transport eight kids across the country?" came the logical reply when asked why he undertook the task of transforming a school bus into a camper.

Mel baugh, along with his wife, Suzie, and their eight children, Jo Ann, 14; Jay, 12; Theresa, 11; Maria, 9; Mark, 8; Veronica, 6; Kelly, 4; and Lynn, 1, recently returned from a tour of the western states, a trip that "never would have been made" without the ex-Blissfield school bus.

The Baughs, of 5435 Billmyer Hwy., were well-satisfied with the bus that took Mr. Baugh seven weekends to make into a camper.

It was the "price of a good used car" and "as good as a T-bird for gas," said Mr. Baugh.

The campers were met with open-mouths wherever they went.

The screened-in camper was complete with bunks, a sink, frigerator, electric lights, chemical toilet, running water and a stove.

It had to pass a state physical vehicle inspection before they could make their trip and it is outfitted with safety features that are also required in trucks.

All work on the camper was done by Mr. Baugh with scrap materials.

The sink, stove, water and room heaters and other such essentials can be obtained at any mobile home dealer, Mr. Baugh said.

The Baughs first trip was a trial trip to find out what else was needed. They are now making plans to install more cupboards.

Mrs. Baugh found that fitted sheets work much better on the bunks.

They were also pleased to note that the children could go to bed whenever they were tired, with the sleeping area at the back of the camper.

The Baughs, who are planning a trip to the Upper Peninsula next month, found that it is best to have the trip well planned in advance.

If you are planning a trip to the southwest, "don't expect to buy gas for the same price as here," warned Mr. Baugh.

He paid as much as 44c per gallon in Arizona.

Meanwhile, across town at the George Downard residence, 6919 Green Hwy., a similar project is taking place.

Mr. Downard, his wife, Betty, and their four children, are in the beginning stages of transforming their own Tecumseh school bus into a camper.

Mrs. Downard, who drives a school bus for the Tecumseh school system, said that this has always been her husband's ambition.

They hope to have their camper finished in time to go up North in August. Mr. Downard will also use it for deer hunting.

The main advantage to a school bus over a trailer, the Downards feel, is that you can "go where you want" without having to return to the same place every night, as you would with a trailer.

Marda Gene Duncan's

Through My Window

CATBIRDS AND THEIR KIN

One of our favorite summer time residents has not been around much and I must admit that I am almost glad. Glad not to see a favorite bird? That deserves a little explaining, Marda.

The bird, conspicuous by his absence, is the catbird. These are marvelous birds and their return in the springtime is always a cause for rejoicing. First of all, they are handsome characters — about 9 inches long, dark gray in color and just as trim and sleek as can be. A black cap, a russet patch on the underside of the tail, bright and shiny black eyes and oh, so very, very neat. I don't believe that I have ever seen a catbird with even so much as on tiny feather out of place.

But their attractiveness and their appetite for insects are not the only reasons we welcome these gray birds. They are also great fun to hear. Being first cousins, twice removed, of the mocking birds, the catbirds do a fairly good job of mimicking; in fact, they do an excellent job. They whistle, trill, chirp, cheep, warble and scream; there is never a dull moment with a pair of catbirds in the yard. They can also imitate a cat — it is a horrible noise, but funny, too, in that it sounds just like an angry meowing.

AND SPEAKING of cats, this brings us to the reason we are almost glad the catbirds aren't as plentiful as usual. These birds like shrubbery, they eat berries, they sing from sheltered perches and they build their nests in dense clumps. Well, we have bushes that the birds would love — and unfortunately we also have neighborhood cats! They spend hours lurking beneath the shrubbery. Need we say more?

But let's get on to a happier thought. We had a nice experience with our catbird's relatives while we were on vacation. It happened in Claremore, Okla., at the Will Rogers Memorial. Because it was a hot day, we had chosen a parking spot which was in the shade of a lovely big tree. The folks took a brief tour of the memorial and thoroughly enjoyed it, but because there were far too many steps for my wheelchair to bounce up and down, I stayed in the car. As it turned out, I had the best of the bargain.

THE GROUNDS were beautiful, and, of course, manicured almost to the point of perfection. I was having a fine time admiring the landscaping and watching people when suddenly I became conscious of a bird noise. The whistle of a cardinal, the scream of a bluejay, the call of a meadowlark, the chirp of a robin, etc. Good heavens, I thought, what was happening?

It didn't take long to find out. In a thick clump of evergreen spreaders about 20 feet from the front of the car, there apparently was a mockingbird's nest. The two birds were having quite a time — snatching insects from the ground, flying to the nest, darting into 'my' big tree. What fun to watch — and what fun to hear.

BECAUSE OF the dense shade and the bright sunshine, I could not see the finer markings but, as the birds flew by, the bold patches of white on their tails and wings were most pretty. They were fairly large, I am sure they were bigger than the 10 inches ascribed to them by the bird book. It was my first real experience with mockingbirds — certainly hope it will not be the last.

So it is that there is fun to be had, cats not-with-standing, with catbirds and their kin.

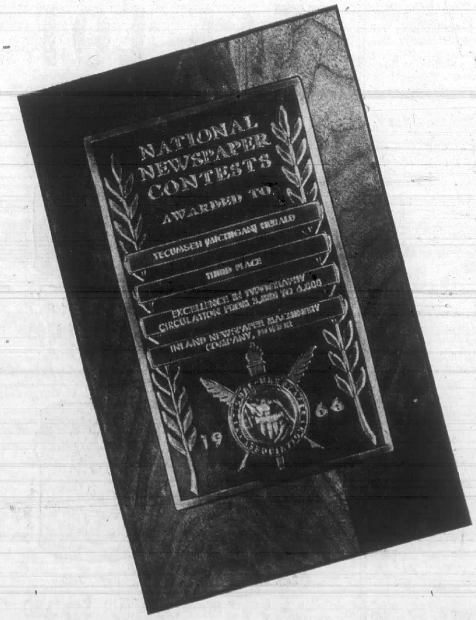
It Happened in Boston



In historic Boston, the news was first announced. Tecumseh's weekly Herald was among those cited for national recognition, ranked third among United States papers, in the 3,000 to 6,000 circulation category, for typography. This is the overall appearance of a newspaper — its type faces, layouts, ease-of-reading. Winning a national award gives a tremendous boost to the staff and it's also a stimulant to try even harder in coming weeks and months. Gosh, a paper has to live up to its reputation. But appearance isn't the only thing we consider in presenting the day-to-day chronology of Tecumseh. We want to cover all the news — from both sides. We want to illustrate it with sparkling pictures. We want to rate No. 1 every week in the hearts of our readers.

Two Britton Students Attend Art Institute at MSU in Lansing

BRITTON — Gail Lister and Dave Reeck, both senior students at Britton High School, attended the Communications Arts Institute held at Michigan State University at East Lansing July 4-16.

Gail took a course in yearbook editing, and Dave enrolled in the duplicated newspaper division. The journalism department of the high school paid the expenses for the two.

At the Awards Banquet, held on the last day of the two week session, the ratings were given. Gail and Dave received ratings of "Honors" and "High Honors" respectively.

Morning sessions at the Institute were spent in the classroom or lecture hall. Workshops occupied the afternoon hours. There, students could put their accumulated knowledge into actual practice.

The duplicated newspaper department produced two papers and distributed them to the CAI students. Dave Reeck was the editor for the first edition.

EACH STUDENT in the yearbook editing department left MSU with his high school annual for next year completely planned.

In addition to duplicated newspapers and yearbook editing, courses in printed newspapers, advanced journalism, basic and advanced forensic debate, acting, technical theatre, and radio-television were provided in the Communication Arts Institute.

The students also enjoyed many optional social and cultural activities. Among the social activities were nightly dances, a boy-girl football game (Gail was reported to be the star of the girl's team), and a water-balloon fight.

Three plays accounted for the cultural entertainment. "Charley's Aunt" and "The Days Between" were presented at the Summer Circle Theatre on campus. A bus excursion on Saturday, July 9, to Stratford, Ontario was also provided. The attending students saw the Stratford Festival Theatre presentation of Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night."

The 181 students attending this two-week session were from all parts of the United States, including one from Hawaii.

Merle Eaton Attends Seminar

A five-day "Citizenship Seminar" for young people, sponsored annually by the Michigan Farm Bureau, attracted 135 junior and senior students in high school to Camp Kett, a leadership training site near Tustin in Northern Michigan.

Debra Farquhar of Morenci and Merle Eaton of Tecumseh were chosen by high school administrators and local people to represent Lenawee county at this seminar. Debra and Meryl were sponsored by the Lenawee Farm Bureau Women.

"The basic purpose of the Citizenship Seminar was to inform today's youth of the threats of communism and also make the American system of free enterprise and the ideas on which our government is based more clearly understood by the young people," said Meryl.

"We gained a better conception of the threats communism imposes to the Free World. We also studied ways in which, we, as young Americans, can help stop and push back the spread of communism and also how we can help to strengthen our government," he said.

Nationally-known speakers included Dr. Clifton Ganus, Harding College president, Searcy, Ark., and W. Cleon Skousen, former 16-year veteran of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, now turned author and lecturer who makes his home in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Debra and Meryl are expected, and will be glad, to appear before local groups to report on their participation in the Citizenship Seminar.

Methodists Hear Congo Doctor

Dr. Robert B. White, a medical missionary of the Methodist Church in the Congo, will speak to the congregation of the First Methodist Church Sunday at 10 a.m.

Dr. and Mrs. White were both commissioned missionaries in 1956 and in 1958 were sent to the Wembo Nyama mission in the Central Congo.

While his wife was occupied as a teacher, Dr. White helped develop and put into operation the 100-bed hospital and dispensary.

Graduating from the University of Michigan in 1947 with a bachelor's degree in civil engineering, Dr. White completed his master's degree in public health.

He worked as a sanitary engineer with the Michigan Department of Health and the Ford Motor Co.

In 1950, he entered the School of Medicine at Western Reserve University in Cleveland, graduating in 1954.

Dr. White was an intern and surgical resident at the Gorgas Hospital in the Panama Canal Zone prior to his work in the Congo.

Mrs. White, the former Muriel L. Hunt of Detroit, is a graduate of Wayne State University.

While on furlough from the Congo, the Whites are residing in Adrian with their six children, Andrew, Wesley, Victoria, Joel, Russell and Philippa.

DAWN PATROL COOKS — Ray Puffer, left, Jim Barton and Robert Bird scramble eggs for 700 attending the breakfast at the Dawn Patrol sponsored annually by the Exchange Club. Proceeds of $700 will be donated to the Bleacher Fund for the Tecumseh High School Athletic Field.

Franklin Supervisor Wants Some Answers

Franklin Township supervisor Ray Jackson is asking some pointed questions at the court house.

They're directed at advocates of the proposed city-county building.

Mr. Jackson notes: "These are questions which I feel should be investigated thoroughly and the answers should be composed of facts and not mere opinions.

"Then if the evidence still points to a city-county building on the present location as being the most practical and economic solution, I feel the board of supervisors would work in unison to this end.

"If after a thorough investigation of these issues, the logical and most economical solution would be a county court house on another sight the committee should place their unified efforts towards that destination."

THE AREAS Mr. Jackson seeks investigation:

1. Investigate all advantages to the 29 acre site presently owned by the state, such as parking facilities, room for future expansion, landscaping possibilities — not possible on present site. A study of a 25-year expected growth pattern which could well place the site in the center of the future growth population.
2. Revenue bonds vs. general obligation bonds of which the latter could be a 15% lesser cost as well as retired much faster. A 5% economic saving on a combined building would still leave a 10% loss.
3. Why was there no investigation of new Court Houses — only of city-county buildings? A study of a new court house — such as that in Marshall could furnish many practical ideas on saving and planning future needs — plus evidence for comparison and contrast.
4. Any land sales to the city from the county should be figured on square-foot rates and the same evaluation paid to the county as to the two recent properties purchased, not at a minimum of $35,000 as suggested in the previous plans.
5. By using obligation bonds and millage, citizens would be guaranteed a voice — to approve or reject — in county planning.
6. By choosing another site the present building would be preserved, retaining its historical values which mean so much to so many. There is a good possibility it could be self-supporting and at the same time serve as a county museum preserving some of the past.
7. There is also the new medical care center, which doesn't seem to be progressing very fast at this time. This should be the first building built — with the court house a secondary project.
8. There is also a possibility of the Health Department being included in the Medical Care building, leaving the upper story of the court house annex for much needed office space, thus delaying the need for a new court house until the previous project could be paid for.

Hustlers Prepare for Fair

Sharon and Joyce Richardson were hostesses for the meeting of the North Franklin Hustlers 4-H Club Monday evening.

Twenty-two members played ball before the meeting, which featured demonstrations.

The hostesses demonstrated the care of horses, Bruce Carlton and Jim Woodward the importance of good seeds and Barbara Vincent the advantages of knitting.

Plans were made for the group to attend the demonstration clinic July 21 in the project building at 2 p.m. in Adrian.

Barbara and John Vincent, Jane Woodward and Sharon and Joyce Richardson will attend.

Health regulations for the Lenawee County Fair, Aug. 7-13, were discussed.

Plans for the last club tour of the season on July 24 were made when preparations for the Fair will be finalized.

Each member will give a demonstration with his animal.

Leaders Mrs. Clauda Creger and Mrs. Thomas Adams invited all parents to attend with the members.

Arrangements were made for the junior leaders to attend the pre-Fair meeting July 27 at the project building at 8 p.m.

Mary Ann Woodward gave a report on the Citizenship Short Course trip to Washington, D.C. in which she recently participated.

Four letters have been received by the club from men in Vietnam, who were recipients of the Christmas in July project.

Mrs. Richardson served refreshments to the members, leaders and parent advisors, Mrs. Thomas Carlton and Mrs. Charles Aebersold.

Space Fair To Be Held in Jackson

More than 100,000 visitors are expected to attend the Midwest Space Fair in Jackson, Sept. 24 through Oct. 2.

The Fair is the first event of its kind ever featured in this vicinity, and is being co-sponsored by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA).

The site of the Fair is Jackson's new Parkside High School Fieldhouse, one of the state's finest domed arenas. The Fair will feature replicas of space capsules, rocket engines, spacecraft such as the Appolo, films and exhibits detailing U. S. space progress, and exhibits of area firms participating in the nation's space program.

There will be no admission charge for the Fair or any of the exhibits. It will be opened daily from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Although open to the general public, the Fair is primarily educational and for the benefit of students. Student tours are currently being arranged from school systems throughout Michigan, northern Ohio and northern Indiana.

A similar fair held last year in Danville, Va., attracted more than 70,000. Besides NASA sponsors of the Midwest Space Fair include the City of Jackson, the Greater Jackson Chamber of Danville, a., attracted more than 70,000. Who Finds All The Lost Mothers At A&P?

Don't believe we have lost mothers at A&P?
You would if you saw a teary-cheeked tyke look up at a checker or clerk and say,
"My Mommy's lost."
Funny thing, children are never lost
—just their mommies are.
It happens every day.

We've had 106 years experience finding "lost Mommies."
And we have a whole group of friendly people working at your A&P who'll wipe away those tears and round up that missing Mother.

That's the way we are at A&P because we care about you... and yours.

Is this a good reason for shopping A&P?
It's one of many.

Albert Flores was the winning pitcher and had one close call.

"In the second inning, Union had the bases loaded with two out and Albert struck out the last batter to get out of trouble," said his manager, Frank Prichard.

PONY LEAGUE RESULTS

Ward Hurls 1-Hitter

● T.P.W. 5, G&J 2

Dave Ward's one-hit pitching was the big difference in the game, said Pastor Koeplin of the T.P.W. victory over G&J, 5-2.

His 17 strikeouts tied a league record now held by several other boys. He struck out the side in the first four innings, getting the first seven batters in order.

With the score tied 1-1, Jack Baker led off the bottom of the fifth with a perfect bunt single.

Tony Nykodym sacrificed him to second and Butch Quinn drove him home with a solid single and then took second on the throw to the plate.

Dave Ward was safe on a fielder's choice. Quinn then took third and scored when Doug Haeussler's grounder was bobbled in the infield, reported the pastor.

Both Ward and Haeussler scored on passed balls and wild pitches.

Dave Ward was almost untouchable with his curve breaking to perfection. Ziz Zorn was the only G&J batter to spoil Ward's no-hit bid, dropping a fly ball into short right field in the fifth inning.

As a measure of Ward's fine mound effort, Bob Reed, G&J's cleanup batter and one of the league's best hitters, was stopped cold by Ward who struck him out all three times.

Pastor Koeplin said, "That, I haven't seen all year, since Reed always semes to get wood on the ball."

● G&J 10, Indians 2

The G&Js defeated the Indians, 10-2, with G&J pitcher Bob Reed pitching 14 strikeouts.

Steve Tilton was the winning catcher.

Jack Edwards hit two long base hits and Bob Reed belted a triple for the G&Js.

Mark Hetrick was the losing pitcher and Wayne Sayler was the catcher.

● BRITTON 5, INDIANS 3

Three runs in the last inning sent Britton into the lead as the Indians fell, 5-3.

A trio of walks and three singles did the damage, states Mrs. Neal Judkins, Britton scorer.

The Indians out hit the winners, 8-3, with both Russ Johnson and Wayne Sayler belting 2-for-3.

Winning moundsman Jim Brown fanned seven with Billy Tubberville of the Indians striking out four.

● T.P.W. 5, Eagles 3

The Eagles lost to T.P.W., by a score of 5-3 but a good defensive play was turned by Eagles' centerfielder Bill Puffer.

Bill, in the sixth, caught a sharp single sent to center by Dave Ward and fired a perfect strike to catcher Gerald Girbach who put the tag on a sliding Butch Quinn.

Tony Nykodym, who had been on third, scored.

Dave Ward's single drove in what proved to be the winning run, said Pastor Koeplin, but the Products did score an insurance run in the seventh.

Doug Haeussler and Dennis Puffer of Products recorded the only extra base hits of the game with both hitting doubles.

Butch Quinn, Eagle pitcher, struck out 13 and his catcher was Tony Nykodym.

Alex Gibson and Gerald Girbach were the losing battery.

● BRITTON 10, VFW 2

Rick Brown spun a one-hitter as Britton topped VFW, 10-2.

Nine strikeouts were notched by Rick.

Britton hitting stars were Dick Schroeder, 3-for-4, Gary Judkins, Rick Maska and Church Moore, all 2-for-3.

Britton's big inning came in the third when 12 men went to the plate, scoring seven markers.

Losing hurler LaMar Rufner got six on strikes.

Long and Short

By TOM RIORDAN

No sir, it wasn't a mirage, called in Mrs. Earl Scott, 419 W. Cummins St., after we allowed as how maybe she just imagined seeing a set of Burma Shave signs between Toledo and Marion.

Earlier, we had printed that in 1963, all of the famous roadside signs were removed by the company.

That's when we first heard from Mrs. Scott. She said she had just seen a set while driving in Ohio.

We countered, perhaps unkindly, that it all may have been a vision.

With this haze of indifference hanging over her head, Mrs. Scott contacted Robert Irwin of Britton, a Tecumseh Products Co. trucker, who regularly goes to Marion. She asked him to do some sleuthing.

Bob found the set and copied down the jingle, namely:

"DROWSY?"
JUST REMEMBER PARD
THAT MARBLE SLAB IS DOGGONE HARD
BURMA SHAVE

The signs are just south of Perrysburg, on US-23 where it crosses I-75, Bob told Mrs. Scott.

Now that we know they're there, I suppose we should query the company to see if it's going back into the sign business.

We certainly hope so.

Apparently, so do a bunch of marines in Vietnam.

They recently fashioned their own set, which is along a dusty trail near Da Nang:

DON'T BUNCH UP
AS YOU PATROL ABOUT OR YOU'LL BE PICKING
THE FRAGMENTS OUT
BURMA SHAVE.

The idea probably never will die out and apparently interest in it is still high.

Bud Guest of WJR latched onto our recent Long & Short about the history of the signs and used portions of them on a radio program.

In Come the Oats

"Dry weather has knocked the heck out of the yield," explained George Anton, who was hustling this week to combine his oats crop. His yield has been running about 65 bushels to the acre with the grain going for 67c a bushel at a Maumee, Ohio elevator. George's wheat ran 60 bushels to the acre and marketed for $1.83. George was pictured on a 25-acre plot along Conklin Dr., owned by Bill Powell, which he farms on shares. He also has 200 more acres of grains.

Project Costing $19,242

By JIM LINCOLN

Tecumseh Indians will open the 1966 football season here under new lights.

An extensive drive was completed last week when the local Junior Chamber of Commerce signed a contract with Industrial Electric Co. of Adrian.

Bid price is $19,242.

Bud Hall, in charge of the installation for Industrial Electric, told Dyke Helms, Jaycee representative, that Tecumseh's lights would be the brightest and finest in this area.

THE LIGHTING plan is:

- Two poles at midfield with five tiers of lights, 30 lights to a pole.
- Four perimeter poles at the 10-yard lines, two banks of lights with 12 lights to a pole.
- One pole will be located behind the press box, other poles behind the track which surrounds the football field.
- All wiring will be underground.

Mr. Helms said there will be a total of 108 quartz beam lights at 1,500 watts each. Adrian College's new lights, for example, total 92.

WORK WILL start as soon as possible and completion is scheduled for autumn, prior to Sept. 16, when the Indians open the season.

The Jaycees still need approximately $4,000 of their share of the cost. They plan to park cars at the games this fall and other projects to fulfill their commitment.

Charlotte Circle Has Church Social

The Charlotte Circle of the Methodist Church will hold an ice cream social Aug. 12 from 3 to 9 p.m. on the church lawn.

Members of the Woman's Society will furnish pie and cake.

Mrs. Clifford Lantz and Mrs. Robert Cheers are co-chairmen for the event with proceeds to go to the treasury of the Woman's Society.

Sidewalk Day Features Race, Battle of Bands

Dare to be young again, you oldsters over 25.

Come to the battle of the Bands in Tecumseh on Friday, Aug. 12 — that's Sidewalk Day.

Teen combos will stage an all-day session, climaxed with a street dance.

A $50 prize is going to the band regarded as tops, with the runner-up getting $25.

Mrs. Betty Flanders of Flanders Music Store will head up a team of five judges, including several teen agers, who'll select the winners.

Any area musical group is eligible to enter and may sign up at The Herald office before Aug. 10.

During the day, the bands will perform for one hour each in preliminary competition with each unit playing from a different area of downtown.

There will be one-hour breaks of "silence" between the performances.

In the evening, final judging will take place with bands alternating on the stand, which will be set up at Evans St. as it enters Chicago Blvd., between the Ken-Ray and Wright drug stores.

S. Evans St. will be blocked off for spectators and dancing.

Alumni Hold Dinner Dance

The annual reunion of the Tecumseh High School Alumni Association was attended by 211 persons Saturday.

The Tecumseh Grange served a turkey dinner in the Products Union Hall and the Lamplighters played for dancing.

Some of the earlier classes represented were 1903, 1905, 1907, 1908, 1910 and 1912.

Four members of the Class of 1916 were present to observe their 50th anniversary and to receive their class flower, the American Beauty rose.

They were Camilla Hayden Heller, Parker Comfort, Norma Moody Housner and Carlisle Kay.

The 25th year class of 1941 was represented and the class of 1956 turned out in full swing to celebrate ten years.

Gifts were presented to Frank Camburn of the class of 1903 as the oldest attending alumni and to Camilla Satterthwaite of the class of 1941 who traveled the farthest distance from her home in California.

The banquet centerpiece was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Jay Dennis, nee Mary Ellen Folk, as alumni with the most children, seven. Both are 1956 graduates.

The banquet arrangements were under the direction of the class of 1956 with co-chairmen Betty Barton Hyatt and Shirley Larned Hoffman. Val Spangler served as the toastmaster.

Appeals Approved by Board

Tecumseh's Board of Appeals solved two problems—actually three — at two scheduled public hearings Tuesday night at city hall.

Two decisions rendered at the hearings favored the appelants.

James McDowell, having been turned down for a building permit for a lot adjoining Evans Creek, just north of W. Chicago Blvd. and west of N. Democrat St., was granted permission to build.

He told officials that he intended to sell the lot to the Donald Berkleys, but had refused to do so until authorization was granted.

The Board's ruling also permits Dr. Robert Laidlaw to build on his 2.8 acres, north of Evans Creek Dr.

Both Mr. McDowell, school superintendent, and Dr. Laidlaw, local dentist, cited an ordinance provision which qualified their properties for construction.

After the Board learned that business at H. Brewer Co., N. Pearl St., would remain basically the same if a sale was transacted, approval was given James Mull, one of the prospective new owners, to acquire the business.

Mr. Mull told the Board, and several neighbors of the building, that operations would be the same. He said machine operations would continue and part of the building would be used as a warehouse.

Robert Kramer, company employee, reviewed operations there and the intentions of the new owners.

Dentist Stricken By Heart Attack

Services were held Tuesday morning at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home for Dr. Arthur H. Brown, 66, well known Tecumseh dentist for the past 44 years.

He succumbed to a heart attack Saturday morning at his home, just east of Macon. He had been ill for two weeks.

Born at Dundee Nov. 28, 1899, he moved to Tecumseh at an early age and spent most of his life here. After graduating from Tecumseh High School in 1917, he entered the University of Michigan for one year and then enlisted in the Army during World War I.

After leaving the service, he resumed his studies at UM, graduating from there in 1922. He continued as a reserve in the Army and at the time of his death, he held the rank of major.

Although best known as a local dentist, Dr. Brown was an anesthesiologist at Herrick Memorial Hospital for over 20 years and was a member of the hospital's original staff.

He was a member of the St. John Episcopal Church at Clinton, a life member of the Jackson District Dental Society, the Michigan State Dental Association, the American Dental Association, associate member of the Chicago Dental Association, and Delta Sigma Delta fraternity.

DR. ARTHUR H. BROWN

Dr. Brown was a specialist in oral surgery. In 1946, he received a fellowship from the International College of Anesthetists.

On Oct. 5, 1927, he married the former Muriel Halladay of Tecumseh. They had two daughters, one who died in 1936.

Survivors include the wife and daughter; Mrs. James Blocker of Birmingham and two grandchildren.

The Rev. Richard Peterson of Youngstown, O., officiated at the services. Burial was in Brookside Cemetery.

Ed Covell of Tecumseh won the door prize, a brightly colored golfer's umbrella, at the recent opening of the Meadowlane Golf Course.

The new nine-hole course is located four miles east of Clinton on US-12.

The 3083 yard course has a par of 36 which has not been broken, as yet.

The lowest score to date is 38 recorded by Bob Molocha of Saline, who also eagled the Par 5, 471 yard ninth hole.

Co-owners, Coral and Glenn Clark, Bill Stoll of Saline and Barry Brueckner of Wayne, expect Bob Molocha's record will prove a challenge to area linksters.

They offer an eye opener free cup of coffee for early morning golfers.

Trial Postponed

The jury trial of Frank Horton, regarding a violation of zoning ordinances, scheduled for Thursday has been postponed.

It will be rescheduled for the second week in August.

JC Football Classic Is at Tiger Stadium

Dyke Helms, of the Tecumseh Jaycees, has been appointed the local ticket chairman of the first annual Michigan Jaycee Football Classic.

The Jaycee Classic is scheduled for Aug. 11, at Tiger Stadium where the Detroit Lions will play the powerful Eastern Division St. Louis Cardinals. Game time is 8 p.m.

Co-sponsors of the game will be the Michigan Jaycees and the Michigan Jaycee Foundation. Funds from the Classic will be used to finance Jaycee community development programs throughout the state.

"It is our hope to meet not only the needs of today's communities, but to meet those of tomorrow's as well," said chapter president Tom Morgan.

"This game creates another avenue for meeting these needs, thus enabling us to better serve the community."

For further information on how to obtain tickets for the Jaycee Classic, contact Dyke Helms at 423-4458.

Just caught up with the late Roy Prichard's nickname for the roof garden over the United Savings Bank. Roy dubbed it Moore's Meadows." Then there was the time Bob Moore, bank chairman, was on an inspection tour there when someone locked the door and he finally had to yell down for help.

Maybe Mrs. Gail Fisher feels her health is too delicate to continue on the City Planning Commission, but she still says what's on her mind, namely, "The Herald should get busy and write editorials every week." Yes, ma'am.

Out on busy M-50, at the Kroger store, a mama duck took her 13 ducklings across the road to George Ruhl's service station and nestled in the shade under a parked car. George was afraid they might be hurt, so started to gather up the little ones, getting hold of three when Mother Duck shrugged, as if she could see her family wasn't welcome, and waddled right back across M-50 and over towards Evans Creek.

In Boston, the president of John Hancock Insurance Co. quipped to newspapermen, "Behind every successful man is a woman — a surprised mother-in-law"

Spec Simmons has his own way of dispensing cheer. When in Denver recently for the Rotary International convention, he had a walk about town with 97-year-old J. Hurley Kaylor of Nevada, Mo.

Impressed with this active gentleman from Missouri, Mr. Simmons was inspired to poetry. The soon-to-be centurian took the poem to The Nevada (Mo.) Daily Mail, which published it. Here are Spec's words:

I felt uncertain and confused
With my apparent role in life,
Until a man in step with me,
Had seen ninety-seven years of life.
He's never faltered in his years
To greet each sunrise with a smile.
The good Lord willing, this he said,
"I'll be a hundred after while?"
I asked this man, "Have you retired?"
He'd never gave that role a thought,
"I open wide my store each day,
"And work each hour with all I got."
So when we feel too tired to serve here,
As life's road we travel on.
Think not of who we may turn to,
Put shoulders back and carry on.

And the Giant of Lenawee County continues to grow. Tecumseh's United Savings Bank maintains its ranking as No. 1 in the county, with assets now at $28,605,147.78.

Jaycee Ron Coleman, brains behind the upcoming Treasure Hunt on Aug. 6, is considering advisability of forming a public relations committee to serve after this year's event.

Overzealous players last year dug up flower beds at the Britton Police Station looking for clues that weren't there. Although Jaycees received no complaints that time, they fear that history might repeat itself somehow, and a committee in charge of explanations might not be a bad idea.

"Diamond Jim" Brady has arrived in the Irish Hills. With a crew of workers, Jim, from Detroit, is working like mad to open an unusual gift shop stressing pottery, most especially Irish coffee cups, in the building formerly occupied by the Irish Hills Playhouse. Things emerald green are really happening at the corner of Haney Hwy. and US-12.

Looking for a wood stove, car accessories, outboard motor, dishwasher or a ring? If so, attend the 12th annual Michigan State Police auction of confiscated and unclaimed articles which will be held Aug. 25 at the East Lansing headquarters. The auction is authorized by law to dispose of confiscated and recovered articles whose owners could not be identified, equipment lost or abandoned or personal effects of persons who died in state institutions without leaving heirs. Looking for a good old-fashioned still? Maybe . . .

Esch Comes Out Swinging

Entering the final week of campaigning for the Republican nomination for United States Congress, Rep. Marvin Esch promised Friday that if elected he would launch five crusades.

Speaking in Tecumseh, at the home of Gerald DeYoung, 1020 River Acres Dr., Rep. Esch said he would seek major reappraisals of our nation's programs dealing with education, agriculture, highway safety, assistance to senior citizens, and with the federal system of government, itself."

AS CHAIRMAN of the Michigan House Colleges and Universities Finance Subcommittee, Rep. Esch said he had proposed a vocational education system to help the 80% of American high school graduates not attending universities.

He said that this group had just as much right to the fruits of higher education and specialized training as did professional people.

In agriculture he said that he would seek major alterations in the Johnson Farm Policy, attempting to re-establish some degree of free enterprise in the farm market place.

In the areas of highway safety and senior citizens, Rep. Esch said he was working toward the creation of an Interstate Council on Highway and Traffic Safety, which would combine the efforts of the automotive industry, the states and the federal government."

"ANOTHER thing I have proposed is that Social Security benefit increases not be made a political plum to be awarded only on election years, but be in some way tied to the cost of living.

"Senior citizens paid that money into the Social Security fund all of their lives and it is disgraceful for the Administration to try to use that money to buy their votes," he stated.

He said that such a system would come about only if the states and local governments would meet their obligations through progressive vital programs.

"The State of Michigan has proven under Gov. George Romney that states can take an active part in the federal system. I would urge that all states study what Michigan has done, and through their own actions and accomplishments, turn back the tide of a growing central government."

"VOTERS TODAY are faced with two philosophies in the Republican Primary. I am striving to put forth youthful, positive ideas to meet the problems of a changing society. This District has had an absentee representative and it has had another who couldn't care less.

"On Aug. 2 it will have a chance to vote for someone who at long last cares and pledges to work for them," he concluded.

PONY LEAGUE RESULTS

Britton Comes from Behind

● BRITTON 10, EAGLES 9

Britton came from behind in the sixth inning with two walks and doubles by Gary Check and Gary Judkins to bring in the winning runs to beat the Eagles, 10-9.

Gerald Girbach, Marvin Maynard and Ken Humphries were the leading Eagle hitters.

Eagle battery was Alex Gibson and Gerald Girbach.

Jim Lister was the lead Britton hitter and Rick Maska and Chuck Moore were pitcher and catcher.

—o—

● VFW 7, INDIANS 6

A neck-to-neck game was broken when Tom Aiuto made first after an error with two out in the sixth inning and then proceeded to steal all the rest of the bases to score the winning run as the VFW defeated the Indians, 7-6.

Rick Schuyler and Rick Calzada shared pitching duites for the VFW. John Wall was the catcher.

Bill Tuberville was the Indian pitcher, striking out nine players. His catcher was Tom Drouillard.

—o—

● VFW 2, G&J 1

Wild pitching was the G&J downfall as they were beaten by the VFW, 2-1.

Rick Calzada scored on wild pitching.

Bob Reed drove in G&J's only run with a single while two were on base in the sixth inning.

Neil Booze and Jim Curtis each got a single for VFW.

Lamar Ruyner pitched for VFW, getting 16 strikeouts. His catcher was John Wall.

Tim McVay and Steve Winsky did battery duties for the Union.

● G & J 5, EAGLES 1

Bob Reed, G & J pitcher, allowed one hit and gave up two walks as his team defeated the Eagles, 5-1.

Gerald Girbach, Eagles catcher, spoiled Bob's bid for a no-hit game.

Eagles centerfielder Pat Murphy made three fine running catches. Mike Mattson was the Eagles' pitcher, notching eight strike-outs.

Ken Pieh, G & J second baseman, was the leading hitter with a homer and a single.

Another G & J player, Zig Zorn, centerfielder, hit two singles.

Reed struck out 13 while Steve Tilton and Steve Winsky shared the catching duties for the Eagles.

● VFW 8, TPW 0

Dave Kelly ruined Rick Calzada's chances for a no-hit game by getting the only TPW hit in their defeat by the VFW, 8-0.

Scott Dalton was forced across when Jim Curtis was hit by a pitched ball with the bases loaded in the first inning.

VFW catcher John Wall got under a shallow pop-up between home and first to make the final out in the TPW's fourth inning.

Dave Ward and Butch Quinn shared pitching duties for TPW and they struckout a total of nine.

VFW lead hitters were Tom Aiuto, Jack Greenfield, John Wall and Rick Calzada.

—o—

● BRITTON 8, TPW 7

This was a big game for Britton as it put them in a tie for first place to end the season.

They beat TJW by a close score of 8-7.

The winning run was scored when Phil Servose walked to first, passed to second on a passed ball and a sharp single to right field by Jim Lister brought in Rick Furgason who had been put on to run for Servose.

Chuck Moore hit a grand-slam homerun for Britton and Dave Ward and Mike Kennedy were the leading hitters for TPW.

Rick Maska and Chuck Moore were the winning battery.

Dave Ward, TPW pitcher, let 15 walks go and his catcher was Mike Kennedy.

● TPW 14, Indians 1

The combined pitching of Doug Haeussler, Mike Kennedy and David Kelly limited the Indians to two hits as TPW swamped the Indians, 14-1.

The game was put away in the second inning when both Butch Quinn and Dave Ward walked, stole second and third and then scored on passed balls, said Pastor Koeplin.

After Doug Haeussler doubled and stole third, he scored when Paul Hamilton's grounder was bobbled in the infield.

Hamilton also eventually scored on passed balls.

Three more runs in the fifth on four straight hits by Jack Baker, Tony Nykodum, Butch Quinn and Dave Ward, put the game safely in the Product's win column, reports Pastor Koeplin.

Guy Manwaring, TPW second baseman, and John Gilbert, Indians' second baseman, both robbed opposing batters of base hits by snatching line drives.

Gilbert took a hit from John Travis in the fourth and Manwaring returned the compliment in the seventh by making a fine grab of a line drive off the bat of Mark Hetrick, said Pastor Koeplin.

TPW catchers were Mike Kennedy and Butch Quinn.

Mark Hetrick and Russ Johnson shared pitching duties for the Indians and Tom Drouillard was the catcher.

FFA Youths Will Begin European Tour

By CHRISTINE FAIRBANKS

BRITTON — Ron Heiden and Steve Eldred are busy boys these days preparing for a 22 day trip through eight European countries which will begin August 2 under the sponsorship of the Michigan FFA and the Goodwill People-to-People Travel Program.

They will be part of a group of 23 FFA members from the state of Michigan and five advisors who will leave New York on August 2nd.

The itinerary will include visits in Belgium, Holland, Sweden, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Switzerland, Germany and France.

The purpose of the Goodwill People-to-People Travel Program is to give the leading agricultural youth in the state of Michigan an opportunity to carry a message of goodwill to the agricultural youth in Eastern and Western Europe.

Also to see and inspect, in person, typical agricultural and dairy operations, to learn and compare methods and procedures and to have an enjoyable holiday visiting with and being the guests of the youth who make up the Michigan delegates occupational counterparts in this section of the world.

This is not a trip devoted to strictly tourism. It is an opportunity for Michigan agricultural youth to express their belief in freedom and democracy, and at the same time, do everything possible to combate communist propaganda.

This travel program is non-political, non-partisan and completely without government financing or control.

The total basic cost for each participant is $1,097, not including fare to and from New York from Britton.

The local FFA chapter will pay one-third of the cost for both Ron and Steve, or $366 each, and the Britton PTA has voted to give them each $100.

The boys have to earn the balance. Ron is farming and Steve is working as a carpenter's assistant.

Steve is the nephew of Donald Lutton of rural Britton, with whom he makes his home. He and Mr. Lutton own or rent 510 acres. The principal crops are hay, corn, soy beans and wheat.

Steve is a senior at Britton-Macon High School, treasurer of his FFA chapter, 4-H Club president and winner of the county 4-H Tractor Operators contest.

After graduation from high school, he expects to enroll in elevator management course at Michigan State University.

Ron, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Heiden, farms a 300-acre farm on the County Line Road with his father. He rents an additional 80 acres on which his main crop is soy beans.

Ron is a senior at Britton-Macon, is secretary of his FFA chapter and vice-president of his 4-H club.

He plans to enter Michigan State University to become a teacher of vocational agriculture following graduation from high school.

Their ag teacher and FFA advisor at Britton is Paul Marks. Mr. Marks, who was originally from Blissfield, is a graduate of MSU.

He has been at Britton for three years and begins his fourth year this fall.

He was instrumental in the selection of the boys and assisted them in the many preparations for such a trip.

Lunch Price Has Risen Five Cents

BRITTON — Nellie Barrett, school cafeteria manager, gave a report on the cafeteria lunch program for the past year at the regular July meeting of the Britton-Macon school board.

She explained that less commodities are given by the government and prices of food have gone up.

The board voted to raise the price of school lunches by five cents for the coming school year.

In compliance with regulations set by the state fire marshal, double fire doors will be installed on the second floor to lessen the danger of fire spreading through the open stairway of the high school building.

Supt. William Saxton reported the shortage of lockers for high school students and it was voted to purchase 33 new lockers.

Five teachers are still needed to complete the staff for next year.

Congregational Church Members To Vote Sunday

BRITTON — Members of the Congregational Christian Church will vote Sunday after the morning worship service on a proposed addition to the church.

The new addition would provide six new classrooms, storage space, new restrooms and cloak rooms, a furnace room and include a new hot water furnace which would service the entire church.

The addition, if approved, would be of frame construction with brick veneer to blend with the present structure. It would extend approximately 48 feet to the rear of the building.

43 Students Take Train Into Ohio

BRITTON — Forty-three students who are taking part in the summer school at Britton-Macon Area School this summer enjoyed an extra-curricular trip last Friday when they took a train ride from Adrian to Montpelier, Ohio.

The children left Britton by school bus in time to be in Adrian by 8:15. There they boarded the train that took them to Montpelier where they were given a tour of the dispatcher's office, round house and the local newspaper office. The bus then brought them back to Britton.

The trip was supervised by Mrs. Thornton, Mrs. Forsythe, Mr. Eriesson, Mr. Crutchfield and Mr. Saxton.

The remedial reading program began June 27 and runs through July 29. The entire program is financed by a Federal grant of $7,865.

It will benefit 43 educationally-deprived children who need additional help in reading improvement. Needed health and psychological services are also provided.

Family Visitor Lives Near Iron Curtain

BRITTON — Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Claxton had as guests last week, Mr. and Mrs. Diethard Lindenau and daughter, Christianne, 3, of Hamburg, Germany.

Mrs. Lindenau was the former Gisela Boettcher, who was a foreign exchange student during the 1958-59 school term in Deerfield High School.

While attending school in Deerfield she lived with Mr. and Mrs. Harland Nye, who they are now staying with.

They arrived in this country by plane July 3, and will remain until August 7. Their 17 month old son, Matthias, remained in Germany with relatives.

Mr. Lindenau was born in East Prussia and at the age of 9, he and his mother and brother fled to a village near Hamburg when the Russians invaded their homeland.

The Lindenau home outside of Hamburg is only 15 miles from the Iron Curtain.

Mrs. Lindenau speaks fluent English and although her husband speaks and understands the language, certain American idioms puzzle him.

Their small daughter chats away in German like a magpie, but is learning many English words and is able to make herself understood quite well.

Elly Warns GOP Voters on Primary

A warning to Republicans against cr[illegible]over to vote for certain Democrat candidates in the Aug. 2 primary has been issued by Republican State Chairman Elly M. Peterson.

"I urge every Republican, particularly in the Second District, to vote in the Primary and to vote Republican straight down the line," Mrs. Peterson said.

"The importance of electing precinct delegates must not be forgotten in the current discussion of party crossovers to defeat a certain Democrat candidate for the United States Senate."

Mrs. Peterson also emphasized the Party's desire to roll up a big vote for Republican Senator Robert P. Griffin, despite the fact that he is unopposed in the Primary.

Sports Park Trespassing Is Problem

Trespassing at the Irish Hills Sports Park is becoming a considerable problem which Clinton State Police are trying to curb.

Lawrence C. Warner, 27, of Toledo, Ohio, appeared before Justice Norman Clancy of Onsted Saturday and pleaded guilty to a trespassing charge for an incident which occurred July 3 at the Sports Park.

He was fined $32.40 or five days in jail and was lodged in jail when he failed to pay the fine.

Warrants are out for two more men charged with the July 3 trespassing.

Some 30 motorcyclists swarmed over the park Sunday and caused a disturbance which is being investigated.

Witnesses May Attend Assembly

Members of the Tecumseh Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses have been invited to attend the next semi-annual circuit assembly for the congregations in Michigan Circuit 8, August 19-21 at Milan.

This small assembly will offer opportunity to apply some of the things learned at the larger convention held this summer at Toronto, Ontario.

An invitation is also being given young and old to volunteer for some type of assembly work.

By volunteering at these small assemblies, many young persons have become qualified in convention supervision, some now able to direct activities at conventions with tens of thousands in attendance.

The main talk of the three-day gathering will be, "Does God Have Influence in This Twentieth Century," and will be delivered by the district supervisor of Jehovah's Witnesses in this area, Mr. H. A. Fetzik of New York. It is scheduled for August 21 at 3 p.m.

STANDARD ENCYCLOPEDIA OF THE WORLD'S RIVERS AND LAKES Designed as an encyclopedia to be read, it offers authoritative and factual information while providing an illuminating survey of the most important waterways in every region of the globe.

THE SWISS BANKS by T. R. Fehrenbach. What makes Swiss banks different from the bank on your corner? and why are they preferred by criminals, dictators, and your favorite movie stars? This is an amazing book that reads like a suspense story, yet the "facts, cases, incidents, and stories related here are true" according to the author.

AN EASY INTRODUCTION TO THE SLIDE RULE by that prolific, scientific writer, Isaac Asimov. With this usual enthusiasm and talent for making things both entertaining and understandable, Professor Asimov introduces the reader to the slide rule and shows the average reader how the darn thing works!

SURGEON, U. S. A. by Frank G. Slaughter. This is the story of a war behind World War II, a very private war between two public people. The conflict, as old as time, opposed the man of principle to the man who has none.

PUTNAM'S GUIDE TO THE ART CENTERS OF EUROPE It is difficult to imagine anyone going to Europe whose trip, however long or short, would not be immeasurable enhanced by a copy of this book.

HIROHITO, EMPEROR OF JAPAN by Leonard Mosley. Hirohito was dominated by a military power clique bent on conquest who in the 1930's virtually seized control of Japan. While the Japanese military excused or justified their acts in the name of this "divine Emperor," Hirohito was rarely consulted. Why did he remain silent? What was this man really like?

THE MODE IN HATS AND HEADDRESS by R. Wilcox. A comprehensive survey of the changing styles in headgear from Egyptian and classical times to the present, including beards, earrings and necklaces, and even cosmetics used in each period.

This beautiful swimming pool, left, is visited by many of Fox Run's wildlife. The raccoon, rabbits and fox that inhabit the surrounding wooded area, come to the pool's edge even when bathers are using it.

n find yourselves travel- gravel road, past fields and over hills, into deep woods where Fox Run, a summer-winter resort, is located.

Owned by Earl and Joyce Collom, Fox Run covers 100 acres, is an excellent place for retreats, conferences, youth camps, etc.

It is rented out for the weekend, the week or whatever period of time desired and the Colloms do the maintenance and cooking.

Mr. Collom, with limited outside help, cleared the land and built a large combination dining hall and kitchen and a pair of two-unit cabins which will house 50 guests.

A beautiful swimming pool is nearby. Volley ball, tether ball and horseshoes are among the games provided in the large recreation area.

Plans call for a store, where campers will be able to purchase stationery, sweatshirts, etc.

A huge lodge will be built on the spot where the Colloms' spacious 60' house trailer now stands.

Two more two-unit cabins will be built and the cabins are being winterized so guests may enjoy the pleasure of winter camping with ice skating and sledding.

Much of the work at Fox Run was done in the Colloms' spare time. Mr. Collom is employed at Tecumseh Products Co., and his wife is a guidance counselor at Onsted High School.

Mrs. Collom recently earned her master's degree in education at Eastern Michigan University while helping her husband with the building of Fox Run.

The Colloms had been ready to open in the spring of '65, but the Palm Sunday tornado struck. The dining room was ruined and some damage was done to the cabins.

They rebuilt in time to open for the 1966 season.

The Colloms have two sons, Rick and Earl D., Jr.

Rick graduated from Ferris State University where he won many honors in both sports and the academic field, including a place in the Ferris Hall of Fame for Athletes.

He was named Top Architectural Senior of the Year and is presently associated with the Harold DeWolfe Architectural Firm in East Lansing.

E. D., the youngest son, is in Germany on a Youth for Understanding Program. He will begin studies in August — 14 subjects per week and all in German. Along with two other Onsted students, E. D. is on an experimental learning program — none of the trio speaks German.

When he returns, in 1967, E. D. plans to enroll at Ferris and study for the ministry.

Fox Run has much wildlife — fox, raccoons and rabbits, who often come to the pool's edge even when bathers are using it.

Mrs. Collom is an excellent cook and makes plans so that each meal is well-balanced and delicious.

Delores Balliet Weds Donald Higgins

CLINTON — The First Methodist Church in Jackson was the scene of the marriage of Blanche Delores Balliet and Donald L. Higgins.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Balliet of 16110 Fahey Rd., Clinton, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Navarre D. Higgins of 1402 Phillips St., Jackson.

The ceremony was performed at 3 p.m., Saturday by the Rev. George Miller, pastor of the Clinton Methodist Church and the Rev. Robert Smith, pastor of the church in Jackson.

Carolyn Nichols of St. Johns was the organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an heirloom gown of ivory silk mull, first worn by her grandmother, Mrs. Blanche Harmon, when she married the late Eugene Harmon 57 years ago in Ohio, and later worn by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Kenneth Borror, for her wedding.

Reminiscent of another era, the gown featured a high, boned neckline accented by v-shaped lace insertion on the bloused bodice.

Hand-made tucking accented the long, fitted sleeves and the gently flaired skirt.

A wide lace-bordered ruffle edged the floor-length skirt. A lace crown held the bride's shoulder veil.

White roses and carnations formed the bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Daniel Harris of Stockbridge was her sister's matron of honor.

The bridesmaids were Mary Harmon of Boulder, Colo., a cousin of the bride and Peggy Higgins of Jackson.

The honor attendants were gowned alike in sheer, pastel blue cotton daytime-length dresses styled with high, close-fitted necklines, long sleeves and softly-pleated skirts.

The bridesmaids wore lace-edged tie head scarves and the matron of honor wore a lace rosette head piece. They carried bouquets of roses and blue carnations.

David Roe of Garden City was the best man.

Guests were seated by Dion Balliett, brother of the bride, Gregory Asterman and Barry King of Jackson and Michael Ferrence of Detroit.

A reception attended by 250 guests was held in the church immediately after the ceremony.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Blanche Harmon of Columbus, Ohio, was among the guests.

A feature of the reception was the beautiful punch bowl formed of fresh sweet peas frozen in ice, made by Mrs. John E. Hoelzer of Clinton.

The bride is a 1963 graduate of Clinton High School. She attended Findlay College, Findlay, Ohio, and Jackson Junior College.

Mr. Higgins is a graduate of Jackson High School, a graduate of Jackson Junior College and he received his degree in Mortuary Science at Wayne State University in June. He is employed at the Burden Funeral Home, Jackson.

The couple will reside at 1814 Michigan Ave., Jackson, upon their return from a wedding trip to Cape Cod for a week.

The bridegroom's parents entertained at a rehearsal dinner, Friday evening, at their home in Jackson.

what is the definition of a private brand?

To some people, it is a retailer's own brand created with selling price first in importance and quality second.

To us at A&P, it's the opposite.
Quality comes first.
Value...the best for the least is the rule for our private brands.

If this wasn't true, how foolish we'd be to invest, as we have, literally millions of dollars in processing plants and testing laboratories.

If all we wanted were products we could sell cheaply without quality control, anybody could produce them for us.

The idea of quality private brands isn't new at A&P. As a matter of fact, it's one of our oldest policies—and by golly, we're proud of it.

Are A&P Private Brands a good reason for shopping A&P? They're one of many.

Wife Violently Opposes Closing of Private Dump

BADLY-BURNED RON BAUGHEY PONDERS FATE OF HIS REFUSE BUSINESS

By JUDY FIELDER

"It's not human," said Mrs. Ronald Baughey about the closing of her husband's private dump in Raisin Twp.

"If they had done it any other time, Ron would have been able to fight back, but what it's done to him . . . I don't know," she added.

Ronald Baughey, 536 Tabor, Adrian, owner of the private dump and Ron's Light Hauling, was brought home from University Hospital in Ann Arbor, July 8, after six months of fighting for his life.

He was severely burned in an explosion Jan. 4 when barrels he was unloading at the dump exploded on impact.

"He leaped from the truck and rolled several hundred feet," said Mrs. Baughey.

When found, his clothes had been burned off. Over 75% of his body was burned, 64% third degree.

"No one at the hospital expected him to live," said Mrs. Baughey, "It's been through God's will that he survived."

But Baughey has only begun the road to recovery. The family has been told that he will not be able to go back to work for another year and a half.

Calcium deposits in both elbows must be removed. The burn scars must heal, his ankles are severely infected, his hearing is gone. He cannot change positions without help.

HE MUST return bi-weekly to the University's burn clinic.

"When it's all over," said his wife, "They've told us the bill will be over $85,000."

The living for the couple and their five children comes from the hauling service and operation of the dump at the end of E. Valley Rd., just east of Wilmouth Highway in Raisin Township.

Mr. Baughey, 31, a native of Adrian, has operated the business for eight years. He worked as a crane operator at Bridgeport Brass and ran the hauling business until Bridgeport closed, then started building up customers and his route became full-time.

He used other dumps until they closed off garbage.

After hunting for two years, he found the 40 acres of land in Raisin Township, which had been used as a dump for 35 years.

"We bought the land three years ago, after receiving permission from the township to operate the dump for 10 years," she said.

The business has over 500 residential customers and many commercial pickups, averaging 25% garbage and 75% trash.

"Our customers have all stood behind and with us through all this, including the Fisher Body Plant of General Motors."

Fisher Body's contract made up 50% of the Baughey business. "We serviced them six days a week, 24 hours a day," said Mr. Baughey.

When the dump was closed the Fisher Body plant had to take a hauling contract elsewhere. "We were told if we could get the dump reopened that they would come back," said Mrs. Baughey.

"If I was able to get around, I'd never been closed," said Mr. Baughey. "I've spent hundreds of dollars keeping these things cleaned up. I've had dirt hauled in, and until the locks were changed after the accident, the county had a key to the lock and hauled dirt in. We're not even close to the river here."

"There's more to this than meets the eye. I think Mr. Mitchell should start on his own back porch and clean up the township dump," said Mr. Baughey.

"We'll never sell the land," he said.

CLIFFORD LANTZ of the Health Department said the action was taken after Mr. Baughey's failure to comply with requests made to cease creating a nuisance and health hazard.

According to Mr. Lantz, the nuisance was burning trash. The health hazard was made by not covering garbage the day it is brought to the dump with six inches of dirt, in violation of the county health codes.

Mrs. Baughey said, "I've had five fires in the last six months and we have never deliberately set one.

The explosion created a blaze that burned for six weeks, another smaller explosion caused a second, spontaneous combustion a third. "I don't know how the other two started, but we didn't set them," said Mrs. Baughey.

Ted Durst, township attorney, said the township had received many complaints over the past year about the burning, apparently caused by highly combustible materials hauled into the dump.

"I've done everything I was told to, except dig the ditches for the garbage," said Mrs. Baughey. She has been operating the business since her husband's accident.

"Mr. Lantz [illegible] area with me and told me that I had up to two years to comply with state regulations, then Mr. Mitchell pushed the action through," said Mrs. Baughey.

Mr. Lantz requested that she let him know by July 1 that something had been done.

"I got estimates from a local contractor. He said he would tell the health department and he came over and bulldozed the area.

"I can't afford to put more money into digging the ditches, unless I know that the dump will be reopened.

ONE CONTRACTOR told her that he would dig the ditches, but he had been told by James Mitchell, township supervisor, that under no circumstances would the dump be reopened.

"As far as the township and the health department are concerned," said Mr. Mitchell, "it is closed. It won't do any good to appeal to the people. They had their chance. The dump will not be re-opened."

Mr. Mitchell said the township dump burns "some" rubbish, then bulldozes it.

"Mr. Mitchell in the past has gone out on a limb to keep them open, but has received little cooperation from the Baugheys," said Mr. Durst.

"If we have to lose the business — Ronald has accepted the fact — we're not the only ones who have lost. We'll just have to start all over again. But what they have done to him by closing it now when he can't fight back is not fair," said Mrs. Baughey.

Mr. Lantz said he did not know what people [illegible] ed to do with their garbage. Most of the other dumps in the county do not allow garbage to be taken in, while many burn their trash.

He said the problems associated with the other dumps in the area have not been as much of a nuisance as in this case.

He said the nuisance is caused by the black smoke disturbing people in the area, but refused to comment about the number of complaints against the Baughey dump.

"We would be willing to work out his disposal problems with him, explain standards, give suggestions," said Mr. Lantz. "The final detailed operation is up to him."

MR. LANTZ said the health department would okay the reopening of the dump when the state regulations are met.

Mrs. Baughey said she cannot afford to comply with the regulations unless she is assured that the dump can be reopened.

Through My Window

FROM A WREN WATCHERS DIARY

Our assumption that when Mrs. Wren switched from twigs to strips of bark and weed stems or straw her nest building task was about finished, was a bit premature.

I had forgotten what a little fuss-budget she was. I had also underestimated her ability to pack, cram and squeeze.

Honestly, I do not know how that little bluebird house which Mr. and Mrs. Wren took over is holding everything.

But, anyway, the final phase of building a wren's nest was quite interesting to watch.

Where as the rough construction was done at a frantic hurry-hurry-hurry clip, the finishing was almost leisurely. Small white feathers, courtesy of Gertie's ducks, and scraps of Kleenex were the chief materials used.

Finally the day came when the carrying-up and lugging-in ceased. With the nest built there was time for play.

Now the singing was gloriously loud and clear; the birds did not seem to go far from their new home and they seemed to be singing continuously.

What a joy!

The roof of the house slants and the back extends about three inches above the roof — this high back makes an ideal perch and Mr. Wren spent hours there.

And, of course, while he was there he sang.

Our view was excellent, in fact Elizabeth and I had center aisle seats for the daily performances. Contrasts are always fun and to hear so much serenading coming from such tiny birds was amazing.

His singing stance was usually the same — little cocky tail tilted upward, wings held in tight to body, head thrown back and long bill opened wide.

We could see the rich reddish-brown of the tail, back and wings, the light front and throat, and so hard did he sing that we could even see the feathers on his head ruffle up and his throat expand.

Our wrens had personality, too.

Once in a while Mrs. Wren spent more time inside the house than he apparently thought necessary. Of course, I do not really know if this was the motivation or not, but at times, when she was inside, we laughed at his actions.

He would hop to the edge of the roof, lean way over, peak through the little round doorway and chatter.

Often it worked and at his 'coaxing' she would pop-out and fly away. He always took off in the same direction.

One day we noticed that the chasing around had stopped. Mrs. W. stayed inside most of the time and Mr. W. seemed happy to stay on his back perch or in the nearby trees.

Oh, yes, he still sang. We assumed that the incubation had started.

We also wished for a peek into the house, how many of those tiny brown speckled white eggs were there?

This was just about when the hot wave struck. Day after day the temperatures boiled up into the high 90's.

Occasionally we would see Mrs. Wren's head in the doorway, with mouth open she seemed to be gasping for a breath of fresh air.

It must have been stifling in that house; we worried about both the little bird and her eggs.

So it is that with nest built and eggs laid, we now wait for the hatching out and feeding bit, the last installment in the wren watcher's diary.

Sermon on 'Love' Given in Churches

"Love" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

The Golden Text is from the first Epistle of John: "God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him."

Special Education Addition

By JUDY FIELDER

All of Lenawee County's special education facilities — with one exception — will be within the Tecumseh Public School district upon completion of a $48,500 two-story addition to the high school this fall.

The exception will be the Type A — mentally handicapped, yet educable — classes, maintained by separate school districts in the county.

Costs of the 30'x40' addition to the north end of the high school are being split by the county and the local school, with the county paying the greater part, $35,000 which includes a $10,000 elevator.

Originally, the addition was to have been one story, but the Tecumseh School Board agreed to add another floor for $13,500 and put Type A intermediate students in that classroom.

Tecumseh Type A intermediate students have previously attended classes in Clinton.

The rest, housed either at the local schools or at Lenawee Institute, will be under the direction of George W. Eidson, county coordinator of special education.

THE ADDITION to the high school will allow physically-handicapped students to spend a greater part of their time in regular classes.

Previously classes held at primary schools before created transportation problems and made it difficult for the physically handicapped to be with regular students.

"The room will allow orthopedic students to be first class citizens for a change," said Mr. Eidson, who came to the special education system last year from Oakland County.

"We have some students with fantastic minds who have always been separated before."

Not all of the students are wheelchair bound. Some may just use the room as a homeroom, making it feasible for a large number of children to be enrolled.

The state reimburses the local school system four times more money per physically handicapped student than for the average student.

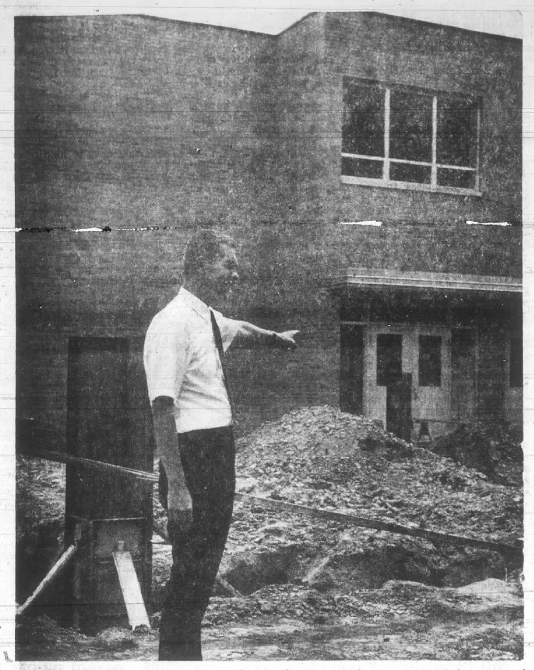
THE INTERMEDIATE orthopedic group was originally scheduled to have a classroom at the new building at the campus-type Lenawee Institute.

The 60'x65' building has three classrooms. While the primary orthopedic and primary deaf children will move to the Institute this fall, the room scheduled for the intermediate orthopedic will be used as an office.

It will serve the special service staff, which includes speech correctionists, visiting teachers, diagnosticians, homebound teachers and teacher-counselors for the physically handicapped.

—o—

Mrs. Grace Shea is able to be about in a wheel chair rather than on crutches at St. Joseph Hospital as reported last week. It is expected that she will be able to go to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Heavener, in Ann Arbor soon.



CORNER ELEVATOR — George Eidson, special education coordinator, points to the corner of the addition to Tecumseh High School in which an elevator will be installed for transportation of intermediate physically handicapped students to second floor classrooms.

Driver Wins Four Trophies

Ed Hage of Ypsilanti was top winner Friday and took four more trophies home.

Ed was the fastest qualifier of the night, and won the first heat. Then he came back and showed his driving skill to edge across the finish line ahead of Harold Schill in the pursuit.

Ed also took the checkered flag in the 35-lap Feature.

Jack Corey took the second heat trophy and Dan Finfrock of Manchester took the trophy in the third heat. Sonny Wyrick of Adrian won the fourth heat, and the trophy went to Bud Elting of Manitou Beach.

Paul Whitaker of Tecumseh was the winner of the fifth heat trophy.

Dan Finfrock captured the semi trophy with Bob Clark of Adrian placing second.

Al Leeke of Jackson won the super-stock heat trophy and then received the trophy for the feature.

George Brown of Ypsilanti was the victor, but was ineligible for the trophy.

George Bentley of Jackson joined the Upside Down Club and collected his trophy.

Friday's purse — $1,150 — set a record.

This Friday night a Mechanics Race will be added to the program.

Rev. John Lover Conducts Service

The Rev John Lover, new pastor of the Grace Methodist Church in Ridgeway, will conduct the worship service at the First Methodist Church at 10 a.m., Sunday.

The Rev. Donald Porteous and family are vacationing in the northern part of the state until early August.

HOUSE ON WHEELS — Something that has always been just a dream for the George Downards, 6919 Green Hwy., is finally coming true as the family has begun transforming a school bus into a camper. George and Betty, with Doug, 13, Greg, 8, Christopher, 4, and daughter, Laurie, 11, plan to have the bus finished in time for a trip up north in August. Mrs. Downard drives a school bus for the Tecumseh School system. Mr. Downard will use the camper for deer hunting. The main advantage of a bus over a trailer is that you can take the bus wherever you go, said Mrs. Downard.

Tetanus Shots Given Aug. 12-13

Local drug stores will be the centers for the tetanus immunizations to be given Aug. 12 and 13 by the Lenawee County Medical Society with the cooperation of the Lenawee District Nurses Association and the Lenawee Pharmacists.

In Tecumseh, the shots will be given at Wrights Drugs on Aug. 12 and Lambs Pharmacy, Aug. 13.

Steffans Drugs, in Clinton, will offer the injections Aug. 12 and Clinton Drugs will have them Aug. 13.

In other local areas, these drug stores will be making the shots available:

Hudson — Klee Pharmacy
Morenci — Onweller Drug
Blissfield — Delzeith Pharmacy
Adrian — Shepard and Stoll

Tetanus infection is not always fatal, but it does kill almost half its victims — even today.

The germs multiply in the body in cuts that usually are "puncture" type wounds.

This type of wound is too deep and narrow for bleeding to flush out the germs and the germs quickly develop in the absence of oxygen.

The powerful poison that the germs secrete cause muscle spasms, violent convulsions and, in many cases, death.

"Locked jaws" is the result of the jaw-muscle spasm.

The three basic shot immunizations series is the fastest way to be protected against tetanus.

After completing the series, all that is required is a booster shot every five years.

Adults who have not had the initial three-shot immunization should start immediately at the August program.

Demonstrations Are Vital Parts of 4-H Education

Rick Gartee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gartee, 1209 Shady Lane and Craig Gritzmaker of Adrian can both attest to the rich rewards in 4-H work.

Trips to Traverse City and to Chicago were among the awards they received as winners at the county and state levels last year.

Demonstratons by 4-H Club members can be seen at the Lenawee County Fair.

Demonstrations and action exhibits are scheduled from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 11. Food action exhibits are scheduled from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday, Aug. 8.

4-H leaders are enthusiastic about demonstrations as a method of education. The skill of demonstrating is so valuable that the founders of the 4-H Club made it a vital part of club life, suggesting that each member give at least one demonstration a year.

4-H leaders see a two-fold purpose in encouraging students to give demonstrations.

While learning his subject area thoroughly, the young demonstrator also acquires a sense of service by striving to convey knowledge of use and importance to his whole community.

Joanne Swain, 4-H youth program assistant, urges that Lenawee residents attend the fair and view the many exhibits presented by the young people.

Granddaughter Faces Surgery

CLINTON — Caroline Payeur, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Payeur of Ann Arbor, entered St. Joseph Hospital for exploratory surgery Sunday.

This earned him the high scoring dog award.

The prize-winning poodle, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Ted Kiebler, is working on his Canadian Companion Dog degree.

Gary Rader Tells of 4-H Trail Ride at Traverse City

Gary Rader reported on the State 4-H Trail Ride at Traverse City in which he, Mrs. Russell Starkey and daughter Jeanette, participated for the meeting of the Lucky Clover 4-H Club last Tuesday.

The Trail Ride was held July 15-17.

A picnic was held for all the members and their families July 1 to conclude the food project. Each member made a dish for the picnic.

Mrs. William Rader taught the cooking project.

Members are busy finishing up projects and working their horses in preparation for the Lenawee County Fair.

The next meeting will be Aug. 30 at the William Rader home.

Plans Are Made for Church Fair

TIPTON — The Women Fellowship met July 19 at the home of Mrs. Clifford Hardy.

The Annual Church Fair will be held Oct. 1.

The new committees will be appointed by Mrs. John Becker, the incoming president for the next year.

Missing Luggage Causes Morgans To Be Puzzled

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morgan and three children started off on their vacation Saturday with several suitcases and a golf bag on the car top carrier.

When they arrived in Blenheim, Canada, at 3 p.m., they discovered the luggage had disappeared.

They back-tracked some 30 miles without finding a trace of the missing luggage.

Alerting the Provincial Police, Border Patrol and Michigan State Police of their dilemma, they continued on the way to Niagara Falls, where they were notified that the luggage had been found on I-94, near the Ambassador Bridge by-pass by James Lee of New Boston.

Tuesday, the luggage was on its way to Leonier, Pa., where it is hoped it will catch up with the Morgans so they can continue their trip.

They are still puzzled how it got off the car, with the straps and canvas still on the carrier.

Bernadine Baisch Falls From Horse, Injures Her Back

CLINTON—Bernadine Baisch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Baisch, is a patient at St. Joseph Hospital, Ann Arbor, where she was taken after she injured her back in a fall from a horse last week.

Bernadine, who will be a sophomore at Adrian College in the fall, will wear a brace for several months until her back has properly healed.

She is expected to return home at the end of the week.

She Makes Dolls

By JUDY FIELDER

There's a special room in Mrs. Maynard Minier's house for boys and girls and dreamers.

It's filled with all sorts of creatures — elephants, octopus, monsters — and people — George and Martha Washington, cowboys, Indians, little girls, pipe-smoking old men — stocking dolls.

The fairyland started several years ago as a hobby and has blossomed into the business of producing over 70 varieties of cuddlies during "every free moment I have."

When her husband was a partner at Frontier City, she decided that the western theme called for the old-fashioned sock dolls and opened a shop at the tourist attraction.

When Mr. Minier sold out his partnership, she moved the dolls into their home at the corner of Onsted Highway and M-50.

MRS. MAYNARD MINIER AND HER DOLLS

New socks are used for all the doll - making, mostly cottons, men's work socks and women's heavy hose.

"I use any color that suits my needs and I'm always thinking of different ideas to experiment with," said Mrs. Minier.

Fat hippopotami elegant orientals and all the others are made by cutting a sock in the proper way — she uses no patterns — and stitching the pieces together, some machine, but mostly by hand.

Washable cotton batting purchased in case lots is used to stuff the dolls, while washable, treated yarn graces hairdos.

"Often, in the evening I think of something that would be cute, and I start to make it," said Mrs. Minier.

The menagerie includes pompous penguins, skittery white rats, ferocious lions and circus elephants decorated with beads and sequins.

She purchases the dress material for each individual doll, buying small prints to set off its personality.

Many of her dolls are in foreign countries, including England, Spain, Switzerland, Germany and Ireland, said Mrs. Minier. "Many people will stop and send the dolls home to their relatives."

Besides the dolls, Mrs. Minier also makes toaster covers, pajama bags, doll clothes and potholders, each with a unique personality.

The pajama bags for little girls are doll tops with long old-fashioned dresses.

Besides the doll business, the Miniers are active in the area, he being a farmer and a member of the Lenawee County planning commission and Cambridge Township Board director of soil conservation.

The couple has three married daughters. "We often have family gatherings here," and they are active in the Masons and Eastern Star.

At the stroke of midnight in this very special room, when the Miniers are fast asleep, Topsy stretches and yawns, John's eyes drift over to Priscilla's corner, Uncle Tom lights up his pipe and Peter Pan perks up his saucy hat and calls, "Hey, wake up! It's time . . . . ."

Senator Bursley's LANSING REPORT

State School Aid (H.B. 4025) was one of the most important legislative items handled this year in Lansing.

It provided for an "improvement" factor of nearly $50,000,000 over last year's school aid act. This establishes an unprecedented increase over a two-year period of about $120,000,000 in the state general fund contribution to the school aid fund.

Legislators hope that this increased state participation will take pressure off requests for local property tax increases.

There are two formulas, "A" and "B" used in computing the state contribution to the school aid fund but formula "A" is the one we will discuss since it applies to most of the school districts in this area.

It provide for an increase in the gross allowance of from $255 to $278 per pupil. The deductible millage factor applied against this gross figure was changed from 4.6 mills to 5.03 mills.

To apply the formula in an individual school district it is necessary to have two additional figures, the number of pupils in the district and the total dollar value of property on a state equalized basis.

One figure is divided into the other and a result of several thousand dollars is said to be "behind each pupil".

I do not have enrollment figures for Lenawee school districts but these would be divided into state equalized property valuation in each district to work out the formula.

The Clinton Community Schools, for example, have about $13,155,000 in state equalized.

Tecumseh schools have $43,656,000

Blissfield $33,129,000.

Adrian schools have a total of $76,322,000

Britton-Macon has $10,935,000

Deerfield $7,53,000

Sand Creek Community Schools $11,410,000.

ON A STATEWIDE basis Michigan has a little over 2,000,000 students and about $2 billion dollars in state equalized property values.

The average is thus about $14,000 property value behind each pupil throughout the state as a whole. Most school districts in this area are a little above the average in terms of property that can be taxed.

In the area of special education there was a substantial increase of from $18,300,000 to $22,900,000. Intermediate school districts and county trainable programs each get a half million dollar increase which amounts to 25-30% over last year.

The state's contribution for transportation was increased by $1.4 million dollars. Funding for driver training was increased to $30 per pupil.

The support which the Legislature gave Michigan public schools this year has been generous. Not only does one-half the state sales tax go into the school aid fund, but the Legislature supplemented this with over $230 millions from the general fund.

In fairness it should be pointed out that such increases in the state contribution cannot be expected every year. Any substantial future change will almost certainly have to be geared to a fiscal reform program.

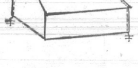
UREA IN CORN SILAGE will likely provide a more economical source of protein than soybean oil meal for dairy rations this fall and winter. University nutritionists recommend 10 pounds of urea per ton of silage. This amount will increase crude protein content from about 8.1% to 10.2%. Best method is to spread correct amount on top of each load. When using urea-corn silage remember to reduce the protein content of the grain mix from 18-20% to 12-14% crude protein.

INVESTMENT IN A GOOD BEEF BULL pays. Calf weights from six bulls used in Illinois beef performance tests varied as much as 65 pounds between the high and low sire average. At 25c a pound, the calf from the best bull was worth $16.25 more than calves weighing 65 pounds less. Figuring 25 calves per bull, the top bull was worth at least $406.25 more than the poorest bull.

LIGHTNING damages and destroys more buildings in August than in any month of the year. Air terminals should be placed every 20 feet along the roof line and grounded at opposite corners as the drawing shows. Conductors should be heavy copper or aluminum. Connect tie-ins to any metal object such as a gutter or ventilating unit. Protection should include lightning arresters mounted on electrical service wires, too. Sink ground rods 10 feet into soil.



REVIVE BABY PIGS with a soft plastic funnel. By placing the funnel over the nose of a baby pig, and using mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, a USDA scientist reduced losses from stillborn pigs. Air is blown at intervals into the funnel stem forcing air into the pig's lungs.

Methodist Church Has Corn Roast on Church Lawn

CLINTON — The Clinton Methodists are expecting about 500 persons at their third annual Corn Roast Saturday.

Many hungry folks are attracted to the site of sweet corn roasting over charcoal.

The locally-grown corn is roasted in the husks to keep the flavor in.

Ronald McKeever is general chairman of this year's event.

The cafeteria service begins at 4 p.m. and continues until dark on the lawn at the red brick church on Tecumseh Rd.

Most of the church members are involved in the preparation and serving of the treats which include Sloppy Joes, roasted hot dogs, potato salad, baked beans, homemade pies and cakes.

Hand Infection Causes Problems for Rick Knight

CLINTON — Rick Knight returned to St. Joseph Hospital Sunday for treatment of infection in his hand.

Rick had been home a few days since being hospitalized two weeks ago when he crushed two fingers on his left hand when a jacked-up tractor slipped on a cement block and came down on him, pinning his hand between axle and jack.

Mrs. Knight's quick action with a car jack raised the tractor and freed her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Knight recently purchased the James Heslip house at 13650 Lima Center Rd., and were working there when the mishap occurred.

Slaughterhouse Visited by Vandals

Although papers were strewn about and the safe opened, it could not be immediately determined if anything had been stolen.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Round of Applause

As this is primary election time, our editorials deal mainly with politics.

First of all, the vote is Tuesday, Aug. 2, with polling places open from 7 a.m. until 8 p.m. Be there.

Secondly, Kiwanis Club members, who staged an invigorating "Meet the Candidates" parade and public meeting in the Community Center last week, deserve a round of applause.

So do the 11 politicians who were on hand at the invitation of the Kiwanians to explain their opinions and feeling on issues.

These grass-roots sessions are invaluable to both the men running for office and the general public — who sometimes complain that they don't know or get an opportunity to see office holders who represent them.

We're hoping another "Meet the Candidates" gathering is being given top priority next fall, just prior to the November elections.

We're for Esch, Conlin

Three contests stand out in the Aug. 2 primary.

For Democrats, it's who should get the nod for the U.S. Senate race in November, Soapy Williams or Jerry Cavanagh.

For Republicans, there are two important decisions:

1. Marvin Esch or George Meader for 2nd District Representative to Congress, the winner to oppose Wes Vivian in the fall.

2. Walter Bohn, Rollo Conlin, Virgil Eisenmann, Dr. Wallace May or Robert Stites for 40th District Representative in the State Legislature, the winner nearly assured of the seat in Lansing.

As for that Soapy-Jerry clash, we're hoping our Democratic friends will give their full support to the Detroit mayor. Despite the fact we suggested a couple of months back that Republicans might jump party lines and vote for Mr. Cavanagh to help sink Soapy once and for all, this now doesn't follow good logic.

Republicans have two primary races to decide and they can't do this and also mix into the fun on the other side.

Who should GOPs support?

We're for Marv Esch, the present state representative who wants to go to Congress. He knows government, is young, vigorous, an excellent man on his feet who can do a fine job representing this district.

Congressman Vivian rode the coattail of LBJ in 1964 to apparently end Mr. Meader's long years as Congressman from this district. George wants a return performance, but we rate Mr. Esch higher.

Without LBJ and the anti-Goldwater vote next fall, the GOP candidate should regain the 2nd District — and we hope he's Marv Esch.

In the race closer to home, Rep. Conlin has his hands full with four opponents, two of whom have vote-getting appeal in Lenawee County.

To our way of thinking, Rep. Conlin has been years ahead of his time in the field of taxation. Now the state is at last catching up to some of the proposals he has long advocated.

During 23 years in Lansing, he has handled top Legislative assignments, including chairmanship of the committee on taxation. Under his leadership a complete reappraisal of the state's tax structure was made half a dozen years ago.

He advocates tax relief to the property owner and this makes sense.

Republicans of Lenawee County would be wise to keep Rollo Conlin as their representative. TAR

Race in Raisin — At Last

For the first time in many years, residents of Raisin Township will find their ballot containing two sets of candidates seeking places on the township board.

Supervisor James Mitchell and his long-time slate are being challenged by a lineup headed by Dr. Robert Murray.

The Tecumseh dentist, who resides in Raisin on Green Hwy., seeks Mr. Mitchell's seat as township chairman and also representative of Raisin on the Board of Supervisors.

Running with Dr. Murray are:

► Mrs. Harold Black, Occidental Hwy., a housewife, former secretary and bookkeeper, who seeks the job as township treasurer.

► Mrs. William Osburn, Rogers Hwy., housewife, Sunday School teacher and 4-H leader, who is running for clerk.

► Wayne Griewahn, N. Adrian Rd., field engineer and farmer, president of the Conservation League and a Birdsall Scout leader, who hopes to become a trustee. He has been on the Raisin zoning board since its formation.

► August Breckel, Jr., E. Valley Rd., farmer, tool and die man, also active as a Scout leader, trying for constable.

The Murray slate has a four-point platform:

1. Representation of all areas in Raisin Township.

2. Maintain natural beauty of the area by enforcement of ordinances.

3. Improve relations with adjoining communities.

4. Strive for better communications with township residents.

In a pre-primary statement, the challengers note: "We are willing and prepared to devote the time necessary to perform our duties thoroughly."

With its new industries and new housing developments, Raisin Township has a tremendous future.

The Herald suggests voters there support the Murray group.

They Call It "Un-Dependable"

"What nerve!"

This exclamation describes the reaction of many Tecumseh citizens over the recent rate increase by Dependable Garbage Service of Napoleon.

Dependable is known by most as "Un" Dependable. While we're supposed to get twice-a-week pickup service, we're lucky to get one.

When your garbage and trash overflows and piles up — and "Un"dependable eventually shows up — don't rely on a complete pickup. If you've signed up for one can, that's all, brother.

We don't believe the folks would mind the rate increase if the service warranted it. But when you go a week or longer without a pickup, it's rather difficult to justify a hike in rates.

Some councilmen have voiced criticism of the Napoleon firm. Perhaps their review of its franchise, service and rates here with a "produce or else" ultimatum is in store.

Tecumseh patrons of Undependable would appreciate it.

New State Program Provides Aid for All Students

When Gov. Romney recently signed a bill to aid all needy college students, regardless of where in Michigan they attended classes, there were some groans of protest.

"Michigan's crumbling wall of separation between church and state was hammered again," moaned the Friendly Free Press, which likes to call it "a bill to subsidize private colleges."

Naturally, it isn't anything of the sort.

Was the old GI Bill, which sent hundreds of thousands of young men to college after World War II? Of course not.

Before the governor gave his approval to the bill — following approvals in both the House and Senate — there was that old army game, masquerading under the cloak of church-state separation.

If a youngster needed help to put him through college and he met the requirements, he got state financial aid — if he enrolled at Michigan State, Eastern, Western, U. of M., Ferris.

But he was out of luck should he wish to attend Adrian, Hillsdale, Alma, Siena Heights, University of Detroit — all private schools.

It didn't make sense.

Every college and university in this state, large and small, offers opportunities for young people to better themselves. They may prefer U. of D. over MSU for engineering, because of the chance to attend classes on a co-op plan and live at home in Detroit.

Some might want a liberal arts education from a small school like Olivet or Aquinas, instead of enrolling at Wayne State or U. of M.

THE IMPORTANT ITEM is that higher education be available to all citizens of our state. That was the philosophy of the GI Bill on a national scale.

What tickled us most was the way the Free Press editorialist dragged out a sentence from the Michigan Constitution, "No money shall be appropriated or drawn from the treasury for the benefit of any religious sect or society."

We certainly agree.

Happily this hasn't happened. The state now merely is extending its helping hand to all college-attending residents, who are in need.

Football Lights Should Go To 'Pit'

TO THE EDITORS:

What is going to happen to the old football lights? Are they going to be wasted when they are needed?

Several people have had this problem in mind and have come up with a solution.

"The Pit" is awfully dark at night, so why not put them down there?

This could help cut down on juvenile delinquency.

On the other hand, it would be profitable for the city because there could be supervised night swimming.

Reader Asks, 'What Is Romney Republican?'

TO THE EDITORS:

What in the world is a "Romney Republican"?

The term has been used on huge billboards around the County to describe Marvin Esch — a candidate for United States Congress.

Now, the question is — what is the difference between a "Romney Republican" and a plain old-fashioned "regular" Republican?

Allow me to quote Oakley Bramble, president of Constitutional Alliance, Inc., writing in "Success" Magazine published in Lansing.

"The Establishment people and Mr. Romney himself are busily trying to sell George Romney as a "moderate" to Republicans — a man to lead the Party to victory in '68."

I can tell you, at first hand, just how "moderate" this political chameleon really is: for 14 years, 1948-1962, Michigan suffered under the Governorship of "Soapy" Williams and his successor, John Swainson.

Over that period, conservative Republicans in the legislature successfully beat back the Williams programs of socialistic legislation, all written in Solidarity House — Walter Reuther's home base.

Republicans all over Michigan applauded the solid members of the Party who stood up to "Soapy" and Walter.

George Romney defeated Swainson's re-election bid in November, 1962, becoming Governor on January 1, 1963.

In the first Romney term Michigan got every bit of the Williams-Reuther far-out "Liberal" program except the state income tax — Under the driving demands of George Romney!

Traditional Republicans in the Michigan legislature continued to fight against the leftwing garbage presented as the Romney program: but against the prestige of the Executive office and the votes of the new 90-day-wonders, the Romney "Republicans" and the Democratic minority, the good fight was lost.

In four years under George Romney the Michigan general purpose general fund appropriations have more than doubled from something like $450 million to a billion dollars this year.

This is a "moderate"?

If George Romney is a "moderate," whatever that means, I'll take a good, old-fashoned, humble, prudent, salt-of-the-earth "Regular Republican" any day.

So help me!"

Left-Handed Praise Offered

TO THE EDITORS:

I was reading a weekly paper here the other day, and I noticed that some little paper in Michigan won a prize in excellence of typography.

I thought this might be an inspiration to know that this kind of thing can actually happen.

I suggest you work harder next year, and maybe your paper can win, too.

I have been keeping an eye on your work, and I really think you'll make the grade.

Downtown Will Be Swinging Sidewalk Fun Day Aug .12

Downtown Tecumseh will be throbbing with a steady beat on Sidewalk Fun Day, which comes Friday, Aug. 12.

Six area musical units have signed up for the "Battle of the Bands" in hopes of capturing either the $50 first prize or $25 runner-up award.

Merchants are sponsoring the fun and putting up the cash.

In addition to the music, there'll be the annual ladies' pancake race, for gals 18 and over, with the winner collecting $25.

The music is being carefully spread out during the entire day, culminating with final competition in the evening.

For the tender-eared, there will be a "cushion" of silence — from 15 to 30 minutes — between the performances of the bands during the daylight hours.

During the final judging of the musical battle, which will take place from 7 to 10 at the four corners, S. Evans St., from Chicago Blvd., will be blocked off for dancing.

WLEN disc jockey Dan Hamilton is going to be on hand and award prizes to the outstanding dancers.

The ladies hot-cake race is scheduled for 7:30 with each competitor being provided a frying pan and pancake.

Ribbons will be strung over a course down Evans to Pottawatamie St. and back. At each one, girls must toss the pancakes over the top and catch them on the other side.

Next week's Sidewalk Fun Day will be the ninth staged in Tecumseh.

Hero in Vietnam

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Capt. Darrel Lowery Cited for Helicopter Rescue

The heroic often becomes mundane routine for servicemen in the battlefields of Vietnam, but to their families they are all heroes.

Capt. Darrel A. Lowery, 26, of Tecumseh, will receive an Air Medal for his rescue of seven Army wounded from the battlefield June 9.

Capt. Lowery mentioned the incident only briefly as a routine matter in a letter to Mrs. Lowery, nee Mary Lou Perry, who resides at Craig Air Base, Selma, Ala.

Mrs. Lowery received a commendation telegram from Col. Smith, head of the Air Rescue in Southeast Asia, June 13, which said:

"The skill and teamwork displayed by Capt. Lowery and crew during your combat evacuation of seven Army wounded on June 9, 1966, reflects professional airmanship in the highest degree. My personal congratulations to you for a job well done."

That exploit was described in the June 24 Air Force News printed in Vietnam:

"Air Force helicopter rescue crews have evacuated several wounded Army soldiers from the Operation Hawthorne battlefield area located 60 miles north of Pleiku.

"Capt. Darrel A. Lowery of Tecumseh, Mich., said his three-man HH-43 crew brought several wounded U.S. troops and a wounded North Vietnamese captive to Dak To for medical treatment.

"Lowery and a second HH-43 crew from Detachment 9 of the 38th Aerospace Rescue and Recovery Squadron went to the Hawthorne battlefield area twice during the night of June 9, but heavy machinegun fire drove the Air Force and two armed U. S. Army escort helicopters from the area."

MRS. LOWERY AND CHILDREN, Kevin 4, and Kendra 1, arrived in Tecumseh Saturday to visit for two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Percy of 714 River Acres Dr., and to attend the wedding of her brother, John, Aug. 5.

She was greeted by a front page story in the county newspaper which described an 18-hour rescue operation Friday, conducted by Capt. Lowery with crewman Sgt. George Shipper of Austin, Tex., and Airman 2/C Allen Stanek of Boyd, Wis.

Four crewmen in an Army helicopter crashed 65 miles northwest of Pleiku in the rugged highlands of Saigon in thick jungle area which prevented visual sighting.

Stanek, using a forest penetrator device, was lowered by a hoist cable 150 feet through the jungle. He found two survivors, but could not find the wreckage.

The survivors were in shock and one had a broken leg.

Bob Stites Pulls Upset

In a stunning upset, Bob Stites won the Republican nomination as representative from the 40th District — and almost a sure seat in the Michigan Legislature.

He topped a field of five, including 23-year veteran Rollo Conlin, who ran second, 14 votes off the pace.

In Raisin Township, Jim Mitchell easily held his job as supervisor and chairman of the township board, besting Dr. Robert Murray, 242-86.

However, Mrs. Bill Osburn, one of the Murray slate, was able to capture the Raisin clerk job over incumbent Mrs. Elwood Simon, 158-139.

New Branch Work Begins

Work began on the new A&P branch of United Savings Bank this week, with completion slated for the end of January.

To be 36'x65', it will feature one drive-up window and have six teller stations inside.

Krieghoff-Lenawee Construction Co. is building the one-story, Indiana limestone-faced branch, which will offer all banking services, including safety deposit boxes and night depository.

Bank president Pat Meadows says that increased volume of business has dictated the new branch.

Even with the Sutton Rd. outlet handling well over 2,000 transactions monthly, "there still is an overload at the main office," explained Mr. Meadows. "On Fridays and Saturdays you can't get into the place."

The A&P branch will have a landscaped area around it, plus parking space for 20 cars.

Boys Are Hit Riding Double

Two 14-year-old boys riding double suffered minor injuries last Friday when their bike was struck by a car on the River Raisin bridge on N. Evans St.

Roger J. Cox, 14, of 115 River Acres Dr., and David A. Meyers, 14, of 1008 Red Mill Dr., were hit as they were crossing the centerline by an auto driven by Lawrence R. Beall, 33, San Bernardino, Calif.

Mr. Beall swerved to miss the boys and then slid into them in the left lane. He was not held responsible.

The Cox boy was pedaling the bike with young Meyers on the handlebars. Both were taken to Herrick Hospital.

Five other mishaps investigated by Tecumseh police were minor and only one driver was cited. A resume is:

July 28 — John F. Spreeman, 17, of 414 Center Dr., was charged with failure to stop in time after running into Dorothy Ann Withrow, 34, of 6900 Green Hwy. Mrs. Withrow was attempting to make a left turn off Adrian St. onto Pottawaamie S.

Lenawee Fair Opens Sunday

The flavor of the county fair is as nostalgic as cotton candy and as modern as the latest air-conditioned tractor.

Lenawee County Fair opens in Adrian Sunday.

In recent years a greatly increased interest has been shown in the fair largely due to the improved facilities, the quality of the exhibits and the new policy which provides free general admission to the grandstand with gate admission.

Many families take advantage of the opportunity to buy a family pass, including the car, for $5 which permits them to attend all week.

The annual Chicken Barbecue sponsored by the 4-H Club is the opening event which ushers in fair week activities. Serving is in the 4-H project building from 11:30 a.m. - 6 p.m., Sunday.

The midway will be open Sunday with rides in operation. There will be a pony pulling contest at 6:30 p.m.

There is something going on all the while on the fairgrounds.

4-H and Junior Livestock members will be putting the finishing touches in grooming their show livestock.

Judges will be deliberating about the finest livestock to be given the blue ribbons.

Area farmers will be doing some wishful thinking while looking at the rows of shiny new machinery — and their sons will be scrambling up on the high tractor seats to get the feel of the biggest ones.

The city youngsters will be clinging to Mom's hand and pointing gleefully at the cute little goats or climbing on the fence to get a better look at the sow nursing her ten little piglets.

There are several tents full of ponies and horses, enough to satisfy the littlest cowboy.

The Granges will have their building filled with intricate displays of farm produce and there's a bench to sit on while you look at them.

The new merchant's building will house the latest in commercial exhibits.

Among them will be a refrigerated display by the Lenawee Pork Producers Association showing the top swine carcasses to be judged.

The "something for everyone" entertainment in front of the grandstand will include the Fair Queen contest, tractor-pulling contest, Wolverine Futurity horse races and a horse shoe pitching contest.

"Moonlight Serenade" will star Doris Thompson, girl contortionist.

Jo Ann Castle, popular honky-tonk pianist with Lawrence Welk, stars Thursday and Friday.

Again this year the World's Fair Hell Drivers Thrill Show will climax the busy week with two exciting shows at 7 p.m. and 9 p.m. Saturday.

Mike Hill, Jim Wilson To Play in Michigan Open

Mike Hill, Tecumseh Country Club pro, and Jim Wilson of Brooklyn will play in the Michigan Open golf tournament at Spring Meadows Country Club, Linden.

The local pro finished second last year and automatically qualified.

Wilson, a top amateur here, who lost last week in the quarter-final round of the Jackson Citizen-Patriot Tournament, qualified with a 79 round Monday over the Linden course.

Bill Holmes, TCC club champion, qualified Monday in the Toledo District Amateur Tournament, won his first match Tuesday morning, then bowed in the afternoon match.

He did not play in the qualifying round for the Michigan Open, which will be medal play over 72 holes, Aug. 19-20-21.

Children Receive Head Start

By DENICE ANDERSON

The little boys didn't walk — they ran.

Big grins covered the faces of the children as they ate their cookies and drank their milk.

"See my mustache?" one little boy asked as he proudly displayed the thin white line of milk that ran across his upper lip.

"I am wearing my "eber-day" clothes," one child confided to his friend.

Four young men had a contest to see if they could pick up the table. They could.

Typical classroom scene? Yes. The only difference was that these children are a part of the Tecumseh Head Start Program.

Aimed to help pre-school children who will begin kindergarten in the fall, Head Start helps youngsters become acquainted with school life and to give them a wide variety of experiences to increase their meaningful vocabulary.

Twenty-three children are enrolled in the summer program and they are under the care and direction of Mrs. Graham Fleming and Wayne Kaiser, co-directors of the program.

Mrs. Fleming is a teacher in the Tecumseh school system and Mr. Kaiser is the principal of both Sutton School and Tecumseh Acres where the classes are held.

The program, which receives $6,669 from the federal government, has given many of the children a chance to see things that otherwise would have been denied them.

There are no local school funds used to promote the program.

The children have taken trips to the zoo, the park, a bakery, a farm, Hidden Lake Gardens and the fire station. They will be going to the Toledo Airport soon and then to the Lenawee County Fair.

The children are looking forward to attending school in the fall and it is felt they will have less trouble adjusting to the new surroundings than other children attending for the first time, said Mrs. Fleming.

"The youngsters will be comfortable and will be a stable influence on the rest of the children making adjustments the first few days," continued Mrs. Fleming.

The changes taken place in the children since the first day of classes are remarkable, said Mr. Kaiser.

A few children were afraid and shy and they would sit by themselves and not talk. But now all are full of life and eagerly participate in everything from smelling tests to cleaning the tables after their milk and cookies.

The smelling and tasting test served as an example of what the children were like the first few days.

As Mrs. Fleming passed around the different bottles that contained sugar, vanilla, vinegar, pepper and such, the children were to smell the bottles and say what was inside. They could then taste the ingredients if

BEHIND PAGE ONE

Well, he's at it again. That Tecumseh resident is making bets — this time about when the main street and the intersecting street in Tecumseh were first cemented. Anybody know?

Cars carrying participants in this year's Jaycee Treasure Hunt will carry some easily-identified insignia, according to Ron Coleman, chairman of the event. This precaution, it is hoped, will prevent recurrence of one of last year's most embarrassing moments, when a group of contestants, parked on a quiet city street and trying to decipher a difficult clue, were spotted by a conscientious citizen and subsequently questioned by police following up a "suspicious loiterer" tip.

Credit Mrs. John Howell with being one of the most talented contributors to Behind Page One. And, how about you coming up with some tidbits?

Tecumseh got a neat plug on national television a week ago when Mrs. Dick Egli appeared with a question-from-the-audience on the Joey Bishop late night show. She identified herself and gave her hometown, to which Mr. Bishop asked, "Where did you say?"

"Tecumseh, Michigan," Lori came back.

"How," Joey replied, Indian fashion.

A boy's "Bill of Rights" says that he has a right to the pursuit of happiness. He has a right to friendship and affection. He has a right to the sense of security in belonging to some group. He has a right to the health protections that will make him an inch taller than his father. He has a right to an education and he has the right to accept the obligations of citizenship in a democracy — perhaps the greatest right a boy, or anyone else, can have.

Mrs. Caroline Schanz of Macon is the one responsible for sending the Burma-Shave Long and Shorts to Bud Guest, who used the materials on his WJR "Sunny Side of The Street" radio show. Bud's listeners have since flooded him with their favorite Burma-Shave jingles.

A thief with scruples. Eva Kelley, of Eva's Beauty Bar, received her credentials in the mail last Tuesday. They had been lifted with her wallet, which she inadvertantly left in an ice cream parlor while weekending in Benton Harbor. Probably the bloke that picked up the billfold had a good time with the $35, but at least he sent back the driver's license, etc.

Can someone loan young Donnie Martin an air pressure gauge? Out for a ride on a Gambles bicycle-built-for-two, he pumped air into one tire at Ed's Standard Service and then gingerly started out for Evans St. when the tube exploded.

Thanks to folks who have dropped off green stamps at The Herald. They're going to a priest in Utah, who uses them to obtain needed items (like a school bus) for his parish. He visited Tecumseh recently on a fund-raising junket, smilingly told St. Elizabeth members, "Please make a donation in green. If not money, green stamps." We'll forward all stamps his way.

Some tickets for Saturday night Jaycee Treasure Hunt still are available. Call John Howell 423-2361 for details.

Congressman Wes Vivian reports he "is looking forward to the chicken barbecue (Sunday) at the Lenawee County Fair."

How about an outdoor art show on Sidewalk Fun Day? A perfect place would be in the area of the Adrian Federal Savings & Loan building, maybe even on the park between it and Pickard Flowers. Local artists might get a show going and add one more attraction to the annual downtown promotion.

Who saw Greg Aebersold on the Walter Cronkite program Monday evening? His mom, Mrs. E. J. Aebersold, has been told that her son, Lt. Colonel Aebersold, was interviewed at some length concerning a new plane he is flying in Vietnam. He has been there since February. Mrs. A. would like to learn more about the TV presentation.

Recent contributions to the Herrick Memorial Auxiliary Heart Fund have been made by Mrs. John Keeney and sons; the Knights of Pythias of Tipton and Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney — all in memory of the late John Keeney.

When United Saving Bank's Pat Meadows was giving data for a story on the new branch, the question was asked how many people are using the Sutton outlet. Pat responded that it topped 2,000 last month. With this, the reporters couldn't resist, "Does that include the holdup?"

Pat came right back. "No, 2,000 transactions and one unauthorized withdrawal."

they wished.

The first time the bottle went around only a few brave ones took a sniff.

As the bottle continued around the circle a second time, the youngsters saw that whatever was in the bottle didn't hurt their friends so they took a sniff, too.

It was in much the same way that the children slowly came out of their shells after the first few days of school.

The children have grown not only in communication skills, but also in social skills. They are becoming independent and curious, said Mrs. Fleming.

Not all of the children come from a socially deprived environment.

About 10% of the youngsters come from average-incomed families, families that do not have problems stemming from unemployment, large numbers of children or unequal opportunities.

The 10% stimulate the other children by their questions and give them a chance to see how other people live and react to different experiences.

"We were told to expect dropouts and low attendance," said Mrs. Fleming.

But the opposite has happened. The children are eager to attend and if any are absent, it is due to illness or some unavoidable factor, she continued.

Mrs. Fleming and Mr. Kaiser are assisted by Virginia Dollison, Sandra Keith, Garna Gove and JoAnn Biscupski from the Future Teachers Club.

The teacher aids are Mrs. Charles Hills and Mrs. Wayne Kaiser.

There are four Head Start programs now in Lenawee County plus migrant schools.

A program of this sort would be worthwhile for next year, said Mr. Kaiser, but no plans have been made as of yet to continue with the program.

From the happy smiles on the faces of the youngsters, the program has, indeed, been very worthwhile.

City Could Collect Junk, Bill Firm

Dependable Garbage of Napoleon drew some criticism — and some backing — from councilmen Monday night.

Dr. Carlton Cook inquired what could be done about the poor service and what recourse a citizen had. He said that he had received numerous complaints.

City Manager Cal Zorn stated that the city could pick up the trash and see and then bill Dependable for the city's cost.

He also reported that the city could contact the bonding company.

MAYOR Harold Easton cited several complaints and opined that they were not legitimate. He had verified them by making personal inspections.

At present, dependable is experimenting with paper sacks and hopes to improve its service by eliminating the metal garbage can. Seminole Dr. residents are now using the sacks for a four-week period.

Residents in other areas will be given the chance later to try the sacks.

Indian Fan Club Formed

By DOROTHY GRIGG

Considerable enthusiasm is being shown for the new Indian Fan Club, recently dreamed up by six Tecumseh men.

Forty-three men and women met Monday evening in the high school gym to formally organize the group, dedicated to develop, promote and support all sports of both the junior and senior high school, as well as the summer recreation programs of the city.

A constitution and bylaws were adopted and the Fan Club selected the first project, the physical support of the high school's conditioning camp. The training program is scheduled to begin Aug. 22 at Boysville.

GLEN WORK was appointed chairman and he announced that the committee would work in close cooperation with Jack Osburn. Mr. Osburn has volunteered his services as quartermaster and mess sergeant for the past seven years.

He has not only bought all the food, but prepared all the meals himself.

Pastor Kurt F. Koeplin said Tuesday, "Mr. Osburn not only has done this but is most willing to continue even though his own children are no longer in school. We think that the least we can do is help him."

A membership committee was appointed with Russell Hyatt as chairman. Wayne Hebb will head the finance committee.

THE BOARD of Directors of the Fan Club are also the officers. They are:

President — Glen Work
Vice-president — Wayne Hebb
Secretary — Robert Gibson
Treasurer — Pastor Koeplin
Trustees — Fred Ward, Kenneth Pieh, Stuart Costigan and Jerry Barton

Club members approved setting the second Monday of the month as the regular meeting date and decided to hold the second session Aug. 8 at 7:30 p.m. in the high school gym.

PLANS for a widespread membership drive will be discussed and implemented with progress reports heard from other committees.

"It is very important," said President Work, "that a solid foundation be laid so as to insure success of the club. The fans are here, let's organize them into a hard-working group in order that kids of the community can enjoy still better program and facilities."

Membership is open to any adult interested in the goals of the club and officers urge their presence at next Monday's meeting.

A minimum of 500 persons with a nucleus of 25 to 30 hard workers, is sought.

TENTATIVE PROJECTS could include completing the press box and rest rooms, cutting weeds around the baseball diamonds, bleachers for the American Legion games, additional diamonds, a baseball program for all boys too old for Pony League ball and not eligible for Legion teams, and winter and spring sports banquets.

The presentation of films taken during football and basketball games for those who would care to see them is almost a certainty at meetings other than the regular ones.

Mr. Hebb is investigating the purchase of Fan Club buttons and plastic pullover sweaters for children to be used as a money-making project.

Board Limits OK

By JUDY FIELDER

If Ronald Baughey meets requirements set up by the Raisin Township Board during a long closed session Monday night, he can re-open his dump at the end of East Valley Rd.

A petition signed by over 100 township residents requesting the reopening, a letter from the Baughey's and a doctor's medical opinion were presented to the board by Max Taylor of Adrian.

Mr. Taylor, a registered professional engineer, appeared as spokesman for the couple.

FOUR CONDITIONS must be met before the dump can be reopened:

- Provisions must be made to dispose of all future rubbish by creating a proper sanitary land fill in accordance with the 1965 state law. This includes a $500 per acre personal performance bond and covering rubbish daily.
- Protection for fires that may develop in the existing rubbish bank, with arrangements conforming to Lenawee Health Department standards, which could be a water tank or a pile of dirt and a bulldozer.
- In addition to the state bond, a $10,000 personal performance bond to Raisin Township, with two of the sureties on the bond Mr. and Mrs. Max Taylor.
- A key to be given to the township supervisor and to the health department sanitation engineer to enable inspection of the premises at any time.

IF THE BAUGHEYS meet these requirements and re-open, then they must:

- Make and carry out plans to take care of the existing rubbish bank within six months.
- Within 12 months, comply with rules No. 2 and 3 of the state public health and engineering division, including a typographical survey, dike and trenches.
- Install a fence between Baughey property and Stauffer Chemical Co. property within 30 days, because of allegations that previous trouble in the dump resulted from acts of trespassers on the property.

26-Year Products Veteran Retires

Percy Mills, 68, of Adrian was retired by Tecumseh Products Co. after being employed there almost 26 years.

He started with the company on Valentine's Day, 1940, and his last day was July 29. His work was in the machine shop and on inspection, was recently employed in the white room.

Mrs. Mills said of her husband's retirement, "It's wonderful and it's maddening. His health is good and he likes to work. Right now he is working on our house and fixing the basement."

Fellow employees presented Mr. Mills with a spinning reel, rod and tackle box which he is proud of and expects to make good use.

The Company gave him a lapel pin with a diamond and two rubies for his 25 years of employment.

Easton Is Delegate to League

Mayor Harold Easton was appointed Tecumseh's delegate to the annual meeting in Detroit next month of the Michigan Municipal League.

City Manager Cal Zorn was selected as alternate delegate by Council Monday night.

Council Says Horse Farm Shed Legal

Four neighbors of Tecumseh Sash and Door and Robert D. Moore, owner, were told by Council Monday night that a shed addition on the Moore property was legal.

The neighbors, Carl Kennel, Lowell Edwards, Frank Hoekstra and Earl Ruttkofsky told city officials that Mr. Moore has six horses on his property and could be starting a horse farm.

Lynn Noble, city building inspector who issued the building permit, said the addition was for hay and grain storage and permissable under city ordinance.

Mr. Moore has had horses on his property for many years, prior to a city ordinance which now makes it non-conforming.

The neighbors said a few years ago that Mr. Moore had removed all his horses and then bought some more.

Council turned the problem over to Cal Zorn, city manager, and asked that he discuss it with the city attorney. The neighbors were told that they would be notified of any action.

Clues Are Ready for Treasure Hunt

By CAROL HOWELL

There's a lot of mysterious collecting going on around town, as contestants prepare to embark on the Tecumseh Jaycees' second annual Treasure Hunt.

A check list provided with each ticket suggests that the hunter's car carry such necessities as the current Tecumseh Herald, a Boy Scout manual, 25 ft. of rope, a pair of pliers, a two-gallon bucket and a spade.

(There's also a caution that one member of each party must be prepared to enter water—shallow water—to retrieve a clue.)

THE HUNT begins promptly at 5 p.m. Saturday at Tecumseh Community Center. There, each carload of players will receive a set of instructions and the first sealed clue.

From then on, it's every man for himself.

After deciphering instructions, players proceeds to the site indicated by the first clue.

There he picks up evidence of his visit and a second clue, also in code. After covering approximately 75 miles (if he follows the direct route) he will arrive at the evening's final destination — a well-guarded secret.

Treasure hunters will then join for a buffet dinner, swimming and dancing to the music of a Dixieland band.

CASH PRIZES will be awarded to the first, second and third cars to complete the run. Dress is casual.

Some tickets still are available and can be obtained from any Jaycee or by calling 423-2255, 423-7113, 423-2361.

Tickets are $10 a couple.

Richard Palmer Serves Aboard USS Destroyer

Navy Lieut. j.g. Richard L. Palmer, son of Mrs. Ruth Palmer of 3651 Hoagland Hwy., Britton, is scheduled to arrive at Long Beach, Calif., Aug. 3 aboard the destroyer USS Rupertus which has been deployed more than two years in the Western Pacific with the U. S. Seventh Fleet.

During the deployment, the Rupertus participated in Market Time surveillance operations off the coast of Vietnam and served as gunfire support ship, firing over 5,500 rounds of ammunition in support of fighting units along the Vietnamese coast.

She also stood by as a Gemini recovery ship with the Western Pacific Spacecraft Recovery Force during several of the Gemini missions.

Out In Oregon

Editor's note: Walt Zarnoch, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Zarnoch, 400 Center Dr., is spending the summer at the Ukiah Ranger Station in Ukiah, Ort. Walt is a sophomore at Michigan State University, where he is majoring in forestry.

By WALT ZARNOCH

UKIAH, Ore. — I want to thank you for sending me the Tecumseh Herald. It keeps me in touch with what happens back home and around the Tecumseh area.

When I first came here, I was on the brush piling crew. Then I was on the timber management crew where I marked trees to be left after thinning.

In the field, we play a game to see who can shoot the most flies out of the air with their paint guns. About three years ago I heard that some guy painted a cow blue. He got fired.

After this crew, I was doing the actual thinning. A chain saw sure gets heavy after the end of a day. Supposed to weigh between 40-50 pounds, but it seems more.

AND FINALLY, I'm on the surveying crew. I'm only going to be on this crew a week or so. It's an easy day and the time goes fairly fast.

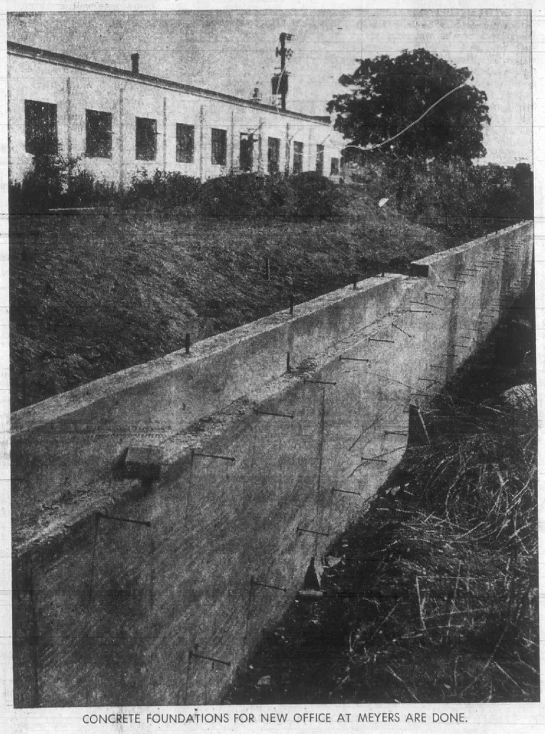
Everything they do, I've had at school.

We're surveying an all-purpose road and putting the center line in. Have to chop our way thru the trees.

You can't beat working outdoors in the hills. If we don't see a deer or elk on the way to work, it's a bad day.

One day I was thinning up on a ridge. I looked down at our rig and there was a good eight-point buck.

A lot of pretty wild flowers out here also.



CONCRETE FOUNDATIONS FOR NEW OFFICE AT MEYERS ARE DONE.

Meyers Constructs Office

Second all-electric office building in Lenawee County is under construction at Meyers Industries, Inc. Facing Tecumseh-Clinton Rd., on the west side of the factory, the 28' x 6' structure with a 12' x 18' utility area will be completed in about eight weeks, according to Mrs. Robert Fuller, Meyers secretary - treasurer. Mrs. Fuller designed the building several years ago, recently had the Reynolds Co. bring it up to date. The all-aluminum structure will contain two private offices, a conference room, file room, lobby and receptionist and general offices. An outdoor display area will also be incorporated. Meyers Industries is one of the largest users of aluminum in this area, 400,000 pounds since December in production of 12 styles of fishing boats, plus an all-purpose runabout and Jeep tops.

Walper Holds Clinic

Growers in this area may have their crop plants given an "annual physical check-up".

The ORTHO Crop Health Center, sponsored by J. J. Walper & Sons, Britton, has been scheduled to be held Aug. 1, at the store office.

Max Maichele, ORTHO Agronomist, will conduct the clinic between the hours of 2 - 6 p.m., so that growers may have their crop plants given a free tissue test.

Growers are invited to attend the Crop Health Center and bring three freshly-cut plants of any one of the following crops: corn, milo, soybeans, or alfalfa. The entire plant with leaves attached should be brought to the clinic.

The ORTHO Agronomist suggests that corn plants should be in the early tasseling stage and milo plants in the early milk stage. Other crop plants should be at the medium mature stage.

Red Mystery Is Solved

The "Red" Mystery is solved.

The Herald received a letter from Orville Farver with another letter addressed to Red Fanar, the Tecumseh recreation director, enclosed.

Mr. Farver explained that the letter had been placed in his PO box in error and he thought we might be able to find the owner since the body of the letter mentioned an article printed in this paper.

After some investigation, mostly about Melbourne "Red" Wilson present in Michigan from his home in Arizona, the Herald staff returned the letter to the sender, Oscar E. Johnson of Baldwin.

This reply came from Mr. Johnson.

"Want to thank you for your thoughtfulness about my letter. It should have gone to Red Fanar of Trenton, but I must have been thinking about Tecumseh of many years ago. But I also knew Red Wilson very well. Thanking you again for your trouble.

"Very truly yours,
Oscar E. Johnson (Okie)
Box 347, Baldwin, Mich."

Soil Erosion Is Being Fought by Area Farmers

Erosion of the sloping croplands of Lenawee county is being fought by the Lenawee Soil and Water Conservation District cooperators who are completing sod waterways this year.

Because deep water runs fast, the design of the waterways is such that each is built to carry water so it flows wide and shallow, enabling sod to carry the surplus water without erosion.

Area coordinators working on this problem include Ken Munger, Franklin Twp., S. J. Horger, Adrian Twp., Robert Walters, Medina Twp., and Larry Wilt, Fairfield Twp.

State Fair Has Parking

It'll be easier to park and easier to come and go at the Michigan State Fair this year. And it'll be easier to pick up junior if he wanders away from your side.

Increasing attendance — more than a million trooped through the gates last year — brought the need for more parking space, spoke Walter A. Goodman, State Fair general manager, of the 50 percent boost in parking area.

In addition, several entrances have been widened and new traffic patterns worked out for easier parking-lot entrances and exits.

The lost-kids department has been moved from trailer headquarters to accommodations in a permanent building located at the Grandstand, near the police department. Facilities have been greatly expanded and improved.

The 117th State Fair opens August 26 and runs through September 5.

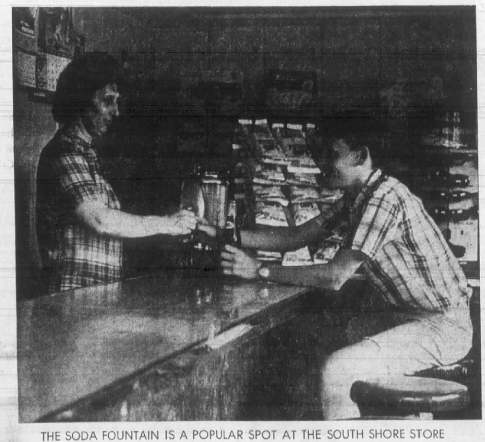
Popular Store Has Served Vacationers for 40 Years

By DENICE ANDERSON

What was once a simple farm house has been transformed into a combination grocery store, soda fountain and bar serving the nearly 300 cottages which now surround it.



THE SODA FOUNTAIN IS A POPULAR SPOT AT THE SOUTH SHORE STORE

The old dirt trail that once led to the house has been paved and it now leads to a pleasant resort area where vacationers patronize the Gentner and Lapham store.

Herb Gentner and Russ Lapham are owners and they have done much to create a pleasant atmosphere for the many vacationers who visit the Irish Hills resort each year.

Since the beginning of the transformation, the two men have developed the subdivision, making five additions to the original land.

A channel now provides resorters with a connection to Wamplers Lake.

The bar was added in 1933 and the owners have the oldest licenses in the county. The bar is furnished with a pool table and a bowling machine.

A baseball diamond is in steady use and the shore of Wamplers Lake is immediately behind the store.

Many of the resorters come from the Detroit area and Herb and Russ stay open all year to serve the 50 residents living there year-round. Students are bused to the Onsted Schools.

The store that began over 40 years ago is still going strong.

Old Stagecoach Inn Is Now Bauer Manor

By JUDY FIELDER

-year-old stagecoach inn with istory-history has a new at-

Manor, one of two restau- the United States in continu- ration since its opening on n 1839, has a new colonial ar.

ar, remodeled from a coffee tches the period of the Manor, hasizes the rustic rather than nt atmosphere captured else- the restaurant.

-sawed pine board and batten eling and bar front is set off -seated stools.

ar shake roof hangs over the le antique mugs and beer atop window cornice boards.

ted German beer on tap is in antique goblets, a hand- ictrola plays records in lieu e box and an original Lincoln manuscript in a scrolled frame graces the wall.

Coachlights flicker on the walls and oil lanterns set off red checkered tablecloths.

From the white columned veranda of the year-around restaurant, gentle waves striking the beach offer soft breezes with the refined country atmosphere.

Rush-seated ladderback chairs surround white-covered tables set with antique goblets and ware in the two dining rooms, which seat 150.

Natural wood floors, polished to a gentle sheen, lend to the atmosphere of warmth, along with sheer ruffled curtains and decorative plates on the walls and in open cupboards.

One room, which overlooks Evans Lake, boasts a hand-carved sideboard and a square Steinway piano dated 1859 that was delivered to the Manor by the company in 1865.

The other dining room, with beamed ceiling and fireplace, features a grandfather clock over 110 years old.

While the atmosphere is a drawing card, the homemade food brings people back time and again.

"Homemade" is the word for everything, from prime rib of beef and hickory-smoked ham to the house specialty — Chicken Supreme — filet breast of chicken, stuffed and served with wine sauce.

Individual loaves of homemade bread grace each meal.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth VanDoren operate the Manor with the assistance of their three teenagers and a dozen area young people.

Mrs. VanDoren does much of the cooking herself, often starting at 5 a.m., to whip up her homemade noodles, biscuits, bread and pies.

Mr. and Mrs. VanDoren are keeping the tradition of continuous operation of the Manor by remaining open daily throughout the year.

TECUMSEH GIRL STARS — Years of hard work and efforts by Tecumseh's Julie Parrish (nee Joyce Wilbar) are now paying off. Her hometown theatre gave Julie star ratings along with Frankie Avalon and Annette for "Fireball 500" which has been making the circuit the past month. Julie's other big role comes in "Paradise, Hawaiian Style" with Elvis Presley. Specific commitments for the future haven't been announced as yet by Miss Parrish's agent, but based on past activity, she'll likely be hustling with classes on acting, singing and dancing.

Cub League All-Stars Nip Blissfield, 3 to 0

By RUSS HYATT

It was a fine day for the Tecumseh Cub League All-Stars Saturday afternoon as they downed the Blissfield All-Stars, 3-0.

Led by the hitting of Craig Smith and the fine pitching of Vern Bennett, Tecumseh scored in the first inning and that was enough for victory.

Rickey Bunch led off the Tecumseh first with a single to left field. After Tom Prichard and Mike Tilton advanced Bunch to third on a pair of infield outs, Craig Smith drove home the first of his two runs batted in with a sharp drive to center field.

Blissfield was able to get a base runner in each of the first three innings but could not score. Tecumseh concluded the scoring in the home half of the third with a pair of runs.

AGAIN Rick Bunch started the inning by getting a base on an error. Louis Rebottaro batted for Pritchard and hit what looked like a sure double play ball. But an error in the play at second left all hands safe.

Mike Tilton was then robbed of an extra base hit. The Blissfield third baseman reached across his body to backhand Tilton's sharp liner.

Craig Smith then singled home Bunch with Tecumseh's second run.

With Rebottaro on third and one out, David Gurtzweiler hit a slow roller to third and was thrown out at first, scoring Rebottaro with the final run of the game.

BLISSFIELD, however, did not give up and continued to get runners on base in each inning.

With Gurtzweiler pitching in relief of Bennett, Blissfield's first two batters in the top of the fifth reached first on walks.

Craig Smith then came on in to stop the Blissfield rally, striking out the side.

Blissfield tried again in the last inning, when with one out Raymon Rosas hit a drive off the right field fence past Kent Downing. Kent retrieved the ball and with a perfect throw nailed Rosas going into second base for the second out.

An infield ground out ended the ball game.

SPARKLING defensive plays by both sides highlighted the game.

The stop of Tilton's liner in the third inning by Rafel Villegas was one gem.

Dave Shreve of Blissfield made a fine running catch on Rick Bunch in the fifth inning in center field for another.

Dave Ryan of Tecumseh made a fine over-the-shoulder catch on Carlos Sandiago of Blissfield in the fourth inning on a well-hit ball.

Vern Bennett was the winning pitcher, giving up no runs, one hit and striking out three in the four innings he pitched.

Craig Smith came on in relief of David Gurtzweiler in the fifth inning and finished the last two innings, striking out three, giving up no runs and one hit.

Rosas was the losing pitcher going all the way giving up three runs, three hits and striking out four.

Smith had two hits for Tecumseh and Rick Bunch one. Rosas and Steve Meyers each had a hit for Blissfield.

NEXT FRIDAY night in Onsted, another group of boys will represent Tecumseh in the final All-Star game of the year at 7 o'clock.

Giants Take Two Minor Loop Wins

● GIANTS 12, INDIANS 3

Strong pitching made the difference in the Giants victory over the Indians, 12-3.

Being the last game of the season, both teams used a host of pitchers.

The Giants got five runs in the first inning and it put them safely on their way to victory. They also scored eight in the third.

Jim Sessoms, Denny Kaechele and Dave McLoughlin were the game's leading hitters.

—o—

● GIANTS 12, DODGERS 1

Denny Kaechele and Jim Sessoms not only shared pitching duties for the Giants but they were also the team's leading hitters with Denny getting a triple and Jim belting a home run.

The Giants defeated the Dodgers, 12-1.

Denny drove in the first runners with his triple while two teammates were on base. Dale Forsyth had been safe on an error and Jim Martin had walked.

Dave McLoughlin also hit a triple with the bases loaded in the fifth inning.

—o—

● BRAVES 21, TWINS 6

Braves trounced the Twins, 21-6.

Kenny Cole hit a home run in the second inning and Jeff Berry also got a home run in the fifth on a bad throw from outfield to home plate.

Jeff again came into the scene when he got a walk in the second inning. Kevin Osburn came to the plate and belted Jeff in with a triple.

Jeff and Rodney Cole were pitcher and catcher for the Braves.

Alan Schaffer and Ross Fisher were the Twins' battery.

PONY LEAGUE RESULTS

G&J in Title Tilt

G & J Wood Products will bid for the 1966 Pony League championship in Thursday night's tournament finale at 5:30 on Recreation Field diamond, facing either Britton or VFW, who were to meet Wednesday evening in semi-final play.

TPW 1, EAGLES 0

TPW took advantage of Butch Quinn's finest game, an airtight defense and one series of Eagle errors to walk off the field with a tournament victory by defeating the Eagles, 1-0

Mike Kennedy, TPW player, led off in the third with a hard grounder that was bobbled in the infield. As he tried to steal second, the ball was overthrown and Kennedy broke for third.

The centerfielder's low throw got to the base the same time as the sliding Kennedy but it again got by and Mike came home with the only run of the game, said the Rev. Kurt Keeplin.

Both pitchers, Butch Quinn, TPW, and Alex Gibson, Eagles, had excellent control and each pitched a strong ball game, issuing only one walk apiece.

Marvin Maynard, Eagle shortstop, took base hits from Doug Heausler in the fourth inning and Dave Ward in the sixth.

Mike Kennedy was behind the plate for TPW and Gerald Girbach took the same position for the Eagles

● BRITTON 12, INDIANS 5

Gary Judkins played a fine game on the mound to help Britton defeat the Indians, 12-5.

Chuck Moore was his pitcher.

Britton had two double plays to help their cause.

Billy Tuberville and Tom Drouillard were the losing pitcher and catcher.

Dick Schroeder and Gary Judkins were the leading hitters for Britton and Tom Drouillard and Billy Tuberville led the batters for the Indians.

—o—

● EAGLES 14, INDIANS 2

Jim Smith, Indian player, wrecked Eagle pitcher Alex Gibson's chance of getting a not-hit game by connecting with the ball in the fifth to make the only Indian hit.

The Indians were beaten by the Eagles, 14-2.

Gerald Girbach, Eagles catcher, hit a hard grounder to the fence which helped to score a home run.

Mark Hetrick was the Indian pitcher and his catcher was Bill Tuberville.

● G&J 5, TPW 0

Wild pitching was the TPW downfall as G&J defeated TPW, 5-0.

Bob Reed, G&J pitcher, pitched a one-hitter. His catcher was Steve Tilton.

Dave Ward and Mike Kennedy were the battery for TPW.

Ken Pieh hit a homerun and John Schoonover was another leading hitter.

—o—

● VFW 1, BRITTON 0

The best defensive game of the season was played as the two teams vied for first place in the Pony League.

VFW beat Britton, 1-0.

What proved to be the game winning run came in the sixth inning when Tom Aiuto made first on a bunt, stole second and then scored on Jim Curtis' single.

Rick Calzada was on the mound for VFW and John Hall played behind the plate.

Charles Staples Getting Prepared for Wintertime

BIG RAPIDS — Cold weather may be a long way off at the moment, but Charles Staples of Beach Bros. in Tecumseh and 27 other oil fuel technicians have been getting a head start on the heating season by going back to school.

The technicians have been learning new servicing techniques at Ferris State College during a two-week workshop on oil fuel heaters.

Classroom lectures dealing with the many types of burners now in production, electrical controls and testing equipment have been accented with laboratory sessions on working models in Ferris' modern service area.

The self-supporting seminar is jointly sponsored by the Michigan Petroleum Association and Ferris' School of Technical and Applied Arts with instructors supplied by the National Oil Fuel Institute.

Senior Girls Are Defeated by 3 Rivals

The Tecumseh Senior Girls have lost three games and won one in their bouts with Clinton, Monroe, Hudson and Britton.

They beat Britton, 35-5, with Emily Manwaring, Beth O'Neil and Kathy Hall leading hitters.

Beth was also the winning pitcher.

All games were away except the Hudson game in which the girls were beaten 18-6.

Emily connected for a triple and a double and Jackie Rodgers was the losing pitcher.

Hudson hitters were Barb Redding, Pam Peacock and Karman Sheriff.

The girls were beaten by Clinton, 7-6, with Beth O'Neil taking the loss. Carolyn Purple was Tecumseh's leading hitter.

The Monroe players beat the Senior Girls, 24-4. Kathy Hall was top hitter and Emily Manwaring was the losing pitcher.

Monroe scored 11 in the first inning with Sandy May lead hitter.

Through My Window

THE RED-HEAD IS BACK

Mom was upstairs changing her clothes, Dad was making coffee in the kitchen, Gram was in the living room completely engrossed in a good book and the air conditioner was roaring. How could I alert somebody as to who was on the feeding station?

I could hardly believe it myself, and certainly, someone else should see him. Yet, if I called loud enough to be heard in the other part of the house, surely I would also be heard outside.

The problem was solved when Dad wandered in—he was as excited and surprised as I. After all, it isn't every day that we see a red-headed woodpecker. In fact, it isn't every year or even every few years. I do not remember exactly how long ago it was that the last red-head investigated the feeder. Unfortunately, by the time Dad had looked and then dashed to the stairs for Mom, the bird had gone. A short stay but WOW, WOW'eee' WOW!

The red-head had spent his brief few minutes with us perched near the top of the post which stands at the corner of the feeder. I cannot honestly say that he was the most handsome bird ever—exciting and thrilling yes, but he was also a little unkempted.

His fiery red head showed a few dark streaks and the feathers, instead of being smooth and slick, were slightly ragged. Traces of tattle-tale gray marred his white front but the large patches of white on his wings were spotless. I think without a doubt that our bird was a young adult who was just having a little trouble growing up.

A VERY YOUNG red-headed woodpecker I have never seen. He must be something though, a little dowdy but perhaps rather cute. Instead of a bright red colored head he has a dull, dusty, dark one. Often, according to the "Audubon Bird Guide", this juvenile plumage is worn for quite awhile. Therefore it can be assumed that our bird was either from a very, very early brood this spring or a very, very late one last summer.

ACTUALLY, what difference does age make? A red-headed woodpecker came to the feeder the other day and I am still not over the thrill. My bird picture file is still without a red-head though. He very carefully stayed out of camera range. If ever I do have the chance to click a camera's shutter on one of these woodpeckers, my whoop of triumph will be heard all over town.

Years ago, when the last red-head visited us, the frustration of no picture was worse than this time. He was a truly handsome fellow, brilliantly colored and, although he probably was only 10 inches long, in my mind's picture he has grown with the years. The camera was all set and, when we saw him in the nearby trees, how we wished that he would come to the feeder.

When he started this way I could hardly believe it. My arm shot up to the camera switch and oh, no. The bird lit on the opposite side of the post, the side away from the camera. There we were—Marda ready to take a picture and her model stubbornly clinging to the wrong side of his perch. When finally he moved it was to fly away.

So it is that with the other day's sighting, our hopes are high for further visits from and perhaps even pictures of the great bird—just think, the red-head is back!

Sheriff Captures Two Races

By JUDY BAXTER

Don Earles of Hillsdale, just back after being involved in an automobile accident two weeks ago, was a triple winner Friday night at Manchester Speedway.

He took the first heat, the pursuit and then coming back to take the big 25-lap feature.

Larry Gray of Adrian captured the second heat, while Washtenaw County Sheriff Doug Harvey took both the fourth heat and the semi.

Ray Lewis of Adrian won the fifth heat.

The super-stock heat and feature were both won by Jerry Pannone of Napoleon.

The mechanics' race was won by Dick Golightly. (Your guess is as good as mine, folks!!)

Next Friday there will be a mechanics' race for the super-stock cars, and then the following Friday, there will be a Powder Puff for the super-stocks.

Kiwanis Wins

Even a home run by Lenawee Fuel player Frank Geisenhaver couldn't insure a victory for them as Fuels were beaten by Kiwanis, 7-5.

The lead hitters were Ken Baker, Albert Flores and Roger Ashenfelter.

Alfert Flores was on the mound for the Kiwanis and Mike Gilpin was behind the plate.

The losing battery was made up of Steve Camfield and Mike Eggleston.

Missionaries Will Address Parishioners

BRITTON — Special guests at the Bethel Baptist Church this Sunday will be Donald, Pat and Devonne Block of Marion.

The Blocks are missionaries to Haiti. They will speak at the morning worship at 11 a.m., to the young people at 6:30 p.m., and will show slides and curios of Haiti at the evening service at 7:30 p.m.

The Blocks are members of the Skeels Baptist Church at Gladwin and are both graduates of the Grand Rapids Bible College.

Mr. Block visited Haiti during his high school days and was impressed with the need of the Haitian people. This last fall he and Mrs. Block visited there and felt compelled to take the Gospel message to the people.

RICHARD CLUTE HAS A 'LOVERLY' SIDEWALK THAT GOES NOWHERE

Lonely Sidewalk

Honors for the shortest public sidewalk in town are being claimed by Richard Clute, 104 Pine St.

"Yes, it took some doing for the city to let me put it in," said Mr. Clute (tongue in cheekily), "After all, there are no public sidewalks in this area."

Mr. Clute, who built his home last summer when he was transferred to the local Fisher Body plant, said that his driveway was originally planned to be an all-asphalt drive with an entirely different grade.

"We had the driveway all graded and the asphalt layers ready to begin when Lynn Noble, the city engineer, threatened to throw them in jail if they didn't put the sidewalk in first," said Mr. Clute.

The driveway finishing was held up for a week while Mr. Clute attempted to prevent the installation of the concrete strip through his asphalt drive.

"I told the city that I would be happy to put the sidewalks in when everyone in the area did, but that didn't make any difference," said Mr. Clute.

"We had to completely change the grade of the driveway. The grade was just right, but we had to raise this to the point where it is severe," he added. "I had to put helper springs on my car to raise the back end up enough to get in and out without scraping."

City manager Cal Zorn says no definite plans have been made for a program calling for new sidewalks in the area.

The current sidewalk program, according to Mr. Zorn, is "basically just repairs."

The city charter reads: the requiring of a real owner of real property within the city to maintain sidewalks abutting such property and if the owner fails to comply with such requirements or if the owner is unknown, to construct and maintain such sidewalks and assess the cost thereof against the abutting property in accordance with section 11.9.

"We asked them to bring the driveway up to sidewalk grade so we, or someone in the future can meet these drives when walks are being put in," said Mr. Zorn.

"The city wouldn't give an inch," said Mr. Clute.

Another problem with the city encountered in the construction of the Clute home was changing of the roof truss requirements after the building permit had been issued.

The builder was also told that sewer and water lines were in the lot, but after digging all the way across the lot, further inquiry showed the lines were in the street.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Everyone Loves Sidewalk Day

One of Tecumseh's best retail promotions over the years has been the annual summer Sidewalk Sale.

One storeman told The Herald just last Saturday that his normal sales for a Friday run about $800 to $900. On Sidewalk day last year, the gross was $1,900.

This is probably typical up and down Main Street.

On the other side of the coin, customers have equally as happy reports to make — a day of fun, plus A-1 merchandise obtained at all sorts of discount prices.

Plans are spinning for the 1966 event and include the annual zany women's Pancake Race (only one of its kind in Michigan), plus the makings of a band festival to end all band festivals (just teasing, kids.)

Put a big circle on your calendar around Friday, Aug. 12. That's Sidewalk day in Tecumseh — 9 until 9.

First Peek at World

A front-page feature story by Denice Anderson relates the success of this summer's Project Head Start in Tecumseh.

Twenty-three youngsters, almost all from culturally-deprived homes, were given what amounts to their first peek at the world.

Some had never heard of a picnic. Others had no notion of what a state park was. Many literally had never been out of their back yards.

The six weeks of Head Start has accomplished a great deal for these children — and probably within their family circles when they returned home to tell of their experiences.

Educators are high in their praise of Head Start, saying that it surely will help ward off difficulties for such children in future years, the result of always being behind their fellow students.

Now, we probably should compare these gains to the cost.

From the Federal government, Tecumseh received $6,669 for the six weeks. That breaks down to $280 per child for the session or approximately $46 per week.

The money doesn't come from Tecumseh School District funds, but it none-the-less does begin in the pocket of every wage earner in the area. So you are paying for Head Start.

Being a national program, you can multiply Tecumseh's $6,669 by thousands of communities all over the United States to give the cost of the program.

Many Helped Out

Suffice it to say, we're delighted that Tecumseh's football field will get spanking new lights before the 1966 season opens.

Our warmest congratulations go to all the people who have been instrumental in making the long-needed improvements.

The Jaycees spearheaded the effort. Dr. Robert Laidlaw as a representative of the Community Fund Foundation, Inc., pitched in. Board of Education members agreed to help. Others, who wish to be unnamed, also lent assistance.

Now we're awaiting word of the Exchange Club's project to increase the permanent seating arrangement — which could be frosting on the cake.

Tecumseh football followers have always been a loyal group. We'll wager that with vastly-improved lighting for home games, the size of crowds will swell.

Along these lines, there's the new Indian Fan Club, just getting started and that's great, too.

Britton Giving Band Concerts

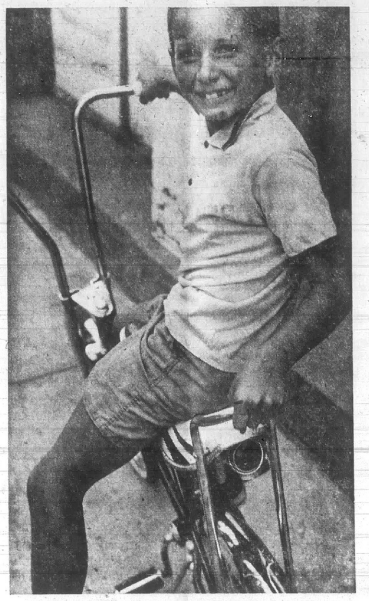
BRITTON — Are you tired, cross and irritable at the end of the day?

Would you enjoy relaxing in a quiet park listening to live music as the day draws to a close?

Then come on down to the Britton Village Park Thursday evenings to hear the Britton High School Band concerts.

Director George Berryman began the summer band program last week. Students have classes and practice on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday, including private lessons, and conclude each week with a delightful concert in the park.

The first concert was last Thursday. There will be four more on each Thursday in August at 7:30 p.m.



"WHEELIE" DEALIE — Ricky Butler, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Butler, 1111 Willow, earned a Sting-Ray in the Tecumseh Herald "Earn-a-Bike" subscription drive. Ricky tried a "wheelie" on his bike. (A "wheelie," to the uneducated, is when the front wheel is lifted off the ground and the youngster rides on the back wheel.) Ricky had trouble with his balance and fell, skinning his head — but he can still smile.

Legion Likes Cooperation

TO THE EDITORS:

Past Department Commander George S. Frederick has requested that I write and thank you for your splendid cooperation during the Legion Year 1965-66 which ended July 17.

I'm sure that the Department of Michigan will go down in the books as having one of the finest American Legion Public Relations programs in the United States this past year — thanks to your efforts.

The four basic programs of the Legion — Child welfare, service and rehabilitation, Americanism and national security — thrive on publicity.

People must know about them in order to take advantage of the services they offer — not only to Legionnaires but to citizens at large. You have helped us "get the word out" and we appreciate it.

We hope that this fine relationship can continue under our new Department Commander, Edwin J. Schuitema of Holland.

Commander Schuitema has indicated that he intends to give his fullest cooperation to the news media. Let us know of any special needs you may have which we can satisfy.

Sincerely,

Old Gang Is Gone Says Lady Reader

TO THE EDITORS:

Of my old time paper, but I am leaving the paper as I am moving out of Detroit. I thank you all for I did get a little enjoyment out of it, but all the old timers are not there anymore.

No one seems to be there of the old gang—all youngsters.

Best of luck.

Post Cards Are Enjoyed

TO THE EDITORS:

Russ and I would like to thank you very much for the post cards of Tecumseh, they're really excellent.

Mother has sent them to us in installments — the last two have yet to arrive, but we're looking forward to them.

Tecumseh has changed a great deal since I moved away and I expect every time we go home to get lost. It's a little sad, really, as I no longer see the town I grew up in, however, I'm sure I'm no longer the same, either, so we're both changing.

I wonder if you'd like some post cards of Wurzburg in exchange for ours? If you're interested just let me know.

Sincerely,

Long and Short

By TOM RIORDAN

Like so many things close, convenient and taken for granted, probably you should add Hidden Lake Gardens.

One of the most beautiful spots in southeastern Michigan, it's only a 10-minute drive from town and well worth visiting every season of the year. But how many of us get out for a look?

Hidden Lake's beauty changes constantly, almost daily.

And here's a bit of news, which may help us appreciate the Gardens more.

Beginning next May, there's going to be an admission charge. Dr. Fred Freeman tells us, 50c per car and when a gang arrives by bus, 10c per person.

The charge is nominal, but when you figure 198,000 persons toured the Gardens during 1965, this could build into a nice sum, helping defray maintenance of the 40 acres.

Incidentally, all money spent for Hidden Lake has always come from private endowments.

There's another reason for charging to glide along the six miles of roadways in the Gardens — to eliminate hot rodders, primarily those who come on motorcycles.

Some vandalism — minor in the amount of destruction, but often major in taking away joy for serious lookers is another factor for fees.

AS MOST readers know by now, a fabulous $250,000 orientation center, a gift of the Ray Herrick family, is located in the Gardens and open to all guests from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. on week days and noon to 6 p.m. on weekends and holidays.

It contains a variety of exhibitions, with more coming, plus an 80-seat auditorium and two meeting rooms, which can handle 30 persons in one and 10 in the other.

These facilities are available for any group wishing to hold

LIVES WITH HER PETS — Debbie Swift, 702 Center Ct., Equestrians 4-H Club, is spending the week at the Lenawee County Fair with her Shetland mare, "Tammy" and 2-months-old foal, "Sugar Babe." Fair visitors are fascinated watching youngsters groom and work out their animals in the exercise ring beside the horse barn.

Bands, Pancake Racers Vie for $100 in Prizes

Sixth annual running of the Tecumseh Ladies Pancake Race and a Battle of the Bands will highlight Friday's Sidewalk Fun Day.

Activities will span the hours of 9 until 9 in downtown Tecumseh.

Winner of last summer's hot-cake sprint, Mrs. Harold Underwood, a 19-year-old housewife and mother of two, will be on hand to defend her title.

Any woman, 18 or over, is eligible to compete in what is Michigan's only Pancake Race, being held on S. Pearl St. at 7:30 p.m. Twenty-five dollars is awarded the winner.

Runners will dash along a 420-feet course, carrying a fry pan containing one griddle cake. At four points along the way, each competitor must flip the cake over a ribbon, eight feet above the pavement, and catch it coming down before continuing.

Tecumseh High School football and track coach Tom Pagan will be official starter and timer. Runners are clocked with an athletic stop watch and compete in heats of three and four ladies.

Last year, Mrs. Underwood was timed at 49.6 seconds, edging Mrs. Richard Gardner, the 1962 champion, who posted 54.6.

Nine bands have signed up for the musical "battle" and will compete for a $50 first prize and $25 runners-up award.

Each one will perform for 30 minutes, beginning at 9 a.m., with a half hour "cushion of silence" between musical offerings. This is the preliminary competition and will be held at various spots along the main drag from the flat bed of a truck.

Finals come in the evening, between 7 and 10, when each group is going to blast off again.

Judging is being done by an anonymous team of five persons, including two teen agers, who are being selected by Mrs. Betty Flanders.

Among the bands competing are The Basic Five Plus, The Annihilators, The Serfs, The Contempts and This Kind, all of Tecumseh.

Adrian groups entered include Us Guys and The Monx.

The GTO's of Delta, Ohio are coming and The Necessities of Clinton.

JUDGING WILL be on
1. Musical ability.
2. Stage personality and/or showmanship.
3. Personal appearance.
4. Originality and versatility.
5. Overall performance.

Fair Fun

The 15th annual Lenawee County Fair is in full swing and lots of area kids are competing for top honors in categories ranging from livestock to photography.

Livestock judging is a major function at the Fair and Bill Whiting, Herald apprentice photographer, pictured local youths as they prepared their entries for the judgings.

Grandstand entertainment is plentiful with Jo Ann Castle, popular Honky-tonk pianist with Lawrence Welk, performing Thursday and Friday.

The World's Fair Hell Drivers Thrill Show will climax the week with two shows at 7 p.m. and 9 p.m. Saturday.

HORSEY SET GROWS — Cindy Swift, Debbie's sister, has enjoyed the many hours needed to train her Pony of America and finds she has much to talk about with other "horsey set" exhibitors at the Fair. Each year the horse exhibitors are more numerous and tents have been added to house them.

Local Police To Ballot for Unionization

Tecumseh police will ballot here Aug. 26 to see if they unionize and join the AFL-CIO.

Local officers have sought union membership after their failure to bargain successfully with the city last spring.

An election date resulted after a meeting with the Labor Mediation Board Monday in Detroit. The Board will supervise the voting here and all members of the department are eligible to vote except Chief Murell Clark.

City Manager Cal Zorn and police officers Eugene Skinner and Donald Rodehaver attended Mondays meeting.

Pilot Crashes in Vietnam

Lt. Col. Edward Gregg Aebersold, son of Mrs. E. J. Aebersold, made a recent crash landing in Vietnam after a section of his plane was damaged during enemy gunfire.

A report by Lt. Col. Aebersold was broadcast over WABJ Aug. 4 on the 12 noon Local News.

In Lt. Col. Aebersold's words, "I looked out through the binoculars from 1,500 feet, I couldn't see anything so I looked at the surrounding area to make sure, I thought I made sure, that there were no guns in the area.

"I made a low pass over the road to see if there was a truck so I could destroy it and about the time I got down to 50 feet the field in front of me turned to smoke.

"There were guns all over and they blew a section off my right wing, but I was fortunate enough to be able to get it home and crash on the run way."

Lt. Col. Aebersold was interviewed in Vietnam by ABC reporter Roger Peterson.

Budd Buys Large Plot

It looks like Budd Company will be expanding in the Clinton area.

The company has purchased a 248 acre tract of property from Mr. and Mrs. John Walz located on Clinton-Tecumseh Rd., bordering the south village limits.

A Budd Company spokesman said the company is looking forward to possible future expansion. "At this time there are no final plans for use of the land. Future planning is based on the current high level of auto production."

There are 190 persons employed in the Clinton Division plant in the production of disc brakes and disc brake parts, also machining brake drums and hubs.

Budd Company is currently building a new $21,000,000 plant in Kitchener, Ont., to produce auto chassis frames with production scheduled for early 1967.

Richard Tarske is acting plant manager of the Budd Company, Clinton plant.

Earn-a-Bike Subscription Drive Ends

Youngsters working in the Tecumseh Herald "Earn-a-Bike" subscription drive have turned in 369 new subscriptions.

The drive ends Saturday and all kids entered are asked to turn in their subscriptions before noon Saturday so our bookkeeper, Almina Hunt, can check with her files to make sure all subscriptions are new.

To date, 20 have earned bikes, regular, English racers or Sting Rays, and one chose a transistor radio.

Last summer, in The Herald "Earn-a-Bike" drive, 480 new subscriptions were made. Local youths earned a total of 22 bikes and two transistor radios.

Evans, Ottawa Streets Soon to Be One-Way

Michigan's State Highway Department has given city officials approval to erect a traffic light on E. Chicago Blvd., at Ottawa St.

City Manager Cal Zorn says the installation will probably be made in about two months at which time Ottawa St. will be made one-way north from Kilbuck St., to N. Evans St.

Evans St., inturn will be one-way south from the downtown Chicago Blvd., intersection to Kilbuck St.

Council will act on a resolution at next Monday night's session regarding the traffic light and street changes. Tecumseh will pay half the cost of the light and installation costs with the state paying the other half.

Bike Riding Youth Struck by Auto

Thomas Van Sickle, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Van Sickle, 4236 Haviland Dr., Adrian, suffered lacerations of the face and left leg Saturday afternoon when his bicycle was struck by a car at N. Raisin Center Hwy., and Ives Rd.

According to the State Police, the Adrian lad was riding about a half mile south of Tecumseh and swerved his bike into the path of Robert E. Dowling, 35, Clinton. Both were headed north.

The youngster was admitted to Herrick Memorial Hospital for treatment.

Dowling was not cited for the mishap.

In four accidents investigated here by the Tecumseh police during the past week, one motorist received minor injuries and three were cited.

A resume is:

Aug. 6 — Henry Arnett, 45, of 518 E. Chicago Blvd., attempted to make a left turn into Maumee St. and was struck in the rear by Robert L. Fielder, 21, Temperance. Fielder was charged with failure to stop within an assured clear distance.

Aug. 6 — Marion L. Pease, 52, of 736 N. Union St., backed into his neighbor's car parked across the street. The other auto is owned by George W. Heeman, 45, of 735 N. Union St. No ticket was issued.

Holstein Breeders Are Classified for Body Types

The herds of three registered Holstein breeders in this area have been classified for body type by Roger P. Denney, Frederick, Md., an official inspector for the Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

The results are as follows:

TECUMSEH — Fred J. Feight — 12 animals classified — three "Very Good," four "Good Plus" and three "Good."

TIPTON — Raynor Hardy — 47 animals classified — two "Very Good," 13 "Good Plus" and 25 "Good."

TIPTON — Richard W. Platt — 24 animals classified — eight "Very Good," nine "Good Plus" and six "God."

Classification has been in continuous operation since 1929 as the official type program of the Holstein breed. It measures the physical conformation of individual animals against the theoretical perfection of the True Type cow or bull.

Information made available by the program provides detailed referyence material for Holstein breeders in all sections of the country.

meetings there, primarily garden clubs, birdwatching societies or outdoor groups. A charge is made, based on numbers, running from $5 (up to 14 people) to $25 (80 or more).

Three groups are already booked:

Sept. 9 — Jasper Woman's Club

Sept. 29 — Monroe County Nurserymen's Association

Oct. 18 — Garden Club of Michigan from Grosse Pointe

The Michigan Botanical Society and the Michigan Horticultural Society are also planning sessions for the Hidden Lake Center.

Dr. Freeman says that in the spring and fall, more than 2,500 cars will run bumper-to-bumper on Sundays through the Gardens.

Most summer Sundays the car count hits between 800 and 900.

So far, only about one-third of these guests are going into the new Center and Dr. Freeman guesses that maybe folks figure there is some sort of an admission into the building — there isn't.

The Center also has a desk selling wild life and garden books, maps and Gwen Frostic note paper. Dr. Freeman plans to have color post cards, too.

With a weekly gross of about $100 to $150, the counter is assisting in maintenance expenses.

AS PEOPLE enter the second floor of the Center, they see on the wall a sign explaining, "For the benefit of the public, the Gardens exist to:

- "Instill an appreciation for beautiful landscapes.
- "Create naturalistic landscape pictures which will inspire emulation.
- "Develop, test and demonstrate improved ornamental plants.
- "Interpret the drama of Nature.
- "Present an unspoiled sample of the scenic Irish Hills."

Diamond Jim Brady Invades Irish Hills

By CAROL HOWELL

A leprechaun has invaded the Irish Hills!

"Diamond Jim" Brady, Detroit restauranteur who recently expanded to a mail order business handling Irish imports, came to the Irish Hills this summer to find a mailing address. He looked the place over and decided to stay.

This Sunday "Diamond Jim" will open for business officially at the corner of Hane Road and US 12 in the building that once housed the Irish Hills Playhouse.

His emporium will feature a variety of Irish imports, yard goods, candy and other delicacies, china, glassware and pottery, including handmade Irish coffee mugs of "Diamond Jim's" own design. Hours are from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. daily.

The largest Irish flag in the United States, a 25' x 25' banner obtained from Chicago Irish Consul Brian O'Kelly, will fly over "Diamond Jim's."

Mr. O'Kelly, Father James Fitzgerald of the St. Joseph Shrine and Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh are expected to take part in Sunday's opening ceremonies.

Although he takes his name from a figure of a more flamboyant era, James P. Brady considers himself "The Working Man's Diamond Jim".

Many years a family man, he is the father of six, grandfather of eight.

The establishment in which he has dispensed fine food and beverages for more than 12 years is a familiar northwest Detroit nightspot decorated in authentic Gay Nineties style reminiscent of the days of P. T. Barnum, John L. Sullivan and the original "Diamond Jim" Brady.

You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

California, here we come! But before we get there, the dream of the past 23 years will be consumated in the return of the Griggs to Montana. During World War II, Sarge spent much time at the Moat and Banbow chrome properties near Columbus, Mont., training plant guards.

Many friends were made and a deep love for the "high Country" was developed. We have always wanted to return. Now that the time to go has arrived, we are a little awed and perhaps a little reluctant to leave the security of home and that young son and his sister who was our 10-week-old baby when last we were in western states of this great nation.

By the time that this issue is printed, Father and I will have already viewed the passion play at Spearfish, S. D., and will be looking forward to receiving our Herald at the Yakima address of Aunt Tillie.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Blumerick spent last week at their cabin at Mio.

The Richard Myer family enjoyed a trailer trip west as they visited and camped in the Black Hills, Yellow Stone Park, Grand Tetons and the Rocky Mountains. They were greatly impressed with the Passion Play held in the Black Hills and Mt. Rushmore. While touring the Rocky Mountains they took time to engage in a snowball fight!

Seabee Fred Withrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Withrow of Tipton, has been home on leave from naval duties at Port Hueneme, Calif. On Aug. 18 he leaves for the Naval Training Center at Bainbridge, Md., to resume service.

Other relatives visited in Florida where Mr. and Mrs. Clem Hart in Palatka, the Wayne Hart family in Green Cove Springs, Mr. and Mrs. Marcellus Carroll of Daytona Beach and Mr. and Mrs. Hilton McElhenie in Sarasota.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Griffin and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Griffin and children of Lockport, N. Y. were weekend houseguests of their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Keller.

A baby girl, Peggy Sue, 8 lbs. 10 oz. was born Aug. 4 at Ridgewood Osteopathic Hospital, Ypsilanti to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eichenberg of Deerfield. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Allen are the paternal grandparents of the little girl. "She's a little doll," said Grandma Allen as she told of the birth.

Poles Delay Grid Lights at THS Athletic Field

Preliminary work already has started on Tecumseh High School's new football lights.

Surveys and other related work have been completed.

Bud Hall of Industrial Electric Co., Adrian, says actual construction has been delayed due to delivery of the 80 and 90-foot poles needed.

They're not stocked, due to tremendous length, but are on order from a west coast supplier. The Adrian company first thought that a new transformer would delay the installation, but word has been received that it will be delivered in about two weeks.

Entire project will take about three weeks, and Industrial Electric still hopes to complete the job before Tecumseh's first game with Willow Run on Sept. 16.

The new lighting system will be installed before present lights are removed.

Mr. Hall says the poles will require a 36-inch diameter hole, 12 feet deep. An electric cable for lights across the field will be laid in a four-inch trench, three feet deep.

Present plans call for trenching across the field at the midfield stripe.

3 Couples Top Hunters

Arriving triumphantly at their destination — the Devil's Lake Yacht Club — the team of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Baughey, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Duane Carpenter captured first place prize of $30 in last Saturday night's Jaycee Treasure Hunt.

Second place winners were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bartlett and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Getzen, third place, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Barton, Mr. and Mrs. Buz Betzoldt and Mr. and Mrs. Richie Davis and fourth place, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dalton, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mengerink and Dr. and Mrs. Bob Murray.

Special awards went to Ray Aylesworth, Gary Hanna, Mrs. Clifford Lantz and Harry Teets.

Crying towel honors were awarded the team of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Chrzan, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Clute and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mattoon who were the first to return but were disqualified when it was discovered they had forgotten to pick up one clue.

Nuisance award went to Gary McCain who walked into Allie's Resort's Saturday night clad in bathing trunks and carrying a shovel to ask for a clue.

It was the wrong place and nobody knew what he was talking about but Gary returned a few minutes later to try again!

Wiser sleuths made their way to Gentner & Lapham's Tavern at Lapham's Landing where they had to go inside carrying a spade, ask for Herbie and begin to sing "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer."

The seven puzzling clues led the 43 cars full of treasure hunters on a zig-zagging course of over 100 miles to a feed store in Dundee, to a box in a field south of a cloverleaf near an Italian town (Milan), a Clinton used car lot, a golf course near Clinton, a pond in the Irish Hills, an intersection of US 127 and M-50 where flashlights came in handy to find the final clue which was written in lemon juice and required ammonia bath to decipher.

By 10 p.m., most of the hunters had straggled in. 115 couples enjoyed a lavish buffet dinner, swam in the moonlight and danced to the music of Jack Runyon's orchestra.

At midnight, Gary Cullen of Adrian was announced the winner of a bicycle built for two — first prize in the Treasure Hunt Raffle.

Although the party was primarily a social event, Jaycees expect to make a profit of about $150 from ticket sales.

SELECT CONVEYORS for handling your shelled corn to prevent a bottleneck during harvest. For example, an auger will handle wet corn about 50% slower than dry corn. If an auger for loading a bin dryer with wet corn is too slow your harvesting systems engineers suggest that conveyors have a rated capacity of 1,500 to 2,000 bushels per hour, rarely more than 3,000 bushels per hour.

LOOK FOR GOOD BOARS before the fall breeding season begins. Attending sales and contacting breeders can be time well spent. A good board should come from a herd tested for production traits. Set your sights on those which gained more than 2 pounds per day from 60 to 200 pounds on less than 3 pounds of feed per pound of gain. Backfat should be less than 1 inch. Don't overlook length, bone, top line, feet and legs and muscling.

BUYING FEEDER CATTLE EARLY this year appears profitable. Downward pressure on the market this summer is expected to continue. Purchase during the next four to six weeks looks good. Significant recovery isn't expected until October or November. Some forced sales out of dry acres and downward pressure to the market. Heifers are a good bet for feeding; also, light calfs for finishing in 180.

FIGURE CUBIC YARDS OF CONCRETE needed with this shortcut method: First find area in square feet (area — length x width). Divide answer by 75 if a 4-inch slab is needed; by 50 for a 6-inch slab; 75 for a 12-inch slab. The answer allows for 5% wastage.

TO THE EDITORS:

You certainly know how to hurt a person. You printed a picture of some "old timer" baseball players in the July 14th issue of The Tecumseh Herald.

I was feeling pretty youthful until I saw that picture. Some of the fellows in that picture were classmates of mine. I hadn't thought of myself as an "old timer" before.

Could you identify the player at the left in the bottom row for me. His face is familiar but I can't recall his name.

Some time ago you wrote there were old pictures at The Herald office that could be claimed by their owner. One owner was listed as Mrs. Eugene Pilbeam.

Mrs. Pilbeam was my aunt and passed away two years ago last March. If no one else has claimed her picture, I might be interested in having it.

After Aug. 15 kindly send our copy of The Tecumseh Herald to 111 Park St., Lodi, Ohio.

Senator Bursley's LANSING REPORT

Last week I reported the informal reply of the Director of the Michigan Municipal League to my question: "What do you consider the three most important acts of the present Legislature- And why?"

Today lets look at the comments of the Executive Director of the Michigan State Medical Society who quite logically confined his answers to matters directly or indirectly pertaining to health.

I quote his remarks:

"1. PASSAGE of the Executive Reorganization Act of 1965, a monumental and extremely significant task directed by the Constitutional Convention. Its streamlining of government will benefit the citizens of Michigan for a long time to come. There are changes which should be made in the organization of some of the departments such as that of the Department of Licensing and Regulations—"

"2. REFUSAL of the Legislature to establish a separate school for osteopathic medicine. Not only would the passage of such a bill seriously have disserviced the people by committing vast sums of money to a wasteful project and perpetuated an artificial scism among physicians, but also it would have had the effect of destroying the separateness of educational planning from the legislature process. I believe that this separateness is as neeessary for education as it is for civil rights and civil service."

"3. THE ADOPTION of a sane, yet responsive, program to implement Medicare and Medicaid. Whereas some states rather impulsively adopted programs so initially vast as to jeopardize the ability of the health surveyors to deliver, Michigan has moved with deliberate speed."

Might I say in commenting on these remarks that I too was very much opposed to the separate osteopathic college. At the same time I recognize the fact that osteopaths are performing tremendous service to the citizens of Michigan through family physician activities. They deserve proper credit for this role.

As to Medicare my only comment is that I am very much afraid that the state is taking on a new program that will soon be one of the most costly we have. It may be meritorius but lets keep our eyes open to the ultimate fiscal implications.

Star Athletes Take Over Popular Resort

By JUDY FIELDER

A bachelor is often defined as "footloose and fancy free." Howard Herman and Richard Russ may be fancy free, but they're far from footloose.

Mr. Russ and Mr. Herman have been the new owners of Allie's Resort on Wamplers Lake since May 1, ending 22 years of operation for Allie Luckhardt of Manchester.

The two men, both natives of Milan, are operating the resort with the same comfortable hospitality as Allie, but have added some new attractions.

While the teenagers continue to flock to the pavilion every Friday and Saturday nights to dance to two bands and disc jockey Ron Knowles of CKLW, a combo for adult dancing is playing every Saturday in the tavern.

The Jaguars, featuring music for all types of dancing— and all speeds — are on tap every Saturday evening for the adults.

Mr. Russ, 35, spent seven years in the Army after his graduation from Milan, six in Germany. Three of these years he was a member of the Army European boxing team.

Since leaving the Army, he has been in the trucking business.

Both men are living in a cabin at the resort and plan to make it their permanent home, although, "We're thinking of going to California this winter," said Mr. Herman.

Also featured at the resort are a Dairy King, public bathing beach, boating camp sites, arcade and bathhouse.

The tavern and pavilion, with orchestras, will remain open weekends through September, "for the pleasure of our customers from neighboring towns," said Mr. Herman.

Allie's Resort is a popular place with both vacationers and year-round residents. Dances are held every weekend at the pavilion with disc jockey Ron Knowles of CKLW hosting two bands. Saturday evenings finds a combo for dancing in the tavern. Along with good music, Allie's also offers fine food.

Special Setup Helps Sharpen Reading Skills

A remedial reading program has been promoted in Tecumseh and two mobile trailer units are now serving local schools with reading laboratories.

The federally - financed program is to help stimulate learning in students with the use of new materials and equipment.

Tape recorders, controlled readers, reading pacers, filmstrips, records and typewriters have provided a new approach to reading for the students and they are allowed to develop at their own level and rate.

Mrs. John Becker is director of the program and she teaches the junior high classes.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelty teach the elementary classes and Mrs. Charles Trickey instructs the reading program in the senior high school.

Students in the program were selected on the basis of teacher, counselor and principal recommendation plus accumulative records and standardized tests.

Classes meet for 30 minute periods in small groups. The atmosphere is very informal.

Plans are being made to continue the program next year.

Through My Window

FROM A WREN-WATCHER'S DIARY

Perhaps a brief run-down on past 'wren-watching' articles would be in order. The fun all started with a bluebird house. A bluebird house the bluebirds were not in the least bit interested in, but oh, my, the wrens were. A pair of these cute little birds took possession and what a busy time we have had watching.

It was incredible how much they packed into the little house.

Once the nest was built and the eggs laid, the tedious job of incubation began. Mr. Wren spent most of the time perched on the high back of the house singing; Mrs. W. was, of course, busy inside; we watched and waited, and waited, and waited.

This was all happening during July's terrific hot spell, the inside of that little house must have been like an oven — we had nightmares of a roasted wren and parboiled eggs. Fortunately, nothing so drastic happened.

Our calendar counting was inaccurate to the point of being almost useless. We did not know exactly when the full clutch of eggs were laid nor could we tell for sure when the birds started taking food up into the house. We were so anxious that this first attempt to raise a family in the bluebird house be successful, I know we were over-anxious. Finally, however, we were sure — food was definitely being carried up to the house.

IT WAS ALMOST as if the wrens had heard us wondering— heard us and were a bit disgusted. I know it was not done deliberately, the wren did not think 'well, if those silly humans are going to spend so much time worrying, I will just have to show them' — but, if this had been her intentions, she could not have done any better.

One day while we were looking at the house and stupidly worrying, a tiny wren flew to the feeder. She stood on top of the post and looked in at us. We could almost hear her ask if we were watching. Actually, it was not too pretty a picture because from her long bill dangled a squirming bright green worm. From the feeder she flew to the house. And that is how we were told that the feeding of baby birds was in progress.

Now we started wondering why there was not more coming and going. It did not seem that the birds were really working very hard at feeding the youngsters. Baby birds have almost insatiable appetites — and yet, Mama and Papa Wren did not appear to be over-worked. Was it a small family — had the excessively hot weather affected some of the eggs? We don't know, the answer.

GRADUALLY the pace of the feeding increased. One Thursday morning I counted and, within the space of half an hour, five feeding trips were made. That is a lot of bug catching. The house is set close enough to our window so that we had a good chance to see exactly what was happening.

Birds do not eat the most appetizing things and this is certainly true of baby wrens. I never saw such an assortment of wriggly, crawly, squirming bugs.

Friday morning brought the sight for which we had long waited — baby wren's head appeared in the doorway. Such a funny looking thing, it was all mouth. Apparently the nest was built, whether deliberately or not I could not guess, to discourage such peeking out. One way or another, there was not much of it done.

When we looked out Sunday morning it was obvious that the wrens had gone. The house had that deserted, no-one-lives-here appearance. Such an abrupt leave-taking is typical; at least our experience with wrens has always been that they are busy in the home one day and gone the next. No farewell note or anything.

So it is that we write finish to these notes from a wren-watcher's diary.

Feature events on the meet are the $11,700 Wolverine trot slated for competition Thursday evening and the $11,700 Wolverine Pace to be raced Friday night.

Saturday the final session of harness racing is slated for 1 p.m.

Lenders To Exert More Control Over Farm Operations

Farm investment and debts are expected to rise, causing problems between the farmer and his lender.

A more formal and less personal relationship between farmers and lenders is expected and important changes in the extension of credit to Michigan farmers will be made, says John R. Brake, Michigan State Universtiy agricultural economist.

"Lenders will provide specialized credit services. They'll pay more attention to farm records and less attention to previous reputation of the borrower," he stated.

Lenders will probably be exerting a great deal of control in farm operations and farmers of capital and credit must require the approval of the lender, concluded Brake.

City Pays Bills

City Council approved the payment of $45,648 in bills Monday night.

G&J Nine Captures Pony Loop Crown

G&J are Pony league champs after defeating Britton, 4-1, in a game that saw good action and strong pitching.

Both pitchers, Bob Reed for G&J and Ric Maska for Britton, exhibited almost perfect pitching control with Maska walking only one and Reed issuing only two free passes, said the Rev. Kurt Koeplin.

The two combined to strikeout 28 players and both struckout the side twice.

Reed's fast ball was alive and his catcher, Steve Tilton, had to tag the batters or throw to first repeatedly to complete many of Reed's 16 strikeouts.

Chuck Moore was the Britton catcher.

The only double play of the game was pllled off by Britton when Eddie Hamilton ripped a throw from centerfield to second base doubling off Kenny Pieh.

G&J drew first blood when Bob Reed led off in the second inning with the first of his two hits.

He stole second and came home on John Schoonovers sharply hit double to right center.

Britton tied the score in the third when Ric Maska dropped a double into right field. Even though Reed struckout the side, Maska was able to score on two passed balls.

G&J's winning run came in the sixth when Steve Tilton beat a beautiful push bunt down the third base line. He then stole second and third and came home on a wild pitch.

The Woodworkers added two more insurance runs in the seventh on hits by Bob Reed and Zig Zorn, three stolen bases and an overthrow off second which eluded the center fielder.

Bob Reed pitched all three of G&J's games in the tournament giving up a grand total of three hits and two runs.

Mike Filter was the official scorekeeper for the G&Js during the tournament and he also kept score for most of the season for the victory team.

"He did a nice job," said Ken Hinkleman, G&J's mentor.

Hand-Hewn Oak Beams

By CLARA WALDRON

Bricks are more lasting than memories.

When excavation for the new branch bank on N. Evans street turned up buried bricks, there were not many who remembered the once impressive building that stood on that approximate site. Even those few remembered it only as the gaunt, old ruin shown in the accompanying picture.

Yet in the early 1800s, the "Peninsular House" must have been an imposing structure.

It was built in 1827, when Tecumseh was three years old, by one of the town's founders, General Joseph Brown, and was a stage coach inn, an adjunct to the General's stage line that ran over the almost non-existent road between Detroit and Chicago.

THE FACT THAT TECUMSEH was not on that direct route had not bothered the General.

He merely detoured his "Great Western" coaches over the even more rudimentary "Saline-Macon" road and brought his passengers to the Peninsular House for meals and lodging.

Originally the building had two flanking wings, so large that, removed, they made two houses, one of which still stands on Water Street, the home of John A. Kopka.

Its construction was an on-the-spot project. The lumber was from the trees that had been cut to clear the basin of the Red Pond and it was sawed at the mill at the north end of the dam.

THE ENORMOUS oak beams were hand-hewn; white wood for window and door frames and walnut for the many doors had been close at hand and even the bricks that have just come to light were probably hand shaped and fired from clay obtained from a pit on the river bank near the north end of Maumee Street.

It had three walnut stairways, a dance floor that was popular for many years and its dining room and parlors saw much of the social life of the period.

AS LONG AS the westward migration of the 1830s continued the inn was always filled to capacity — and more, for many a traveler had to sleep on "the soft side of a board".

Then that westward tide ebbed and the railroad drew progress away from "Broadaville" and the hey-day of the Peninsular House was over.

Stripped of its wings, it did not make a comfortable private home; its tenants grew less and less desirable and finally it stood empty and dilapidated, a mecca for small boys and a haven for tramps.

But even in its decay, it had dignity and it was with real regret that in 1916 it was razed for its still excellent lumber.

Marine Thanks God

Mrs. George VanCamp, 408 W. Logan St., passes along a poignant clipping from The Grand Ledge Independent.

It was an open letter to people of that community from Marine Pfc. Bob Carter, who is a nephew of Mrs. Van Camp, and now based in Chu Lai, South Vietnam.

Sunday, May 1, 1966
Cru Lai, S. Viet Nam
To the People of Grand Ledge:

"The first 19 years of my life was spent in Grand Ledge. Now I am a Marine serving in Viet Nam. I would like to tell you a few of the reasons why I am proud to be from a free, democratic country like the United States of America.

"When the average Vietnamese person is born, he is automatically thrown into an environment of filth and poverty in which he will remain until the day he dies.

"Their houses are made from straw and mud with dirt floors and no electricity. The water they use for cooking, drinking and laundry comes from the nearest stream or river.

"Disease is prevalent thruout the country. To see 12 to 20 children in one village with glaucoma (eye disease) is a most remorseful sight.

"Many children are also born with clef palets or hair lips. Due to a lack of calcium in their diet the people lose their teeth by the time they're 25 to 30.

"Also when you see the ravages of war and what it does to a country and its people it makes you thankful that you are an American.

"A man with his leg cut off by shrapnel, a little boy with his hand cut off by the butcherous knife of a Viet Cong, or a little girl that had chopsticks rammed into her eardrum because she talked to an American G.I. These are all horrible, pathetic sights.

"These, my fellow Americans, are just a few of the reasons why I am glad that I was born in a free country — like the United States.

"For the rest of my life, whenever I think that I have it bad I'll look back to my days in Viet Nam, and tell myself it could be worse and I'll thank God that I am an American, Pfc. Carter, USMC, concluded.

BRITTON BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Bumpus and Diane and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Bumpus of Hillsdale returned home Saturday after a week's trip to Canada. They observed the colorful changing of the guards at the Parliament Building in Ottawa and did quite a bit of fishing in Canada's productive waters.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Fairbanks left Friday for several days in Boston where they are visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Airman and Mrs. Michael Higgins. Highlight of the trip will be a day's cruise aboard the carrier "Wasp."

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Grudier of Tampa, Fla., arrived Sunday to spend several weeks with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Reeck.

The school for migrant worker's children, originally planned to begin last Monday in Britton, has been canceled, according to word received by school authorities last Friday. They are very few migrant workers in the Britton area this year due to the poor tomato crop and the children that are here will be taken by bus to Blissfield to school.

It was reported that clean-up progress is slow on the health hazards existing in the village. Probable court action may have to be taken to resolve the violations.

A&P a lot of your neighbors have stopped baking pies!

Maybe it's because they discovered Jane Parker Pies...thousands have.

But...you say, "No thanks, there is nothing like a good home-baked pie." We agree...they're great."

But would you believe it if we told you our Jane Parker Pies taste home-baked? Probably not...until you've tried one.

Then you'd discover the crust is short and flaky like your own.

You'd discover the fruit is the kind you'd use... the best...juicy, not stiff with starch.

And if you popped a Jane Parker Pie into the oven and warmed it before serving, you'd discover a pie you'd be proud to call your own.

Are Jane Parker Pies a good reason for shopping A&P? They're one of many.

Last Saturday's All-Star game ended the 1966 Pee Wee season on a good note.

Gridders Warned of Heat

CHICAGO — Heat deaths among high school and college football players could be a thing of the past if coaches and players follow recommendations made at a meeting here recently.

When football practice opens in a few weeks, the first hot days could be dangerous for players unless precautions to avoid heat illness are taken now, a panel of medical and sports authorities agreed.

Heat illness last year caused the deaths of one college football player and four, possibly five, high school players. It contributed to "close calls" and injuries of many more.

The five-man panel, appearing at a meeting sponsored by the American Medical Association's Committee on the Medical Aspects of Sports, agreed that:

1. Prospective football players should get out of air-conditioned surroundings now and start getting accustomed to vigorous exercise in hot weather.

2. Coaches should abandon the old practice of withholding water from athletics during practice, Failure to replenish water and salt lost through perpiration increases the chances for heat exhaustion or heat stroke.

3. Athlete should be acclimated to hot weather by carefully graduated practice schedules. At least the first five days of practice should be devoted to non-contract workouts.

4. Both coaches and players should be alert for signs of heat illness, such as lethargy, stupor, awkwardness, or unusual fatigue.

University of Kentucky football coach Charles Bradshaw said his squad's practice sessions were improved by regular breaks for water and rest. Overlooking players in hot weather only decreases their efficiency, he said.

Said Purdue University's team physician, L. W. Combs, M.D.: "Coaches used to think that if a player lost a lot of weight on the first day or so of practice, it was a good workout. Actually, all the player lost was body liquid — which is dangerous."

Allan J. Ryan, M.D., team physician at the University of Wisconsin, agreed with Dr. Combs. "Any player who loses more than three per cent of his body weight in a practice session is not getting enough salt and water," he said.

Excessive salt and water loss can result in heat stroke, an extremely dangerous condition, Dr. Ryan pointed out. Anyone can suffer heat stroke if he is active in hot weather and neglects to replace salt and water lost by perspiration. The result is a breakdown in the sweating mechanism and collapse.

If prompt measures aren't taken to get the heat stroke victim cooled immediately, the result can be death — sometimes within 15 minutes.

Approximately 850,000 boys in 14,500 U. S. high schools now play football, said Clifford B. Fagan, executive secretary of the National Federation of State High School Athletic Associations.

"The few deaths that occur in football can probably never be completely eliminated," Fagan said, "but we can eliminate deaths due to heat illness—they are preventable."

Coaches can avoid trouble by keeping a close watch on their players for the first signs of heat illness, said William E. Newell, athletic trainer at Purdue University and executive secretary of the National Athletic Trainers Association.

Parents can help protect their athlete-sons by watching for signs of fatigue and emotional strain, such as loss of appetite and poor sleep habits, Newell said.

Hebb Spins No-Hitter

By KURT KOEPLIN

Last Thursday evening, Dean Hebb, pitching for the Tecumseh Legion against a team from Onsted in an Adrian area baseball league game, threw the finest game in his young life.

He tossed a classic no-hitter.

The two runs his Legion team mates got for him were more than enough as he faced only 23 Onsted batters, two over the absolute minimum.

One runner reached base on a passed ball after Hebb had struck him out and the other batter took first on the only walk Hebb issued.

Nick Herbert, Dean's catcher, jokingly complained that he had a terrible time holding on to Hebb's fast ball because it was "really hopping."

Hebb threw very few curve balls and even fewer change-ups as the Onsted batters waved futilely at his "aspirin tablets."

Dean had excellent control. In one inning he threw a total of eight pitches to retire the side, one of which was a ball.

In the next inning, he threw 12 pitches, two of which were balls. He struckout 16 batters and the other six men hit harmless ground balls or easy fly balls.

Hebb knew that he had a no-hitter going. After he struck out the last batter in the seventh, a happy smile creased his face as he accepted his teammates congratulations.

Chuck Redding, Hebb's rival opponent, allowed only one hit himself, but he was his own worst enemy because of his wildness.

After the game it was announced that this "was the season's first no-hitter." However, Gail Fisher, league umpire, said that this was the first one in over five years at Riverside.

Nick Hebert led off in the fifth with a walk. He stole second when the catcher's low throw skipped into center field. He advanced to third and later scored on a wild pitch.

Tecumseh iced it in the sixth.

Dean Hebb walked and went all the way to third when the hit-and-run was executed to perfection by Butch Hoelzer.

Hebb then seored on Jim Mobley's infield out.

Chuck Redding and Denny VanSickle were the losing pitcher and catcher.

Are there really any sound reasons for buying a Chevrolet in August?

GM Chevrolet Division

In a word: Six

1. Have you ever known the instant delight of selecting a new Impala Super Sport in the color you want, slipping into its Strato-bucket seats, and driving it home from the showroom the same day? Now's your chance. Your Chevrolet dealer has a big choice of models on hand with small August price tags.

2. More than likely, your present car will never be worth as much in trade as it is right now. Money—another good reason to buy a Chevrolet this month.

3. Read those articles about when to buy a new car and they'll tell you that August is one of the best months. And your Chevrolet dealer is ready to show you why . . . with buys that are better than ever.

4. If you think winter's tough on an old car, believe us, so is summer. There's added strain on the engine because of vacation driving. Greater tire wear. The cooling system has to work extra hard. A new Chevrolet can save you a lot of trouble

5. You do a lot of driving for pleasure so why not ride on Chevrolet's Full Coil suspension. Let your feet feel that deep-twist Chevrolet carpeting. August is to enjoy.

6. Make your summer driving safer driving by taking advantage of the eight standard safety features built into every new Chevrolet. If your present car doesn't have seat belts, back-up lights, outside rearview mirror, padded instrument panel, look into a new Chevrolet.

Long and Short

By TOM RIORDAN

One warm summer evening a couple of weeks ago, I dropped in for a visit with a Tecumseh clergyman and his wife.

There was some casual conversation about modern methods of teaching languages, the theatre and teen music, capped with coffee and cookies.

It was an extremely pleasant hour or so. As we chatted a distant thought popped into my head, something that is being discovered more and more by Roman Catholics — the celibacy of their priests.

I've been a Catholic all of my life. Like so many of my faith, I would never even remotely consider the possibility of priests being married and raising families.

But since the sainted Pope John called the first Vatican Council and literally "opened a window in the church to let some fresh air in," the minds of many Catholics have begun to regard the various man-made laws of our religion.

One that is being given a lot of consideration is that prohibiting marriage of priests.

In the days of old the church always taught that a priest could not do justice to his parish work and a family. He'd be concerned about clothing and feeding his wife and children instead of how best to guide his spiritual flock.

Regarding this reasoning while chatting in my Tecumseh friend's backyard seemed to make this a rather paper-thin excuse for the vow of celibacy among priests. This man of God was devoting his life to Christianity, without neglecting his family or his flock.

So are hundreds of thousands of other married clergy — including Catholic priests of the Eastern Rite.

As a matter of fact, being married might well give greater stature to the Roman Catholic priesthood. Certainly, a priest with a family has a better insight into advise and counsel for his parishioners than one whose entire knowledge comes from classes in a seminary, taught mainly by instructors who never were married.

An analogy might be in coaching and managing major league football and baseball teams. The men who get these jobs, in almost every case, are ones who grew up in the sports, usually with long years as big league players.

They know the games, they know what their charges are going through. A successful Tiger manager who learned the game by reading about it in books and watching the team play would indeed be a rare bird.

When priests, who marry, are lost to the church — as two in Detroit were within the past six months — it dictates the need for a long and studied look by Catholic hierarchy at the laws of celibacy.

IN A RECENT issue of The Michigan Catholic, there was a story from Amsterdam, which noted:

"A Dutch public opinion poll has shown that 81% of the Netherlands' people would rather have a married Catholic clergy than a celibate clergy.

Maybe there should be a survey among United States Catholics — clergy and laymen — to find out thinking in the USA.

Contempts Win 'Battle of Bands'

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Janet Underwood Keeps Pancake Title

With nearly 10,000 jamming Tecumseh's downtown Friday, the 1966 Sidewalk Fun Day will have to rate as this community's most successful merchant promotion. A local group, "The Contempts," played and sung their way to the $50 first prize in The Battle of the Bands. "This Kind," of Adrian, finished in second and collected $25. Mrs. Harold Underwood repeated as Ladies' Pancake Race champion.

THE CONTEMPTS — STEVE MAPLES, BOB BROOKS, JAMIE McWILLIAMS, MARK HINKLEMAN AND DICK FIELDER

Mrs. Gardner Is Runner-Up for 2nd Year

In the sixth annual running of the Tecumseh Ladies Pancake Race, Mrs. Harold Underwood captured her second straight title.

She finished just two-tenths of a second ahead of Mrs. Richard Gardner of Brooklyn who was runner-up last year and held the title herself in 1962.

A special entry was Mrs. Bonnie Sniffin who won the original event in 1960. That year she sprinted in bare feet ahead of a field of 12.

Since then Mrs. Sniffin has suffered leg paralysis and is forced to use a wheelchair.

She turned up at the starter line with a clown to push her chair.

Coaches Tom Fagan and Ted Todd handled the start and timed the top two runners — Mrs. Underwood getting 26.7 seconds and Mrs. Gardner 26.9 over an abbreviated course.

Top Crew from City

By CAROL RIORDAN

Five Tecumseh teens are making a name for themselves — "The Contempts".

"A group of rhythm and beat," best describes the reaction the "Contempts" gives to an avid rock-and-roll fan. Jamie McWilliams, leader, thought of the name.

The members of the "Contempts" are Steve Maples, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sevedus Maples. Bob Brooks, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Brooks, Mark Hinkleman, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hinkleman, Jamie McWilliams, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin McWilliams, and Dick Fielder.

Steve, bass guitar, and Jamie, rhythm guitar, usually handle the singing with Dick on the organ and Mark on the drums. Mark sometimes has an occasional solo.

Though new to the combo profession, "The Contempts" are by no means unknown to the teens of this area. They have played at numerous youth centers including the Teen Club, Clinton. Brooklyn, Ypsilanti and Sand Creek.

The usual costume is a pair of beat denim pants, burgundy shirt, and paisley belts with matching ascots. All have nicknames which match their striking personalities, Steve (Brain), Bob (Squirt), Mark (Spook) and Jamie (Yaah!).

After taking first place in "The Battle of the Bands" who knows what may happen in their future?

Garbage Pickup May Be Compulsory

By JIM LINCOLN

City residents may soon have compulsory trash and garbage pick-up service, possibly by Jan. 1.

This possibility highlighted Council's session Monday night when city officials were told that the local dump, already under criticism and scrutiny of the county Health Department, may be closed in the near future.

A representative of the St. Regis Paper Company and Philip Duckham, owner of Dependable Garbage of Napoleon, proposed compulsory pickup and the use of 30-gallon paper sacks, instead of metal cans.

Adoption of their proposal would cost each residence a minimum of $15 a year. This amount would be billed quarterly by the city along with city's charges for water and sewer.

This $15 charge would entitle each residence to 50 paper sacks and a wall-type holder for the sacks. The charge would also include the cost for collection service, which would be once a week.

Additional paper sacks could be purchased for 30c each, with the cost per sack including the charge for pickups.

Tecumseh is now employing paper sacks in the Seminole Dr. area and plans to experiment further with residents on E. Pottawatamie trying them.

With the state placing greater restrictions on public dumps, Tecumseh's dump could be closed. Before such action is taken, local officials hope that a county planning commission will have established county dumps meeting health department requirements.

Main problem at the local dump is the inability to cover trash and refuse with dirt.

Board Okays Record Budget

A bare quorum of the Tecumseh School Board Monday night approved a record-breaking budget of $1,682,289.04 for the 1966-67 school year.

The budget is approximately $270,000 higher than last year and over $400,000 higher than just four years ago.

Extra special education classes — for which the local schools will be reimbursed and increased salaries account for a major slice of the hike.

Although the budget again sets a record, Tecumseh schools could realize a balance of about $70,000 at the end of the school terms.

This depends largely on the number of students enrolled. State aid is figured on total enrollment. School officials have estimated 1966-67 enrollment at 3,300, about 50 more than last year.

Mondays session adjourned about 9:30 p.m. making it the shortest meeting in years. Dr. Harold Ocamb was called from the meeting, leaving Mrs. Donald Cobb, William Brown and Dr. Donald Phelan one member short of a necessary quorum.

Other board members were out of town.

Although the next regular meeting is scheduled for Sept. 19, a special session will be held Aug. 29.

One-Way Streets on Evans, Ottawa To Cost City $2,700

Councilmen learned Monday night that the city's proposal for one-way streets will cost the local government about $2,700.

Balance of the cost will be paid by the state.

Resolutions were passed by Council, regarding traffic lights at Chicago Blvd. on Evans and Ottawa.

Councilman Ray Puffer, questioning the advisability of a one-way street in a school zone, voted against the resolutions.

City officials hope the one-way plan will be in effect in October. Signs have been ordered.

Plans call for Evans St. to be one-way south from St. Peters Episcopal Church to Kilbuck St. Left turns, now illegal, will be permitted off N. Evans to E. Chicago Blvd.

The first block of E. Kilbuck will be one-way to Ottawa St., then one-way north to N. Evans St., just opposite the church.

Artificial Respiration Saves Life

Knowing the right thing to do saved the life of two-year-old Teddy Sandhoff Friday.

Teddy, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sandhoff, 705 N. Union, fell into the swimming pool at the Robert Murray residence.

His mother pulled the unconscious boy out and Dr. Murray immediately started working over the child, who was not breathing.

He applied both mouth to mouth and artificial respiration at the same time, and after several minutes, the child revived.

HOW THIN SHOULD SPAGHETTI BE?

That depends upon the variety.
But the thinness
of any given variety must be consistent.
Otherwise it won't cook evenly.

Would it bother you if your spaghetti varied more than six one-thousandths of an inch in thickness?

Probably not.
But it would upset the folks who make our Ann Page Spaghetti.
They're such perfectionists.
They keep a micrometer eye on the 32 varieties of pasta products we make.

Perfection and care like this go into the making of all Ann Page Foods.

They're as good if not better than the famous nationally known brands...we guarantee it.

Are Ann Page Foods a good reason for shopping A&P?
They're one of many.

Family Has Fun in a School Bus

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rayburn and sons, Richard, Jim and Doug, have returned home after a week's trip in upper Lower Michigan in their recently-converted school bus camper.

The Rayburns purchased the bus at the close of the school year, had a new motor installed and then began the work on the interior.

Many hours of labor by the whole family went into the cleaning, painting and remodeling of the bus. Mr. Rayburn constructed bunk-type beds and the interior is now furnished with curtains at the windows, sleeping rooms for five, and a complete kitchen unit.

The exterior is a bright blue trimmed in black.

Mr. Rayburn says "There's no better way to go!"

They traveled around each day staying in state parks, cooking out and generally taking in the sights including the Music Camp at Interlochen, the Straits of Mackinac, Sault Saint Marie and Mackinac Island.

He said they had no trouble parking or finding accommodations for the bus and he felt it was a very inexpensive way to travel with the family.

Mr. Rayburn isn't through traveling this summer, either. He and his eldest son, Richard, a member of Boy Scout Troop 23, will leave Saturday for a week's trip with the Scout troop to Canada.

Highlights of the trip include seeing the Rocky Mountains, Grand Canyon and the Royal Gorge.

They visited Boys Town, Las Vegas, Marineland, Disneyland, Universal Studios, Knotts Berry Farm, Chinatown in San Francisco and Tiauana, Mexico.

Women Pilots Drive to 99's Club Meeting

The monthly meeting of the Michigan Chapter of the 99's was held Sunday morning at the Lenawee Country Club in Adrian.

The meeting, hosted by Mrs. Richard Jacobs, 115 W. Shawnee, was attended by 30 women, who drove to the meeting because weather conditions prevented flying.

The 99's is an international woman pilot's association started by Amelia Earhart, with 99 charter members.

The Michigan Chapter presently has over 100 members, with two new 99's from Lenawee County accepted at Sunday's meeting, Mrs. Roy Banks of Morenci and Mrs. Al Greenwood of Manitou Beach.

Three 66's, student pilots, from the area were also accepted into the membership, Mrs. Robert Gradolph of Petersburg, Mrs. Donald Dunmore and Pat Comar, both of Adrian.

Magician ventriloquist David Allen of Battle Creek entertained the group, while plans for sailplaning at the Adrian Airport were cancelled because of poor weather.

Mrs. Robert Murray, 5818 Green Hwy., was a guest at the meeting.

'Mind' Is Topic for Sunday Sermon

'Great is our Lord, and of great power: his understanding is infinite." This well-known verse from Psalm 147 is the Golden Text for this week's Bible Lesson-Sermon on "Mind" to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday.

BUFFALO, Wyo. — The soul-stirring portrayal of Christ by Josef Meir and the remorse of his betrayer, Judas, as seen and felt in the Passion Play in the Black Hills near Spearfish, S. D., will be a lifelong remembrance for the Griggs en route to the western states.

Words cannot possibly describe the color, drama, lighting and magnificent staging of the world renowned production.

Suffice it to say that anyone, regardless of their faith, that is near Spearfish or Lake Wales, Fla., where the play is presented in winter should certainly not miss the experience of seeing it.

More adventures ahead as we leave this tiny print shop in Morecroft, Wyo.

Ball Team Wins Title —and Hats

The Adrian American Legion baseball team members will be wearing Tecumseh Legion Team's regulation helmets when they represent Michigan as its champions at the American Legion National Regional playoffs.

The team will play the Missouri State Champions Thursday at noon in Athens, O. The game will be broadcast locally by WLEN-FM.

Adrian captured the State Championship Sunday in Owosso by beating Hamtramck, 4-0.

Tournament rules called for the hard helmets and Adrian borrowed from the Tecumseh team, who offered to give them to Adrian if they won the Michigan title.

Nearly 150,000 Michigan high school students took driver education last year.

A FAST WORKER — Cory Cox, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cox of Tipton, is shown with the bike he earned in the Tecumseh Herald Earn-a-Bike subscription drive. Cory came in the last week of the drive and decided to try for the bike. He sold 15 subscriptions in five days.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Happy Sidewalk Fun Day

Estimating crowds, which are moving, surging, coming and going, is a near impossible task. But we shouldn't be too far off pegging visitors during Friday's Sidewalk Fun Day at between 8,000 and 10,000.

During the street dance from 7 to 10:30 p.m., there were probably at least 1,500 — most of whom stayed the entire time.

What's really fascinating is the fact that many enjoying the rock-and-roll music were in the 30-to-60-year-old bracket — probably about 25% of the crowd.

Obviously the teen musical units have tremendous pulling power. The groups taking part in the Battle of the Bands were surprisingly talented, often displaying mature abilities of showmanship.

They showed organizational genius and were almost entirely right-on-the-dot with their scheduled appearances both during the day and in the evening.

Judging of the bands, done by Mrs. Betty Flanders and a team of four, was meticulous in every sense of the word. Judges roamed the boulevard to view all entries and score them carefully. There wasn't a murmur of protest at their decision.

John Day, of Woolworth's, served as chairman of the day (no pun intended) and accomplished a mountain of details with calm aplomb.

Clothier Harold Green had the pesky job of treasurer and keeping track of nearly $500 (provided by merchant sponsors at $10 a head) is no mean task.

Advertising, prizes and other expenses chews up a lot of cash but Harold was on top of each penny.

Dan Hamilton of WLEN helped with the Battle of the Bands and turned in a fine performance.

It was a mighty long day for storemen — but a happy one.

BUSY CROWDS SWARMED DOWNTOWN TECUMSEH DURING SIDEWALK FUN DAY.

Judging of Bands Was Difficult Job

Judging the Battle of the Bands was done by a five-member team headed by Mrs. Betty Flanders. Other members of the committee included Donald Dobrosky, Margaret Barritt, Tim Dickinson, Bob Moore and Pat Green.

They checked each entry during the day and again in the finals following five categories—musical ability, stage personality and showmanship, personal appearance, originality and versatility and the overall performance.

They awarded a special honorable mention trophy to "The Basic Five Plus" and announced engraved trophies would go to all non-winning units in the program.

Other participating musical groups and their members are listed as:

"This Kind"

Attired in ash gray pants, white shirts and black knee-high riding boots, "This Kind" belted out a style of their own.

CONFESSIONS

Once in a while something happens that is just too good to keep. Even though the joke is on me, I must tell.

The long and somewhat involved story begins with a bird noise. For several years, when this particular three-note call surprised a guest, I would knowingly smile and exclaim, "Oh, that is our towhee!"

We never saw the bird in performance but it was known for sure that there were towhees in the neighborhood. They are attractive summer time visitors who dearly love to scratch through the leaves and weeds on the creek bank.

At first glance the males resemble rather elegant robins. The color is better though — dark head and back, a reddish breast but, down the center of this breast runs a wide band of white.

In the vocal department the birds, according to all the books, repeat their name.

Well, to my peculiar ear this three note call sounded like a long drawn out "Tow-ow-hee" or another name for the bird "Chew-wink." And this was the basis for my exclamation that the unseen singer was a towhee.

This spring, when the leaves started popping out, a number of branches on the mulberry tree remained bare. We then started noticing a rather nondescript brown or gray bird.

Our first thought was a sparrow but a closer look quickly cancelled that identification.

The bird was too slender and his actions were definitely not sparrow-like. Watching him sit on one of the bare limbs then dart out for a short flight over the creek and return to his original perch — these are definitely flycatcher actions.

But what kind of a flycatcher? A search through the field guides only compounded the confusion. There are many flycatchers and the differences between species are often very slight.

This character was not about to co-operate either. he would not stay put long enough to give us a really good look through the binoculars. We decided to just call him our flycatcher.

The bomb went bang the other day though — we heard the familiar three note call and happened to look out in time to see the flycatcher. Nothing wrong with this except that, as we watched and listened, it became apparent that our towhee noise was being made by the flycatcher.

A quick listen to the marvelous bird call record which accompanies the National Geographic Bird Book confirmed our suspicions.

We had not 'read' the call a bit right; it was not towhee at all. Instead, the bird was saying, "pee-a-wee". And that is what our flycatcher was, a wood peewee.

Oh, Marda, you are a great birder!

The one consolation to being so very wrong about a bird is that it happens to everyone.

Last winter I received occasional reports about a flock of kinglets. There were quite a few of the tiny green cast birds who seemed to be making themselves at home in a friend's backyard.

Needless to say, she was most excited about her unusual cold weather guests.

One afternoon late in March however the telephone rang and a laughing, but also rather chagrined voice said, "Marda, my kinglets are turning into goldfinches!"

So it is that bird watching is great fun but, for all of us who enjoy it, there are a few confessions to be made.

TO THE EDITORS:

Thank you for your request for opqrstuvwxyz. Unfortunately, every spare letter in the alphabet is being confiscated by our government. Ever patriotic, our surpluses were surrendered without protest.

We clearly understand why such drastic steps are necessary; there's the war in Vietnam, weddings in the White House family and Justice Douglas entering the chicken business after three previous bankruptcies — these and other sensational happenings create an unnatural demand upon gross verbage.

Miss Fannie-Hurtz created an ingenious plan. Its purpose is to outwit the Government. By offering P's & Q's Monthly news as a source of double-use letters, our offer to fill your request is met.

Read carefully. Circle those letters needed to correct the errors in Minnie's first correspondence to you.

Pet Watchers Unite

At a recent meeting of the newly-organized "Pet Watchers Club of Tecumseh," members decided to sell candy in an effort to raise working capital.

The group, whose aim is to reunite lost pets with their owners, met at the home of Mrs. A. H. Caesar. Charter members who attended were Mrs. Ralph Lochridge, Mrs. Jack Lundi and Merry Judith Sherwood.

When a stray is picked up by police and taken to the Tecumseh Veterinary Clinic, the "Pet Watchers" have five days in which to advertise for its owner. If he cannot be located, the club puts the animal up for adoption.

If adoptive parents are not found, according to Mrs. Caesar, the animal is destined for the Lenawee County Humane Society Shelter.

In the case of an obviously valuable pet of one who has been hurt and needs treatment, the "Pet Watchers" will pay for its upkeep and treatment for an extended period while they attempt to find it a home.

Next meeting of the club will be in early September. Anyone interested in joining may contact Mrs. Caesar at 423-7228.

Cleary College Offers Courses in Tecumseh

Academic and industrial related evening courses will be offered at Tecumseh High School this fall by Cleary Management Institute, a branch of Cleary College in Ypsilanti.

Dr. Donald Houghton, vice president of Cleary, Dominic Conklin, plant manager of the Fisher Body Tecumseh Plant and James McDowell, superintendent, Tecumseh Public Schools have finalized details for the fall class schedule.

Mr. Conklin, whose inquiries led to Cleary's decision to open a branch in this area, stated that this program affords employes an opportunity to improve themselves in both academic and work-related subjects.

Fisher Body employes participating this fall in the Cleary College courses are eligible for tuition refund after successfully completing each class.

Dr. Houghton stated that college instructors will conduct the courses which are designed to improve the job knowledge and performance of industrial and business employes.

The rapid pace of today's technological advancement is creating almost daily changes in industry and business. Organizations must modernize equipment, methods and people in order to remain competitive.

The present day employee needs practical, effective means of updating and upgrading his overall knowledge in terms of both responsibility and skills.

This need is not confined to hourly or clerical employees. Supervisors, staff personnel and managers face the same problem to an even greater degree since they are looked to for leadership and guidance.

The Cleary Management Institute has recorded years of solid experience in analysis, research and program development aimed at meeting industry's training and needs.

MR. McDOWELL pointed out, "Tecumseh schools are here to best serve the educational needs of the community. The Cleary program, which is open to the public, is a valuable asset to our citizens who are interested in self-improvement."

Classes can be taken singularly or as part of a degree program.

In addition, there is a customized six-term certificate program offered.

This includes business organization, personnel relations, effective supervision, communication in industry and industrial psychology.

The certificate program is customized and detailed to adapt to local industrial needs.

Each class, lasting 12 weeks, will meet one night a week for three hours. Certificate programs include Production Management, Administrative Management and Office Practice.

Individuals other than Fisher Body Tecumseh employees who are interested in participating this fall should contact Dr. Houghton, Cleary Management Institute, Washtenaw at Hewitt Road, Ypsilanti.

There will be a $25 registration fee and tuition of $50 per subject, with $15 of the registration fee applied to the tuition.

Questions may be answered locally by calling 423-2255. Applications for registration may be picked up at the Board of Education office.

DOMINIC CONKLIN, RON COLEMAN, DONALD HOUGHTON, JAMES McDOWELL AND HARVEY VOGT PLAN CLEARY COURSES.

Witnesses To Prepare for Assembly

All meetings at the local Kingdom Hall of Jehovahs Witnesses will be cancelled the week end of August 19-21, announced R. S. Krebs, presiding minister of the Tecumseh congregation, to allow the members to attend the semi-annual circuit assembly at Milan.

The high school has been engaged for the event which brings together 15 southeastern Michigan congregations comprising Michigan Circuit Number 8.

T. L. Eleas, circuit minister, program chairman, has arranged a program of Bible education to include sixteen speakers.

Convention officials estimate that attendance will reach 1,000.

Peppi Porpoise Stars at Fair in Water Display

Peppi and his pals are providing a brand new attraction for visitors at the Michigan State Fair, Friday, Aug. 26 through Monday, Sept. 5.

Peppi is an eight-foot porpoise, top star of Aquarama, Theater of the Sea, a huge marine life display making its first appearance in the Midwest.

His pals include an electric eel named Sparky, tropical fish, a giant loggerhead turtle, an alligator, a harbor seal and a penguin.

The show, a traveling unit of a famed Philadelphia attraction, will occupy a 100 by 60 foot space on B street at the Fairgrounds, between the Music Shell and the Colliseum. There will be several shows daily throughout the Fair.

Besides the live exhibits, the show will include color films showing the capture of the North Atlantic pilot whales and porpoises, and a display of interesting items from the sea.

Thurber Will Seek Re-Election To Board

Donald M. D. Thurber, of Grosse Pointe, member of the State Board of Education, today announced he would seek re-nomination and re-election to the Board.

Thurber, a Democrat, will submit his name for re-nomination at his party's convention in Grand Rapids Aug. 19-20. The position on the Board will be filled at the November state-wide election for an eight-year-term.

Created by Michigan's new Constitution, the State Board of Education is given the responsibility for leadership, general supervision, planning and coordination for all public education including higher education in the state. It also advises the Legislature on the financial requirements of education.

"One of Michigan's greatest necessities is to strengthen its capacity to respond to the educational needs of our time," Thurber said. "I believe that the most urgent needs are: to raise the quality of our schools and colleges everywhere and for everyone; to bring equality of educational opportunity to every child, whatever his color, creed, handicap or family circumstance; to provide vocational and technical training geared to the economy and technology of today; to make higher education possible for all young people who can benefit from it; and to bring our educational resources to bear directly on the problems of our communities, particularly of the big cities." Thurber stated.

Thurber, a Detroit public relations executive, is a former Regent of The University of Michigan. A Harvard graduate, he serves on the Overseers' Committee to Visit Harvard College. He is also chairman of the scholarship committee of the Detroit Urban League, a member of the executive council of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan and a board member of the Michigan Society for Mental Health.

Serving as chairman of Thurber's campaign committee is Alfred V. Meyers of Birmingham, an educator long associated with the Detroit Public Schools.

Future Motorists Will Ride on Air

The motorist of 2016 will ride on air and gasoline will be obsolete as car fuel.

This is the forecast of the nation's Big Four auto heads and noted seeress Jean Dixon, as reported in "Motor News," Automobile Club of Michigan's official publication.

"Motor News" went a "step beyond" in giving Michiganians a preview of what they might be driving in another 50 years.

By 2061, as far as auto designers can foretell by means of present technology and scientific knowledge, cars will travel on new types of fuel, suspended on a cushion of air over roads with automatic guidance systems.

Mrs. Dixon, who predicted President Kennedy's assassination and who authored the best-selling book "A Gift of Prophecy," sees in her crystal ball what auto makers speculate.

"I foresee that the most popular car in 2016 will utilize tubeless wheels that retract...While underway the vehicle seems to move on air and automatically compensates for drift caused by the elements. It can turn on its own axis at reasonable speeds."

MRS. DIXON also says that future lubrication-free autos will resemble today's cars rather than airplanes. They will be computer guided on long trips. Rear engines will be featured along with a radar-like collision preventer.

Many other features were foreseen by Mrs. Dixon such as a stripe of light on the roof, three exhaust holes in the rear of the car and two distinct shafts of light underneath the front and rear wheels. But she revealed no practical use for these innovations.

Auto company heads are less speculative and state that it is impossible to tell exactly what cars of tomorrow will be like. Breakthroughs in metals, plastics, designs, fuels and electronic-guidance systems could radically change concepts on drawing boards.

Motorists can expect the following by the turn of the century:

- ► Gasoline will no longer be used for fuel.
- ► Automatic pilots and computerized trips will be used.
- ► Built-in safety features will reduce highway accidents.
- ► Cars will travel off the ground on a cushion of air.
- ► Cars will be used in conjunction with a mass transit system.
- ► Speeds on major roads will be at least 100 miles per hour.

General Motors President James Roche told "Motor News" readers: "Although the outline of the car of the future isn't clearly defined, it is reasonable to assume that styling will continue to emphasize clear designs of motion, stressing maximum visibility and increasing safety and comfort.

"Considerable attention will be given to freeing vehicles from the confines of earth — even if by only a few inches," Ford Motor Company President Arjay Miller said. "We visualize a vehicle in the wheels-up position flying at near-ground level over land or water on a cushion of air at speeds up to 100 miles an hour in complete safety and comfort."

AMERICAN Motors President Roy Abernathy said: "The most dramatic change in our view will come in the way automobiles will be powered.

"We are just beginning to see in our space program how effective the fuel cell can be. With further development in this area, and the rapid strides being made in nuclear energy, it is possible that by the turn of the century automobiles will be powered by electrical energy."

Auto Club made a conservative prediction of its own by stating that in the year 2016 there would be at least 120 million cars in use, compared with 80 million today.

Neither Auto Club nor manufacturers mentioned the cost of cars in the future. But if Mrs. Dixon reads her crystal ball correctly, the grandchildren of this generation's motorists will still find them expensive despite increased automation.

SHE THANKS HER CUSTOMERS — Jeannie Mayers, 10, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Mayers, 6501 Ridge. She now owns a bike earned in the Tecumseh Herald Earn-a-Bike subscription drive. Jeannie would "like to thank all people who took subscriptions and renewals from me." She chose an English racer.

TWO ARE BETTER THAN ONE — This sister-brother combination worked together to earn a bike in the Tecumseh Herald Earn-a-Bike subscription drive. Vicki, 8, and Fred, 11, are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cattell of Rt. 3, Adrian. Brother and sister both worked selling new subscriptions and they chose a regular-sized bike as their reward.

Lenawee County To Receive Funds

Lenawee County will soon receive $242,482 from the Department of State Highways as it prepares to distribute the second quarter Motor Vehicle Highway Fund collections to Michigan counties and incorporated cities and villages.

A share of the funds, collected from all state gasoline and diesel fuel taxes and license plate fees, will be received by Tecumseh, $14,817, Clinton, $3,112 and Britton, $1,335.

Mrs. Egli Wins Trip on TV Quiz

Mrs. Richard Egli, 600 Blanch and, appeared on the NBC TV quiz show "Eye Guess" last Friday and Monday and won $100 and a one-week trip to Florida.

The show was taped while the Eglis were on vacation in New York in July.

"It was completely unexpected," said Mrs. Egli. "A man in the RCA lobby asked us if we would like to be interviewed as contestants and I was chosen."

The Eglis plan to take their Florida trip in midwinter.

King-size clouters meet their match on the longer holes, so Irish Hills offers something for everyone.

For golfers who have never performed under the lights, an additional thrill awaits them at Irish Hills, with after-dark play available Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays.

Owner Gene Sell dreamed up an idea for golfers — a powered golf cart-for-two to ride nine holes in late afternoon, then a steak or seafood dinner, capped with nine more holes under the lights, all for $6.50.

But golf is just one of the many features offered at Mr. Sell's picturesque Sports Park, which covers 200 hilly acres. In winter, the place is a mecca for skiers, who cavort about the slopes, which are complete with power ski tows.

There are 500 pair of skis available for rental and a professional on hand to teach guests. Snow machines give Mother Nature an assist in keeping the hills covered.

Mr. Sell and his family reside in Blissfield. A graduate of Clinton High School and the University of Michigan, the Sports Park owner holds a master's degree in accounting from the University of Michigan.

So for fun in summer or winter, the Irish Hills Sports Park is the place to go.

Lenawee Ranks in Top Counties Says Legislator

State Senator Gilbert Bursley in a talk to Republican legislative leaders at Mackinac Island last week stressed the remarkable record and balanced economy of Lenawee County.

"Although I am primarily stressing Lenawee's agricultural record," Senator Bursley said, "I would draw special attention to the strength of the county's educational system, industries and tourist attractions.

"Adrian and Siena Heights Colleges are two of the best, the scenic Irish Hills are unmatchable, and such industries as Tecumseh Products, General Motors Fisher Body plant and Stauffer Chemical are world famous.

"Of Michigan's 83 counties only two produce agricultural products with greater value than Lenawee.

"By specific categories Lenawee leads all counties in value of meat animals, is 10th in poultry and is sixth in field crops.

"Lenawee ranks fourth in total number of farms with 2,730. The county has 86.3% of its land in farms — a figure surpassed only by Gratiot County.

"Only Huron and Sanilac Counties have more land acreage in farms making Lenawee third in this respect. The county is also third in acres of cropland harvested."

Thirty-five per cent of Michigan's eight million citizens are students.

Long and Short

Schools Ready, Moms Rejoice

By TOM RIORDAN

GRAND HAVEN — With a lavish portion of my ancestry being Dutch (my mother was a VanDerVoort), visiting Windmill Island in nearby Holland proved to be the highpoint, at least for me, during the first portion of our annual two-week vacation.

From our cottage on Lake Michigan, four miles south of here, we've been junketing the area, including a fascinating afternoon in Holland.

Historic-minded folks there are creating an authentic bit of The Netherlands within their city limits.

Turning a 160-acre tract of unused marshland along the banks of the Black River into a municipal park, they are preserving their rich Dutch heritage — at no cost to taxpayers.

Begun in 1961, the first phase of the program is nearly complete. It's the 36-acre Windmill Island, formed by cutting a 500-yard-long canal across a finger of land that pokes a loop in the river.

Focal point is gigantic De Zwaan windmill, which stands 12 majestic stories high.

To get to the island, visitors cross an old-fashioned Dutch drawbridge. Suddenly they can imagine, instead of passing over only a few feet of water, they're magically making a 4,000-mile leap into old Holland.

That's what the island is being shaped into — an authentic bit of the Fatherland. Besides De Zwaan, there's a pond, formal garden, rose garden. Coming is a Dutch farm, complete with animals.

Trees planted include Lindens, White Ash, Lombardy Poplars, Weeping Willows, Russian Olives, Scotch Brooms, Flowering Apples, Red Maples, Locusts, Sugar Maples.

Of course there are tulips — 100,000, to be exact — plus more than 600 plantings of other annuals. Nearly $35,000 in nursery stock will complete landscaping this fall.

Can you imagine the blaze of colors come spring?

BUT EVEN if there wasn't a flower in sight, a visit to this park is a thrill and education all in one — just to view the 200-year-old windmill.

De Zwaan is only one of two windmills allowed to be removed from Holland. The other is in Aruba, The Netherlands Antilles, near Venezuela. Both were restored by Jan Diederik Meden-

AS PROTECTION for Tecumseh pupils the Board requires a complete physical for all staff members when they first enter our school system and every two years thereafter.

Tuberculosis tests are required each year and are done by the Lenawee County Health Department. All staff members must have these tests and X-rays are required if necessary.

The Board plans to have all children (except kindergarteners, who will come Wednesday) start school on Sept. 6, at 10 locations:

High school, Junior high, Patterson, Herrick Park, Tecumseh Acres, Tipton, Sutton, Ridgeway, West Branch and Macon.

A hot lunch program will begin opening day in the high school. Milk will be available in all other buildings and children will be expected to bring their own lunches.

Junior High pupils may purchase luncheons through automatic vending machines.

Eligibility of elementary children to remain at school for lunches will be determined by the same rules as last year.

Children living within .7 mile of school will be expected to walk home for lunch. Special arrangements may be made if both parents work away from home.

Parents should contact the principal of the school that their child attends.

THE HOT LUNCH Program and the milk program were both operated without a loss for the last two years. The 35c fee charged at the cafeteria met the needs of the program and will continue for this year, unless Federal aid is cut again.

State and Federal aid, both in money and surplus foods, enable our schools to provide a wholesome lunch at reasonable prices.

The school is not allowed to operate at a profit nor is it expected to lose money.

Milk will be available through the Federal program at reduced prices as usual in all the elementary schools. Pupils bringing lunches may buy milk at 4c per carton for white, and when available, chocolate milk.

THE NEW ADDITIONS to the high school and the junior high school have made it possible for all pupils to come to school at the same time, enjoy a single lunch hour together, and to leave school at the same time.

The Administrative Council of the schools, consisting of the superintendent, business manager, building principals, and bus supervisor, met to discuss methods of scheduling various schools so that every child in the district will have the same program and so that the school days will start and end at the same time.

After much discussion and planning, the Council presented the following plans to the Board of Education which approved same for the new year although some minor changes may be necessary yet this fall.

All secondary schools will open and close at the same time. The early elementary programs will all start and end together.

This is made possible by the rearrangement and improvement of the elementary curriculum, and the addition of mobile classrooms at Sutton School.

'The Pit' Water Is Not Polluted

By [illegible]

The Pit is not polluted, according to Clifford Lantz, Lenawee County Health Department sanitary engineer.

Test results of water samples taken during July and analyzed for coliform bacteria show the popular swimming spot is within limits recommended for swimming areas by the American Public Health Association.

Although the water passed the test, Mr. Lantz recommended analysis of samples monthly to prevent pollution.

LOW AREAS away from the actual swimming area should be filled in or blocked off because the shallow waters with heavy growth of algae and water plants allow much organic decomposition and contribute to heavy mosquito breeding.

Mr. Lantz said the general area is kept exceptionally neat and clean, complimenting Ted Todd and his staff.

"Improvements could be made," he said, "by providing tight fitting swing top lids on all trash cans and more frequent policing of the entire water perimeter."

Minimum improvements to make cleaning easier for the present old, inadequate buildings were offered, because future development of the area will provide new bathhouses.

Mr. Lantz said present toilet facilities are inadequate, and stressed the need for expansion, with adequate sewage system.

BOTH WATER supply and sewage disposal systems were in existence when the city purchased the property, and no information was available to the Health Department.

Mr. Lantz called the water supply sufficient, but asked for the well location and protection against possible surface contamination. He recommended the drinking water be analyzed monthly.

While no failure of the sewage disposal system was evident, Mr. Lantz asked for its location and size, and if a septic tank, recommended checking and cleaning.

"As soon as practical and certainly before any new development, municipal water-sewer services should be extended to serve this area," he said.

Two people were injured in a horse riding accident Monday afternoon when they lost control of their horses on Grange Hall Hwy., just north of Tecumseh at the Tecumseh-Macon Rd.

Her companion, Lynda Fulmer, 16, Grosse Point, received injuries to the ankle and knee, plus facial cuts and bruises. She was scheduled for release Wednesday.

Both were riding on a gravel road, north of the Country Club when they lost control of the horses, which ran onto the paved Tecumseh-Macon Rd.

The horses stumbled and threw the riders.

Past Week Accidents Are Minor

Tecumseh's accident rate dropped here the past week with only six mishaps coming under investigation. None involved personal injury.

A resume is:

Aug. 18 — Jack Dean Allen, 35, of 1820 Taylor Rd., ran into the side of an auto driven by Douglas P. Wilcox, 18, of 709 Adrian St., at the intersection of W. Chicago Blvd., and Union St. Wilcox was cited for running a red light.

All club matches will be played Sunday, and all will be over 18 holes except for the club championship.

Shall City Sack Cans — or Can the Sacks?

By JIM LINCOLN

City officials were still uncertain earlier this week whether residents prefer sack refuse collection over metal cans.

Six of 19 surveys turned in by residents of Seminole Dr., show three favor the sacks and three against. One of the favorable surveys was conditional, favoring sack collection if the cost is comparable and the sacks are made larger.

City Manager Cal Zorn hopes that all surveys are turned in, otherwise the city will consider the absentees "not violently opposed to the sacks."

Residents from Seminole in favor of sacks made few comments, but those opposed explained their objections.

Criticism of the sacks were spillage, grease soaking through, not large enough, and tearing.

A surprising result of the survey is the number of sacks used by the residents. It ranged from two to six sacks a week. One resident, not in the experimental Seminole Dr. area, reported that he was able to get by on one sack a week.

Unless there's a price change in the cost of sacks — proposed cost is 30c each — residents using two or more sacks would pay more than for two metal cans.

A resident using six sacks a week would pay over three times the cost for the present rate of two metal cans. However, a family using just one sack, would pay about half of what two metal cans cost.

Some residents say that their collection service was dependable during the four-week experiment, and one resident reported the refuse collection firm, Dependable Garbage, Inc., of Napoleon, is the best since living in Tecumseh.

Residents on E. Pottawatamie St. are now using the sacks and they will be surveyed later.

Wage Increases Total $200,000 for Local Plant

The wage rate of General Motors hourly employes will be increased next month in amounts ranging from nine to 16 cents per hour under existing agreements signed with the UAW, IUE and other unions in 1964.

The wage rate increases, for GM hourly employes at the Fisher Body Tecumseh plant will amount to approximately $200,000 in additional earnings per year.

Young Son Is Injured in Accident

Donald Buchheimer Jr., 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Buchheimer Sr., 13 Murray Dr., underwent treatment in University Hospital, Ann Arbor, for a broken shoulder and facial lacerations suffered in an automobile accident Sunday.

The mishap occurred about 11 p.m., on M-50 just east of Tipton. Donald and his brother Bruce, 6, were passengers in the car driven by their mother, Lucille, who skidded on rain-swept pavement, lost control of her car and rolled over three times.

Bruce was treated for bruises and released. Mrs. Buchheimer remains in Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Answering an ambulance call late last Sunday night, David Criss arrived to find several people already at the scene and giving assistance. "A most gratifying experience," says Dave, "especially considering the fact that this happened in the midst of one of the heaviest downpours I've ever seen. I'm sure many of those present were from the Tecumseh area and I think they all should be thanked publicly for their efforts." It seems some people still care enough to "get involved".

"Hey, what do you do with these pictures?" exclaimed James W. Baker when he saw the box of old photos at The Herald Office. The photo on top was his oldest daughter, Lois Elaine, now Mrs. James Williams, when she was a senior at Tecumseh High School in 1957.

If Sandy Poley, 408 S. Pearl, can't find homes for the 12 puppies she has adopted, they'll go to the Lenawee County Animal Shelter this weekend. The pups, seven male and five female of mixed breed, were born in Sandy's yard about a month ago. The mother, a stray German short-haired pointer, has been a member of the neighborhood for almost a year. Sandy has cared for the entire family since then but now that they are old enough to be on their own, she'd like to find homes for some of the babies.

Long & Short

dorp, a Dutch millwright from a family of mill owners and operators.

Getting permission from De Hollandsche Molen, a society formed in the 1920's to preserve and restore mills on Dutch soil, was needed before the Michigan city could realize its dream.

Promoters of the plan in Michigan agreed from the start that "not merely a modern version of a Dutch windmill — not just an accurate reproduction — not even a restoration that had been torn down and stored away" would be acceptable.

"If there was to be a windmill in Holland, Michigan, it had to be the real thing, one that was standing in the Netherlands and could be purchased for removal here," noted the official story recently published.

The initial request went through official Dutch channels and was turned down cold. De Hollandsche Molen said "no windmills were available for shipment out of the Netherlands."

Long efforts followed. Finally, Molen members reversed that first denial, being convinced that by agreeing they would help "strengthen further the cultural and historic ties that unite the Netherlands and the people of Holland, Michigan, and environs."

Revenue bonds worth $450,000 were approved by the city to finance the entire plan — buying and shipping the windmills (which actually cost 8,000 guilders or $2,800) to the States, leasing 160 acres of land and turning it into the park.

That these Michigan Dutchmen knew what they were about is borne out in the fact between 800 and 1,200 visitors view Windmill Island daily — at $1 for adults and 50c for children, an estimated weekly gross of $35,000 a week.

With spring-to-fall tourism, that comes to well over three-quarters of a million, so those bonds should be paid off in jig time.

DE ZWAAN IS a giant, measuring 125-feet high and containing five floors which guests may tour. Its sails measure 75 feet from tip to tip.

When the wind gusts from 10 to 15 miles an hour, visitors are in for a treat. The arms are unlocked to begin their counter-clockwise movement and the miller gets busy grinding wheat, which can be purchased in two-pound sacks, so you see the city fathers haven't missed a trick.

The location of Windmill Island is ideal, as noted in its history:

"The wind has a clean sweep in from Lake Michigan. The terrain, rustic and wooden and threaded by a waterway, seemed to suggest that Mother Nature deliberately copied it from a Netherlands sketchbook."

Ranchers live a busy, satisfactory life with fresh mountain trout, tender steaks and "garden sass" from their own irrigated patch always on the menu.

The fall roundup of hundreds of beef cattle from the high country commonly 50 miles from home highlights the year and is much anticipated by cowboys and gals, too.

'As I Recall'

By MRS. FLOYD BRYAN

As I glance back down memory lane I note many changes, not only in our town, but also in our mode of living.

One of my earliest memories is of a cooper shop on the northeast corner of Maumee and East Pottawatamie Streets, where barrels and tubs were made. My grandfather was a cooper, and how interesting it wsa to watch him shape the staves and put the hoops in place — and the pride he had in the barrel or tub when finished!

I can recall when there were three grist mills — The Quaker Mill south of town, the Stearn or Heck Mill north of what was the East Branch School, now the City Hall, and the Hayden Mill, later destroyed by fire, then rebuilt, then remodeled by Henry Ford and presently serving as our Community Center.

Once we had car shops, a creamery, table factory, fence factory, two carriage and three cigar factories. A Chinese laundry and the unique way he had of sprinkling clothes! We had three or four blacksmith shops where horses were shod and the ring of the anvil was heard.

Do you recall the meat markets where the piece of meat you ordered was cut by the butcher from a side of beef or pork? The privately-owned groceries, the shoemaker who would make you a pair of shoes or boots. The furniture stores where the owner was also the undertaker, and funerals were held in homes. Babies were born at home and usually a neighbor woman, not a nurse, helped the doctor. Weddings were home affairs. The nearest hospital — Ann Arbor, Jackson, Toledo or Detroit.

As I glance again down the streets I recall a harness shop, a bicycle shop where your bicycle, umbrella or gun could be mended or maybe a key made. A novelty store, a tailor shop where men were measured, their suits made from the material they chose. We had four milliners, hats were hand-made on wire frames, in summer covered with horsehair braid, lace or chiffon. In winter the frames were made of buckram and covered with felt or velvet. And how often they were re-trimmed and an ostrich plume was a lady's prized possession; Remember long hat pins and what a protection they were!

When we had a candy store owned by Greeks who made their own candies and ice cream. Remember the trays of taffy in winter and how chewy it was?

The Opera House, where plays like "Uncle Tom's Cabin" were performed, or a stock company would come for a week with a different play each night! The price: children 10c; adults, 25c. Then the silent movies — admission, 5c.

Some summers we would have a chautauqua, and how fortunate we were to have a season's ticket! Each summer there would be a Sports Day, balloon ascensions, bicycle races and all sorts of other races.

Trains? Yes, we really had train service. On the lakeshore, a passenger train at 7, 9 and 11 a.m. and 1, 3 and 5 p.m. daily, all stopping at the station (four corners nd D.T. & I. crossing, corner of Evans and Chicago Blvd.) besides several freights. Also, trains on the D.T.&I. from Detroit to Lima, O.

Sorry, but once we had two or more saloons in every business block. We have boasted three hotels, the Lilly, Vandoma and Patterson House.

How many can recall when we placed a pitcher or a basin on the porch for milk? The milkman filled them with the desired amount by dipping milk from a can. We had different colored tickets for pints and quarts. The price was 5c a quart.

Once we had two ice houses where ice was stored after it was cut in winter and packed with sawdust. There was the iceman, who washed the ice and put it in our boxes — and we had better remember to empty the basin underneath!

When we could buy three dozen eggs for a quarter and a large bag of crackers for 25c . (That was before everything was packaged.)

Remember when we had fruit stores and bananas were 10c a dozen, not a pound? When there were several celery farms in this area, and how good home-grown celery tasted! When we bought fresh vegetables from a huckster with a pushcart, ordered our groceries by telephone and had them delivered right to our kitchen!

The hitching posts that lined the main street, the horses and buggies, as well as some lumber wagons one could see there. The Fire Engine and the team of horses (and how they could run!) the sprinkling wagon, horse-drawn, that kept the dust down on main street. Sleigh rides and cutter rides in the winter, the sleighbells on the horses or cleighs, buggy rides and — who remembers this? — Spring Mud. Anyone who ever lived on a farm is sure to.

Do you remember when we swept with a broom, wore a dust-cap or towel over our hair to keep it clean? The kitchen stove with the hearth in front, reservoir on the back, which was our source of hot water. The ashes to be taken up! The round heating stove, the wood boxes to keep filled, maybe wood to split. The hard coal burner with izinglass windows where one could watch the fire. How cozy on a cold winter evening!

And how comfy a warm brick was for a bedfellow when the temperature was really low! The cistern with nice soft rain water, the well outside where you could always pump yourself a cool refreshing drink, the water pail to keep filled inside.

Recall when every housewife baked bread? How delicious it was, and what a heavenly smell when it came from the oven! Then there were home-cured meats. And most of the summer and fall was a busy time canning and preserving fruits and vegetables.

When we had cellars, milk and butter and other foods were kept there. Oh, yes, the potato bins we filled in the fall — the number of bushels depending on the size of the family. Also a few bushels of apples could be found there — and maybe homemade apple butter.

Some would have soft soap — the kind you used for cleaning, not flattery. When have you seen a tramp or had one knock on your door and ask for food or clothing?

Should I mention picnics, when we spread the tablecloth on the ground, and we also sat on the ground? Remember long dresses — and when we were not properly dressed without two or three petticoats, long undies and high-buttoned shoes?

When wash water was heated in boilers and clothes had to be soaked, then boiled, to get them white and clean. The washboard and the backache on washday. The flatirons, heated on the stove — we needed at least three.

The lamps to fill, wicks to trim, chimneys to keep clean. Also lanterns. Ever hear of a quilting bee? Remember the parlor, the Family Album, the uncomfortable chairs with horsehair covers? And some lovely furniture, maybe a highboy, an old clock, and large pictures of the family on the walls? In the bedrooms — the wash bowl and pitcher, and those other pieces of essential crockery?

Do you recall when church bells chimed on Sunday mornings, and church suppers, 10 and 15 cents.

Romney Will Come Sept. 10

Local Republicans have announced that Gov. George Romney and other top party leaders will be in Tecumseh Sept. 10.

A visitation and coffee hour is planned, according to Hugh Walter, president of the Tecumseh-Area Republicans.

Norwegians Are Studious

By MAXINE CALHOUN

Donald Quick quickly became convinced of the truth of the Norwegian saying, "Children work harder than the adults in Norway," as he studied comparative education at the University of Oslo International Summer School.

Mr. Quick, Clinton elementary principal, was briefed on Norwegian culture during a 9-day orientation aboard the "Oslo Fjord" which sailed June 16 from New York.

Participating in the summer school program were 400 students, with 48 nations represented, including 34 students from the United States.

All were required to study Norwegian culture, background and history, its economic status and art.

Mr. Quick found most Norwegian adults more relaxed and easy-going than Americans, more rural in outlook and free from the pressures created by a highly industrialized culture.

Their business places close at 4 p.m. each day and everyone is home then for an early family main meal.

The children attend school from 8:30 a.m. to 2:15 p.m., each day, including Saturday, and bring home from two to four hours of home work each night.

At school, the State supplies the "Oslo Breakfast" which traditionally included goat's milk, carrots and fruit, to be eaten with bread brought from home. Although the goat's milk and carrots are usually omitted now, milk and fruit are still supplied by the State.

THEIR SCHOOL YEAR is from Aug. 20 to June 23, 230 days, compared to America's 187-day school year. They have vacations in September for potato harvest, teacher conferences in October, Christmas holidays, a week for skiing in February, ten days at Easter and National holidays such as their Independence Day and Labor Day.

Children do not begin school until seven years old and are only required to complete seven grades. However, there are private schools for 3-7 year-olds.

A teacher in the first grade will continue to teach the same group of children each year until they complete the seventh grade.

Two Norwegian languages are compulsory, the Bokmal with many Danish derivations and the newer Nyorsk, which was created in a patriotic effort to have a completely Norwegian people's language.

Elementary children are taught more science than is customary in American schools, including physics and chemistry such as taught in high school here.

Funds are provided by the government on an equal basis for all schools which makes it possible for rural and large city schools to provide the same quality of education regardless of size.

A lengthy, comprehensive essay-type examination is given at the end of seventh grade and those who successfully complete it are permitted to attend the "Real Skole" for three years which is equivalent to an American junior high. In Real Skole, boys and girls are required to take all types of handicraft, woodshop, domestic science and home economics.

EMPHASIS is placed on physical training rather than athletic games.

"There are few fat Norwegians," Mr. Quick said.

Their "Gymnasium" is equivalent to the last two years of

DONALD QUICK

American high school and the first year of college.

Although there are only two universities in Norway, the University of Oslo, established in 1817 and the University of Bergen, established in 1946, besides the Technical University of Engineering in Throndiem, there are many technical schools provided by the state.

There are 17 colleges for training elementary teachers and several colleges for vocational training such as commercial, agriculture, naval, etc.

Students who are unable to pass the seventh grade exam may, when they are 19 or older, attend the folk high school, tuition free, where they may study any subject.

Although the pay for elementary teachers is comparatively good, $3,900, the status of their teachers is not very high. All administrators and principals in elementary and high schools are required to teach 10-15 class periods and they have very little secretarial help.

A national law forbids more than 30 pupils in a classroom. A school with over 400 pupils is considered large and would have an assistant principal.

THE INTERNATIONAL Summer School students were treated royally while in Norway. They were invited to a garden party where they were introduced to King Olaf and Crown Prince Harold.

They were invited to the home of Christian Longe, manager of the State broadcasting system, and they visited the City Hall where they were entertained by the Mayor.

Side trips to the famous ski jump at Holmenkollen Hill, the scenic fjords and a visit to a Rotary meeting where the speaker talked of "Tourism," were among the fringe benefits of the summer in Norway.

The University of Oslo offers scholarships for the summer school. Study there is highly recommended by Mr. Quick, who is now busily preparing for the opening of the Clinton Elementary School. He will continue his graduate studies at the University of Michigan this fall and enter his doctoral program soon in Elementary Curriculum Instruction.

Additional Work Is Completed on Football Lights

Additional work has been completed for Tecumseh's new football lights.

Industrial Electric of Adrian has trenched and laid electric cable across the field to service poles on the west side.

The 80- and 90-foot poles have yet to arrive from the west coast to complete the $20,000 installation.

The Jaycees, who sparked the drive to raise funds, still lack part of their share but have received some contributions to help out.

Betty Flanders Is 'On the Air'

"Good morning and hello. This is Betty Flanders, your Tecumseh Spot-Light hostess . . ."

Many area residents hear this opening each weekday morning as Mrs. Flanders broadcasts from Flanders Music Shop in Tecumseh over WLEN at 10 a.m.

Betty has something fresh and new on every show, from mayors to local musicians.

The show originated when her husband, Bill, made arrangements with WLEN to broadcast over the air. The show is sponsored by five area merchants.

Certain days of the week are set aside for specific entertainment, from local officials to visits from representatives of the Lenawee Health Department. Gospel music is Friday's feature.

Betty, originally from South Dakota, is no newcomer to radio entertainment.

She has been a guest many times on a similar show in Ann Arbor and she has taped shows and commercials for both WPAG and WHRP of Ann Arbor.

Betty receives many letters and welcomes many guests from local clubs and organizations. She has helped in many local causes, such as interviewing school board candidates, promoting new lights for the football field and introducing political candidates.

Lorena Tours Europe for Summer Adventure

By DENICE ANDERSON

A lost passport — stranded for a week — an old envelope factory.

Sound like the beginning for another thrilling spy story?

No. It's just a few of the exciting things that happened when Lorena Fitzpatrick spent three months touring Europe by herself.

Lorena, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fitzpatrick, Clinton, went on a chartered flight sponsored by the University of Michigan's Student Union. During her three months abroad she used various forms of transportation, ranging from trains to rented cars to walking.

IN HAAG—Lorena Fitzpatrick visits Intl. World Court.

The UM junior spent five weeks in Amsterdam, Holland, working in an envelope factory. She worked nine hours a day, 45 hours a week and earned $30 a week.

The economic structure of Holland was low enough to permit her to live on this sum. She spent 95c a night at the hotel.

HER HOTEL was run by the local university students in Amsterdam. It was dorm-style. Aside from a one-week-end excursion, Lorena spent most of her time touring the city which she now considered her second home.

Holland is one of the few countries that requires English as a second language. Lorena had no trouble communicating and she found the people to be most pleasant.

Working in the factory, she met the working class, those the tourists don't meet.

In Ireland, Lorena rented a car and discovered that the people there are still very primitive. Hitch-hikers are a common occurrence because only the very rich have means of transportation.

Lorena visited all the highlights of Europe — Berlin, both East and West, International World Court at Haag, Paris, Florence, Vienna, Athens, Rome and Geneva.

HER FAVORITE city was Florence, the home of Michelangelo. It is a city of aesthetic beauty. Paris was the most exciting city she has ever seen.

Lorena definitely advises traveling alone. She took no tours because they just skimmed the sights. Alone, she was able to explore and get to know all the places of interest.

LANGUAGE was a problem. "You never know what you will end up eating," she said.

Beer and wine are the accepted form of beverage in Europe, milk being undesirable.

Although restaurants don't meet the highest qualities, Lorena found the food to be generally good.

Her passport was lost in Athens. It was finally found after backtracking.

She found the Greek standard of living low and the people warm.

Lorena learned during her travels that cultures are so different overseas.

"Our ways can't be forced upon people who have had their own customs for centuries," she said.

The English literature major plans to earn her masters degree after graduation.

U-M Concert Season Opens with Symphony

Tickets are now on sale for the concert season of the University of Michigan Musical Society, which opens with the Chamber Symphony of Philadelphia Sept. 24.

The Moscow Chamber Orchestra, Jose Greco, Royal Winipeg Ballet and Hosho Noh Dance Troupe are among the many events scheduled for the coming year.

Information is available from the Musical Society, Burton Tower, Ann Arbor.

Benefit Musical for Hurt Member, Eddie Spooner

A benefit premiere of "The Little Dipper", a folk-type musical, will be performed Sept. 16, 17 and 18 at Woodworth Junior High School in Jackson.

The benefit will be for Eddie Spooner, a Jackson resident who nearly lost his life in a motorcycle accident July 20.

Eddie, once a member of the "Dipper" cast, is well known in area theatre groups sponsoring the performance.

Players Get in Condition at Football Training Camp

By JIM LINCOLN

"Camp is fun!"

Football Coach Tom Fagan says it is, but we doubt that he'd get a unanimous nod from 38 candidates for the 1966 varsity squad.

Up at 5:30 a.m. and in bed at 10 p.m. is just part of the conditioning football camp now going on at Boysville.

Between these hours, there's a scheduled program of running, twisting and other contortions that put muscles into shape.

Fagan and his assistants — John Korican, Val Spangler, Ted Todd and Vic Lawson — are applying the latest exercises adopted by college and pro teams for conditioning football players.

Len Tate, Adrian College student, is helping the coaches at the camp. Jack Osburn is chief cook and washer, assisted by Glen Work, president of the Fan Club. Members of the Fan Club also are taking their turns in the kitchen.

Whether the coaches and their help can adequately prepare the Indians for their opener against Willow Run is something else.

There's not a 200-pounder on the squad, making it one of the smallest in years. Also, there's just nine lettermen back from a squad which compiled a 6-3 record in 1965.

Lettermen, many of whom won their awards on defense, are Gary Dauber, Lee Hannibal, Dean Hebb, Henry Mensing, Joe Vargo, Barry Williamson, Roger Young, John Anderson and Jim Upell.

Young is the only returning back in the bunch, who actually lettered on offense.

Others at camp are Mike Allen, a transfer from Arkansas, Scott Edwards, Tom Feight, Doug Haines, Nick Hebert, Rick Jackson, Dave Kennel, Mike Kossey, Greg Luce, Ron Packard, Richard Sweet, Herby Bagby.

Gus Bishop, John Boldon, Rick Durkee, Chuck Gillies, Richard Hale, Mike Jackson, Jim Mobley, Gary Raymond, Rand Robinson, Doug Schwartz, Ralph Vallejo, Tom Witt, Buddy Work, Ken Wright, Dan Anderson and Jim Hunt, a transfer from Paw Paw and a brother of a former Clinton gridder.

While there are a number of holes to be filled, Tecumseh's prospects could be much worse. Holdovers plus a fine crop up from the Jayvees could give the Indians a boost in overall speed, something they lacked last year.

Next Monday, players will don their equipment and start training in earnest with practices scheduled twice a day until school starts.

State athletic regulations forbid regular practice prior to Aug. 29. This year's conditioning camp, as in the past, has been approved by state authorities, who were notified of the camp's complete program.

TIRES ARE TIRING — Harnessed and hitched at Tecumseh's conditioning camp at Boysville, Barry Williamson and Roger Young find dragging old tires around are for the horses.

Has Flower Assortment

April Cook brought the flower arrangement which earned her a blue ribbon at the county fair to the meeting of the Little Garden Club last Tuesday. A similar arrangement of yellow and orange marigolds will be shown by April at the Michigan State Fair next week in Detroit.

The meeting was held at the home of the president, Jean Hammel, with seven guests present: Karen Bird, April Cook, Peggy Ford, Beth Frownfelder, Margene Frownfelder, Barbara Hammel and Kim Sievers. The girls are junior gardeners and members of 4-H clubs.

Flower arrangements at the fair were discussed and refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Nadine Clausen and Pat Holmes.

Business Firms To Aid College

Many Tecumseh business firms are being contacted this week to aid Adrian College in a $1,500,000 fund-raising drive.

A breakdown for the fund's use is $500,000 endowment, $500,000 campus development and $500,000 for academic plant and equipment needs.

The drive is planned over a three-year period.

BUS SERVICE to Tecumseh Public School pupils will again be on a "safety first" basis.

The state law stating that pupils in the grades kindergarten through sixth may be required to walk up to ½ mile to scheduled bus routes and pupils in grades seven through 12 up to one mile, is used to determine the length of bus routes as well as to group pupils.

Backtracking has been eliminated unless absolutely necessary. Parents of pupils requested to join groups at pick-up points are again asked to give their cooperation.

This year the State of Michigan will again pay for the transportation of parochial school children to parochial schools on public school buses, so all parochial school children who meet the requirements of the State of Michigan for transportation will be bused by the Tecumseh Public Schools.

CHILDREN ENROLLED in Tecumseh Public Schools last spring have already received notice of the grade and school in which they will be located this fall.

However, some changes must be made due to the rapid growth of the community and overcrowding in the grades.

Parents of children who are new to the community who have not yet been enrolled should see the counselor of the high school; John Pobuda in the case of pupils in grades 9 to 12; the junior high principal, David Dick, in the case of pupils in grades 7 and 8; and Mrs. Paul Vallmar, telephone 423-2167, extension 20, at the main office in the case of children in grades kindergarten through the 6th grade.

These people will all be in their respective offices Aug. 30 and 31 expressly for this purpose and may be contacted on those dates. New pupils should register at this time.

THE TEXTBOOK rental plan which was started in 1947 was revised by the Board of Education for the 1962-63 school year and continues the same for this year. The textbook fee includes textbooks, work books, and art materials except in special classes where additional supplies are necessary.

The fees are:

- ► Kindergarten—$4
- ► First through sixth—$6.50
- ► Seventh and eighth—$7
- ► Ninth through twelfth—$8

All textbooks are the property of the Board of Education. Students should use the books with care to avoid paying fines.

All lost books must be paid for in full. The principals and their appointed teachers are in charge of the collecting of the money.

Receipts must be issued to all pupils paying fees of any kind on official Board of Education forms.

Elementary pupils should be prepared to pay the book rental fee to the teacher on the opening day of school and parents should expect their children to bring a receipt for same home after the initial enrollment.

All elementary pupils will remain in school as usual on the opening day.

HIGH SCHOOL pupils report to the gym at 7:45 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 6. Book fees of $8 and a lock fee of 50c will be collected. A General Assembly and Orientation will be held at 10 a.m.

Pupils will be dismissed for the day at noon.

Regular classes will begin Sept. 7 at 7:45 a.m.

Pupils enrolled in physical education should be prepared to pay a $1.50 fee for towels and locker at the first meeting of their physical education class on Wednesday.

Chemistry and biology students should be prepared to pay a laboratory fee of $1.50 and chemistry students an additional fee of $1.50 for equipment which will be refunded if there is no breakage.

A special request by the "Band Boosters" for a special fee to relieve them of the necessity to sponsor projects to raise money to improve the band program was honored by the Board in July. Therefore, a special fee of $5 per family having one or more pupils in the band will be assessed.

"JUNIOR HIGH pupils are to report at 7:45 a.m., Sept. 6, the seventh grade to the boys' gym on the first floor, and the eighth grade to the girls' gym on the third floor.

Book fees of $7 will be collected and schedule cards handed out.

Checks should be made out for exactly $7.

Pupils are to go to their sixth hour class at 10 a.m. for orientation.

Pupils will be dismissed for the day at noon.

All seventh grade pupils must be prepared to pay a $1.50 towel and locker fee at the first meeting of their physical education class.

Regular classes will begin on Sept. 7, at 7:45 a.m.

Pupils in Junior and Senior High who do not come prepared to pay their book fees must report directly to the principal's office before receiving permision to enroll.

KINDERGARTEN children will not meet until Wednesday, Sept. 7 at scheduled times.

On that date the parents of the kindergarten children are requested to pin a note on the child, giving the child's name and address.

These parents are requested to meet the child's teacher Sept. 6, and pay the $4 book fee at this time.

Wherever possible rural kindergarten pupils have been placed in morning sections to facilitate bus schedules.

Kindergarten bus drivers will make home calls sometime Sept. 6 to acquaint parents of their school bus routines.

THE SUTTON SCHOOL, which was opened again two years ago will be open this fall.

The building houses two classrooms which will provide for a first and third grade and a storage room for coats, lunches, etc., and will be used for lunches for four grades.

The mobile building will house a second and fourth grade at this location.

The Tecumseh Schools will also operate an elementary orthopedic and an elementary deaf room at the Lenawee School Services building at Sutton as well as a secondary orthopedic room at the high school and a secondary deaf room at the junior high.

A new facility for the slow learners will be added to the high school to serve pupils from the seventh through the 12th grades. These special programs are in cooperation with the Intermediate School Superintendent and his staff.

NOT THIS FALL — Work at the two-story addition to Tecumseh High School is currently at a standstill. Scheduled to open this fall, trenches for footings were dug in July and cement blocks delivered.

NEW CHURCH BASEMENT STANDS ON OLD "PINK SCHOOL" SITE

Demolished Church Rebuilds at Old Site

The congregation of the Grace Bible Church is using the facilities of its newly constructed building on M-50 at Carson Hwy.

The basement building provides a place of worship for the church following the destruction of the old "Pink School" in the Palm Sunday tornado, April, 1965.

The old school building had been used as the Grace Bible Church since its beginning in June, 1959.

Although not fully completed, the first service was held in the new basement June 19.

Work has progressed since that time and still continues, according to the Rev. David Holly.

PLANS FOR the new building were prepared by Unified Church Structures of Mt. Clemens.

These plans include the basement and first floor sanctuary which, upon completion, will seat 250.

The basement has a 34' x 45' assembly area now being used for the church services, a kitchen, boiler room and rest rooms.

Daily Vacation Bible School was held this summer with an enrollment of 117 and an average attendance of 89 for the two-week school.

Because of limited facilities it was impossible to have the Bible School in 1965.

A week of evangelistic meetings, originally planned for the fall of 1965 but cancelled following the tornado, are scheduled for this fall.

SERVICES between the tornado and June 19 were held in the Sunday School building, erected in 1963, which was not damaged by the tornado.

"Though inadequate for this type of use the congregation was grateful to God for the preservation of this building, the first step in our building of a contemporary church edifice," said Rev. Holly.

At the time of the destruction of the old school building the testimony of the church was "The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord" found in Job 1:21.

Another verse from Job, chapter 42, verse 12 was taken as God's promise to the church, "So the Lord blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning."

"This promise has been literally fulfilled in that the church now has a much more spacious place of worship than it had in the old "Pink School" and this before the sanctuary is completed," said Rev. Holly.

AS ONE PASSES the church today there is not much to remind him of the old school building which stood as a landmark for so many years.

A stone placed near the peak on the front of the school building bearing the inscription, "School Dist. No. 2, 1892" fell out with the rest of the front wall the night the tornado struck but apart from a few chips it was undamaged.

This stone has been placed in a recessed area in the hallway wall in the new basement.

"Together with a picture of the church this stone will serve as a reminder of what God has done and is yet able to do for the members and friends of the Grace Bible Church," said Rev. Holly.

Destination Safety

General Motors will present a one-hour documentary on traffic safety over 138 television stations.

It will appear Friday, Sept. 9 from 10 to 11 p.m. on Detroit Channel 2.

The documentary, "Destination Safety," was prepared to provide a searching look at a subject of ever-increasing cause for concern. The public service program will not be interrupted by commercials.

Interviews with leading traffic authorities, visits to various facilities and organizations connected with safety research, and incidents in law enforcement situations as they actually happened will be shown.

The main parts of the documentary approach significant things that are being done to make cars safer, highways better, law enforcement more effective and drivers better trained. Another area covered is driver licensing.

The film also presents examples of positive action that are helping traffic safety.

CHICAGO'S comeback from one of the worst fatality records to one of the best, is recorded through the voice of a traffic patrolman.

An experiment in training student drivers in Flint, Mich., provides an example of what one community did with a pressing problem of teen-ager fatalities.

Safer cars through extensive research in laboratories and proving grounds is shown with "impact sled" tests of windshields, seat belts, door locks, padded instrument panels and the energy-absorbing steering column.

Research leading to improvements in guard rails, lamp posts and bridge railings, to make them safer when struck by a motorist, also is documented.

Organizations, universities and other educational institutions, state and local official agencies and individuals who either participated or were consulted in the production of "Destination Safety" number more than 130.

Hugh Walter Is Re-Elected

Tecumseh Area Republicans met at the City Hall council room August 15 to hold an election of officers and to be addressed by County Republican Chairman Jim Hadden.

Hugh Walter was unanimously elected to a second term as chairman for the area. Also elected were vice-chairman, Mrs. Mel Wegner, secretary, Julie Fosbender and treasurer, Ronald Coleman.

Elected to the area executive board were Charles Trickey, Tecumseh Township, Arthur Rudell, Clinton Township, Gus Tiede, Ridgeway Township, Mills Swick, Macon Township, Mrs. Raymond Platt, Franklin Township, and Mrs. Robert Murray, Raisin Township.

An Area Republican Headquarters is being readied for public use, location to be announced at a later date.

Mr. Hadden spoke enthusiastically to the group of the recent primary election and the success of Republican candidate for Congress Marvin Esch. He asked for the continued support of Governor Romney and all successful nominees of the Party.

Mrs. Yale Kerby requested that all GOP Girls attend the August 26-27 State Convention. The girls, who appear at all Party functions dressed in perky blue shifts and sailor hats, are Margaret Barrett, Debbie Blanchard, Pam Eggleston, Cynthia Feight, Betty Leighton, Kathy Merx, Marilyn Morden, Dulce Robinson, Jan Snyder and Kristen Vollmar.

RUSSELL PAUL McKENZIE RECEIVES GOOD CONDUCT CERTIFICATE FROM W. L. WILSON, C.O.

Sallade Speaks

George Sallade, Democratic candidate for State Senate, 18th State Senatorial District, made the following remarks at a meeting in home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hebert, 513 Union St.

"Once the center of a principally agricultural county, Tecumseh is now the center of a rapidly expanding industrial and urban area. After having visited with countless numbers of citizens from Lenawee County during the sidewalk sales on Friday in Tecumseh, I am firmly convinced that the problems of this area are the same problems faced by urbanizing and industrialized areas throughout Michigan.

"The people of this section of the State are concerned with needed improvements in education, fiscal reform and conservation.

"Of particular interest is the problem of water pollution and future conservation of the city's water supply not only for industrial growth but for recreation and sportsmen's uses.

"The State must pursue a much more vigorous role in the area of water pollution and the legislature should review carefully the powers of the Water Resources Commission, looking toward more effective controls in preservation of Michigan's scenic lakes and waterways.

"Rivers like the River Raisin deserve constant attention so that their natural beauty and natural uses are not excluded or destroyed by other forces."

VFW Gives $15 Present to Explorer

The Hall-Slater Post of the VFW has voted to give $15 to help defray expenses of Danny Roichaver of the Explorer Post 87 to the University of Illinois as a Lenawee County delegate to the Explorer coavention.

The Post and Auxiliary picnic will be held from noon to 4:30 p.m. Sept. 11 at Britton Park. The picnic is for all members and their families.

The Aug. 24 meeting has been canceled and the post meeting will be resumed at 8 p.m. Sept. 14.

St. Dominic's Has Greeted New Pastor

CLINTON — Liturgical installation services were held Sunday for the Rev. Fr. Joseph B. Noelke following the morning mass in St. Dominic's Catholic Church in Clinton and at St. Andrew's Church in Saline.

The Rev. Fr. Burkholder, pastor of St. Hugh's Church, Southgate, officiated.

Father Noelke assumed the duties of pastor in the two parishes last week when the former pastor, the Rev. Edward Kalinowski, left to become pastor of St. Raphael's Catholic Church in Garden City.

Father Noelke, 50, was raised in Detroit where he attended Sacred Heart Seminary. He attended St. Mary's Seminary in Cincinnati, Ohio, and was ordained in 1947.

He has served in four Detroit area churches, St. Elizabeth's, St. Christopher's, St. Martin's and for the last five years was assistant pastor and teacher in Sacred Heart Church in Roseville, a parish of 16,000 persons.

Liturgical music was a major field of study while he was in college and Father Noelke says, "I play the Hammond organ now for my own amazement."

He is a boating enthusiast and, until he can find a housekeeper for the rectory, he is becoming better acquainted with the culinary arts.

Father Noelke suggested that his background of Irish and German descent might be of interest as he expects many of his parishioners will be of similar descent. He has a brother in Grosse Pointe Woods and a sister in Grosse Pointe Farms.

Father Noelke said he is especially interested in working with youth and is looking forward to becoming acquainted with the community.

POUNDS CONCENTRATE TO FEED PER DAY

% Milk Fat	Daily Milk Production, Lbs.
	20	40	60	80
3.5	4	15	25	39
4.0	5	16	27	42
4.5	6	18	29	45
5.0	7	19	32	**

IF FORAGE IS IN SHORT SUPPLY the table at left shows how much concentrate to feed dairy cows to maintain maximum production. If a cow milks 40 pounds of milk testing 3.5% fat, for instance, she should receive 15 pounds of concentrate with low-quality hay, pasture or limited amounts of high-quality silage. Rates are based upon 12% digestible protein in the concentrate ration if mature pasture or poor hay is fed and 14% DP if some corn silage is fed.

HORIZONTAL OR TRENCH SILO spoilage losses decrease as depth increases. Missouri studies indicate that a silo with an average dept of 8 feet and 6 inches of top spoilage will have 16.3% spoilage, while at 12 feet spoilage averages 12.2%. Depths greater than 12 feet calls for the trench type and a tractor-mounted unloader. Such unloaders are economical when more than 500 tons of silage are stored.

LATE SUMMER FORAGE SEEDINGS may be done now and you will avoid the competition of a nurse crop next spring. It's important to have adequate moisture for rapid seedling growth, along with lime and fertility. To make the most of moisture use a drill with press wheels to firm the soil. If you broadcast, roll after seeding. Or you can use one of the seeders available that seed and roll in one operation.

COMPACT TRACTORS, 7 to 12 horsepower, are now marketed by most farm tractor manufacturers. Costing around $700 to $900 without attachments, these tractors can be a low cost way to do many chores in a livestock operation. Often they can replace a larger, more costly tractor.

The assemblage awarded commendations to Mrs. Ned Baldwin and Mrs. Raymond Platt for establishing Republican Women's Clubs throughout the county and to the Lenawee GOP Girls and Mrs. Yale Kerby, their organizer, for outstanding service.

In official commitments delegates condemned as unworthy the Communist Party, ADA and John Birch Society and urged equal opportunity for all citizens and maximum support of the Republican Party in the Nov. 8 election.

About 3,500 party members from all sections of the state are expected to attend the Republican State Convention in Detroit Saturday, Aug. 27. U. S. Senator Robert P. Griffin will deliver the keynote address.

Sarah Goes from Taylor To Turkey

By DENICE ANDERSON

Sarah Wright has landed.

The young teacher left Wednesday by plane for Izmir, Turkey, where she will instruct the children of American servicemen, in cooperation with the Department of Defense, Air Force division.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wright, 810 Outer Dr. A graduate of Tecumseh high school, she received her higher education at Colorado Women's College and Siena Heights College where she majored in English.

SARAH WRIGHT

Sarah will spend the year overseas.

The government is providing her with transportation to and from Izmir and her salary will be comparable to that of a teacher in the U.S.

After her teaching assignment, she will tour the continent next summer.

Izmir, a port on the Aegean Sea, is one of the oldest cities in the world, now containing approximately 300,000 people. It will be a slight change from Taylor Township where Sarah taught second grade.

The school employs 25 teachers to instruct 600 children.

This summer was spent tutoring three Buenos Aires children so they could start school in the fall in Detroit.

Sarah had the opportunity to choose between Spain and Turkey. She chose Turkey because it is relatively unknown. She preferred this rather than a much publicized country. Turkey is also the scene of many historical incidents.

A LONG WAIT — Kathy Laslo, 12, earned an English racer in the Tecumseh Herald Earn-a-Bike subscription drive. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Laslo, 607 Russell Rd. Kathy was one of the first winners in the drive but she went on vacation before her bike came so she had to wait two weeks before she received it.

Wheat Growers Are Expecting Added Income

The additional increase in the 1967 wheat allotment recently announced by Secretary of Agriculture, Orville L. Freeman, should result in increased income for Michigan wheat growers, according to Frank J. Light, chairman of the Michigan Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation State Committee.

The latest increase amounting to 15% added to the increase announced on May 5 gives each wheat grower a total allotment increase of about 30% over his 1966 allotment.

Light said that the allotment increase offers farmers the opportunity to plant more land to wheat where wheat production is profitable while maintaining their eligibility for program benefits.

Wheat prices, even with the larger acreage, are expected to be well above support levels next year because of strong commercial demand at home, continued export expansion and large food assistance requirements.

About 2,500 new classrooms are needed annually to handle Michigan's school enrollment growth.

BRITTON BRIEFS

Mrs. Emma Rhora of Tecumseh is visiting her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rhora and daughter, for a week.

Bruce Gillespie, Bill Prochaska, Doug Fairbanks and Ray Vershum returned home Wednesday after a week's camping trip to Muskegon, Manistee, Ludington and Higgins Lake.

Gordon Fairbanks, two-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Fairbanks, has returned home from University Medical Center, Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Curtis Banks entered Bixby Hospital Sunday for observation and tests.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Reitz and family spent last week vacationing at Rice Lake, Bewdley, Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Frayer and daughter, Cheryl, of Palmer Hwy., have returned home from a two-week vacation camping in Michigan's Upper Peninsula.

Scouts Rough It on Camping Trip

BRITTON — Thirty-six Scouts and seven chaperons, including Scoutmaster Bob Auten, enjoyed a nine-day camping trip to northern Michigan and Canada traveling in a school bus and one pickup truck. Each boy was allowed one duffle bag, one fishing rod and a tackle box.

The Scouts camped at Tahquamenon Falls State Park after crossing the Straits of Mackinac. Their trip included a stop at Indian River to see the Crucifix and Sault Ste. Marie, where they visited the Soo Locks.

The campers learned the need for simplicity. Complete cooking equipment consisted of one grill, four frying pans, three pails, one kettle and one garbage can. The accumulation of meals would have been enough for over 1,000 people.

The Scouts didn't have time to attend church so they conducted their own services.

They continued on their way into Canada. Because of a change in the train time-table and a late train, the boys gained one extra fishing day.

By taking turns using five motor boats, each Scout got in two full days of fishing about 100 yards from campsite by rapids and a waterfall.

Ricky Furgason caught the biggest fish to win the fishing contest and Sam Bates came in second. Clarence Schroeder accidentally caught a large Northern while trolling at 30 mph.

The Scouts hiked eight miles to see bears that never showed up and they also weathered a bad rain and thunder storm.

Nights were spent listening to the guide tell stories about fishing, hunting and the bears. The campfire was closed with a court of honor and all boys that had earned advancement were awarded badges.

On the trip home, the group spent the night in an area the Department of Land and Forest permitted us to use.

The evening was spent looking for souvenirs. They also saw a movie.

Back in Michigan, the Scouts visited Kincheloe Air Force Base which was one of the trip's highlights.

It exposed them to military life and how a base is operated. They spent the night at the base and enjoyed Air Force meals.

The campers stopped at a drive-in and shocked customers when they left with 84 hamburgers and 42 malts. Folks welcomed them back in Britton late Sunday.

There will be many stories told for a long time about the trip that will never be forgotten.

They were chaperoned by Raymond Auten, Terry Auten, Clarence Schroeder, Neal Judkins, John Check, Marvin Rayburn and Scoutmaster Bob Auten.

Rosalee Fairbanks and Kenneth Peters Wed

BRITTON — St. Elizabeth Church in Tecumseh was the scene of the Saturday afternoon wedding of Rosalee Fairbanks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fairbanks of Britton, and Kenneth C. Peters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Peters of Tecumseh.

The vows of the double ring ceremony were exchanged at 1 p.m., with the Rev. Father Thomas Collins officiating.

The bride wore a floor-length A-line gown of white brocaded satin and carried a bouquet of white roses. Her attendant, Kathy Ann Peters, sister of the groom, wore a blue-green satin gown with brocaded top. She carried a bouquet of royal blue cornflowers.

David Hunt of Onsted was the best man. The ushers were Chris Peters, brother of the groom, and Ronald Hunt.

A reception was held at the St. Elizabeth auditorium following the ceremony. The bride's table was centered with a tiered cake decorated in pink and white and flanked by pink tapers. Pink satin streamers fell from each corner of the linen-covered table.

Mrs. Harold Prielipp of Riga, Mrs. Robert Beach of Adrian, Mrs. Duaine Hunt of Onsted and Mrs. Robert Wallace of Britton assisted in the serving.

Yvonne Fairbanks, sister of the bride, attended the guest book. Assisting with the gifts were the bride's twin sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Napier of Toledo.

Because of the illness of the bride's mother, Mrs. Vere Hart of Toledo, sister of the bride, represented her in the receiving line.

Mr. Peters is a 1966 graduate of Tecumseh High School and is employed at the Kroger Store in Tecumseh. After a short wedding trip, the couple will reside at the Lee Villa Trailer Court, Tecumseh.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Peters entertained with a rehearsal dinner at their home Friday evening.

Bonnie Dixon, Verl Sanch Exchange Vows

BRITTON — In an impressive candlelight ceremony Saturday evening at 7:30 p.m., in the Adrian College Chapel, Bonnie Dixon became the bride of Verl Sanch Jr.

Dr. John Dawson, president of Adrian College, performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Colie Dixon of Jonesville. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Verl Sanch Sr., of Britton.

Mrs. Merl Sanch of Ida, sister-in-law of the groom, was the soloist. She sang "Whither Thou Goest" to begin the ceremonies and "Wedding Prayer" as the couple knelt at the altar. Dr. Robert Roubos was the organist.

The altar was decorated with arrangements of gladiolus and white mums and was flanked by candelabra of ivy and stephanotis.

The bride was lovely as she approached the altar on the arm of her father. She chose a princess gown of organza with an empire bodice, scalloped neckline and long sleeves ending in points over the wrists.

An overlay of peau de'ange lace accented the bodice and front skirt. Her detachable chapel train fell from a bow at the back. She wore a full length Spanish imported lace mantilla.

Her jewelry was a pearl pendant, a gift from the groom. Her bridal bouquet was of cascading white roses with red carnations and ivy.

The maid of honor was Kaye Hayner of Hanover. Bridesmaids were Nancy White of Bay City, a cousin of the bride, Carol Bly of West Unity, Ohio, and Mrs. Mervin Davis of Flint. They were all dressed in white organza empire gowns with embroidered satin flowers on the bodice, sleeves and skirt.

Each carried a cascading arrangement of a red goblet with lighted candles, red carnations, white glamelias and ivy. Their headpieces were of red nylon net with a short veil of red illusion.

The little flower girl, Dawn Sanch, niece of the groom, wore a floorlength dress of white organza and carried a basket of red carnations. Roger White of Sanford, a cousin of the bride, was the ring bearer.

William Nolan from Grosse Pointe Shores was the best man. Other attendants were David Westcott of Birmingham, Philip Benedict of Bowling Green and Allen Ross of Britton. Seating the guests were Merl Sanch and Melvin Sanch, brothers of the groom, and David and Richard Dixon, brothers of the bride.

A reception for 150 guests was held at Ritchie Hall on the Adrian College campus. The bride's table was centered with an arrangement of red goblets with lighted candles, flanked by red and pink roses. The guest tables were centered with red roses in crystal goblets.

The bride is a graduate of Hanover-Horton High School and attended Jackson Junior College one year. The groom is a graduate of Britton-Macon High School and is now a junior at Adrian College. He is a member of Alpha Beta Epsilon Business Fraternity.

After a short wedding trip to northern Michigan, the couple will be at their home at Lee Villa Mobile Court, Route 3, Adrian.

The rehearsal dinner was given Friday evening at the Country House restaurant on M-52 by Mr. and Mrs. Verl Sanch Sr.

The congregation is reminded that on the following Sunday, Sept. 4, services will return to the regular time with morning worship service at 10:30 and Sunday School at 11:45 a.m.

Board of Education Makes Decision on Standard Oil

BRITTON — Four members were in attendance when the Board of Education met last Thursday evening. Three members are on vacation.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Survey Is Necessary

Which do we use, paper sacks or metal cans for refuse collection?

This question poses a problem for city officials who have tinkered with the thought of sacks and compulsory trash and garbage pickup for the entire city.

The sacks are now being used on an experimental basis, and some residents have been given survey questionnaires to complete and return to the city. Some of the surveys have been returned, some have not.

Unless the residents cooperate with the city by returning the questionnaires, it will be difficult — practically impossible — for officials to determine whether the sacks or cans are preferred.

There undoubtedly are flaws in using sacks. The same can be said about cans.

The questionnaire affords an opportunity for residents to express themselves and indicate their choice — perhaps not just for themselves, but for the entire community.

We believe city officials will review carefully the questionnaires returned to them, and then decide whether Tecumseh makes a change or keep the present refuse collection system.

Senator Bursley's LANSING REPORT

TAX REFORM — meaning changes in many of our state taxes, will almost certainly be seriously considered by the 1967 Legislature

Let's review a few basic considerations.

The Legislature cannot effect fiscal reform by voting "yes" or "no" on just one bill. About 20 statutes must be modified. Present laws on property taxes, the business activities tax, the franchise tax and the sales and use taxes must each be amended separately.

Some may be repealed in their entirety. Some new measures such as a state income tax would also be acted upon individually.

But don't forget that there is a close interrelationship between these various taxes. Changing one can affect another. Eliminating one inequitable situation could create a new area of injustice.

When we are dealing with tax laws we are affecting the life savings and current earnings of our fellow citiens. The utmost care must be exerted to ensure that a truly fair result is obtained.

When a "fiscal reform package" is proposed action on all the bills must be achieved or chaos will result. Imagine repealing a major tax and making no provision to replace it with other sources of revenue. Or conversely imagine adding on an income tax and then making no provision for reductions or limitations on existent taxes.

LET'S LOOK at the monies currently produced by some of Michigan's major taxes.

In the year ending June 30 the 4% sales tax brought in $590 million — an increase of $53 million over the previous year. The sales tax provides more than half the general fund revenue. The closely related 4% use tax brought in another $68 million.

Motor fuel taxes, 6c per gallon on gasoline, produced $190 million for the highway fund.

The business activities tax produced $119 million for the general fund; the 7c cigarette tax $68 million; the intangibles tax $44 million; utility company taxes $31 million and inheritance taxes $23 million.

Although the fiscal year just ended saw record tax collections for Michigan with almost every tax breaking its previous high there is a warning signal to heed. The slowdown in auto sales is now beginning to show up in a sharply reduced rate of increase for our revenues. Estimates for the coming year will be strongly affected by the public's acceptance of the 1967 auto models.

FROM TIME TO TIME we read articles which compare the amount of dollars per capita taken for state and local taxes in the fifty states. Such figures do not constitute a valid comparison because per capita income varies so from state to state.

The proper comparison is to ascertain the percentage of people's income taken for local and state taxes. On this basis we find Michigan in 1965 took on the average $106.72 out of each $1,000 of personal income and ranked right in the middle of our fifty states in 24th place.

In other words, 23 other states took a larger bite of its citizens personal income than did Michigan. These figures would seem to refute the claim that Michigan is a high tax state.

WHAT KIND of taxes do other states have? My most recent information would indicate the following:

Forty-nine states have a cigarsales tax ranging up to 5% in Pennsylvania. Another 12 states have county or city sales taxes in addition.

Forty-nine states have a sigarette tax — the only exception is North Carolina, home of the tobacco industry. New Jersey, Texas and Washington charge 11c per pack. Massachusetts, New York, Vermont and Wisconsin charge 10c. Only 14 states have a lower cigarette tax than Michigan.

All states have a gasoline tax. Only five states charge less than Michigan's 6c per gallon. Half the states have a 7c tax.

Thirty-five states have individual income taxes. 38 have corporation income taxes and 30 have incorporated withholding features. Indiana and Tennessee are flat rate, all the others graduated. Alaska adds 16% of the federal tax as its state tax. New York is scaled from 2-10% and California from 1-7%.

KELLY FERO, ON DRUMS, IS FORMER TECUMSEH RESIDENT MAKING GOOD IN ARGENTINA.

Kelly Fero Drums His Way To Fame

(Editor's note — The Bernard Feros, former residents of Tecumseh, are living in Cordoba, Argentina, South America. The Herald recently ran a series of articles on Mike Fero, who is in the Peace Corps.)

By EVELYN FERO

CORDOBA, Argentine — Kelly thought you might be interested in his latest activity — as drummer in the musical group known as the SCHIBBINZ. They play for school assemblies and intercultural programs at IICANA (North American-Argentina Cultural Exchange Association) which is very active here in Cordoba.

They have also played for Folklore Festivals in nearby small towns representing, the U. S.

The picture was taken a few weeks ago when they appeared on a TV program called Super Domingo (Domingo is Sunday) on Canal (channel) 10. Recently they appeared on Canal 12 — and are scheduled for more — and possibly to go to Buenos Aires to make recordings.

The boys are (from left):

Greg Johns, 17, base guitar — North American. His father works for IKA.

Carlos Giraudo, 15, rhythm guitar — Argentine, father with IKA also. He is nicknamed "Pallo" (pale) for obvious reasons — he is an albino. He is a musical genius; plays every instrument, sings and directs a young people's choir called Los Pequenos Cantores Cordobeses (The Little Cordoba Singers), which has just returned from a tour of the U. S. and is now making recordings periodically in B. A.

Mike McNertney, 16 (right), lead guitar — North American, father is director of U. S. Information Service (U.S.I.S.) here. Mike has lived in many countries including India and Venezuela.

Kelly Fero, 14½, in the background with the drums, a full set.

We have received, now, all The Heralds through July 14, including Mike's story. We thank you for printing it and the photos. The latest on Mike is that he has been transferred to Fortaleza, the capital of the state of Ceara, Brazil, and he is now Coordinator of the Ceara Peace Corps Education Project.

He lives in a little house 300 yards from the ocean. He is required to do a lot of traveling with this job — being required to visit the various P. C. posts in the state and also to meet with Brazilian authorities for the villages, towns and for the state — a sort of liaison person between Peace Corps and the Brazilian Boards of Education and Health.

Barney is fine, as usual; looking forward to a five-day holiday, starting tomorrow, so he can spend his time on the golf course. The weather is beginning to look like spring — we hope our coldest weather is over.

I am enjoying my duties as Treasurer and Executive Secretary (high-sounding, isn't it?) of the Association of Bi-National Schools in South America It's really fun to correspond with schools all over S. A., where English and Spanish (or Portuguese in Brazil) curricula are taught. So interesting to know of their programs and activities — recently heard from a directress in Santiago, Chile, that she has added Russian to the foreign languages taught in the college-prep course.

Saludos a todos.

Through My Window

COWBIRD TROUBLE

Overall length, eight inches. Male: head, coffee brown, slightly iridescent in sunshine; body, wings and tail black. Female: a nondescript light brown or tan faintly striped with darker brown. Bill shorter than head. Wings pointed, tail shorter than wings and slightly rounded.

Briefly speaking this is the general description of cowbirds as found in most bird books. Nothing too much wrong; in fact, as far as appearances go the male is rather attractive. They are even beneficial in that their diet consists of bugs or insects.

This, however, is about as far as I can go in saying good things about cowbirds. They have one behavior trait that is terrible, horrible, despicable — unforgivable.

They refuse to accept the responsibilities of parenthood. And not only do they refuse to "tie themselves down with a family," but they impose the task of raising baby cowbirds upon other birds.

Cardinals, wrens, sparrows and warblers are among the victims. A female cowbird will sneak around until she finds a nest and then, when the owner is away, the intruder slips in, lays her eggs and galavants away.

Not another thought is given to family raising.

The truly deplorable thing is that the cowbird baby usually lives at the expense of the rightful nestling. The host bird's eggs are often punctured by the quicker-hatching cowbird or, if by chance they do hatch out, the nestling dies from neglect.

This year we have heard about more cowbird trouble than ever before.

The first case occurred on the Onsted School playground, the baseball diamond to be exact. The second grade pupils found a horned lark's nest — so did a cowbird.

In an unusual set of circumstances and because Mrs. Hunt's Special Education class worked hard at providing the food, both the young cowbird and the larks survived. Usually there is not such a happy ending.

Next we received a call from Macon. In the dense shrubbery next to the porch, Agatha had a chipping sparrow build a nest. One day, to her utter dismay, she noticed a white egg with brown markings crowded in with the much smaller bluish green chippie's eggs.

The ending to this story was not happy.

In both instances the question was, "What should be done with cowbird eggs?" I am afraid that I belong to the school which advocates removal. If it can be done without disturbing the nest and the rightful eggs, I am more and more coming to believe that the cowbirds' "contribution" should be carefully taken out.

The last cowbird story presented a ridiculous situation. At least the way it was described to us, the picture was laughable.

Bill called early one evening to ask what was happening. For two days a tiny wren had been hopping around their back yard closely followed by a begging youngster who was very much bigger.

Obviously a cowbird had invaded a wren's nest.

How silly it must have looked to see such a little bird working so hard to feed a youngster many times its own size. Think, though, of the baby wrens who did not make it.

So it is that this summer has been one of much cowbird trouble.

Long and Short

By TOM RIORDAN

After watching two quarters of the Detroit Lions - Dallas Cowboys tilt Saturday night, I am prepared to give my judgment on the ills besetting Coach Harry Gilmer's club.

All the pseudo experts have been struggling for weeks to analyze the pitiful Detroit offense.

Being the modest type, I will refrain from saying I caught up with the whole miserable problem in a few moments.

When Milt Plum starts to run a play, he makes one awesome mistake — the long, long count.

There he stands behind the center, going "Hut, hut, hut, hut, hut, hut —" almost endlessly.

Now, even a casual pro football viewer realizes that a long count is necessary for a check-off (when a quarterback discovers the defense is set up for the play called in the huddle and he signals with numbers another one from the line of scrimmage.)

However, Milt can't be checking off every time.

What is happening on those lengthy waits, from the time the team lines up and the ball is finally snapped, is that the offensive linemen loose their concentration and become lethargic on their initial blocking charge.

There it is, Harry. Get that ball in play on "Hut one" or "Hut two" and you're back in business.

LIKE MOST men, I'm an avid fan of pro football.

My first close brush with the game came in the late 1950's when I served as a photographer with the Lions.

My duties took me onto the gridiron at Briggs Stadium each Sunday that Detroit played a home contest.

Those were the days of Bo McMillan as coach and his struggle to push the club towards championship peaks.

Buddie Parker and Bobby Layne were yet to arrive.

Lion quarterbacking was being done by Fred Enke and Clyde LaForce. Remember them?

Bo used to alternate them in a desperate attempt to get his offense rolling — sound familiar?

One day Enke was on the field running the club and LaForce was warming up on the sidelines, taking T-formation snaps from a spare center.

At the opponent's 15, Enke grasped for the pass from center and fumbled, the Lions losing the ball. Precisely at the same moment, LaForce dropped a practice pass on the sideline.

There was a moment of silence, long enough for a leather-lunged fan in the bleachers to yell.

"OK, Bo, send in LaForce. He's ready."

ONCE AT a game between the Bears and Lions, I was squatting by the sideline with my camera, between the two benches. George Wilson had just

For Sale—One Square Foot of Athletic Field

Harvey Frankhouse, the paint store man, had an idea.

As a result, the quest to gather $4,000 and pay off the new football lights is zipping along.

The Jaycees, who are pushing the light project, heard Harvey's idea and decided to try it.

Mr. Frankhouse, one of the owners of The Decorating Center, suggested "Certificates of Proprietorship" for donors who'll help clean up the Jaycees' obligations.

For each $1 given, the donor will get "full and proprietory rights to that square foot of said Athletic Field described as Lot No. ——."

For a $10 consideration, the giver's name will be inscribed on a special sign the Jaycees plan.

Since Mr. Frankhouse had come up with the program, he was the first person solicited by the promoters.

THE ENTIRE certificate states:

"Know all men by these presents that —— in consideration of his generosity in assisting the Tecumseh Jaycees to install a night lighting system at the Athletic Field, is hereby given full and proprietory rights to that square foot of said Athletic Field described as Lot ——, with rights in perpetuity, to himself, heirs, successors or assigns to consider himself the proprietor and sponsor of such lot, in keeping with the spirit of this program.

"And with the assurance that if said proprietor above named, his heirs, successors, administrators or assigns, shall ever be guilty of any felony over which the Tecumseh School System has jurisdiction, that said lot above designated shall be deemed a sanctuary and no process will issue, nor arrest be made, while said proprietor occupies said lot.

"In witness whereof the President of the Tecumseh Jaycees has hereunto set his hand and the Seal of the Jaycees on this —— day of August, 1966."

IDEA MAN AND NO. 1 DONOR — When the Jaycees said they needed $4,000 to complete their portion of financing football lights, Harvey Frankhouse (foreground) proposed an idea, which was quickly accepted. Then he found himself being asked to kick it off with a cash contribution. That allowed Tom Morgan and Dike Helms to present their first Certificate of Proprietorship in this unique setting—entwined in cross arms on the new poles, to which mercury lights will soon be affixed.

Motorcyclist Breaks Leg As Bike Collides with Car

Two persons suffered injuries in seven accidents investigated by the Tecumseh police here the past week.

Timothy L. Rogers, 17, of 301 Maple St., sustained a broken leg Friday after his motorcycle collided with a car driven by Dennis H. Farley, 28, Manistee, at the intersection of Occidental and Russell Rds.

Arlis Spivey, a passenger with James H. Palmer, 24, of 1102 Shady Lane, suffered minor injuries Monday when their car was struck broadside by Cortland K. Larned, 42, of 412 Seminole Dr.

Larned was cited for failure to yield the right of way.

A resume of the other five accidents is:

Aug. 26 — Herman H. Minor, 77, Manchester, was cited for failure to yield the right of way after running into Leonard L. Brooks, 34, of 511 E. Logan St., at the intersection of S. Evans St. and Pottawatamie.

Aug. 27 — Mary Lou Garcia, 31, Milan and a male companion were turned over to the Britton police on a charge of malicious destruction of property. Their car ran off Comfort Rd., down an embkbankment and was on its side when Tecumseh police were asked to investigate after a call from Purkey Garage.

Aug. 28 — Oakley Craft, 26, Manchester, was cited for failure to stop within an assured clear distance after ramming the rear of a car driven by Marjorie J. Chase, 25, of 205 N. Ottawa St. The mishap occured at W. Chicago Blvd. and Union St.

Aug. 29 — Allen C. French, Onsted, reported his car damaged while parked next to the Quick Lunch. Other driver is unknown.

Dry Tank Ends Chase with Police

Harvey Lee Rogers, 18, Eaton Rapids, discovered about 1 a.m., last Thursday that a souped-up, four-on-the-floor model can give law enforcement cars a real chase — but not without gas.

This Thursday morning, Rogers faces reckless driving charges in Circuit Court at Adrian.

The escapade started here last Thursday when Tecumseh Policeman Michael Norton stopped Rogers and his two passengers near Tecumseh Equipment Co.

Norton was checking Rogers' defaced driver's license, when the Eaton Rapids youth took off at a high rate of speed. State police joined in the chase, clocking the youth at over 110 mph.

For Rogers, everything was going well until he neared the village of Springville, where his car conked out — no gas.

Monday before Justice Oliver, he first plead guilty to reckless driving charges and was fined $100 and costs plus 30 days in the county jail.

When he got smart with the justice, another 15 days in jail was added. At this point, Rogers changed his plea to not guilty and demanded a lawyer.

He was released Tuesday on $125 bond, but ordered to appear in court Thursday.

Gets Bronze Star

Tecumseh GI Cited for Heroism

A Tecumseh GI has been awarded a Bronze Star medal for heroism in Vietnam action.

Being given the decoration was Sgt. John T. Browne, son of Mrs. Dean Delker, 332 N. Union St.

Attending the ceremony when the medal was presented to the sergeant at Ft. Belvoir, Va., on Aug. 24 was his brother, Phillip.

A citation outlined the action which beset Sgt. Browne's Co. B of the 7th Cavalry two days last November.

In a battalion airmobile assault, Sgt. Browne's outfit was lead company and almost immediately after leaving the landing zone it ran into intense small arms and automatic weapons fire.

Pinned down, the platoon to which the Tecumseh GI was attached started an attack and was cut off from its company.

"Sgt. Browne was wounded in the neck, but he aided his platoon in the establishment of a defensive perimeter, by directing artillery fire until he could be relieved," the citation read.

"Despite the wound that prevented him from moving his head, Sgt. Browne aided in defending this position by acting as a spotter and pinpointing enemy snipers for the riflemen around him.

"He advised the squad leader who had the radio on the adjustment of fire around the perimeter throughout the next 24 hours," the army reported.

With six years of army duty, Sgt. Browne has two more years left on his current hitch.

He has recovered from the wound, which was caused by a bullet entering his neck and coming out in the back of his neck, a scant fraction of an inch from his spinal cord.

Policemen OK Union

By JUDY FIELDER

Tecumseh policemen have joined the union.

In a 10-2 vote Friday, members sanctioned the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees Union, AFL-CIO as its exclusive bargaining agent.

The reason for unionizing, according to Sgt. Eugene Skinner, is the trouble the patrolmen have had getting raises from the city.

Cal Zorn, city manager, questioned the move, "I think our police department has been treated more than fairly in wages and fringe benefits."

"I don't know what they want. There have been no requests that have not been met," he added.

Patrolmen's wages increased 12% in 1965, 11.6% in 1966, retirement benefits increased 66% this year. Both vacation and sick leave policies are better.

"The big request at budget time was an additional man," said Mr. Zorn. "This man has been hired, bringing police force to the chief, nine policemen, two dispatchers and a meter maid."

According to Mr. Zorn:

► Cadets receive from $5,000 to $5,460 per year in three steps over a two-year period. There currently are three men in this category.

► Patrolmen (four) earn from $5,720 to $6,500 in four steps over two years.

► Sergeants (two) receive up to $6,854 annually.

► Dispatchers receive a 24% increase this year.

"We are paying higher wages than cities in our area of Michigan with population up to 10,000 and salaries equal to cities up to 50,000," said Mr. Zorn.

Tecumseh Chief of Police Murell Clark, who is not a member of the union, had no comment on the action.

7 Matters Approved by Board

A long — nearly six hours — School Board session Monday night and Tuesday morning saw officials approve several issues and discuss many educational problems.

Receiving board approval were:

► Elimination of physical examinations for teachers and substituting annual X-rays. Dr. Harold Ocamb was asked to revise the medical forms.

► Ratification of a master contract with the Tecumseh Education Association.

► Employment of an additional librarian for the Junior High and elementary grades.

► Employment of one art teacher for grades four, five and six.

► Purchase of two metal lathes at a cost of $12,000 for the Junior High school.

► Agreed to match funds up to $1,500 with the FFA for a greenhouse.

► Elimination of the band fee of $5 per family.

Vote on School Merger

Registered voters in the Tecumseh, Britton and Clinton area will go to the polls Sept. 27 to vote in the Lenawee County K-12 reorganization election.

Anyone, property owner or not, who has voted in an election in the last two years, or has registered, is eligible to vote.

Up until two years ago only property owners could vote in school elections. The change came when the state legislature opened the polls to all voters.

The K-12 reorganization plan proposes the merger of 12 county school districts into four.

All of Tecumseh, Clinton and Britton-Macon area school districts would be merged into the Northeast School District, with a single administrative head handling business at one office.

According to Milton Porter, county superintendent, each present school district would retain a local administrator to supervise curriculum and classroom procedure.

Voters in Hudson, Addison, Cement City and Onsted districts are asked to merge into Northwestern District, while Morenci, Sand Creek, Madison and Blissfield would go into a Southern District.

Annexation of the Underwood and Maloney districts to Adrian will not be voted on because they have already merged.

The proposal will not be settled on a county-wide basis. Each of the mergers will be decided separately, by a majority vote within the merger district.

Boysville Hits Capacity with 180 Students

Earl Ruttofsky, 317 N. Pearl St., made note of Negro comedian Dick Gregory comment to a group of youths in Detroit the other day, "It's America, not your family that's broken down. It's that white broad in the Atlantic with a torch in her hand that's broken down."

For drinkers of instant coffee, take a tip from Gerald Hendricks, 602 Orchard Lane. Always start with fresh water, bring to boil and pour over powder. Never re-boil water.

If you're going to do any improvements around the house, get a building permit advises Carson House, 708 Outer Dr., especially if there are curious eyes in the area.

When Mike Hite had a problem with his outboard motor on vacation, he went to a marina. Couldn't be fixed. Off to a gas station where mechanic (?) promptly snapped off part. Back to marina, where Mike asked if he could rent the bench and some tools, then went to work and made repairs, save a final adjustment. Marina owner did this. When Mike asked how much, the guy casually replied, "Five bucks."

A few months back, the city hung a horsecollar on Ed DeLisle for parking "junkers" around his service station at N. Evans St. and Herrick Park Dr. "How about some fair play?" Ed asked Monday and then suggested a pictorial report on new island in Brown St. Uncut weeds have grown to gigantic proportions and Ed nearly dissappeared among them when he went to take a close-up look.

The "big" golf tournament at Tecumseh Country Club comes Sunday and Monday with 18 holes each day. For the first time in about 15-year history Hi-Lo action, Paul Clauda will not be playing.

4-H showman, Barbara Vincent showed Maxine Calhoun's Landrace gilt at the Michigan State Fair, Tuesday, and the gilt won a reserve champion cup. Harold Calhoun is saying he might have fared better if he'd had a cute blond showing his hogs! He did alright though — really brought home the bacon in prizes!

Charlie Butler, Tecumseh Rotary Safety program chairman, will be interested in knowing that future trucks and pick-ups might have automatic transmissions. Out in the western states, it is rumored that the government doesn't want people shifting for themselves.

Bill Whiting nearly had a heart attack Monday evening when he saw a big stack of aluminum siding on the lawn of his parents home. "Oh boy, what's dad got going now?" he lamented to his mother. She replied that the work wasn't theirs, "So, don't worry, Bill."

Tuesday morning another truckful had just been unloaded when Mrs. Whiting walked out of the house. The truck driver saw the quizzical look and asked, "You are getting aluminum siding for your house?"

"No," was the reply.

"But isn't this Wallace's at 104 E. Pottawatamie?"

"No, this is Wallace Whiting's at 104 W. Pottawatamie," she replied.

The aluminum siding was then moved to the home of Troy Wallace, 104 E. Pottawatamie, who is having it installed.

And Bill breathed a deep sigh of relief!

Brother Robert Hormann, CSC, has recently taken over his new duties as Director and Religious Superior at Boysville.

Brother Robert replaces Brother Philip Armstrong, who is going to Ghana, Africa.

"I'm very much impressed with the facilities," he said. "The operation has terrific potential."

Brother Robert, 32, a native of St. Cloud, Minn., took his undergraduate work in education and English at St. Edward University in Austin, Tex. and Marquette University in Milwaukee, Wis.

Graduate studies in counseling psychology were completed at DePaul and Loyola Universities in Chicago, Ill.

He taught a total of ten years at Sacred Heart Military Academy in Watertown, Wis., and Holy Cross High School in River Grove, Ill.

REGISTRATION and orientation at Boysville will take place Sept. 5 and 6. Class begins Sept. 7.

The brothers of the Holy Cross operate the school for the Archdiocese of Detroit, which owns it, and the Knights of Columbus of Michigan, which supports it, along with various private contributions.

The school capacity for 180 students is filled, half from Detroit, the rest from outlying areas.

The school was established for Catholic boys from homes with problems, not problem boys, with the belief that religion is an essential part in the education of a boy with troubles.

Only baptized Catholic boys are considered for entrance.

THE BOYS, grades eight through 12, live at the school from Sept. until June and receive one weekend per month vacation, plus the major holiday vacations.

Brother Robert, 17 brothers, one chaplain, three lay teachers and 21 dining and maintenance workers fill out the staff.

The school has grown from an original 15 students housed in four frame buildings in 1947, when the land was converted from the old Henry Ford farm and vocational school, to its present 12 buildings and 180 students.

Five brick structures, the most modern a dining hall built in 1961, are the newest additions to the campus, which boasts a recreation center, 12 - room school, chapel, gymnasium, swimming pond and 15 riding horses.

Plans for building in the near future include a recreational building, new brick dormitory to replace a wooden structure and a new administration building.

Chicago had the ball at midfield, fourth down and inches to of Lions.

go. John Lujack called a smash off-guard and the Bear fullback hurled himself into a stone wall

It was questionable if the ball had been moved an inch.

"'First down," yelled the referee.

The Detroit bench exploded.

"Make 'em measure it, make 'em measure it!" shouted Wilson.

Then there was a brief hush.

Halaas, standing 10 yards along the sideline from Wilson, turned to his former player and in a soft voice grinned, "Its OK, George, I got a good look. He made it."

McMILLIN loved to tell about his great Indiana team, which won the Big Ten title about 1956, propelling him to Coach of the Year laurels.

During one practice, just before a key game, he added a new play. The first time his Hoosiers tried it, the quarterback fell down in his spin.

Bo said, "Run it again."

This time the halfback fumbled.

Once more, another goof.

Bo called a huddle and stood in the middle.

"Listen you guys, you're going to learn this play if you have to run it until you turn black in the face."

No sooner had he uttered the words then he wished he'd bitten his tongue instead.

Standing at McMillin's elbow was his great fullback, George Telliferio.

After a moment, George grinned, "OK if I go take my shower now, coach?"

Teacher Whirls West, Then East

Mrs. Lillian Buttolph has put away her traveling shoes for this summer, after going from one side of the globe to the other.

She and Julia Freer spent more than two weeks in Hawaii and the outer islands in June, taking in all the sights, including Diamondhead, pineapple and sugar cane industries, lush beaches and mountain craters.

They returned home and within 10 days, Mrs. Buttolph and Mrs. Delta Croll of Britton started on a 22-day Free Press tour to Europe.

They traveled through eight countries, stopping in Brussels, Belgium; Luxembourg, Germany; Lucerne, Siwtzerland; Pilatus, Venice, Florence, Rome, the Italian and French Riviera, Paris and London.

Their home away from home was air-conditioned bus. One of the most exciting parts of the trip was going through the Alps. The vehicle was too large for the tunnel, so they had to take the bus through the Goddart Pass immediately after a blizzard.

A police escort was required to stop traffic so the bus could make the "bobbypin" turns.

They returned home Aug. 13, and Mrs. Buttolph spent the next two weeks attending a Workshop on International Understanding at Eastern Michigan University.

"Now I'm ready to go back to school," she said, "Although I am making reservations to go to California for Christmas."

Mrs. Buttoff has a fourth grade at Patterson School, this being her 40th year of teaching — 18 of them in the Tecumseh system.

Fake SOS Sends Man to Cooler

Raymond R. Stearles, 34, of 205 E. Cummins St., learned Sunday afternoon that a broadcast SOS for help had better be for real.

Using a walkie-talkie Saturday night, Stearles called for help, saying he had been kidnapped and shot. He talked to the police here for nearly two hours, claiming he was bleeding to death and did not know where he was since he had been kidnapped.

The first call for help went out about 9:30 and police, Civil Defense officials and others talked with Stearles until after 11.

Late Sunday afternoon, local police arrested him after a bit of sleuthing identified him as the caller.

Justice Ernie Oliver fined him $100 and costs plus 30 days in the county jail. Stearles is a parolee from the Milan Federal prison.

YAKIMA, Wash.

"How are things in Glocca Morra this fine day?" — Music from the play, "Finian's Rainbow", presented by the Yakima, Wash., little theatre group, sent our thoughts winging home to the Irish Hills.

Superb talent, amazing lighting perfect timing and realistic scenery all went into the production highlighted for us by a line from the senator who had been changed to a black man by the magic of the rainbow pot of gold.

Looking at his black hands, the previously - pompous white senator remarked, "I shore can see both sides of this picture now."

The nimble leprechaun brought thunderous applause from the packed house as he kissed the little deaf dancer, saying, "Fairyland was never like this."

The Tecumseh Players would do well to consider this delightful musical as one for their future presentation.

It was enthusiastically received by a capacity crowd in the former apple warehouse transformed to a playhouse by the group in Yakima Valley.

Wonderful climate, a ski lift ride to view Mt. Rainier, delicious food, a profusion of wild flowers, all with loved ones, made three fun-milled days in Yakima a time to hug in memory.

Now—Youths Become Men

By JIM LINCOLN

Tecumseh's 1966 football squad got to work in earnest here Monday when practice opened and the players put on their gear.

Approximately 60 candidates are working out for the varsity, although many of these will be shuttled to the Jayvee squad after school starts.

The Indians are further ahead at this stage than last year, Coach Tom Fagan will admit, but there's still gaps to be filled, particularly on the offensive unit.

Returnees from the '65 squad bound to start or see plenty of action are linesmen Henry Mensing, Lee Hannibal, Barry Williamson, Joe Vargo, Larry Dauber and Dean Hebb.

Newcomers scrapping for positions include Doug Schwartz, Mike Kossy, Doug Haines, Gregg Luce, Herb Bagby, Gary Raymond, Randy Robison, Jim Parros, Dick Sweet, Gus Bishop and John Boldon.

Roger Young is the lone back returning and is a cinch at one of the halfback positions. Scott Edwards and Jim Mobley, along with Mike Allen, are working out at quarterback, with Allen possibly moving up to an end post.

Top backfield candidates include John Anderson, Chuck Gillies, Jim Upell, Dave Kennel, Carlo Mobly and Buddy Work.

Fagan says some of the promising sophomores may be placed on the Jayvee squad and then moved up during the season. Several are being groomed for varsity competition, through some may not see much action this fall.

The Indians will be smaller than a year ago. The offensive line will average about 180 pounds and the backfield, 150.

Defensively, Tecumseh's line will top 185 pounds, linebackers about 170 and the backfield, 150.

Several scrimmages are planned but the dates are not set.

Johnson Runs Well for Arrows

Jim Johnson is back scampering for yardage with the Pontiac Arrows professional football team.

And there's still that dream—a chance to try-out for the Detroit Lions, the parent club.

A 1963 graduate of Tecumseh High School, Jim was a big gainer with the Arrows in 1965 and has taken up where he left off last fall.

In three pre-season victories, Jim reeled off some neat gains as Pontiac went unbeaten in non-league play.

Midwest loop action begins Saturday night in Pontiac with the Arrows meeting Ypsilanti at Wisner Stadium, kickoff at 7:30 p.m.

Pontiac began drills July 5 and stopped Flint, 19-6 in a practice tilt. Johnson picking up 50 yards in seven carries.

He ran for 92 in nine times as the Arrows took Dayton, Ohio, 20-6.

Last weekend, Pontiac clobbered Flint, 32-7, with Jim grabbing three passes good for 81 yards and then running for 30 more in six carries. He is employed at the Budd Co. plant in Clinton, commuting to Pontiac three times weekly, twice for practice and Saturdays for games.

Hits Dead Center While on the Fly

Dennis Brables, a Britton-Macon senior, recently scored a most unusual hole-in-one while playing at the Macon Golf Course.

Dennis, shooting on the 175-yard ninth hole with a seven iron, hit the hole dead center on the fly with the ball staying in the cup.

Witnesses to the event included "Deed" Eldredge of Tecumseh, who had instructed a class that morning at the Club, Ken Ivans and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Green.

An actual score of 37 was turned in by Dennis at the end of the game.

OBITUARIES

● ALBERT W. JAHN

Funeral services for Albert W. Jahn, 68, will be held Friday afternoon at the Brockman Funeral Home in Roseville.

Mr. Jahn died Tuesday at University Hospital in Ann Arbor where he had been a patient for two weeks.

A former Tecumseh resident, Mr. Jahn moved to Allen Lake on Killarney Rd., in the Irish Hills in 1965.

A native of Roseville, Mr. Jahn moved to the Tecumseh area about 25 years ago. He retired from the Bank of Lenawee County in 1964.

He is survived by his wife, Helen, a son Warren of Devils Lake, a daughter Mrs. Norman Cosner of Allen Park, two grandchildren, a brother in Kentucky and a sister in Dayton, O.

Mr. Jahn was a member of Tecumseh Presbyterian Church for the last 23 years.

A Masonic service will be held at the funeral home Thursday evening and burial will be in the Roseville Cemetery.

New Historical Maps Available

"Michigan's Historical Attractions," an attractive map and guide to many of the state's landmarks of the past, is now available from the Michigan Historical Commission of the Michigan Department of State.

The new map — a revised edition of a 1965 publication—lists every significant historic site in Michigan. Several new photographs have been added.

The maps are free of charge and may be obtained by writing: Michigan Historical Commission, Michigan Department of State, Lansing, Michigan 48918.

TO THE EDITORS:

At this time I would like to thank you for the fine job you do in covering the news of Tecumseh and the surrounding areas.

During my four years with the Navy you have kept me well informed of all current events both local and state. (I wish to thank you for the thoughtfulness you give the servicemen of the area. Let me tell you that it is greatly appreciated.

Now that I am out of the Navy I am living with my parents at 513 Seminole st. in Tecumseh. They have moved recently from Britton.

Once again, thank you for sending me The Herald.

TO THE EDITORS:

Should have thanked you before this for returning Mike Fero's letter and pictures. Was glad you could use it. It was well presented.

I wrote Mike of the nice job you had done. The last letter from Cordoba, S. A., Feros (indicated) they had the Herald with the first installment. Mail has been very slow in reaching them since the recent change in government.

Keep up the good work on The Herald. It's the best of weeklies.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Henry King

They joined with students from all over Michigan in exhibiting and attending special programs such as MSU scientist at work, a laboratory tour and a visit with specialists at the new veterinary clinic.

Emphasis this year was on education, evaluation and improvement instead of objective judging.

2 Clinton Chutists Win in Championship Meet

Stan Sinclair and Dick Foster, both of Clinton, placed in events at the Michigan Sports Parachutist at Meyers Airport.

The 1965 Michigan Champion, Dave Sauve of East Lansing, recaptured his title.

Mr. Sinclair won first place in the Intermediate Accuracy division. A native of Detroit, the 33-year-old skydiver has made 80 jumps since July, 1965. He served four years in the Navy and is owner of The Bucket tavern in Clinton.

Second place winner in the Novice Accuracy division, Mr. Foster, 33, is a graduate of Clinton High School. He started skydiving in July, 1965 and has made 42 jumps. He completed in the event with two chipped discs. A three-year Army veteran, he works at the Chevrolet plant in Rossenville.

Senator Bursley's LANSING REPORT

A state treasury handout to Detroit schools that will cost taxpayers about $9 million passed the Senate last week. I voted against this bill, although I can rightfully claim to be as strong a supporter of quality education as anyone in the Legislature.

I concede that Detroit schools have unusual costs and face unique problems. A strong case to assist them can be made.

But don't forget that Detroit voters have turned down requests for school tax increases for several years. Many suburban school districts have voted themselves higher millage rates.

Nonetheless the Bill (S.B.115) passed the Senate with a bare minimum of 19 votes. Here are some reasons why I think it bad legislation.

► The principle that the state will bail out a school district in financial trouble will discourage "yes" votes on school taxes in the future. After all why vote a new tax on yourself when the state will come to the rescue. If this bill becomes law a bad precedent is set.

► The timing is bad. Detroit faces a five mill tax vote on Nov. 8. This legislative action will discourage a "yes" vote.

► As reliance on state aid in special cases becomes a way of life control of our school systems and curricula will pass more out of local hands.

► The bill was hastily drafted and corrected several times while being debated and rammed through the Senate. I have little confidence that it is now technically sound.

► $2.50 per pupil gross allowance is given the more than 2,000,000 pupils in the state. This costs $5,000,000. Tampering with another section of the school aid act gives Detroit another $4,000,000. But the $2.50 per pupil, less deductible millage, will not give school districts in this area as much money as taxpayers will eventually have to pay to replace the $9 million presently being appropriated.

► A further raid on the already committed and fast dwindling surplus is fiscally sound. Danger signals on the business horizon indicate a rapid dropoff in tax receipts in Michigan. This may precipitate a fiscal crisis sooner than expected.

It would be more prudent to withhold additional expenditures until public acceptance of the 1967 automobile models can be appraised and state revenue estimates revised. I urge fiscal reform in Michigan, but I don't advocate it in response to a payless payday crisis.

Summing up I might remark that in an election year a certain number of politicians will always be wanting to vote people more handouts, but personally I think this legislation was unsound and poorly timed.

IN VIETNAM — Master Sergeant Wayne H. Hintz (right), son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Hintz of Britton, receives the Air Force Commendation Medal at Tan Son Nhut AB, Vietnam, from Colonel J. H. Baughn, his combat support Group commander. He was cited for outstanding skill, knowledge and job proficiency as a personal technician. He is a graduate of Britton High School.

Wing Missing, Pilot Crashes

Lt. Col. Edward Aebersold, 43, chalked up another near-miss with death as he walked away from the second crashed plane in a month, it was reported Saturday in Saigon, Vietnam.

The Tecumseh pilot is commander of an Air Force "bird dog" unit.

The "bird dogs" are the lowest and slowest flying U.S. planes in the Vietnam war. They are used to fly over enemy territory and locate targets for jets.

Aebersold was on a reconnaissance mission over the southern panhandle of North Vietnam when his plane took a direct hit from enemy flak.

"We were in an area of intense small arms fire from North Vietnamese forces preparing to infiltrate into South Vietnam," said Aebersold's wingman, Capt. Gary D. Sheets of Phillipsburg, Kan.

"I saw the colonel below me. I looked away and then back when I heard an explosion. Half of his right wing was missing.

"Aebersold's plane fell off into a steep right bank. When his diving speed picked up, the plane suddenly righted itself and fortunately was headed in the direction of our home base.

"The colonel couldn't turn his plane and even though he had full power applied, he was losing altitude fast." Sheets said.

As Aebersold reached the airfield, he was drifting toward a group of U.S. Marines in a tent compound. He immediately cut power and plunged downward at about 100 miles an hour.

LT. COL. EDWARD AEBERSOLD

Just before impact, he pulled back and the plane crashed, bounced off one wing, then the other, hit on its nose and flopped over on its back.

Reports said he was shaken but unhurt.

Aebersold crash landed his plane in a similar acc ident earlier in the month when a wing section of his plane was shot off by enemy flak. He escaped unhurt.

Lt. Col. Aebersold is the son of Mrs. Edward J. Aebersold of Tecumseh. He is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and attended Adrian College for two years until he enlisted in the Air Force in 1942. He is divorced and has three children.

This is his third tour in Vietnam. He first went over in February as commander of the 90th Airborne Division.

Ray Puffer and Paul Burns will attend Thursday.

Prominent experts on local government will discuss the needs, future and financing of city and village government in Michigan.

Square Dancers Hear Pat Mathews

The Single Eights Square Dance Club will have a dance Friday at 8 p.m., in Pattengill School, 2100 Crestland Dr., Ann Arbor. Unmarried, experienced western square dancers are invited by the sponsors, the Ann Arbor Recreation Department.

"Pat" Mathews is the caller.

Nursery Tots Will Begin Fall Session

Tecumseh Nursery Center classes will resume next week conducted by Mrs. Warren Puffer and assisted by Mrs. Claude Sebring.

Wednesday, Sept. 7, will be the first day for the children attending the three - day sessions.

The Nursery Center is held in the Presbyterian Church School rooms, Chicago Blvd., with entry by east door. It is operated as a private enterprise and has no connection with the church.

Classes are held from 9 - 11:15 a.m.

Any new child, three to five years old, not previously registered may do so on either Wednesday or Thursday. However, the two-day sessions are filled at present. Childrens names may be placed on a waiting list.

Sen. Bursley Sees Added Tax Penny

"More money for state highways in Lenawee County is urgently needed and this could be obtained by another penny on the state gasoline tax" State Senator Gilbert Bursley told an audience of Lenawee veteran organizations in Adrian.

"Necessary highway construction in this area is being put off to distant future dates due to increasing costs and lack of funds. $30,000,000 annually could be obtained by raising the gas tax from 6c to 7c per gallon," Senator Bursley added.

"Only five states presently have a lower gasoline tax than Michigan. I will urge a move in this direction in Lansing. The traffic problems of today must be met now and not in the 1970's, Bursley said.

Railroad Crossing To Have Automatic Flashing Signals

Automatic flashing light signals supplemented by half-roadway gates will be installed at the intersection of Ridge Rd. and the Norfolk and Western Railroad near Holloway.

The automatic protection is required after an investigation by the Michigan Public Service Commission revealing that the crossing is at an exceptionally sharp angle, creating hazard for motor vehicles approaching from both directions.

The signals and gates will also be installed on Academy Rd. near Adrian, which has had a traffic increase in the last 18 months.

How to keep things from driving you to distraction over Labor Day.

(Make sure your wife reads this ad.)

With kids and lost crayons and spaceships on your back and hugs on the neck, concentrating on driving sometimes takes nerves of steel.

Which nobody has.

So we've got a number of suggestions from the men at the GM Proving Grounds to help make your whole Labor Day trip safer and more enjoyable.

First: a decision. Separate job from family. It may sound corny, but driving is a full-time job. Let Mom mind the kids while you're at the wheel. And make it understood that what she says goes—or nobody goes.

Second: check-out time. Make sure, when you leave home, that all doors are locked and faucets turned off. Get the children in the spirit of being helpful by giving them things to check.

Third: to avoid a scramble. Prepare yourself mentally and physically for what's ahead by getting weather briefings before you set out. (Our drivers rely on a weather station at our Michigan proving ground.)

Fourth: partners. Let your "partner" mind maps, sandwiches and the thermos. You're too busy driving. (Before we developed special instruments for one-man test crews, all our proving ground drivers had partners for that very reason.)

Fifth: the ho-hum problem. All little ones get bored easily. Don't give them a chance. Have the grownup who's not driving suggest some word games or guessing games. (One good game is letting the kids think up their own games.)

Sixth: two-hour stretch. It's a good idea to stop and walk around at a rest area. It's a good time to let the kids blow off steam, and it helps refresh the driver. (This is required at least every two hours for our drivers—and it works wonders.)

A car is a pleasant way to get where you're going. Just remember, the playground comes after you're there.

One of the most important things we've learned about safety over the last 58 years is this:

Safe driving depends on three things. Tell your friends.

DON MOINET GREETS THEATRE-GOERS AT BOX OFFICE

Movies for Family Fun

The first area showing of "Batman" is playing at the Lenawee Auto Theatre tonight through Sept. 3.

"Batman" is one of the features Don Moinet, manager, has billed to delight his audiences.

In the six years Moinet has been operating the theatre, he has stressed entertainment for the whole family, gearing his films for all ages.

A modern playground for children before the show begins has been provided, restrooms enlarged and the AA concession stand is one of the most modern and clean in the state.

A capacity audience of 600 cars often fills the theatre during its season from early April until late November.

Distances between speakers is exceptionally wide, making parking and getting in and out of cars easy.

Ushers patrol the entire area, assisting motorists and insuring quiet.

Mr. Moinet invites anyone to see the projection booth before showtime, saying that children especially are interested in the machinery operation.

Along with "Batman" this week, Elvis Presley is featured in "Tickle Me."

A Holiday Show with fireworks Sunday and Monday nights will feature six color cartoons and three technicolor movies, including Doris Day and James Garner in "New Kind of Love" and Elvis Presley in "Viva Las Vegas."

Lack of Gun Powder Causes Sportsman To Open Own Store

By DENICE ANDERSON

Because he had to travel over 50 miles nd a good can of gun powder, Frank c started his own sporting goods store oday carries almost all brands of gun er now found on the market.
Frank's Sporting Goods is found just of Clinton and, along with his wife,
yn, and daughters, Julie, 8, and Lisa, 6, been in business for seven years.
Frank built and now mans the store en-
by himself which is quite a feat consid-he is employed full-time by the Thomas pany in Clinton.
The specialty of the house is guns. Frank has 100 guns on racks and a complete assortment of loading supplies.

Knives, fishing equipment, boating goods and targets are also included in Frank's vast storehouse of goods.

To top it off, night crawlers are in the cooler and boots are found under the counter.

Frank not only sells goods, he repairs them.

In the back of his store he has a repair shop where he does all kinds of gunsmithing. He also repairs motors.

If it's hunting or fishing you desire, Frank is authorized to sell licenses.

Frank's future plans for the store is to operate it full-time.

OURS — Frank, because he works full-time at the Company in Clinton, has set his store hours to s free time. On weekdays, the store is open from 4 to 9 p.m. It is closed on Mondays. Hours on Saturday are 8 a.m. to 9 p.m., and from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Sundays.

An UNUSUAL PARK

in nature's own wonderland. Here you can select a car of your choice and drive it yourself, through the beautiful forest, up and down hills, across bridges and "watch out" for those hair pin curves. You will go through a long tunnel and over three "Roller-Coaster-like" hills.

FUN-FUN-FUN for all ages. A feeling of self entertainment and relaxation. There are nature trails, amusement games, picnic grounds with plenty of tables beneath large shady trees and plenty of free parking. The park and picnic grounds are free to those taking the ride.

Christmas in July

"We are unable to get fresh pastry unless the dining hall bakes and that is only once or twice a month. On behalf of myself and the other 27 men in my hut, thank you and the 4-H Club very much."

This excerpt from a letter to Mrs. Claude Creger of Clinton from S/Sgt. Jack W. Baird, son of the William Bairds, Tecumseh-Clinton Rd., is typical of the expressions of gratitude arriving from local servicemen in Vietnam who received Christmas in July packages.

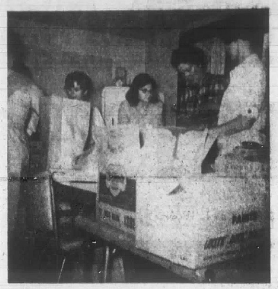
The boxes were packed and shipped by the North Franklin Hustlers 4-H Club under the direction of Mrs. Creger.

Other letter-writers and their comments:

Pfc. Keith Kruse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kruse, Center Dr.: "Myself and other soldiers in my company enjoyed the package very much. Also may I say that it's clubs and people like you that let us know we have support from home."

Seabee Michael Bartenslager, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bartenslager, 600 Orchard Lane: "I appreciate (the package) very much and it's wonderful knowing there are so many people back home who support us. A package or even a letter from someone unknown really picks up one's spirits."

Lance Corp. Jerry Holdridge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Holdridge, 502 Orchard Lane: "I want to thank each and every member of the North Franklin Hustlers for their thoughtfulness."



PREPARE BOXES FOR VIETNAM — Members of Clinton's North Franklin Hustlers 4-H Club under direction of Mrs. Claude Creger packed and shipped packages of baked goods for local servicemen stationed in Vietnam in a project they called "Christmas in July". THE SAGA OF CASSIUS CLAY

Cassius Clay is a squirrel, a black squirrel. Clara named him but now she is, I am afraid, becoming a bit disenchanted. In fact, were it possible, she just might disaccociate herself from the whole thing.

It is turning out that as fast as behavior goes, Cassius leaves much to be desired. He is a roamer and a family deserter.

It all started last fall when a pair of black squirrels appeared in a woods east of town.

How exciting — black squirrels are common in some areas, Blissfield, Battle Creek and Belle Isle come to mind, but around here our squirrel population included only fox, red and flying.

Our imagination soared, watching black squirrels should be fun. It seemed like an ideal place for them, plenty of trees and lots of room to run. Since the woods contained some nut trees, even their favorite past time of gathering, storing and eating could be indulged.

We all thought that it sounded great and I had fanciful ideas about black squirrels darting through the brilliant fall foliage and, in the springtime, wouldn't the youngsters be cute.

Unfortunately, the newcomers did not share our view.

The first reports were that they did not seem overly friendly. The next thing we knew, the bigger of the two, the one we assumed to be the male, had deserted. Why would he leave such a happy home?

Well, apparently he was no country boy but a big city dude who longed for the bright lights.

When finally we received the next bulletin on the black squirrels, the wandering one had taken up residence in one of Clara's trees.

Do you remember the old song about "one of the roaming kind" — that's our Cassius!

For almost six months now reports have been coming in from all over town about the black squirrel. Grandma Helzerman on Oneida saw one, Bel Finch and the Floyd Bryans saw him on Pottawatamie; Jenny was surprised by him on the Baptist Church corner; Eddie and the Fishers have been royally entertained by his cavortings in their big trees. Always though, he seems eventually to wind up back at Clara's.

Our sightings have been only three. On the morning we were to take off for Colorado, the folks were just tumbling me into my braces when we looked out and there was Cassius on the feeder.

What a thrill — what an exciting way to start a vacation.

He next appeared on the rainy Fourth of July; a wet and bedraggled thing, he was certainly far from handsome that morning. Several weeks ago he showed up and this was truly a good visit.

He was quite nervous and flinched at the slightest provocation but, never the less, he enjoyed a good meal of sunflower seeds, afforded us some good looking and, even had his picture taken. Our fingers are crossed about this, I just hope the camera was set right and the picture turns out well.

Actually, he is a fairly good looking squirrel. Dark, dark black in color, his nose is shaped a bit differently than our regular fox squirrels and his tail may not be quite as bushy.

When last we saw him, his coat was slick and sleek but, I understand that last winter the fur on his back legs and about half way up his body was long and poorly groomed. He wore a pair of baggy, curly pants.

Two Big Factors

Two important reasons why the Green-Dunn ambulances are so often requested are these: they can be depended upon to be promptly available, and their attendants are respected for the considerate attention they give to all patients.

A. L. VanWinkle's Granddaughter Arrived Suddenly

"Everything happened while we were away," said Mrs. A. L. VanWinkle Monday.

Their daughter, Mrs. Chauncey Depew of 630 Clark, Westfield,N. J., nee Lynne VanWinkle, gave birth to a 7 lb. 5 oz. daughter, Judy Lynne, Tuesday, Aug. 23.

When they returned home Saturday, a white sheet of paper taped to their front door bore the happy greeting in big red letters, compliments of the Wallace Waitings, who Chauncey had called.

Appendix Interrupts Vacation

He is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and will be consultant for emotionally disturbed and people with reading problems in the intermediate school district of Manistee County.

A&P

where would we be without them?

We wouldn't be America's largest food retailer.

That's for sure.

We're talking about the clerks who still manage a smile and a "Thank You" late Saturday afternoon after a busy week's work—and even on days when they aren't feeling tip-top.

We're talking about our supervisors, store managers, department heads and their assistants who shape the backbone of A&P.

Those behind the scenes, too—literally scores of thousands of devoted employees in our offices, warehouses, and other facilities.

Without all these fine people, there wouldn't be an A&P—and we know it.

They work hard...we're proud of them. Like most of us, most of them will rest too...on Labor Day.

New books ready for you to check out at your Public Library:

THE DECLINE OF PLEASURE by Walter Kerr. The title is a teaser, surely; all unsuspecting the reader begins. Within 20 pages he is in the middle of a revolution. A revolution is not necessarily unsettling if it is someone else who is being revolved. But Kerr's book revolves the reader, dangling him upside down with his preconceptions falling out.

STALINGRAD by Theodor Plievier. The irony of Stalingrad is that it need never have happened. In the summer of 1942 the Russians were close to losing the war. The Nazis had cut deep, wide swaths through the Soviet countryside; the Soviet armies were almost out of equipment; but then come Stalingrad. The battle lasted 164 days. All told some 450,000 humans perished. This book is written as a novel, but it borrows a good deal from documentary techniques.

TAI-PAN by James Clavell. Dirk Struan is Tai-Pan, (Chinese for he who wields power), of the Noble House, the most powerful and most feared trading company in the Orient. For 20 years, Struan has been obsessed by a grand design — the conversion of a barren island called Hong Kong into a jewel of the British Empire. In this panaramic novel, the author narrated Struans' turbulent saga.

THE MASTERS' BOOK OF IKEBANA; background and principles of Japanese flower arrangement with lessons by the masters of Japan's three foremost schools. A gorgeous book with much Japanese cultural background included.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ON REAL ESTATE by Robert Semenow. Include over three thousand questions with up-to-the-minute answers, covering every phase of real estate from Abatement to Zoning. Contains close to 250 definitions of real estate terms; also the latest facts and figures on mortgage financing and condominiums; all arranged for ready reference.

HERB OLSEN'S GUIDE TO WATERCOLOR LANDSCAPE. This lavishly illustrated book contains everything the artist need to know in order to paint a successful watercolor landscape.

Lake-A-Rama Draws Crowds To Evans Lake

"I think we started something," commented Mrs. Norbert Duling, chairman of the first annual Lake-A-Rama, an event held at Evans Lake Aug. 27.

Lake-A-Rama was sponsored by the Evans Lake Landowners Association, Inc., and has set the scene as one of the most enjoyable, entertaining events of the season.

Activities began with a parade of decorated rafts and speed boats.

JET-AGE HEATING EXPERT —Cecil Hand, of Red's Fuel Oil Service, is a recent graduate of the Advanced Service and Installation School on Oil Heating Equipment held at the Texaco Research Center, Beason, N. Y. The Hands live at 309 W. Shawnee.

Duane Semark took first place with his speed-boat creation. Two rafts tied for second. The "Evansee" was owned by Frank Gardull of Toledo and Robert Sweeney created the "Little Grass Shack."

Elbert Brown placed third with his "Golden Rule of Boating." Robert DeVee and William Sorke tied for fourth.

Races filled the afternoon as Bob Sowers won the sail boat race and Philip and Steve Lapacola came in first in the canoe race. All were awarded prizes.

The next event was a performance by Sharon and Ronnie Shewman, Robert Donohoe and Dan and Skip Richardson. All five balanced on one ski.

Robert Wynn and Mark Hagergerman.

Several hundred people lined the shores of Evans Lake and were entertained by "Salty," the clown, from WSPD TV. Mrs. Betty Flanders of WLEN and Patty Mull provided many laughs with their antics and singing.

Prizes were given out during the day, among them an outboard motor and a trip to Miami Beach.

The Lamplighters provided music during the evening. Two members of the Harmonicats, enroute to a later engagement, played several numbers. They were staying at a near-by motel.

Mrs. Duling, chairman, is also secretary-treasurer of the association. She lives in Toledo but has a residence at 222 Evans Trail.

Other committee members are Roland Redman, president, Joe Oulette, Duane Semark, Herman Culberson, Sandy Warner, Mrs. Nellie Taylor, Mrs. C. Clutter and Jack Cook.

The first annual Lake-A-Rama was a giant success.

Lenawee Audit Is Released

State Treasurer Allison Green has released the calendar year 1965 audit of Lenawee County to the board of supervisors and newspapers.

Mr. Green stated that everything checked was found in order, but did recommend:

►Current appraisal of county owned buildings for insurance purposes

►Writing off apparently uncollectible accounts receiveable of the Social Welfare Department

►Writing off maintenance of the child care cash receipts record at the office of the Juvenile Court where the collections are made.

All recommendations were referred to the department heads involved with a request for a report to Mr. Green on the action taken.

Interested citizens may examine a copy of the audit at The Herald.

Mrs. Clyde Brown Observes Birthday

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brown and family of Ridge Hwy. were callers at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brown, Saturday evening. Sunday guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goetz and sons and Mrs. Beverly O'Hara and children, all of Ann Arbor.

The visits were to honor their mother, Mrs. Clyde Brown, whose birthday was Saturday.

GUIDANCE SYSTEM — An identical sister to this all-inertial guidance system built by General Motors' AC Electronics Division is now poised on the launch pad at Cape Kennedy high atop a powerful Air Force Titan III-C space booster. The launch, second in a series to loft eight communications satellites at one time into an equatorial orbit, is scheduled to take place next week. Joyce Daehn, secretary to AC's Titan III Engineering Director, is shown with the inertial measurement unit portion of the system. This is the "heart" of an all-inertial guidance system because it contains the [illegible] platform and associated electronics.

Long and Short

By TOM RIORDAN

There's an unusual flurry of excitement around the Riordan manse this week — dad and mom are jetting to Texas, where I'll be giving a talk.

Our host is the Texas Press Association, which is staging it's 16th Annual Advertising Conference. My place on the program will deal with local photography for ads.

But the main focus at our house isn't on the speech, but rather what Cherie will take as a wardrobe.

"What am I going to wear?" she asked upon learning of the invitation, then hustled about as all good wives will — not to the closet, but to various shops to check for new duds.

One thing has her stopped and that's the barbecue and western dance being staged Saturday night at Camp Rio Vista. So naturally, there will have to be several possible garbs toted along for any eventuality.

The session is being held in a resort, the Inn of the Hills at Kerrville, which is 35 miles from San Antonio. From the description of the Inn, it must be a pretty poosh spot.

Sunday is being touted as a real zinger. Wrote Vern Sanford, TPA general manager:

"Oh boy, what a fitting close to a wonderful convention. Charles Schreiner III will be your host at the fabulous Y. O. Ranch. It's 40 miles out of Kerrville. And it's the most interesting 40 miles you have traversed.

"This is the picture-taking country. So, you'll be guided over highly picturesque terrain, through valleys and over hills of magnificent splendor.

"Then to cap it all off you'll see the greatest, most varied collection of wild animals ever assembled in one area. Finally, there's a chuck-wagon barbecue —the likes of which you've never et," concluded Vern.

Holy Texas Hospitality, I can hardly wait.

HERALD PHOTO BY TOM RIORDAN

AIRBORNE DELIVERY—A lot of south-end residents were awakened at 6:30 a.m. Saturday to the whirling blades of a giant helicopter doing an unique job at Tecumseh Products Co. The big bird, 65 feet long, placed eight Aerovent fresh-air makeup heaters at various spots on the roof. With a capacity of 30,000 cubic feet per minute, each unit weighs 2,510 pounds. The 'copter could take up to 1,960 at one time, so the heaters were stripped down to this and off went pilot Bob Gaylord of the Chicago Helicopter Airways. The job took just two hours.

Few Seem To Know About Merger Plan

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Voters Will Decide at Polls Sept. 27

To merge or not to merge — that is the question.

Feelings on the proposed union of the Tecumseh, Clinton and Britton-Macon school districts range from definite "No's" to positive "Yes's."

Fate of the proposed Northeastern District will be decided by voters of the present three districts on Sept. 27. At the same time, two other possible realignments will be considered in other sections of Lenawee County.

The merger would combine the 3,300 students of Tecumseh with 1,100 in Clinton and 600 in Britton-Macon.

In the last 15 years, more than 200 county school districts have melted into 12. The current plan offered by the reorganization committee would further reduce the number to four.

If the merger is turned down, it cannot be brought up again for five years.

Dr. Fred Freeman and Mrs. Donald Cobb of Tecumseh and Douglas Palmer of Britton serve on the 18-member county committee. Clinton had no representative.

Tecumseh now offers 60 courses, Clinton 50 and Britton-Macon 32. A district of size comparable to the proposed district, Plymouth in Wayne County, offers 120.

● Tecumseh Officials Are Noncommital

By JUDY FIELDER

The Tecumseh Board of Education has taken no stand in the proposed merger.

James McDowell, superintendent of schools, said the board preferred to remain neutral "because it doesn't matter this much to us.

"The plan has nothing to do with local administration. Although we had two members of the board on the county committee, we haven't even discussed it locally," said Mr. McDowell.

We'll cooperate with whatever decision the people make," he added.

Aden Mead, board president, said he could not speak for other members of the board.

"Actually, I haven't gone into this enough to know all the shortcomings. If the whole project is going to improve the educational quality of our community, I would be all for it.

"The schools must progress and I think this is something that eventually we'll have to consider. I'm not sure if we're ready for it now," he added.

Dr. Fred Freeman, one of the representatives on the K-12 reorganization committee, has not decided how he will vote, "because the committee worked on the whole county, and I haven't delved into one particular district.

"I am certainly for larger schools because the curriculum would be so much better. Teachers trained in a field would be working in that field. Advantages in education would be greater.

"Money would be saved because buying would be done in quantity.

"The problems would certainly be tremendous in many catagories — just the fact that the three areas would be operating under one board — people may feel they're not getting fair representation.

"But I feel that the main concern would be that the students of the smaller schools would have a better educational opportunity.

"The merger would be more advantage to them than to the larger Tecumseh schools," he said.

People outside direct contact with the schools were indefinite. Many contacted knew little about it.

Court Nighswander, Tecumseh pharmacist who lives in Clinton: "I think the Tecumseh district would be most advantaged, but I wonder how much the

● Clinton Boardmen Are in Opposition

By MAXINE CALHOUN

CLINTON — Residents, school administrators and teachers are giving a lot of thought to the advantages or disadvantages of a possible new king-size district.

The Board of Education and Superintendent Richard Wegner oppose the idea on four points:

1. The Washtenaw-Lenawee area is in the corridor of industrial expansion related to the greater Detroit area. Studies of the Clinton area indicate that present industry and projected industrial development will continue to expand to the extent that a satisfactory tax base will be established to provide for a student population which will meet state school size standards.

2. Approximately three-fifths of the geographic area of the district lies in Washtenaw County, the smaller balance in Lenawee County, where the buildings are located. The reorganization plan would tend to split the district with Washtenaw people likely to request annexation to the Washtenaw Intermediate District.

3. The present district has accepted the community - school philosophy with all the benefits that this concept offers to the students and the district. Geographically a reorganized district would tend to negate this community-school interest.

4. Clinton would lose its democratic privilege of local control of educational objectives. Tecumseh being the larger community population-wise would tend to overshadow the other communities and therefore exert dominant influences on school policy.

Individual opinions offered.

Mrs. Paul McKenna: "I feel the biggest advantage of the larger proposed school would be that we can have an expanded curriculum and, perhaps, better teachers.

"The disadvantages are that we might lose the individuality of the students and the closeness between the pupils, the staff and the administration," said Mrs. McKenna, a teacher for four years here and now a school social worker in the county.

● Sentiment Rules Citizens in Britton

By CHRISTINE FAIRBANKS

BRITTON — After talking to people about the upcoming consolidation vote, one gets the distinct feeling folks here do not want to give up their local school, even though many admit that education-wise it would probably be more advantageous to the children.

Sentiment clouds the issues.

Being a small community, Britton's school is the center of most social life as well as an educational system.

To many, it is the fear of "losing our own school." In spite of gripes and complaints on minor topics, residents all have a great deal of pride, which seems to predominate the thinking.

The concensus is that if Britton loses its own high school, the town will be just a place to eat and sleep, the children will become lost in the shuffle of larger and more impersonal schools.

In a sampling of the opinions voiced:

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vallie— Both like the system as it is, feel that a smaller school offers more personnal contact between teachers and students, outweighing benefits of more subjects and better teachers.

Mrs. Douglas Palmer — In general, she and her husband, are in favor if it, especially after his working on the committee, that a larger district would offer a better educational opportunity for all children, would be more able to group children according to their abili-

Expected Enrollment Falls Down

Enrollment in the Tecumseh Schools this week fell nearly 100 below the number officials had anticipated.

Tuesday's enrollment showed 3,210 youngsters in school, compared to the official enrollment of 3,243 for last year. Official enrollment for state aid purposes is taken the fourth Friday of September.

Supt. James McDowell believes Tecumseh will stay around the 3,200 figure for 1966-67. Business Manager Norval Bovee had estimated 3,300 students for the school budget and says the loss of students and state aid could amount to about $25,000.

Tecumsehs high school had expected over 1,000 students, but only 982 showed up Tuesday. The sophomore class is down 15, junior class, six, and the seniors, five.

Greatest loss occured in the grades where 1,734 were admitted, 57 less than last year.

Major Improvements Unveiled for Pit Park

Big things are planned for The Pit area, which will eventually be called Tecumseh Park.

Planning experts Chuck Lehman, Jack Sanderson and Jim Preston unveiled a drawing which transforms the 22 acres into one of the most striking recreation centers in Michigan.

On hand to view it were City Manager Cal Zorn, Parks and Recreation Superintendent Don Moffatt and three members of the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation board, Mrs. Joe Galazzi, Merlyn Downing and Douglas Dunn.

The Fund has underwritten the cost of the proposed plan and will help finance the improvements in coming years.

THE PROPOSAL centers on:

- Enlarged beach
- Fishing pavilion on east end
- Walking paths around water
- Picnic sections, northeast and southwest of water
- Band shell
- Tennis courts, shuffleboard and horseshoe pits
- Improved drive, with drop-off circle
- Hardtopped parking area
- Recreation building with dressing facilities and a pool
- Miniature golf

The planners recommend pedestrian entries to the park from Occidental Hwy. and Shady Lane. They favored only one auto entry, since through access between Adrian St. and Occidental would create a possible "speedway."

Mr. Moffatt said he hopes some of the tennis courts could be lighted for night play, an artificial ice skating rink and that there might be handball courts included in the building.

Land Deal Turns Sour

By JIM LINCOLN

Anyone want to buy 18 acres of industrially zoned property in Tecumseh?

Tecumseh-Area Industrial Development Association — present owners — would like to get rid of it. TAIDA is unhappy with the treatment it has received from the city.

Last year, city officials requested TAIDA to buy the property due to a city zoning controversy with Willis Baker, then owner of the land.

TAIDA's understanding with the city was that the 18 acres would be assessed as farmland, same as when Mr. Baker owned it. However, the assessment has nearly doubled and crops on the land will fall to pay the $300 yearly tax toll.

The 18 acres is now assessed at about $800 per acre, a total of $14,000.

Jack Osburn, president of TAIDA, says "There's no farmland in Lenawee County worth that much." The local industrial group figured the assessment would be less than $3,000.

What is burning members of TAIDA is that they did not particularly want the property in the first place and thought they were doing the city a favor by purchasing it.

Mr. Baker also failed to benefit in tax relief from the 18-acre sale. His annual assessment on two small homes is still in the neighborhood of $7,000, same as it was when he still owned the 18 acres.

Sage, Lamb Are Named Co-Chairmen

Bob Sage and Carl Lamb have been named co-chairman for the 1966 Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation campaign, which will take place sometime in October.

Budgets for various charities will be announced next week.

Last year, the Fund had a charity budget of $45,203 — with total contributions hitting $53,275. Overage was earmarked for park improvements, which will again be the case this fall.

It was in this way that the new library was financed and paid off in four years.

The Pit has been purchased by the Fund with $15,000 of the $35,000 price already paid. When completely paid off it will be deeded to the city. The Fund has also agreed to help pay for a portion of planned improvements. (See adjoining story.)

Fund boardmen are available to confer on the Foundation, states Mrs. Joe Galazzi, who is in charge of publicity. Included are:

President — Merlyn Downing
Vice-president — Bob French
Treasurer — Douglas Dunn
Secretary — Mrs. Truman Rentschler

Others are Dr. William Adams, Hugh Walter and Vern Manwaring.

Students Voice Opinions

By DENICE ANDERSON

How do students feel about a school merger?

They're the ones who may face leaving a familiar school, making new friends, choosing new classes and overcoming old school rivalries.

Don Steffens, a Clinton senior, thinks the merger "sounds like a good idea."

"This year we can't have mechanical drawing because we couldn't get a teacher," he said. Don feels that a merger would offer more subjects and teachers.

Rick Skinner, a senior at Tecumseh High School, doesn't know exactly what will come of a merger.

If it means a better school and better facilities, Rick is in favor, but if the three schools come together just so they'll get more money, he is definitely opposed.

Kathleen Cheever, a Britton senior, says, "They keep saying I'd get a better selection of courses if I went to a larger school, but I am taking all the courses I want and need now."

One major problem concerned with a school merger is the loss of personal contact between teacher and pupil. The students have definite ideas on loss of individuality.

"Students won't get as much attention if they are having trouble," says a Britton junior, Jim Henry.

Barb Bowman, a Clinton senior, feels, "Though you would have a financial advantage, you'd lose contact between student and teacher."

As an after-thought, Barb added, "Everyone would have to ride a bus!"

Kathy Hall, a Tecumseh senior who is also president of Student Council, feels that the classes would be too large. "They are too big now.

"Tecumseh has a lot of school spirit," says Kathy, but it might be destroyed if a merger came true.

As far as sports are concerned, the opinion was split.

Tom Korican, a Britton senior, stated that he thinks a merger would be good for sports. "More kids would come out and the better ones would make it."

But Scott Edwards, a Tecumseh senior, feels that sports spirit would be hurt by the merger. "The teams would be better, but not as many boys would be able to participate."

What advantages towards college will be offered at the larger school? Again, the comments were divided.

Bruce Gibbard, a junior who will be attending Clinton High School, says, "We have a big percentage that go to college and stay there. We couldn't be called a 'poverty school'."

Bruce added, "It would take a long time to get organized."

A Tecumseh senior, Cindy Calhoun, while talking with friends from Britton, discovered that the smaller schools don't have much pull in colleges as far as reading goes. "They'd stand a better chance in college," she felt if the school merger does happen.

"It would take a big adjustment for Clinton and Britton," she said, "to go to a larger school."

Sentimentality also has part in the school merger discussion.

Jeanne Lancaster, a Clinton senior, feel that "Kids would rather finish their high school years where they started."

A Britton senior, Barb Drexler, "kind of likes it small because that's the way it has been."

These young people and their fellow students will be unable to vote in the election, but the outcome of that election may well decide their future.

at Western Michigan University, said that she felt adequately prepared academically for college, but that Clinton High had not prepared her culturally enough to be able to participate in the university cultural activities.

Dr. Edwin Wight: "I am against the merger. In the next five years, Clinton can reach what I consider to be the optimum size of a good school — around 2,000 students."

Dr. Wight, a dentist, began teaching math in Clinton High School four years ago.

lies. The gifted as well as the slow learners would benefit.

The school board has not gone on record as a group. Two boardmen would not comment, when asked.

To sum up, I feel residents are all woefully uninstructed on the issues.

Howard Rhora—He is against the merger, because the district will be too big, and the school will lose contact with the child as an individual. He also feels that Britton will lose the power of spending the money raised here.

Mrs. Ronald Maschino — She feels that sooner or later it must come, but hates to see it. For one thing, she does not like to think of the children being scattered to different schools. She did state, however, that there would be one advantage in that there would probably be a much better choice of subjects in a larger district.

Mrs. Verl Sanch—Her opinion that the school has held the community together, has always liked "our own local school," but "we may be forced into it anyway."

Mrs. Harold Rhorback—"The bigger they get, the more problems they have." She feels there is more upheaval in larger schools.

"The proposed merger might easily result in such a large school as would be unwieldy — and I wouldn't want to teach in that size school," he stated.

"If Clinton were going to stay small, and didn't have a potential for industrial growth, I might favor a merger, but, it is not.

"In schools of Clinton's size, students tend to participate in several outside activities such as athletics, music, etc., while in the larger schools only the best ones can get into each activity group," he concluded.

Mrs. Richard Sharpe: "I can't see putting all the kids in one building and bussing them around.

"With a merger, we'd still have the same teachers, some good, some not so good, and maybe a wider curriculum.

"In view of the band, sports and friends which my children have in Clinton School, I think Clinton is probably better off going it alone — at least for the present. It looks like Clinton will grow," she concluded.

Mrs. Glen Bihlmeyer: "I can see no advantage to the proposed school merger. One teacher can only teach a limited number of students anyway. We'd only have to transport Clinton's students much further to a new school and it wouldn't solve the money problems of the local school — in fact, it might make them worse."

She felt the office administration would not be simplified by a large central setup because the local schools would still have to maintain an office staff.

She suggested the schools concerned would all benefit from more emphasis on a vocation training center for post high school years.

Mrs. Charles Parker, Clinton High School English teacher, said, "I don't see any real advantage to be gained by Clinton in the school merger.

"The present school curriculum is being upgraded quite rapidly and plans are being made for a possible building program to improve the Clinton school.

"A school can be too large. There should be a good balance in size to maintain the rapport between the community and the school.

"In too large a school a teacher can't keep in close touch with his students — they tend to become just a number in a big classroom," she concluded.

Mrs. Edward J. Thomas favors the merger. "I believe that all high schools should be of class A size, so they can offer a more varied curriculum and provide courses on various levels of achievement.

"Thus, they can best serve the needs and desires of our students, who are competing in a more and more complex society.

"Size, small or large, does not necessarily mean quality," she continued. "A school system is only as good as the parents who support it."

Mrs. Thomas suggested that recent graduates of local schools and high school students should be consulted about their opinions on the adequacy of the present school system.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Steffens said they were satisfied with the education their son, John, is getting in Clinton High School.

"I would not vote for the merger," Mrs. Steffens said.

other two districts will benefit. If the taxes are lower in Clinton and Britton than in Tecumseh, will they be raised?"

Harold Black, carpenter, Accidental Highway: "If it raises taxes, I'm not in favor of it. I think this school district could be run more economically. If the merger will be more economic, it's all right."

Mrs. Richard Beasley, 603 Orchard Lane: "I haven't thought too much about it. I really need to read up on it to form an opinion."

Mrs. Lawrence Hebert, 513 N. Union St.: "I don't think it's a bad idea, but what will be the advantages of it? How will it work if they do merge?"

Mrs. Ronald Barrett, 11 Cairns St. "I think it would be good — we need a bigger high school. I went to school in Baltimore, Md. and enjoyed the larger school.

"It was an advantage— more choice of courses and not so many in each class. They're too crowded here now.

"Perhaps if the school became larger overall, the classes would be smaller and more specialized," she concluded.

Mrs. Tom Fagan, 4393 Milwaukee Rd.: "I think it would be good for Clinton and Britton-Macon. Tecumseh would not gain as much. Probably the smaller schools will oppose it the most because they feel they would lose their identity by the merger.

"But the larger school would offer more varied classes. While today's schools are mostly geared to the college-bound student, the larger system would offer more to the non-college-bound."

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY — Mr. and Mrs. Terrence Wagner, 411 E. Chicago Blvd., were guests of honor at an open house Sunday at the home of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Carter, 6900 Occidental Rd. The occasion honored the Wagners on their silver wedding anniversary. The couple spoke their marriage vows June 15, 1941 in Clinton. They have lived in Tecumseh since that time. They have three children, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. David Lemerand and Shirley at home, and one granddaughter.

Reckless Driving Charge

Only one driver was cited in four accidents investigated by Tecimseh police during the past week.

Robert D. Baskerville, 23, Ann Arbor, was slapped with a reck less driving charge Saturday when he ran the stop sign at Herrick Park Dr. and N. Maumee.

He sideswiped a car driven by Harold G. Brion, 42, of 608 Center Dr., and then swerved to miss a head-on collision with another auto.

Brion's car jumped the curb, ran through a yard at 217 Herrick Park Dr., and stopped in a hedge there.

Two mishaps happened on private property, avoiding drivers of receiving citations.

Louella F. Honeycutt, 43, of 734 S. Union St., backed into Zeddie F. Preston, 61, of 11250 Preston Rd., in the Kroger parking lot.

James D. Tressler, 51, of 501 Brown St., and Pauline M. Clark, 60, of 409 N. Evans St., bumped in the driving and parking area at the Eddie Clark grocery.

Tressler was turning into the area as Mrs. Clark was backing out.

Boise Matheny, 43, of 706 Occidental Rd., reported to police that his truck struck some wires at the N. Ottawa parking lot, pulling the wires and one pole down.

The heighth of his truck was within state regulations and no charge was made.

Constitution Week Is Sept. 17-23

Members of the Abi Evans Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution remind Tecumseh residents that September 17-23 is Constitution Week designated by an Act of Congress and by proclamation of the president.

The Bill of Rights, the first ten amendments to the Constitution, are rights that Englishmen had won through the centuries, that the Colonists had declared in their Bill of Rights and that a war, the American Revolution, had been fought to preserve.

DAR members have said, "Our Constitution is the eternal monument of the men who died at Lexington and Valley Forge. We have every right to be proud of our country. Our government is the finest on earth and it is our mission to keep it so."

Karen Creger and David Yarckow Say Vows

Karen Diane Creger became the bride of David N. Yarckow at Gloria Dei Lutheran Church Saturday evening.

Dr. Laszlo Gero performed the candlelight ceremony before an altar centered with a pyramid pedestal arrangement of white gladioli and asters.

Stephanotis and baker fern decorated the pew candelabra along the carpeted aisle.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Creger, 804 S. Union St., and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman C. Yarckow, 661 N. Main St., Britton.

Organist Mrs. Katharine Hunt accompanied Mrs. John Neuderfer of Manchester, who was the soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white peau taffeta gown with scooped neckline and long tapered sleeves. The A-line skirt had a band of delicate re-embroidered lace to form an empire waistline.

The sleeveless coachman style coat flowed from a self-bow at the shoulders into a chapel train.

Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, a gift of the groom, and her bouffant veil of silk illusion was held by taffeta and lace petals trimmed with seed pearls and tear-drop crystals.

She carried a series of cascade arrangements of petite white carnations accented with natural foliage on a cascade of green velvet ribbon.

Matron of honor, Mrs. M. Wayne Rumpf of Adrian, cousin of the bride, wore a floor-length coat dress of moss green brocade and morter crepe. The sleeveless gown had a moss green brocade bodice, high rise waistline and sheath skirt of morter crepe. The moss green coachman style brocade coat fell from self-bows on the shoulders.

Her matching face veil was attached to a Dior bow with tiny scattered leaves of green and morter and she wore matching gloves.

Tiered velvet in moss green formed a background for yellow, gold and bronze pompons mums accenting a cluster of green and gold grapes, tufts of wheat and sea oats outlining the bouquet.

Bridesmaids Mrs. David Bailey, Laura Wright, Marilyn Solarski, and Carolyn Rentschler, all wore floor-length gowns of moss green with brocade bodice, bell-shaped sleeves and sheath skirt of morter crepe. The moss green brocade trains were attached to the shoulders with a self bow.

Their headdress and flowers were the same as the matron of honor's.

Flower girl, Lisa Michele Aebersold of Adrian, wore a floor-length pale yellow gown with an empire style waistline accented with moss green ribbon. Her headpiece was the same as the bridesmaids with yellow flowers in place of leaves scattered on her veil.

She carried a ball of net and clusters of yellow mums.

You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

'Tis true, 'tis true that there is no place like home, especially when home is good old "Michigan, My Michigan." Some 7,160 miles and 18 states later, the Griggs, with grateful hearts for time off and a lump in their throats to be home, galloped over the southern boundary line Friday evening.

The "Welcome to Michigan" sign was only climaxed by the beautiful shamrock bower stating "Cead Mile Failte" (100,000 welcomes) made by thoughtful co-workers at the office and all that cake — mmmm — delicious.

They certainly know how to make a gal feel needed.

One of the interesting things Father and this columnist encountered during the tour of states was the method used to make wine in Paso Robles, Calif.

It isn't by stamping the grape juice out with bare feet either.

Hand picked at just the right time to secure the proper amount of sun ripened sweetness, the grapes are mechanically squeezed and allowed to stand in huge vats for five or six days.

Then the juice is placed in immense wooden casks to age before bottling. Customers may taste and purchase the wine of their choice right from the vineyard where it is processed.

A purchase can be downright exciting but it isn't recommended before breakfast.

Pilot Student Visits Folks

BRITTON — Barbara Kay Gillespie spent a few days last week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Gillespie, after spending the summer as a counselor at a camp for handicapped children near Chicago.

Miss Gillespie went Saturday to Palatine, Ill., where she will practice teach in the Wheeling Illinois Special Education school for a semester, after which she will return to Western Michigan University campus to complete her senior year.

She is one of the first pilot students to be sent into the Chicago area by Western to train in work with the mentally retarded.

Miss Gillespie was one of six to receive a $1600 scholarship in "Leadership for Mental Retardation' for her senior year. It consists of tuition, fees and room and board for the year.

Mr and Mrs. Robert W. Harriott of 6130 N. County Line Road, Britton, announce the engagement of their daughter, Karen Sue Harriott, to Michael J. Bayer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Bayer of 1005 Heidleburg Road, Toledo, Ohio. Miss Harriott is employed at the Hardy and Dischinger Company in Toledo, Ohio. Mr. Bayer is employed at the Bayer Lumber Supply Company. She is a 1965 graduate of Britton-Macon High School. Mr. Bayer graduated in 1964 from Rogers High School in Toledo and attended Stautzenburger Business College. A January wedding is being planned.

DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING.

STORE ALL CORN you have room for this year if prices slip much below recent levels. A bullish supply and demand situation is in prospect. Corn stocks have disappeared at record levels. Crop estimates point toward levels below 1965-66 usage and the total feed grain supply is about 10% less than a year earlier. If you harvest more than you can store, contract now to insure price. Where contracts aren't available, sell earliest harvested corn and store the rest.

CONSIDER CREEP-FEEDING BEEF CALVES dropped this fall if feed situation is tight. Concentrates fed to calves will reduce nursing stress on the dams and will produce calves weighing 40 to 75 more pounds at weaning than non-creep-fed calves. Oklahoma work shows feeding until spring rather than all the way to weaning in July is most profitable. Feed two parts corn to one part oats plus hay to four months of age. Beyond four months feed eight parts corn to one part 40% protein supplement.

GAS TAX REFUND. Because of a rule change you don't have to file for a federal tax refund before September 30 this year as in the past. But keep your record books up to date. You can claim the federal tax paid on gasoline used on the farm as a credit on your federal income tax return next January. Your first claim will cover 18 months, July 1, 1965, to December 31, 1966. After this claims will be for the calendar year.

HARVEST CORN between 28% and 26% moisture for lowest field losses. Kernels are too soft above 28%, resulting in high kernel damage. Below 26% stalks become brittle and ears drop more easily. Most ideal level is 24% to 26% moisture. Determine moisture by using a tester.

Tie Broken on Last Hole

In an action-packed finish, Fred Randall and Art Geisenhaver captured the 1966 Tecumseh Country Club Hi-Lo Tournament with a one-stroke margin over 36 holes Sunday and Monday.

They edged Val Spangler and Flave Vescelius.

Going into the final hole, both teams were 11 under par on their best ball scores. No. 36, the run-ners-up carded a bogie five, while Geisenhaver dropped a clutch putt to give his team a par four and the victory.

Messers Randall and Geisenhaver scored a 133 net after deducting handicap strokes.

Finishing third at 136 were Bill Keith and Joe Weigler. Fourth place went to Bob Hoekstra and Pete Easter, who had 137.

Gusty winds, blowing in various directions during the second day of action, played havoc with scores. Hit the hardest were Bill Snook and Dick Meyers, who carded 84 on the first day and were tied for first spot. They soared to a 76 on Labor Day.

Showing the greatest improvement from Sunday to Monday were Bill Hanna and Jim Robideau, going from a 72 to a 66, giving them a tie for fifth spot at 138, one stroke off the prize-winning pace.

Medalist honors on gross scores went to Mr. Spangler with a 71 Sunday and a 76 Monday for 147.

Bill Holmes posted a 75 for 149. Pete Easter counted a pair of 79's for 158.

INDIVIDUAL rounds of 76 were turned in the opening day by both Mr. Randall and Bob Dickinson, while Jim Wilson had a 77 the final 18 holes.

This years' event ranked the biggest in club history.

TOURNEY WINNERS — Fine, steady golf by Fred Randall and a pressure putt by Art Geisenhaver on the final hole won TCC's biggest tourney over Labor Day weekend.

SORRY ABOUT THAT — Hustling guard Gary Daubar (61) bursts through to nail halfback Roger Young (30) at the moment he takes a handoff from quarterback Scott Edwards (20) in Saturday morning's scrimmage. The club performed spotty, as expected this early in the year. Hot, muggy weather has taken its toll in progress of plans for Coach Tom Fagan and his new assistant, Val Spangler, who have a lengthy program to complete before the Willow Run battle, Sept. 16. In action below, a mass of offensive players are met at the line by a hoard of defensive lads during the Saturday's action.

Schill's Car Runs Fastest

Harold Schill of Howell was Friday night's fastest qualifier, winning the first heat.

Pete Valentine took second, Ray Lewis, third, Mike Havens, fourth, Dave Van Riper, fifth, Harold Schill, Pursuit, Jim Bowditch, Consi, Buck LaPresto, Semi, Ed Hage, Feature, George Brown, Super-stock and Feature and Cecil Snyder Destruction Derby.

Sunday night Schill was again the big winner for the Labor Day Trophy Races. He was fastest qualifier, winner of the first heat, the Pursuit and the 35-lap feature. He collected four trophies.

Larry Harowelli of Hillsdale captured the second heat as Paul Whitaker of Tecumseh took third. Eddie Green of Manchester won fourth and Von Hinkle of Hillsdale took fifth. All received trophies.

Mike Worden of Jackson won the Consi trophy and Eddie Green received the trophy for the Semi.

George Brown of Ypsilanti was a double winner taking both the super-stock heat and the feature.

Season Championship races will be run Sept. 18 with time trials at 1 p.m., and races starting at 2:30 p.m.

Grid Fans To See Plays and Patterns

The Indian Fan Club members will view a demonstration of offensive plays and defensive patterns to be used by the Tecumseh High School football team this season at a meeting Sept. 12.

The meeting is at 7:30 p.m. in the gym.

Coach Tom Fagan and the team will be present to illustrate the program, "How to Watch a Football Game."

Additional meetings besides the regular meeting each second Monday of the month will be held when fans may view pictures taken of the previous game or two.

TREE RIPENED and ELBERTA PEACHES

Apples, vinegar, do-nuts, potatoes, melons, sweet corn and other produce.

New Officers Are Installed

The fall schedule of the Gloria Dei Lutheran Church will begin with the installation of new members during the worship service Sunday.

It will be followed by a coffee hour prepared by the LCW, honoring the new members.

Dr. Gero's sermon will analyze Jesus's humanity and Deity. The worship service starts at 10:30 a.m. every Sunday.

Luther League opens it's doors at 6:30 p.m. Sunday for old and new members. This meeting will close with a friendship hour.

Cause Unknown in Tree Fire Case

There was a tree and grass fire on Matthews Hwy., Sept. 2. It was handled by the Tecumseh fire department and the cause was unknown.

REV. CHARLES STERM IS NEW PASTOR OF ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Holds First Service

CLINTON — Worship services were conducted Sunday in St. John's Episcopal Church by the new priest, the Rev. Charles Sterm.

Rev. Sterm, 38, was born in Detroit, attended high school there and received his bachelor of arts degree at Wayne State University while also serving as a lay-minister at St. Thomas Church in Detroit.

He was employed for a time at the Marine Inn Mission for Homeless Men. Rev. Sterm was an electronic technician for Chrysler before deciding to study for the ministry.

He attended Bexley Hall Seminary at Bambier, Ohio, receiving his bachelor of divinity degree and was ordained as a deacon in 1961. He was ordained as a priest in the Episcopal Church in January, 1962.

He served churches in both West Branch and Rose City until 1964 when he was called to All Saints Episcopal Church in Pontiac, remaining there until this week.

In addition to the Clinton pastorate, he will minister to the newly-formed mission Church of the Holy Cross which is meeting in the Saline Savings Bank building. It is hoped a church can be built in Saline soon.

Thursday, while the youngest member of the family, Isabelle, 7, took the family dog, "Shadrack", on a tour of the grounds, the family busily settled into the parsonage home which had been vacant since June when the Rev. and Mrs. Donald Heacock left to serve at a mission church in the Canal Zone.

The minister's wife, Thelma sings and plays the piano. She has been studying at Oakland University this summer and plans to earn a degree in elementary education and music.

Son, Charles, Jr., 13, takes a great interest in railroads and collects model trains.

David, 11, sang with the Boys' Choir in the Meadowbrook Festival at Oakland University this summer.

Rev. Sterm said he is looking forward to living in this part of the state.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Some Aspects of Merger

Such a broad move as the proposal to unite the school districts of Tecumseh, Clinton and Britton-Macon offers a wide variety of considerations.

The K-12 organizational committee has formulated some:

Problems currently faced by the smaller schools are:

- ► Inability to offer a diverse range of courses.
- ► Instructors teaching classes for which they are not trained.
- ► Building costs and maintenance prohibitive.
- ► Teacher turnover high.

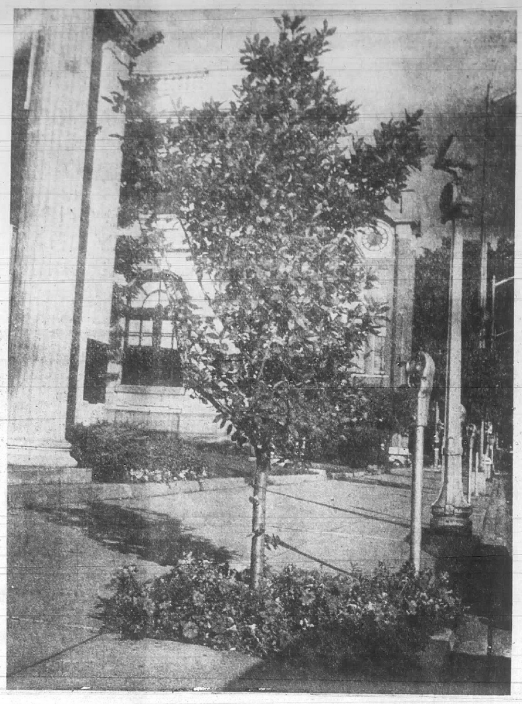
Fears expressed by present school systems are:

- ► Loss of community identity.
- ► Costs unknown.
- ► Community differences.
- ► Fewer opportunities for leadership in larger schools.
- ► Transportation problems.
- ► Failure to accept necessity of quality education in changing world.

Advantages of the larger system would be:

- ► Equalized financial structure.
- ► Increased administrative efficiency.
- ► More efficient transportation for all students.
- ► Better utilization of existing facilities.
- ► Ability grouping and more individualized attention for students.
- ► Superior teachers, who would instruct only in their major fields of preparation.
- ► More even distribution of administrative supervisory personnel with greater attention to curriculum for all children.

A meeting of the K-12 reorganization committee, all school superintendents and all school board members will be held Thursday, Sept. 8 at 8 p.m. at the Lenawee School Services building on Sutton Rd., across from Stauffer Chemical's laboratories.



Editorial in Picture

Visitors in Grand Haven are struck by the charm of Washington Blvd. in the business section. Carefully planted rows of trees are what give the section an unusual warmth. Squares of concrete have been removed from the sidewalk for the small trees. The operation appears to have caused a minimum of work and expense, but paying huge dividends in beauty. A similar plan might be considered for Tecumseh's downtown.

News from the Tecumseh Library

New books waiting for you to borrow at your Public Library.

ADVENTURES FOR GOD by Clarence Hall. Thirteen inspiring stories of modern missionary heroism in remote and exotic corners of the world.

THE NEW TESTAMENT, its background, growth and content, by Bruce Metzger. With clarity and freshness the author presents for the beginning student the results of modern scholarship in New Testament study.

THE ETERNAL NOW by Paul Tillich. This is a new collection of sermons by one of the foremost theologians of our time, one who is without peer as a precise observer and analyst of the contemporary situation. Dr. Tillich's ability to make men aware of their predicament and to express the Christian answer in language that does not offend by its strangeness explains his extraordinary hold on the reader.

ZWINGLI, THIRD MAN OF THE REFORMATION by Jean Rilliet. This is not the drama of any stained-glass window saint. Beginning in 1484 on a prosperous farm at Wildhaus, it charts an absorbing metamorphosis from eager student to lofty idealist of the Renaissance.

IN THIS FREE LAND, a case for responsible conservatism, by Charles Crowe. "The most important problem of our time is not peace but freedom." These are the words upon which Dr. Crowe bases this book in which he examines many of today's vital issues.

THE QUAKER READER by Jessamyn West. Beginning with the writings of George Fox and his friend and follower William Penn, this anthology, through selections from diaries, journals, and essays, traces the origins and spread of Quakerism, the increasing wealth and influence of the Quaker communities on both sides of the Atlantic, their battle against slavery, and their world-wide achievements in the service of humanity.

THE FOUR LOVES by C. S. Lewis. Love has not one, but many faces. The author in this candid, wise and warmly personal book describes the four basic kinds of human love: Affection, friendship, erotic love, and the love of God.

Through My Window

THE SAGA OF CASSIUS CLAY

One day we received a call that there were baby black squirrels out in the woods. The mother black was letting them show off in the big tree by the drive, and, like young squirrels anywhere, they were romping and playing, having just a wonderful time.

But as we said last week, these black squirrels did not seem overly friendly, they did not seem to enjoy human neighbors.

After only a few outings, Mrs. Cassius Clay took the youngsters back into the woods away from people. Occasionally one ventures out but they are not putting on the show we all expected.

According to one of our animal books, male squirrels will sometimes move into a new area when the youngsters are about to be born. Theoretically, though, it is not a permanent arrangement. Cassius apparently read the wrong books.

He moved out long before the children's arrival and, for goodness sakes, he did much more than vacate the immediate home territory. From a woods east of of town to a walnut tree on W. Pottawatamie is a goodly distance. And furthermore, he shows absolutely no inclination to return home. He is a family deserter — no doubt about it.

There are other facets of his behavior which are not too admirable also. He is a pugnacious character, always looking for trouble. Clara reports that he fights other squirrels and even challenges her cat.

This brings up a question about the advisability of bringing newcomers into a neighborhood. I understand that in some instances where black squirrels were introduced and caught on, they drove the native squirrels away. Now, of course, as cute as the blacks are, we would certainly not want them to the exclusion of all others.

Another question comes to mind. Are these black squirrels a different species than our old standbys or is the difference merely a color phase or strain?

And, one more thing. Many animals and birds are extremely intolerant of anyone different. (I need not restrict this to birds and animals either). But anyway — one example of this rejection of that which is not the same occured several years ago.

Squirrels were involved here too. We had heard that Catherine Carey was playing hostess, and most willingly, too, I might add, to a family of white-tailed squirrels. They were just like any other squirrel in town except that their tails were big, full, snowy white plumes.

We were intrigued. Wouldn't it be great if one of these fellows wandered our way. This was the type of thought which, for weeks, made us more conscientious squirrel watchers than ever.

Finally, it happened. A squirrel with a glorious white tail did appear in the yard. In fact, he spent several days in the neighborhood.

They must have been uneasy days though because the other squirrels would simply not accept him. The chases were fierce.

Unfriendly is far from an adequate description. The regular band of squirrels was unrelenting, they did not ease up for even a moment and finally Mr. White-tail left. At least we saw him no more.

Why would squirrels chase a white-tailed one away, and, on the other hand be chased away themselves by black ones? Or will they be? 'Twill be fun to watch and see what happens.

So it is that until further developments, we end "The Saga of Cassius Clay."

READERS WRITE

TO THE EDITORS:

As a community leader concerned with current problems, you will be interested to know about a one-hour documentary film on highway safety to be presented over 142 television stations early in September.

In this area the program will be shown on Channel 2 at 10 p.m.

The documentary, "Destination Safety," is being presented as a public service to provide a searching look at the subject of highway safety. It is an absorbing, in-depth study of the complexities of the problem and the factors that enter into the safety equation — the car, the highway and the driver.

The film is packed with dramatic action, including many sequences illustrating various types of accidents, the drinking driver, the aged driver and other real-life situations.

I am sure you will agree that one of the most important steps in improving highway safety is to create greater public awareness and understanding of the problem. We feel that "Destination Safety" will help to accomplish this purpose, and are striving to attract the largest possible viewing audience.

We hope you will be in the auidence on Friday evening and would very much appreciate your passing the word along to others.

Sincerely yours,
D. E. Conklin, Chairman
Tecumseh Plant Manager
Fisher Body Division

Long and Short

By TOM RIORDAN

Just call me Tex.

There just can't be enough nice things to say about the Texas Weekend Cherie and I had.

And do those Texans love their Lonestar. This includes many transplants from our section of the country. Midwest winters are only a memory to them now and they're wild about Texas weather.

We sped to the Hill Country—northwest of San Antonio 65 miles — via American Airlines, Braniff International and Hertz. (Now I know why they rate No. 1. With such service, how could Hertz be less.)

Every connection was met and we even had a greeting party and travel companion from Chicago to Houston on Braniff. Bob Hanna of the Tecumseh Products sales department gave us a cheery welcome at the Windy City's O'Hare Airport and we boarded Braniff's spiffy green jet together.

Bob deplaned in Houston for a refrigeration show and then was going to Oklahoma City for another.

Incidentally, I gave a few Texas-style brags about our town and its fame as Refrigeration Capital of the World.

"Why if we went into the Inn's kitchen right now, and turned around the deep freeze and refrigerator, I bet we'd find Tecumseh compressors in them," I told the friendly Texas newspaper folks.

Later that night a bunch of us were happily sipping and exchanging stories when one Texan grinned, "Hey, let's go and pull out those refrigerators and see if they have Tecumseh compressors!"

We never did — but it probably would have been just my luck to discover the Inn of the Hills had all Frigidaire equipment.

The Hill Country has always been sort of a secret and non-Texans, who finally stumble onto it, have accused Lonestar Staters of not telling anyone else about the area so they'd have it all to themselves.

THIS IS mainly ranch land, with hardly any crops grown. Hard and stoney, it's perfect for raising cattle and sheep. The trees are short and stubby, lots of bushes and cactus. Grass is scattered about, sometimes lush, but mostly sparse.

Once up in the Hills, a visitor suddenly sees definite terrain resemblence to northern Michigan and New Hampshire. At high points, visibility of 20 miles to range lines is common.

Breathtaking best describes the ride through the twisting, turning country.

President Johnson's LBJ ranch is in the area (we got about 35 miles from it, but were headed for another spread.) Famous names of Hill Texans include Eddie Rickenbacher and Admiral Chester W. Nimitz.

Most of the communities were founded in the middle 1800's by settlers from Germany's Rhineland. Pleasant summers melt into gentle winters, with few days of freezing temperatures.

Late fall brings a glitter of colors — copper, red and gold against a background of green mesquite Elevation reaches 2,400.

Brahman bulls from India thrive, as do goats, whose fleece give the Hills a claim to being Mohair Capital of the World.

Along the north and south forks of the Guadalupe River, summer camps for boys and girls abound. We had dinner at Camp Rio Vista, nestled in a range and loaded with top-flight facilities, even a small golf course.

We rode there with Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hyde of The Arlington Citizen-Journal and I was glad that Jerry, a one-time Texas Christian football lineman, had the wheel.

THERE HAD been an abnormal amount of rain and to cross the Guadalupe, we had to drive over, not a bridge, but a narrow spillway — which was completely under a torrent of moving water and we didn't know how deep.

Jerry positioned his Ford at what he hoped was the center of the concrete and gunned us across. The girls weren't the only ones to gulp, Jerry and I did our share.

A Texas Weekend could never be covered in one installment, so next week there'll be another episode, telling about the absolutely fabulous YO Ranch, which covers 100,000 acres.

Bloody Crisis Has Arisen

A crisis has arisen.

Tecumseh, as part of the Lenawee Blood Program, has been placed on probation.

If the county does not increase blood collections, it may be dropped from the Red Cross Blood program.

Only 66% of the annual quota has been collected this year.

If at least 80% is not taken in, the Lenawee Chapter of the Red Cross will be have to appear at th October meeting of the Regional Blood Committee to show cause why Lenawee should not be dropped.

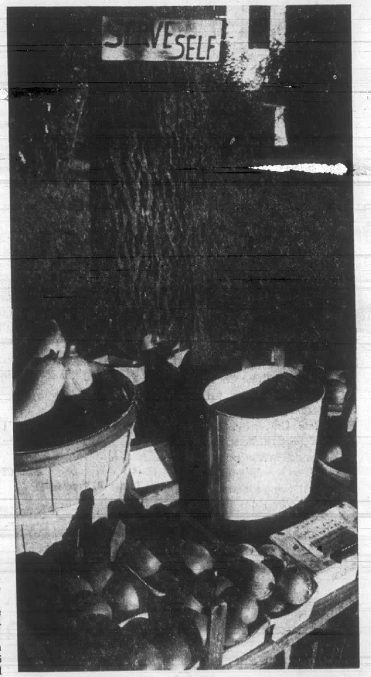
The Tecumseh, Clinton and Britton second 1966 Bloodmobile will be in Tecumseh Sept. 20 at the Community Center from noon until 6 p.m.

It has been three months since the last visit and all donors at that time will be contacted to return.

Co-chairmen for the September drive are Dr. Robert Murray of Tecumseh and Lester Proctor of Clinton. Mrs. M. D. Boss is chairman of the volunteer workers.

New and previous donors are urgently needed for next Tuesday's Bloodmobile, said Dr. Murray.

Donors may call 423-2136 for a convenient time reservation.



TRUSTING PEOPLE — The John W. Smiths are honest folks and they figure so is everyone else. Their unattended produce stand proves this with customers happening along, invited to "make your own change."

Campaign for Funds Is Nearing

EDITOR NOTE—In an effort to give donors a better idea of how their money is spent, the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation has assembled a series of articles outlining the various charitable and character-building organizations that have been accepted as members of the Fund and explaining what each of them does with its allotment.

By CAROL HOWELL

It's that time again.

Each October, since 1959, the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation has kicked off its annual drive for contributions.

All who live or work in the Tecumseh area are requested to "Give Once For All", either through a payroll - deductiin plan or to the neighborhood volunteers who canvass from door to door.

The united community appeal is handled at the local level for economy. Fund-raising costs are much lower than professional money-raising organizations.

Each group applying for a portion of the Fund must submit a standardized accounting of its expenditures, and these records are available to the public.

The board of Trustees of the Foundation, a representative group of nine area citizens, reviews all requests and arrives at a total budget, setting the goal to be raised through its campaign.

When contributions exceed the goal, the overage is used for the development of local projects with the general improvement of Tecumseh in mind.

It was these overages that citizens provided the Tecumseh Public Library at a cost of $212,363.15, financed and paid off in four years.

Last year, the Foundation's $45,203 goal was reached, and the additional $8,072 collected was earmarked for the development of the 22-acre "Pit" property into a community park.

This year's surplus will be directed toward the same goal.

In the weeks to come the workings of the following members of the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation will be detailed for the Herald readers: City of Tecumseh, Michigan United Fund, Irish Hills Council -Girls Scouts, American Red Cross, Wolverine Council - Boy Scouts, Catholic Social Services, Family Counseling Services, Huron Valley Child Guidance Clinic, Salvation Army, Tecumseh Service Club, Lenawee Humane Society and Tecumseh Scout Cabin Association.

It's the End of 25 Steers

Twenty-five steers furnish the meat for the 13th annual St. Elizabeth Roast Beef Dinner Sunday, Sept. 18.

Take-out meals may be ordered by calling 423-2447.

Six giant poles, 80' and 90' in size, were installed this week at Recreation Field, giving Tecumseh's football gridiron the finest illumination in Lenawee County. Sunk between 10' and 12', the poles are western red cedars from British Columbia. This Friday, the new lights will make their debut as THS entertains Willow Run.

7,000 Eligible To Cast Ballots on Merger Plan

Nearly 7,000 persons are eligible to vote on the proposed merger of Britton - Macon, Clinton and Tecumseh schools.

Ballots will be cast in each district on Sept. 27 from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. at:

►Britton—at the village fire hall

►Clinton— at the village library

►Tecumseh — at the high school cafeteria.

Britton - Macon school has 836 registered voters. Clinton 1,730 and Tecumseh 4,250.

If the merger is okeed all three districts would combine—with single school board and administrative head handling business at one office.

The Northeast District is one of three K-12 reorganization proposals being considered in Lenawee County, all to be voted upon the same day. If all pass, the present 12 districts in Lenawee will become four.

In the Northeast merger, 3,300 students from Tecumseh would combine with 1,100 of Clinton and 600 in Britton - Macon.

Milton Porter, Lenawee County school superintndent, said the proposed district would cover approximately 288 - square -miles, a total of about eight townships. Tecumseh now covers 126 - square - miles, Clinton 90 and Brittton - Macon 72.

Absentee Ballots Available

Absentee ballots for the coming Lenawee County School Reorganization vote can be obtained until Sept. 23 at 2 p.m.

Applications must be made at the Intermediate School District office in the Court House at Adrian, by writing or phoning 265-2119.

Persons voting absentee must have their ballot in the hands of officials by 8 p.m. of Sept. 27, the day of the vote on the reorganization plan.

The Tecumseh Chapter is planning a reception for Mrs. Reuttinger, who is the worthy matron, later this fall.

Mark Blatchford Completes Basics at Training Center

Seaman Recruit Mark D. Blatchford, 18, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Blatchford of 9955 Matthews Highway, has graduated after nine weeks of Navy basic training at the Naval Training Center here.

In the first weeks of his naval service he studied military subjects and lived and worked under conditions similar to those he will encounter on his first ship or at first shore station.

In making the transition from civilian life to Naval service, he received instruction under veteran Navy petty officers. He studied seamanship as well as survival techniques, military drill and other basic subjects.

Heart Traits Hereditary

By CAROL HOWELL

"The day is not far away when physicians can determine a profile, or pattern, of abnormality in an individual to show what the risk will be of his developing heart disease," Dr. Leon D. Ostrander Jr., told members of Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary at their Tuesday night meeting.

And, according to Dr. Ostrander, the significance of the family group in coronary disease, the pattern as it applies to children and other relatives of those afflicted, has been recognized only recently and primarily as a result of epidemiological studies such as the Tecumseh Health Survey.

The Tecumseh study has been responsible for at least one vital conclusion in the current study of heart disease — the discovery of a significant relationship between a high blood sugar level and the development of cardiac difficulties, he said in the question-and-answer period that followed his address.

Robert Clay Baker is the man of the week. He was born 100 years ago Sept. 14. Sunday more than 70 members of his family gathered for a celebration and picnic in Detroit.

The centenarian was born in Kentucky and resided there until coming to Tecumseh five years ago to live with his daughter, Mrs. Henry Herman, at the corner of Ridge and Macon Roads.

He received greetings from President Johnson and Governor George Romney as well as a personal letter from the governor.

Mr. Baker has nine living children, 30 grandchildren, 55 great-grandchildren and 19 great-great-grandchildren. His wife's death three years ago was the first in the family in 50 years.

James Willie Baker of 5762 Rogers Hwy., is a son of the elderly gentleman. Mrs. Herman and her husband have decided to move back to Detroit and her father will go with them.

Mrs. George Schumm has a great-grandson. The nine-pound boy was born early Wednesday morning in Saline Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Doenges (nee Joanne Wing) who was her grandmother's first grandchild. The maternal grandmother is Mrs. Betty Wing — a first for her, too.

Improper Backing Causes Mishap

Only three accidents were checked by the Tecumseh police department during the past week, with just one motorist being cited.

John Winsler, Sr., Russell Rd., upset a wagon load of corn on E. Chicago Blvd., Monday when he ran into the ditch to avoid hitting another car.

He was pulling the wagin with a pickup when the wagon started swaying, making it difficult for him to control the truck. No charge was made.

An unidentified driver scraped the front right door of a car owned by Marilyn Ries, 43, Britton. The accident occurred in the A & P parking lot.

Vocational Education Needed for County

Mrs. Everett Baker of Weston spoke to 25 ladies attending the Monday Club fall tea at the home of Mrs. Clarence Beach Sept. 12.

Mrs. Baker spoke on vocational education stressing the need of such a school for young people in Lenawee County unable to attend college because of financial need or dropping out of high school.

She told of vocational schools where, under supervision, houses are being built by the students, giving one in Ohio as an example.

Methods for maintaining such a school have not been defined in Lenawee, the speaker noted. She said that there are 36 vocational schools in Michigan.

Mrs. Walter Prill, vice-president, introduced the speaker and conducted the business session in the absence of Mrs. Joe Rice.

She read an invitation from the Adrian Women's Club for the fall luncheon at the Methodist Church in Adrian Oct. 4, at 1 p.m.

A punch hour at 12:30 will precede the luncheon. Mrs. George Romney will be the speaker and reservations may be made with Mrs. Truman Rentschler until Sept. 30. Tickets are $2.

The annual fall luncheon of the Monday Club will be held at the First Baptist Church Oct. 3 at 1 p.m., with the past presidents presenting the program.

An executive board meeting will be held Sept. 19 at the home of Mrs. Truman Rentschler.

Local Colleges Helping Students Through Loans

Many students who return to school this fall will be completing their education with the help of a National Defense Student Loan.

Under the provisions of this Act, colleges and universities in our District will have available over two million dollars in loan funds this year, reports Congressman Wes Vivian.

Local colleges and universities participate in the National Defense Student Loan Program by signing a Terms of Agreement that sets certain stipulations for participation in the program and offers guidelines for the selection of students to receive the awards.

The institutions must also, from their own resources, provide funds equal to at least one-ninth of the allocation given them by the government.

To be eligible, an individual must be an accepted student in an undergraduate, graduate or professional program. In addition, he or she must be a United States citizen or give evidence of intent to apply for citizenship.

Students are selected for the loans according to both academic ability and need.

Except in unusual circumstances, the final selection of applicants is left up to the individual colleges and universities.

"BULLY FOR THE BLUEJAYS"

The trouble we discussed several months ago is still present. Cats. Cats of all sizes, shapes and colors. They slink along the creek bank; they sit beneath the bird feeders patiently waiting; they sneak under the shrubbery. Some times we find that instead of bird watching, we are cat-watching.

A well-aimed stream of water from the hose sends them on their way quickly but a clapping of hands and chasing after is not too effective. The fool cats don't realize they are being asked to leave. They think it is an invitation to play.

The birds, those lucky enough to escape the prowling cats, have their own method of handling the situation. They vacate the affected area; this is why we find ourselves looking at empty feeding stations so often these days.

And with a cat lurking menacingly underneath, it is surprising how long a well-stocked feeder will be left untouched.

Thank goodness!

The birds have developed a marvelous cat alarm system. Whenever one sneaks into the yard, the alert sounds — and what an alert it is, too. The blue jays start screaming and oh, what a beautiful loud noise it is. They sound off and everyone flies for cover.

Bluejays have the reputation of being boisterous but it seems to us that they save their loudest and shrillest screams for the cat. They holler at each other and do a wonderful job of telling us off when their breakfast does not appear on time, but, when sounding the cat alarm, there is a special coarseness in their voice.

The urgency is so unmistakable that even we are alerted to the danger.

When possible, Mom, Dad or Elizabeth rushes to the rescue, but, of course, the cries for help cannot always be answered. These are the times I am extra glad that the other birds heed the bluejay's warnings.

While on the subject of bluejays and their voices, this might be a good time to talk about them a bit further. These characters must really have quite excellent vocal equipment. They may not mimic as the mockingbirds and catbirds do but they certainly have a great variety of sounds.

There is one that we particularly enjoy. The action which accompanies it always makes us chuckle. Sound-wise it is rather unbluejayish. It is a clear, almost flute-like sound that is sort of gurgled out. Clear and gurgled do not seem to go together, but it is the best description that I can come up with. When ringing out this song (?) the bird works amazingly hard. He pumps it out.

Up and down the bird bounces. It is a marvelous performance. Crouching down, as if to collect himself, the jay then stretches up, utters his little sound and drops back down. It is a rapid action, though, he jumps up and down quite fast — it is not the stomping up and down of a temper tantrum, but, as we said before, to make this noise, he pumps.

So it is that we laugh at one bluejay sound and for another, the cat alarm, we breathe a thankful little sigh and say, "Bully for the Bluejay"!

The twin sister of the bride, Frances Summers, was maid of honor and William Harshey of Potterville served as best man.

The guests were seated by Randy Ackerson and Master Ross Fisher, youngest brother of the groom.

The maid of honor wore a yellow organza waltz length dress and carried a fan shaped floral arrangement.

WR To Start 9 Lettermen

Willow Run's veteran football team will be out to make it two in a row here Friday night when nine lettermen will start in the lineup.

The Flyers' line will average 183 pounds — including a 141-pound guard — and the backfield will tip the scales at an average of 169.

Coach Bruce Devlin is claiming the '66 squad one of the best in the school's history.

NROTC for THS'ers

Applications for the Navy's 21st annual Regular NROTC qualification test are now available at the Tecumseh High School. The nationwide examination will be given Dec. 10 and all eligible male high school seniors and graduates may apply, reports John Pobuda, school counselor.

On the basis of this test, personal interviews and medical examinations, over 1,700 young men will enter the Regular NROTC Program as midshipmen at NROTC units in 52 colleges and universities through the nation.

Male citizens of the United States who will be at least 17 but not yet 21 on June 30, 1967, and who are now high school seniors or graduates, may be eligible to apply for the test.

A successful candidate receives financial aid for four years of college. This includes tuition and education fees, books, uniforms, and $50 per month subsistence allowance.

After successfully completing baccalaureate degree requirements and naval training, graduates are commissioned as officers in the U. S. Navy or Marine Corps.

Registrations for the test will close Nov. 18. 1967 NROTC Bulletins containing eligibility requirements and qualifying test applications are available from Mr. Pobuda or the U. S. Navy Recruiting Station at Federal Building, Detroit.

CRAIG REED HOLDS REIN OF FIREFLY'S BELLE AMIE, CLINTON FILLY WHICH TOOK FIRST PLACE AT STATE FAIR

Senator Bursley's LANSING REPORT

I have sometimes described a legislator's job as ⅓ acting on legislation, ⅓ handling personal problems of constituents and ⅓ public appearances and civic service in various forms. Another dimension lies in interim and special committee work which can be full time for considerable periods.

Still another dimension presently is the political campaign which takes the time of incumbent as well as challenger.

Let me discuss some interesting activities in which I participated last week.

MICHIGAN CHERRIES beans and mushrooms were shipped by Pan-American Clipper Wednesday evening to be exhibited and sold at the International Food Fair in Munich, Germany.

As Chairman of the Senate's International Commerce Committee, I had been active in promoting overseas marketing opportunities for Michigan agricultural products. Thus I was invited to join in the airport ceremonies along with the National Cherry Queen, Miss Bean Queen of Michigan, Dale Ball, director of Agriculture and Mike Conboy, director of Economic Expansion.

Our common goal is to publicize and promote the sale of Michigan products in the European Market. How many of you realize that ¾ of the beans consumed in the British Isles were grown in Michigan's "thumb district"?

I have prepared and published an 80 page illustrated report on Michigan opportunities in the European Market and would be happy to mail it to anyone writing me.

THURSDAY the new Trade Center building in downtown Detroit celebrated a "topping off" ceremony when the roof of the small skyscraper was put in place. I was asked to fly in by helicopter — land on the parking lot next to the Trade Center — and formally present a Michigan Legislature resolution participating September as Trade Center month and commending the Detroit Trade Center which is an excellent example of private enterprise and private capital moving into a field where it can make a great contribution to the general economy of the state.

Already the Swedish and Japanese trade commissions have cantracted for permanent office space within this building. Within a year th promoters hope to have an identical second building constructed.

Located in the downtown area of Detroit, which is being largely rebuilt, the Detroit Trade Center will materially contribute to the stimulation of domestic and international commerce in this area.

WEDNESDAY night there was a Michigan Municipal League reception at Cobo Hall to which a few of us in the Legislature were invited. This type of occasion serves as an excellent opportunity to visit with municipal officials on their problems and to hear their recommendations for state action.

Four nights during the week the Saline Fair was a real feature and drawing card for all southeastern Michigan. I like to attend such functions because inevitable I receive many suggestions — and gripes — from farmers and city dwellers who take advantage of the Fair as an opportunity to visit with their State senators.

To an elected official it is very rewarding to be able to share in promoting the general welfare, to be of service to others an dto feel that you are making some sort of contribution. I would be happy to visit with anyone interested in participating more actively in public life.

Local Filly Beats Colts in Futurity

An American Saddle Bred weanling filly, Firefly's Belle Amie, owned by Ralph Reed of Red Rock Farm, North Adrian Hwy., won the Michigan Futurity award over 19 outstanding colts for the American Saddle Breeders of Michigan.

Earlier in the week at the Indiana State Fair in Indianapolis, the 3-month-old filly placed third in the Indiana Futurity and also placed third in the Indiana Open Stake for weanlings.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed also own the mare, Lady of Mystery. The sire, Hide-a-way's Firefly Supreme, is owned by James Aikman of Acton, Ind. This stud has sired the winners of the Wisconsin, Ohio, Indiana Futurities and the Reserve and third place winners of the Kentucky Futurity in 1956.

Rural Loans Are Helping Poor People

Rural families in Michigan are finding the means to start working their way up from the poverty income level.

Nyle L. Katz, Farmers Home Administration State Director, recently reported on the progress of a lending program administered by the USDA Farmers Home Administration for the Office of Economic Opportunity. One hundred and twenty-seven loans totaling $200,210 were made to rural families to provide tools, supplies and working space needed to earn a better living.

Loans average $1840 a family, with a maximum of $2,500 in effect. Before the loan, some families were living on $1,500 a year.

The most common handicap has been lack of money to equip themselves for the more profitable work they might do if they had the tools, said Mr. Katz.

"Economic Opportunity loans help them overcome this obstacle and the plan is working. They are working their way forward and are paying back their loans."

Among Mrs. Johnson's fabulous collection are these historical tokens—Tecumseh $1 paper note and the amusing Way of Ass train token

Hold Onto That Wooden Nickel

By MAXINE CALHOUN

CLINTON — Mrs. William R. Johnson has found a lot of wooden nickels such as the one issued in Clinton during the 125th anniversary celebration in 1963 and dozens of other kinds of tokens that have engrossed her in a fascinating hobby.

She lives with her husband and nine-year-old daughter, Mary, at 1483 Hogan Rd., northwest of Clinton. Mr. Johnson is an engineer at the Tecumseh Products.

Mrs. Johnson began stamp collecting as a child, then switched to coin collecting 22 years ago and began collecting tokens nine years ago.

She has collected some 20,000 of these coins and tokens.

The difference between collecting coins and tokens is that the coin collector can usually buy what he wants, if he has the price, but the token collector often must be a detective to search out the tokens, Mrs. Johnson explained. There are few published catalogs of tokens.

So vast is the quantity and the value of her collection that she keeps most of it stored in the bank. Her most valuable token is listed in a catalog at $135, but most are from 10c to $50.

"Everyone has some tokens tucked away somwhere," Mrs. Johnson said.

Sure enough, I did, too! When I returned home I found among some of my childhood treasures a "Lucky Lindy" piece and some Ford Motor Company 30th anniversary tokens of 1933.

The use of tokens may have begun with the ancient Romans. They were used in Europe as "counters" and in the early Presbyterian Church as "prayer tokens".

The more than tokens of 1837 are among the earliest known in America and they have been used as coin substitutes through the years in times of coin shortages. Around 1900 most stores gave them in change.

Tokens which were issued by the early suttlers who supplied the army are now scarce. Suttlers were replaced by Post Exchanges around 1890 which have continued to the present canteens and they still issue tokens, such as those at Clinton Sherman Air Force Base, Burns Flat, Okla.

The quantity and variety of tokens issued at the Columbian Exposition in Chicago in 1893 were so great that one collector has an outstanding collection of just those alone.

There were tokens used when a quantity of cordwood was delivered to the railroad and some have been dug up beside the tracks in Manchester.

Shingle Tokens were issued in the 1800's when Muskegon, Mich., was the "Lumber Queen" of the world. A Shingle Token was given for each 1,000 shingles bundled. They were valued at seven cents.

A skilled workman could pack 50,000 shingles per day. It is said that workmen often threw the tokens at the large flocks of pigeons which were in the habit of flocking near the mills. It is now believed that many of them may be lying in the silt at the bottom of the lake.

Now, shingle tokens are extremely rare. Mrs. Johnson knows of only four. One specimen belongs to Lewis Torrent, son of the owner and the other three are specimens of the Muskegon Shingle and Lumber Co., and are said to be identical.

Some of the present day tokens are as functional as those used in parking gates and coin-operated machines.

It is no longer legal to issue them as specie. They may be struck for one's own business, but they may not be in the exact size as a coin.

The Tecumseh Bank paper $1 note, purchased by Mrs. Johnson from a collector in Pennsylvania, was issued around 1837 when lax banking laws permitted banks to print their own money. The paper notes were supposed to be backed by gold in the bank but they later became known as "broken bank notes" when too many were printed with no gold to honor them.

Mrs. Johnson says she has learned much more about history and geography from her collection than she ever had learned in school.

The family is from Muskegon. Mrs. Johnson majored in English and psychology in Muskegon Community College.

Some journalism courses which she studied there have come in handy since she has recently compiled the first list of Michigan tokens for a collectors' publication. She writes 200 letters a week in quest of certain tokens.

In her travels about the country in pursuit of her hobby, she meets many interesting people. Recently while attending the Numismatic Convention in Chicago, where more than $200,000 in coins and tokens were displayed by collectors, she sold a rare token to a Canadian millionaire. She later discovered that he has one of the world's most valued token collections.

Mrs. Johnson is anxious to learn if anyone in Tecumseh has a token from an early livery concern. Salesmen often carried them in their sample cases. She said, "I'll pay $10 apiece for them!"

Collectors are increasing and the supply of tokens, even of current issue, are not always large enough to supply their needs, so the price goes up.

A recent example is the parking gate token from a southern city where the city refuses to supply tokens to collectors. Collectors have offered $10 for one of the parking tokens — and Mrs. Johnson was able to obtain one, she didn't have the heart to charge more than $5 for it when she sold it.

Mrs. Johnson has almost total recall and can remember the description and size in millimeters of almost every token or coin she has ever seen.

One of the most humorous tokens Mrs. Johnson has, was issued at Dayton, Ohio, by a company which was known by the names of "Asylum Way," "Hill Top Route" and "Way of the Ass."

Passengers had to change cars at the car sheds if they wished to continue their journey to the sparsely-settled hilltop where they were given a token — "The Way of the Ass."

The cars held 16 thin people and the mules were used to pull the cars up the steep hill.

Gravity and faith were used coming down and during the descent the mules rode with the cars. A platform was pulled out from underneath the rear of the car and the mules climbed aboard.

Legend has it that on the back of the token is inscribed, "Going Down! One fare for all asses."

Mrs. Johnson's husband collects Michigan and Great Lakes history, but books which are often helpful to Mrs. Johnson in her research.

Daughter, Mary, is already an avid collector of Indian dolls, Indian relics, badges, metal tokens and Canadian coins.

So, hunt through your bureau drawers and you may find a token gathering dust that Mrs. Johnson is looking for.

Coed Leads Busy Life

By MAXINE CALHOUN

CLINTON — Alberta Rasmussen jetted into Metro Airport Saturday then breezed through the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rasmussen of 13603 E. Michigan Ave., where she hastily packed some college clothes and whirled off to the University of Wisconsin, Madison ,Wis., Tuesday.

The 21-year-old senior, who was valedictorian at Clinton High School in 1963, spent the summer working in Germany.

Early in June, Alberta jetted from Boston to London, then took a leisurely 19-hour boat trip to Denmark. On board was the King of Denmark and a Danish high school boys' choir.

Alberta was invited to visit one of the young choir member's home in Copenhagen. She also visited the Neilsen family in Odense, Denmark, where her sister, Joanne, lived in 1962 as an exchange student.

A feature story in the "Ahrensburger Zeitung" on Aug. 20 described the young visitor who was working in Ahrensburg, a town of 5,000 population. She was employed in a "Bahnhofs-Gastattee", a train-station restaurant, as kitchen help.

Alberta's mother said she wrote home of scrubbing mountains of pots and pans — and carrots.

The German newspaper praised the student teacher for being "so hard-working, and her manners are good, always there to help someone, that everyone loves her."

Her employers, the Johannes Dahlheims, took Miss Rasmussen on many tours and a boat ride. The Dahlheims hire people from different countries and they were quoted as saying they "don't believe that they will ever find another pearl like the American girl, Alberta."

Before leaving for home, Alberta toured Germany and Denmark for a week.

Alberta is majoring in math and physical education.

FFA Has Annual Tractor Field Day in the Village Park

BRITTON—The Britton Chapter FFA will hold its annual Tractor Field Day on Saturday at 9 a.m., in the Britton Village Park.

There will be a speed pull contest in the morning, a chicken Bar-B-Cue at noon and a plowing contest in the afternoon.

A total of $160 in prize money will be awarded.

Contestants for the pulling contest should weigh their tractors in at Walpers Elevator by 9 a.m. Saturday.

Final Wheat and Feed Grain Payments Made

Michigan Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service county offices are processing final 1966 wheat and feed grain payments.

Payments in excess of $42 million have been made to date to farmers participating in the 1966 programs.

The 80,000 farmers diverting acreage from wheat and feed grains under government production adjustment programs will receive over $50 million.

Legislation now in effect provides for similar programs through 1969.

Flexibility in the law gives the Secretary of Agriculture authority to adjust program requirements based on available supplies of wheat and feed grains.

He has already made allowances for the current wheat supply by increasing 1967 wheat allotments. Announcement of 1967 feed grain bases is expected shortly.

Ladies Set Fair Date

BRITTON — Two public suppers coming up were the main topics discussed at the business meeting of the Women's Fellowship of the Britton Congregational Christian Church.

The ladies are planning a turkey supper for Sept. 15 starting at 5 p.m. The Annual Church Fair date was set for Oct. 20.

The Priscilla Circle hosted the group of 30 women who met in the Fellowship Center last Wednesday evening. Mrs. Willard Exelby presented the program and devotions and fellowship president Mrs. Lawrence Hoagland led the meeting.

The Circles will re-group in December for the next two years.

Mrs. Bert Moore, Mrs. Harold Rohrback and Mrs. Douglas Palmer were appointed as a nominating committee for Women's Fellowship officers. Election will be held at the December meeting.

Refreshments of gingerbread and coffee were served by the Priscilla Circle.

Mrs. Lillian Buttolph showed slides of her trip to Europe last summer with Mrs. Clay Croll.

Fairbanks Clan Gathers Together for Big Reunion

BRITTON — Sixty-five members of the Fairbanks family gathered at the Britton Village Park Sunday for the annual reunion. A cooperative dinner was served at one o'clock.

The group included five brothers and four sisters, all children of the late Eli and Grace Fairbanks: Myrlen Fairbanks of Lakeland, Fla.; Ellis Fairbanks, Charles Fairbanks, Elwood Fairbanks and Douglas Fairbanks, all of Britton; Mrs. Dorothy Mull of Toledo, Mrs. Marjorie Hilgeneck of Dundee, Mrs. Marie Arft of Tecumseh and Mrs. Phyllis McElroy of South Bend, Ind.

It was voted to keep the same officers for the coming year. The reunion will be held next year at the same place, on the Sunday following Labor Day.

Post Office Dedication

BRITTON — The new post office in Britton will be formally dedicated Saturday at 7 p.m., Postmaster Ronald Cheever announced today.

Regional Director, Donald L. Swanson of Chicago will give the dedication address. Congressman Weston E. Vivian will also speak. W. Stewart Niblack will be the Master of Ceremonies and the Britton High School Band will be on hand to play.

The public is invited to attend the ceremonies. Refreshments and open house will follow the program.

The new facility, located at 209 E. Chicago Blvd., is part of the Post Office Department's lease construction program.

Under this program, investment financing is used to obtain needed facilities which remain under private ownership, pay local taxes to this community and are leased to the Federal Government. The Britton building is leased by the Post Office Department from the builder and owner, Arnold Hassenpflug of Riga.

This gives the Department some flexibility in adapting its building program to changes in mail volume, transportation and population and, at the same time, the need for large outlays of money from the Federal Treasury for construction purposes is eliminated.

The new quarters were occupied last March 1. The building is of face brick construction, modern in every way, and double the space of the previous office building.

"Our patrons will derive more enjoyment from doing business here; their mail will be handled more efficiently and this building and its up-to-date equipment will enable our postal employees to work under the best of conditions," the postmaster commented.

"The new facility," he added, "will be a link with a postal system that today has over 45,000 postal installations. Mail business in this area has gone up. For example, 10 years ago revenue was $5,000 compared with $13,000 today."

When the local post office was established in 1881, its receipts ran only about $500 per year.

Former local postmasters and the dates they held offices are: Cas Zeluff, 1913-1922; A. W. Lee, 1922-1934; Ben J. Beasley, 1934-1954; and Ron Cheever is the current postmaster, since 1954.

Tories Have Big Turnout

By CHRISTINE FAIRBANKS

BRITTON — Paul Palka, new football coach at Britton-Macon High, has 29 young men in uniform — biggest turnout in a number of years.

There are seven seniors on the team, including Terry Godzina, All-River Raisin League guard from last year.

Tri-Captains Bruce Gillespie, Tom Korican and Terry Godzina are the mainstays of the interior line. Norm Auten has been converted from halfback to quarterback and will be the probable starter at this position.

The Tories open with Waldron Friday night on the Britton field.

"Prospects look good for a victory," stated Mr. Palka. "But I'll know more about the team after the first couple of games."

The team scrimmaged with Cement City last Friday night. Coach Palka believes the team is strong at center, and weaker at tackles, and he has an inexperienced backfield.

Mr. Palka, who is beginning his first year as a teacher and coach, played football as a guard at the University of Cincinnati.

He and his wife and two children are living in St. Anthony, near Temperance.

CLINTON — Mr. and Mrs. William Piper of California are planning to enter the Peace Corps. Mrs. Piper, nee Linda Witherell, is in Puerto Rico where she is finishing her training for Peace Corps Service. She expects to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn Witherell, later this month.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By RICK CURRIE

Ring, Rang, Rung, but whatever way you put it, a bell for the new academic year has sounded at Boysville High School.

New and Old students returned to the campus scene Sept. 5 and 6.

The total enrollment settled at 167, 87 graduating seniors, 32 juniors, 33 sophomores, 58 freshmen, and 21 eighth graders.

The School day will be filled with six fifty-five minute periods. This arrangement allows each subject to have its own study time within that period.

Each boy takes five academic subjects as well as Physical Education.

With the addition of Richard Chatters to the Boysville faculty, came also the addition of courses in Physics and Algebra II.

Another new face within the faculty is that of Brother Stephen Davis, C.S.C., who will be teaching English, History, and Science. He will be taking over the music department left by Brother Philip who is now teaching in Africa as a Holy Cross Missionary.

Campus Activities were quickly swung into action.

Both the Drum and Bugle and Glee Club were organized. Brother Stephen Davis has hopes of marching the Drum and Bugle at the football games.

Brother Aloysius has the Photo Lab in full operation with members already busy taking and developing their own pictures.

The famed varsity cheerleaders under Brother Thomas Friel are readying themselves for the football and basketball season, and are also helping Monroe C. C. organize boy cheerleaders.

Anybody for a pony ride? The Saddle Club is growing by leaps and bounds. In this favorite club Brother James Reize teaches the boys the rudiments of good horsemanship.

Fourthcoming are the elections of the class officers, a dance with St. Joseph Acedemy of Adrian, a weekend home, and of course the fine year we know we'll have at Boysville.

Who Is 'Real One?'

Debra Farquhar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Farquhar of Morenci, and Meryl Eaton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Eaton of Tecumseh, addressed the Family-Clergy Night supper program of the Lenawee County Farm Bureau last Tuesday.

Donna and Meryl, high school youths, were delegates of the county farm group at the Farm Bureau - sponsored Citizenship Seminar held at Camp Kett near Traverse City this summer. Michigan youth studied what it means to be an American.

Debra outlined the activities at the seminar and described the $25,000 dormitory which was a gift from the Michigan Farm Bureau women.

"Will the Real American Please Stand Up?" was the theme of Meryl's talk in which he pinpointed the many reasons for being proud to be an American.

He urged his listeners to stand up for the American system of free enterprise.

He compared in detail the many ways in which the American system of freedom for the individual is superior to Communism which subjects the individual to government control.

Meryl itemized the methods which communists are using to infiltrate this country to achieve communist goals, such as:

- ► Youthful demonstrations opposing the Vietnam war
- ► Employing delaying tactics in the disarmament talks while America holds up its atomic testing program
- ► Promotion of trade with Communist-controlled countries of strategic materials.

The PROGRAM was arranged by Mrs. Clarence Herford, Mrs. Wilson Sawyer, chairman of the Farm Bureau Women, introduced the visiting clergy, the Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Nofzinger of the Zion United Brethren Church, Blissfield; the Rev. and Mrs. Emmett Coons of the Methodist Church, Morenci; the Rev. and Mrs. Charles Schmelzer of St. John's Lutheran Church, Riga; Dr. and Mrs. Howard Emrick of Adrian College and the Rev. and Mrs. Keith Marrow of the Presbyterian Church, Holloway.

Flyers Bring Fleet Backs to Tecumseh

Indians Will Have Hands Full

By JIM LINCOLN

Tecumseh opens the '66 football season here Friday night against Willow Run, in what could be the toughest game for either school during the season.

Game time is 7:30 — under the new lights.

Coach Tom Fagan's team has hopes of upsetting the highly-touted Flyers, especially after an impressive showing by the Indians in scrimmages Friday against Ypsilanti, Austin of Detroit, and Jackson St. John.

The Indians were able to move the ball on offense, something they must do with consistency if they're to whip WR and keep the Flyers from controlling the ball and game.

Last year, Coach Duane Devlin of WR fielded a sophomore and junior team and laced Tecumseh 26 to 7. They figure on winning again with the finest talent and potential the school has ever boasted.

Whether Tecumseh is improved enough will depend largely on the offense.

Defensively, the Indians should be strong with veterans filling in on the line and at linebacking spots. There may be a weakness in the secondary, and one which WR may exploit with its passing game, reportedly a good one.

Both teams are about equal in size, but WR will, as usual, have backfield speed to burn. Last year, the Flyers turned Tecumseh's ends with regularity. If it happens again Friday night, the Indians are in for a long evening.

Coach Fagan has groomed a new offense, which scored several times in Friday's scrimmages — and without Roger Young, elusive halfback who was the sparkplug of the '65 squad.

Slightly hobbled with a bad ankle, Young was withheld from contact, as was Joe Vargo, a starting end. Both will be ready for WR.

Whether Indian fans see a victory Friday night or not, they'll have many opportunities to catch up as Tecumseh will be top heavy favorites to cop the Huron League crown this fall.

Workouts indicate the best team here since 1964, and before the season is over, may be better than the '64 champs.

Win or lose, THS followers will have one sure treat Friday —a chance to view football with the finest lighting system in Lenawee County.

THEY'LL LEAD INDIANS — Tri-Captains Henry Mensing, Dean Hebb and Roger Young will provide the fire of leadership Friday evening when Tecumseh faces Willow Run in the 1966 opener. All three are key offensive and defensive performers for Coach Tom Fagan. Their practice jerseys are examples of the mentor's psychological approach — Apaches Pride on Henry's shirt is the defensive password, while "Go Team Hustle" tells the offensive desire on Dean and Roger's.

Robert Tuttle Shows Film on Kenya

A film presentation, 'Each One Teach One,' was given to the members and guests of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church at the first meeting of the new year by Robert Tuttle.

The speaker, a participant in Dr. Frank Lauback's literacy program in Kenya, Africa, narrated the film which he supplemented with actual tape recordings of the teachings.

Mr. Tuttle explained that Dr. Laubach began his work in the Phillipines in the early '30's and it now has spread to 113 countries with a total of over 200 languages. Specially prepared language charts help the literacy program to be spread rapidly among the illiterate adults of many lands.

The film included some segments on Rome and its famous ruins as well as a visit to the Nairobi National Game Preserve.

Mrs. Carlton Cushing presented appropriate devotions. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Louis Perry, Mrs. Howard Kronberg and Mrs. Gerald Rendel. Mrs. George Green and Mrs. William Norris greeted the members and guests.

New License Law for Construction Has Been Passed

Builders, contractors and salesmen are required to be licensed under the Residential Builders and Residential Maintenance and Alteration Contractors License Law which went into effect Sept. 1.

Lenton G. Sculthorp, director of the Department of Licensing and Regulation, said, "Every effort has been made to inform the approximately 20,000 builders, contractors and salesmen of the requirements and areas under which the licensing law operates."

Persons working for wages only are not required to be licensed.

If the total contract price for labor, materials and other items is less than $200 the contractor is not required to be licensed. Nor are subcontractors who do not contract or undertake directly with the home owner.

Persons who are selling or installing any finished product or article of merchandise which does not become a fixed part of the structure nor to persons constructing, altering, improving or repairing personal property are not required to be licensed.

The law provides that applicants are technically licensed once they have filed applications with the proper fee unless notified of denial. The actual license form to be issued later is merely evidence of the license.

Mr. Schulthorp urged late applicants not to stop working because this would only seriously hurt the consumer which is not the law's intent.

Anyone desiring a set of rules and regulations which were adopted by the Board may obtain copies by writing to: Department of Licensing and Regulation, 110 Mason Building, Lansing, Michigan 48926

TWO HEAT TREAT FURNACES WILL OCCUPY ADDITION NEARING COMPLETION AT PEERLESS GEAR CLINTON DIVISION.

Add 10,000-Sq.-Ft.

CLINTON — A 10,000-sq.-ft. heat treat plant addition is scheduled to be completed in October at the Peerless Gear Clinton Division of Tecumseh Products, located on the southern village limits.

The original plant, comprising some 62,000 sq. ft., started production in the spring of 1964.

Eight automatic gears sought from the Peerless plant at Dunkirk, Ohio, in the spring of 1965 when the 12,000 sq. ft. addition was built on the south side of the main building. This permitted the number of automatics to be expanded to the present 15.

The latest addition will contain two atmospheric-type heat treat furnaces all on one floor. The plant will then heat treat crank shafts for Tecumseh Products and its own gears.

"The new operation will be entirely automated and will require very little increase in employment," said Ken Temple, plant manager.

The plant currently employs 350 persons including about 140 women.

Production consists of transmissions for garden tractors, riding mowers, right angle drive heads for mower blades, 3- and 4-speed engines. The model 600 which has a 3-speed transmission is the latest to be placed on the market.

A new product, the Peerless differential, will go into production next month.

The [illegible] addition, will encompass some 84,000 sq. ft.

"The future looks bright for further expansion in Clinton," predicted Mr. Temple.

Club Horse Show Open To Riders

The 19th Annual Lambertville Civic Club Horse Show will be Sept. 25 starting at 10 a.m., at Parmelee Field in Lambertville.

what is the definition of a private brand?

To some people, it is a retailer's own brand created with selling price first in importance and quality second.

To us at A&P, it's the opposite.
Quality comes first.
Value...the best for the least is the rule for our private brands.

If this wasn't true, how foolish we'd be to invest, as we have, literally millions of dollars in processing plants and testing laboratories.

If all we wanted were products we could sell cheaply without quality control, anybody could produce them for us.

The idea of quality private brands isn't new at A&P. As a matter of fact, it's one of our oldest policies—and by golly, we're proud of it.

Are A&P Private Brands a good reason for shopping A&P? They're one of many.

Redskins Are All 'New' Except for Team Spirit

Editor's note — Ivan McKenna, a Redskin senior, will be covering the football news from Clinton this season. Ivan can present a real inside view as he is a member of the varsity, returning to a backfield position. He is enrolled in the journalism class and is considering a journalism career. Clinton's football team has two new coaches, a new line, a new quarterback and a new opponent Friday night, but there is nothing new about their tremendous spirit and enthusiasm.

The Redskins, heading into their third year in Lakeland C play, have yet to lose a conference game. New head coach, Mike Snyder, lost some outstanding talent through graduation, but has some fine starters returning.

Foremost on the list is 6-4, 200 lb. back Butch Hoelzer, who should keep the Redskins in the heat of things. Joining Hoelzer in the backfield will be returning starters Gene Brown and Ivan McKenna.

Senior and letter winner, Doug Wight, will be doing the signal calling for the Redskins.

ON THE LINE, substituting speed for size, will be co-captain Dave Grinnell and senior Sam Sparks at the guard spots. Anchoring down the middle of the line and doing the centering will be junior, Bob Ehnis. Tackles John Sherman and Bob Feldkamp will be flanked by Jim Gray and Doug Brown at the ends.

Defensively the Redskins cannot be expected to come up to last year's standards, but the defense should do a respectable job. With a tough set of linebackers in Sparks, Grinnell and junior Jake Schwab, everything might be coming up Redskins.

Coach Snyder, succeeding Phil Bareis, graduated from Defiance College, Ohio. Prior to coming to Clinton for his first head coaching assignment he was varsity assistant at Quincy.

One of the major problems he may be facing this year is lack of depth. A couple injuries to key players could cloud up the otherwise optimistic outlook.

Friday night, the Redskins travel to Maple Stadium to meet the Fighting Irish of Adrian Catholic Central. It has been 12 years since these two teams have met.

The reunion should be a good one. In the two previous encounters, Clinton has come out on top both times.

WITH THE kick-off Friday night, the Redskins will be diving into a challenging nine game schedule. It was just two years ago that the same juniors and seniors on the team were all freshmen and sophomores.

At that time their junior varsity squad made it through an undefeated season. History has been known to repeat itself.

Loses Two Opponents

Even before the 1966 grid season is kicked off, Tecumseh already has problems for next year.

The Indians have been notified that neither Dundee nor Milan will be on the '67 schedule as originally planned. Both schools are joining a new loop.

The two cancellations leaves Tecumseh with open dates on the second and fourth Fridays of the 1967 season.

Athletic Director Don Brazee, who has taken over reins from Vic Lawson, says attempts are being made now to schedule other clubs.

Boysville Backs Come in Four Giant Sizes

By RICK CURRIE

Boysville's football team will see its first action Saturday night at 7:30 against St. Charles of Coldwater at Britton, where the Knights will play all home contests.

Besides St. Charles, these games will include Britton on Sept. 30, Summerfield Oct. 7, Whiteford Oct. 14, and Ida Oct. 28.

Boysville will travel to Deerfield Sept. 23, Sand Creek Oct. 21, and ends its grid season at Richmond Nov. 6 against St. Augustine.

Boysville has only one returning back, Don Chalmers, who will switch from his fullback position to play this year's right halfback.

The rest of the offensive backfield will be made up of last years linemen. At the other half will be last year's defensive end Mike O'Dea, at fullback, center Dave Rockwell, and calling the plays will be Dave's older brother Allen, who played end last year.

The backfield is huge, averaging almost 203 pounds, but as coach Pat Connors pointed out, "They are big, but they lack experience and speed."

On the Boysville line only two new faces will be seen, Max Phelps (6-2, 206 senior) at tackle and Elbert Neal (6-1, 170 sophomore) replacing Sam Kirkland (6-2, 170 senior) at right end because of a slight arm injury.

The rest of the Fighting Knights joining the line will be John Yankoski (5-8, 185 senior) at guard, Sam Arrage (5-8, 175 senior) at the other guard, Tom Berliez (6-5, 240 junior) at tackle, and centering the ball this year will be Ken Atkins (6-0, 170 junior).

The junior varsity is now starting practice under the coaching of Thomas Smith from Adrian College.

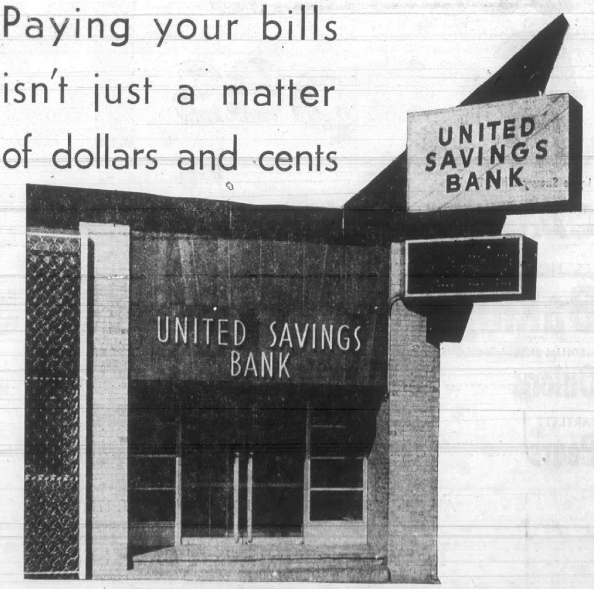
Paying your bills isn't just a matter of dollars and cents



Making purchases these days can become a pretty complicated bookkeeping affair, what with payments going to such a wide variety of places and people. Many of the items and services you get are tax deductible, so an accurate system of recording these payments is important. Probably the best solution to the whole situation is to pay by checks. Your checkbook stubs carry all the pertinent record data and your cancelled checks serve as proof of payment. Sometimes, when you pay by cash, there's a mixup and you aren't sure a month later if the debt was taken care of. If you aren't going the check-paying way, how about dropping by to see us and find out how simple and efficient it is?

Councilmen Order Compulsory Trash Pickup

By JIM LINCOLN

Compulsory garbage and trash pickup in Tecumser was approved by Council Monday night for all residents inside the city limits.

Only business and commercial establishments are exempt from the ruling, which includes refuse pickup in paper sacks only.

Council's surprise decision scraps a six-month test of paper sacks, authorized by city officials on June 20. The experiment lasted about two months.

If compulsory paper sack pickup starts Jan 1. — date the officials are shooting for — all residents will be charged $15 for 50 paper sacks, 30-gallon size. A wall holder for the sacks will be given each home.

City Manager Cal Zorn told Council that 11 surveys from the Seminole St. experimental area were returned, with seven residents approving the sacks, four against.

He also said that one resident favoring the sacks was on a conditional basis.

Actually, several residents on the street favored the paper sacks, but on a conditional or qualified basis — will the sacks be bigger, cost less, etc.

Under the new ruling, residents using two or more sacks will pay more than for two mental cans. Some Seminole residents, according to the surveys, could pay as much as 300% more.

Residents who use only one sack or less a week will pay less than the present rate for one metal can.

Long and Short

By TOM RIORDAN

When you drive into Kerrville, Texas, along T-87 from San Antonio, one of the first things noteworthy is the Schreiner airport.

Next, it's the Schreiner boys' military academy, followed in the heart of town by the Schreiner Bank and the Schreiner department store.

So when it comes to cattle and sheep ranching in the Hill Country, the spot that ranks among the finest has to be Charlie Schreiner's YO spread.

It's a 40-mile drive there. Turning in from Highway 41, you rumble over a one-lane roadway and start looking for some buildings.

A tiny sign appears: "Ranch, eight miles."

That's the way things are in Texas. Distance is tremendous by our standards.

When we pulled up to the house, I shook hands with the smiling Mr. Schreiner and asked, "How many acres do you have, Charlie?"

"About 100,000," he grinned.

His grandfather founded the YO, his dad took over and now Charlie has the responsibility — along with half a dozen other business ventures.

His ranch gang numbers about 18 men, including an expert in cattle and sheep — like most modern business ventures, ranching is done scientifically — and a game warden.

A game warden?

Yep, that's right. Hunting has gotten to be a real enterprise at large ranches like the YO.

OVER THE years, an incredible lineup of foreign animals have been imported and they're thriving on the Texas climate.

There are Fallow Deer from the Mediterranean region of southern Europe, Blackbuck Antelope from West Pakistan and India, Aoudads from North Africa, Wild Corsican Rams from Sardinia and Corsica, Elands from Central and South Africa, Oryx from Eastern Africa and Sika Deer from Japan.

Hunters come from all over the States to the YO to bag this exotic game. The fun is offered on a year-around basis "with no special permit needed, just a hunting license." (Available at the ranch.)

"Ladies and youngsters are always welcome. Our guides are experienced in taking them hunting," notes the brochure prepared by Mr. Schreiner.

"The Ranch, an important producer of sheep and goats, wool and mohair since 1880, also is the home of hundreds of Texas Longhorns, the first such herd ever registered in the world.

"The Ranch has an all-weather, caliche airstrip of 2,200 feet," it adds.

The YO offers an interesting program "no deer — no pay." If you don't bag your game, your stay is at no charge.

Charlie's next-door neighbor, Tuffy Cowden, whose house is about 10 miles from Schreiner's home, drove us around the YO.

We were out about an hour and covered a small percentage of the place, all rock strewn, with cactus, scrubby trees and

Three-into-One School Merger Proposal Goes Before Area Voters on Tuesday

By JUDY FIELDER

Keep three present school systems as they are now or unite into a single large one — That is the decision area voters will make next Tuesday.

If the proposed K-12 merger is turned down by Tecumseh, Clinton and Britton-Macon voters, the schools will remain as they are, with three separate administrations.

If approved, all the schools will be revamped, bringing an election of a new school board and appointment of a single administrative head.

The K-12 — short for kindergarten through 12th grade — reorganization plan offered to the school system is the culmination of nearly two years of study by a county board, established as a result of the new Michigan Constitution.

A county K-12 committee was set up to provide the student with a single district in which to advance through his secondary school years.

A larger school system, with at least 2,000 students, was a second requirement, in order to provide a well-rounded curriculum for the students.

Whether the K-12 proposal passes this time or not, most educators feel the larger schools will come eventually.

The proposed Northeast district of Tecumseh, Clinton and Britton-Macon would contain nearly 5,000 students and have a property valuation of $56,872,000.

Most schools face the problem of not being able to offer a diverse range of courses. Clinton and Tecumseh High Schools, currently offering 50 and 60 courses respectively, are not as starved for variation as Britton-Macon, with only 32.

Some teachers are instructing classes for which they are not specifically trained, or, have to double up on subjects.

Each district must have a separate building and maintenance program and teacher, turnover is high, often because salaries are not equal to larger schools.

IF THE schools merge, the three financial structures would be equalized, and the costs administration should increase efficiency.

Transportation for the students would be more complicated because the district would cover 288 square miles, a total of about eight townships.

Advantages of the merger, according to the K-12 committee:

- ► Better utilization of existing facilities, for example — a single large industrial arts program, with more specialization.
- ► Ability grouping and more individual attention for students.
- ► Superior teachers, who would instruct in only their major fields of preparation.
- ► More even distribution of administrative supervisory personnel with greater attention to curriculum for all children.

FEARS OF the merger expressed within the present school systems are:

- ► Loss if identity with community.
- ► No definite cost statements.
- ► Differences between communities.
- ► Limited leadership opportunities.
- ► Transportation problems.
- ► Failure to accept the necessity of quality education in changing world.

All eligible voters can participate.

213 Pints of Blood Donated

A new blood donor record was set Tuesday when 213 pints of blood were collected in what proved to be the most successful drive ever held in the area.

An additional 28 persons were rejected, making a total of 241 volunteers, reported the drive's co-chairmen, Dr. Robert Murray of Tecumseh and Lester Proctor of Clinton.

Tecumseh, along with the rest of Lenawee County, had been placed on probation when it repeatedly failed to reach the desired quota and may still have to appear before the Regional Blood Committee to show why it should not be dropped.

Next week's Herald will carry a complete list of all donors.

Idea Hits Snag

A proposal to apply for a license to operate a sanitary landfill dump, or a solid waste disposal area, hit a snag at Council Monday night.

With a county health department engineer urging the city to apply, and by doubts raised by James Beardsley, city attorney, Councilmen were in a quandry as what to do.

Mrs. Beardsley suggested to Council that it table the proposal to the next meeting, giving him time to investigate the city's legal position.

State health authorities have passed a law requiring communities to have a license for their dumps.

Councilman Dr. Carlton Cook stated the present dump presents health hazards, although admitted that the smoke danger is a little "fuzzy."

Tecumseh's attorney questioned the existence of health hazard, and estimated city expenses for developing and maintaining a sanitary landfill at hundreds of thousands of dollars.

He explained that if a health hazard did exist, however, that the city's legal position would be poor.

Dr. Cook moved that the city apply for a license, and it was turned down by a 4-3 vote. Paul Burns, George McCombs, Lawrence Mohr and Ray Puffer voted against it, with Dr. Cook, Mayor Harold Easton and Don Sunderland standing for it.

ACCORDING TO City Manager Cal Zorn, Tecumseh now spends approximately $850 a month to operate a modified landfill, which means periodic—not daily — covering of refuse.

Michigan's new law requires daily covering of refuse.

Possibility of the townships, who use the local dump, to pay more of the expense was discussed, plus arrangements with the townships allowing the city to established a sanitary landfill outside Tecumseh.

Ice Cream Social and Street Dance To Be in Norvell

The community of Norvell, north of Manchester, will sponsor a Benefit Ice Cream Social and Street Dance Sept. 24 with all proceeds going to a new recreation area for Little League players.

Four acres of farm land have been donated by Mr. and Mrs. John Ahrens to be used as the Ahrens Memorial Park in honor of their son, Tom, who was killed in a farm mishap.

Overage Going for City Park

The Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation was created in 1959 to serve a dual purpose. Primarily, it is an economical way to raise money for local, state and national charities civic and youth groups.

In addition, the Foundation supports civic improvements directing all surplus funds collected to community development projects.

Through overages in years past, citizens have provided the Tecumseh Public Library at a cost of $212,363.15. Building was financed and paid for without tax funds, through the Foundation, over a four-year period.

Two years ago the Foundation purchased the 22-acre Pit property for development into a community park. So far $13,000 of the $35,000 purchase price has been paid. Overages from this and succeeding years' campaigns will be used to pay off the balance.

Plans for development include improved fencing, roadways, parking facilities, bath house, construction of a band shell for summer concerts, tennis courts, ball diamonds and picnic shelters. (See plan shown in special supplement with this week's paper.)

When final payment has been made the Pit will be deeded to the city.

Also the lamp of knowledge. Mrs. Dale Jacobs was unable to locate a student with the initials JKP who graduated in 1963 here, but said it could belong to someone who purchased the ring in his sophomore year and perhaps didn't finish at school. Maybe they did in service. Any ideas?

A visiting school bus at Friday night's football game almost did a loop off from the narrow dirt drive from Evans St. to the parking lot. Apparently the city and the Board of Education can't decide whose responsibility it is to widen and level this drive.

told Councilmen that he needed a decision now on what Tecumseh plans to do about refuse collection.

The company, according to Mr. Berry, is running tests in several cities and its offer to provide free wall mounts for paper sacks in the test cities would probably be withdrawn before Council's next meeting, Oct. 3.

St. Regis' offer to provide Tecumseh with free wall mounts for the sacks was based on 100% of the residents, or about 1,800.

If a resident desires a floor mount, type used in the experiment, he will have to pay $9.50 — more if he wants an animal guard for around the sack.

Mr. Zorn says residents still may use the dump. However, they'll still be billed $15 a year, whether they use the refuse collection service of Dependable Garbage of Napoleon.

Councilman Ray Puffer, who has frequently questioned the regularity and reliability of refuse collection in town, was the only councilman who voted against the compulsory, paper sack proposition.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Honeck of Napoleon, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Perry, 714 River Acres Drive.

Floor baskets of gladioli and asters outlined the chancel entrance and ferns formed the background at the altar. Candelabra marked the aisle pews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of white silk organza and taffeta designed by "Portrait of New York" with high rise bodice appliqued in Alencon lace and tiny seed pearls, fashioned with a scoop neckline, Kubuki sleeves and an "A" line skirt with full watteau train.

They wore street-length gowns of blue crepe and matching headpieces and shoes.

The headpieces were made by the groom. The four attendants formed a floral arch of their crescent arrangements of pink orchids and palms for the bride and her father.

Tracy Honeck, niece of the bride, served as the flower girl.

John Murray, cousin of the groom of Toledo, Ohio, served as best man and 250 guests were seated by Wendall Holman, Thomas Honeck, brother of the bride, Chris Jackson of Sylvania, Ohio, Gerald Brey of Toledo, and the groomsmen, Robert Taylor, and Michael Myers of Sylvania, Master Kevin Lowery of Selma, Ala., nephew of the groom, served as ring bearer.

Players Holding Tryouts for First Show of Year

By LORI EGLI

Get ready . . . get set . . . go! That is, go to the tryouts for the first Tecumseh Players' production of the season, "Everybody Loves Opal."

This is a Broadway play, written by John Patrick, that has been highly successful as a little theatre production.

The plot concerns Opal, a friendly junk dealer who lives with her cat, Mr. Tanner, at the edge of the municipal dump.

She is visited by a couple of confidence men and their female accomplice who want to use Opal's place as a hide-out, a front for their racket.

During their stay they stumble upon the "brilliant" idea of insuring Opal for a large sum of money and then they make three attempts to kill her in order to collect on the policy.

This is not a murder mystery, but a delightfully different comedy.

INCLUDED IN the cast besides Opal, a naive, middle-aged woman, is Gloria, the brash young girl who is one-third of the confidence ring, Bradford, who is the handsome, intelligent brains of the group, and Solomon, who is just the opposite of Bradford — in looks and character.

There is also a police officer, who is a friend of Opal's, and [illegible] tor.

Try-outs will be held in the Glass Room of the Tecumseh Com[illegible]ester Friday at 8 p.m. and Sunday at 2 p.m.

Anyone interested in little theatre, with or without experience, is invited.

Vivian Attends Growth Discussion

Congressman Weston E. Vivian, of the Second District-Michigan, was one of several senators and congressmen participating in a "Conference on Population Problems and Public Policy" held at Notre Dame University in Indiana Sept. 16.

The purpose of the conference, according to George N. Shuster, assistant to the president of the University, was to discuss "divergent ethical and other views about actions to be taken on the basis of . . . the present state of biological and demographic knowledge" on population growth throughout the world.

Homeless Kids In Vicious Circle

By CAROL HOWELL

ONE IN SERIES

Last year in Lenawee County the Michigan Children's Aid Society conducted eight adoptive home studies.

It also completed and supervised 11 adoptive home placements, assisted 21 unmarried mothers and maintained 14 children in foster care at a net cost of $2,659.89.

As the MCAS assumes responsibility for more and more neglected and battered children, as it undertakes to help more and more unwed mothers who decide to place their children for adoption, its staff has less and less time for finding homes for them.

Children have to be held longer in costly temporary boarding care. As more staff time goes toward arranging final adoptions, appreciable effect for some years. In the meantime, MCAS needs increased public support in its struggle to get past the critical period.

The Michigan Children's Aid Society, new to the roster this year, is a worthy addition to the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation.

It's a vicious, ever-tightening circle.

As today's young people marry and settle down, many will want to adopt babies. As they begin to provide an increasing number of acceptable adoptive homes, the situation will begin to rebalance itself.

But this trend won't have an

Frosh 11 Wins Big

Three touchdowns by Ken Pieh and Bob Reed's strong passing sparked the Tecumseh Freshman team to a 34-6 victory over Jackson Northwest Monday.

Pieh scored twice in the first quarter, once on a 12-yard slant off tackle, the other after taking a pitchout and 25-yard sprint around left end.

A quarterback sneak by Reed clinched the first extra point, while Steve Tilton made the second.

In the second quarter, Tecumseh scored on a 30-yard pass from Reed to Paul Burns. Reed added the extra point.

Pieh, in a 40-yard run on a pitchout, opened the gap further in the third quarter.

Final score of the game was made by Bruce Costigan on a pass from Reed. Tilton sneaked the extra point.

Tilton was a defensive standout, along with Jack Greifield and Jack Baker, while fine blocking jobs were turned out by Burns, Bill Gibson and Bob Hackett.
